WHITSON 2132; COOPER 2111

Liberals Win Vermilion Seat On Third Count

Russell Whitson, Liberal candidate, was declared the winner of the Vermilion constituency seat, following second and third counts carried out by Returning Officer Ralph Wagner at Mannville on Wednesday. The result of the counts gave Whitson 2132 votes, a majority of 21 over the Social Credit candidate Cooper, whose total was 2111.

First choice votes gave Cooper a 284 majority. The vote in brief was:

	1st Count	2nd & 3rd Counts
Cooper, SC	2020	2111
Whitson, Lib	1736	2132
Meronyk, CCF	677
Hocaluk, LPP	307

"AGIN" THE GOVERNMENT

In the distribution, the CCF and Labor-Progressives were decidedly against the Government, and swung second and third choice votes very strongly in favor of the Liberal party as advocated by top flight Liberal and CCF party men in Edmonton. The trend against the Government on the ballots of the eliminated Labor-Progressive and CCF candidates Hocaluk and Meronyk demonstrated this as many were marked with three choices with the Government candidate being left out.

WHITSON 396, COOPER 91

Whitson picked up 396 of the CCF and Labor-Progressive vote, with Cooper adding only 91 second and third choices.

For the first time in its history the Vermilion constituency will not have a voice on the government side of the Alberta legislature.

INCREASE IN VOTES CAST

The election just past is claimed to have been the most active and bitter on the top flight level since Social Credit swept to power in 1935, although in 1940 which saw the birth of the short-lived Independent movement, a violent campaign was waged. The following three elections, 1944, 1948 and 1952 were comparatively quiet ones with Social Credit retrieving their large majority of members each time. The 1955 election, called one year earlier than usual, was short, intense, and among the party leaders at least, was very bitter. This was not in evidence on the rural constituency level. Major opposition parties combined their powers to attempt to oust the Social Credit government and succeeded in substantially reducing their majority. In several cases coalition candidates were supported, while in others the plan of using the transferable vote to defeat Social Credit candidates on second counts bore fruit. Practically every case where second counts were necessary the Social Credit candidate, although leading the field on first choices, was defeated with 2nd and 3rd choices, as in Vermilion constituency.

Unique Ceremony At Holy Name Church

Last Sunday, July 3rd, the Holy Name Roman Catholic church witnessed a most impressive ceremony which brought together many friends of the Goutier family. A young man of the Woodvale district, Fr. Maurice Goutier, was raised to the holy priesthood by His Excellency Bishop Henri Routhier, O.M.I., Vicar Apostolic of Grouard.

This ceremony was particularly remarkable in that it was the first Ordination to ever take place in Vermilion.

There were over 400 people in attendance, some of them from distant points such as Red Deer, Edmonton, Vegreville, Bonnyville, and Delmas, Saskatchewan.

This occasion was the first time the Goutier family had been fully re-united in many years. Some of the Goutiers have resided in the Woodvale district for 45 years.

After the mass, the Catholic Women' League served a magnificent banquet to some 75 friends and relatives in honor of Fr. Maurice Goutier. Among the special guests were the Mayor of Vermilion, Mr. Melvin Hill, and Mrs. Hill; Mr. Ashley H. Cooper, editor of the Vermilion Standard.

Rev. Fr. C. Landigran, in the name of the parish congratulated the new priest, and thanked Monseignor Routhier for the honor of his presence at this ceremony. Mr. Hill expressed in very appropriate terms the grandeur of the priesthood and wished Fr. Goutier many years of fruitful labor among the people to whom he would be sent.

His Excellency, Bishop Routhier, then spoke, both in French and English, adding his congratulations to the new priest and his family by expressing his wish that many others would follow the footsteps of this young man.

Father Goutier spoke in reply, thanking all those who had helped in some way or another to make it possible for him to become a priest of Jesus Christ and an Oblate of Mary Immaculate.

The banquet program was terminated by singing "God Save the Queen."

Ladies Invited To Farm Women's Week

A special invitation is being extended this summer to ladies of the town and district to attend any or all of the items on the programme for Farm Women's Week which will be held at the School of Agriculture, July 18th to 21st.

Farm Women's Week has long been established as one of the most popular events on the summer programmes at the Schools of Agriculture. The registration generally includes ladies from widely scattered districts of the province. Many of the ladies attend as representatives of rural organizations of which the Women's Institute is one of the most prominent. Others have established a rather considerable record of continuous attendance year after year and look upon Farm Women's Week as an excellent annual holiday and refresher course.

Frequently parents of prospective students for the regular winter courses attend Farm Women's Week to gain full information about the nature of the courses offered and the general conduct of the School.

In addition to those who stay in residence at the School for the full duration of the programme a considerable number of individuals and groups of ladies have formed the practice of coming to the sessions for just one day, an afternoon, or an evening when special topics on the programme are of particular interst to them. Such visitors are very welcome and may, if they wish, by making reservations in advance, obtain luncheon or evening meals in the spacious School dining room.

Items which may be of special interest to local ladies include the following:

Monday, July 18th, 7:30 p.m.—An illustrated lecture and display of handicrafts by Miss Helen Moseson who has recently returned from a visit to Sweden.

Tuesday, July 19th, 1:45 p.m. — "New Fabrics for Dress and Home" by Miss Lila Engberg.

Wednesday, July 20th, 3:30 p.m.— "Choosing Chinaware" by Mr. F. N. Crowther, Manager, China Dept., Hudson's Bay Company.

Wednesday Evening—"Your Feet" by Dr. W. E. Gladstone, Edmonton, President of the Alberta Chiropody Association.

Husbands of the ladies are specially invited to attend the Thursday afternoon programme during which time they will be shown around the School Farm and will be given a lecture-demonstration by Mr. J. A. Palin on "Modern Trends in Farm Machinery." During this same period the ladies' programme will feature a lecture-demonstration on "Choosing and Using Electrical Equipment."

The programme will close with a banquet on Thursday evening at which Mr. F. H. Newcombe will speak on the subject, "Farming by Blueprint."

Clandonald Pastor For Frog Lake Mission Field

It has been announced that the Parish of the Holy Innocents, otherwise known as the Frog Lake Anglican Mission, is to have a resident priest. The new incumbent is the Rev. Ray Clennett, presently pastor at Clandonald. The Rev. and Mrs. Clennett will move later this month.

The rectory into which they will go will have none of the modern facilities which ease domestic chores.

The Frog Lake Mission has never had a resident priest. For many years most of the pastoral work has been carried on by Mr. Hunt, the Principal of the Anglican school. Sacraments have been administered from time to time by members of Vermilion Deanery Chapter. Mr. Clennett having taken much of the work on his own shoulders in recent months. The highlight of Church life at the Mission has been one of the Diocese's best, most joyful traditions. Each Christmas the Bishop of the Diocese is on hand for Christmas festivities, and gifts from many parishes have been distributed to the children at this time. It is because of this that the Parish has been named after the Holy Innocents.

Air Cadets Leave For Courses

The ranks of the Vermilion Air Cadets were thinned on Sunday, when quite a number departed for Edmonton to take summer courses.

Taking their second year at the RCAF camp in Edmonton are Victor Kuzek, Gerry Marshall, Don Raun and Eddie Frissell.

Quite a number of other air cadets are taking their first year at the Edmonton RCAF station, but the Standard has not a list of the names of those attending.

Kinmen Wading Pool Now Operating For Youngsters

Miss Hazel Barr will be supervisor in charge of activities at the wading pool provided by the Kinsmen of Vermilion. The pool was opened for the season on Monday of this week, July 4th. It is planned to have it open six days a week when weather permits.

Besides the pool itself Kinsmen have provided playground equipment for the amusement of the younger children. Some of the equipment is one see-saw, teeter-totter type swing; two ordinary type swings; a slide; and two sand boxes.

Around the pool there has been an extensive amount of grass sown. It has been arranged that the pool water will be changed each day, and that the pool itself will be cleaned daily.

Hazel is also considering the formation of hobby classes if enough children appear interested in such activities.

Help support the Kinsmen's efforts to support the playground and pool! You can do this by buying Vermilion plates for your car. Also there will be tickets sold at the Fair for the Kinsmen car raffle.

Robinson Farm Is Scene of 4-H Clubs Demonstration

On Tuesday, July 5, there was a joint meeting of the Vermilion and Mannville 4-H Beef clubs. This meeting was held at the farm of W. L. Robinson. Mr. Robinson's cattle were used for demonstrational and judging purposes.

To open the meeting Mr. E. H. Buckingham, the District Agriculturist, gave a brief review on the parts and qualities of a good beef animal. Following Mr. Buckingham's talk four Shorthorn heifers were judged by the members. Mr. Bruce Jeffery, Assistant D.A., Mr. Buckingham, Mr. Jack Cross the club leader, Mr. Manson Barr and Mr. Robinson then suggested the way that they would judge the cattle. Following the judging Mr. Jeffery demonstrated how to curl a calf and prepare it for the show. Pointers were given by Mr. Robinson, Mr. N. N. Bentley, Mr. Cross and Bruce McDonald, Mannville, on how to show a calf in the ring.

Mr. and Mrs. John Craig Celebrate Golden Wedding

Prince Albert was the scene of a large gathering of family and friends when Mr. and Mrs. J. A. M. Craig celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary on Wednesday, June 29th.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig were married in Olds, Alberta, fifty years ago. It was noted during toasts made to the couple that they had lived the fifty years in Alberta and Saskatchewan both of which are celebrating their Jubilee years. Also the Craigs were commemorating the Jubilee year of the start of the family business, Craig Bros. Ltd., which was founded in 1905 in Vermilion by Mr. J.A.M. Craig and his brother Mr. W. C. (Chum) Craig, and which has since grown to a chain of stores with businesses in Prince Albert and North Battleford as well.

For the immediate family there was a luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mooney in Prince Albert. Mrs. Mooney is the second daughter of the Craigs. It was at this family gathering that the presentations were made to the happy couple., and also there was a gift of two plaques, one to each of the brothers whose business is celebrating its Jubilee year.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig received their family and friends at their home in Prince Albert during the afternoon and evening. Much to the delight of the assembled guests, Mrs. Craig appeared in her wedding dress at precisely 5:00 o'clock in remembrance of the hour of her wedding fifty years ago.

During the reception there were 200 guests to do honor to the bride and groom. Among them were their sons and daughters and families including Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stewart and family of Vermilion; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mooney and family of Prince Albert; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Craig and family of North Battleford, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Craig and family of Prince Albert.

The guests were registered by three grandsons, Master John Craig, Prince Albert; Donald Stewart, Vermilion; Robert Craig North Battleford.

Four granddaughters assisted in the tearoom, Misses Dorothy Jean Stewart and Anne Stewart, both of Vermilion; Sandra Mooney, Prince Albert and Helen Craig of North Battleford.

The Craigs lived in Vermilion from 1905 until 1935, and during that time made a great many friends in this community. Both were active in community affairs, lending their help wherever needed in church, town, school and organizational affairs. As well as giving assistance in a public-spirited manner Mr. and Mrs. Craig will be remembered for their kindly help in individual cases of need.

The Vermilion community wishes them well, and many more years of happiness.

Parade, Circus and Fireworks Major Attractions At The Fair

Plans are rapidly developing for the Fiftieth Anniversary Exhibition, which will swing into action on July 28th and carry on for three of the biggest days in Vermilion's history; over 125 Old Timers of the district have applied for Senior Citizen Scrolls and these will be presented on the first day of the Fair, immediately following the Grand Parade.

ENTER THE PARADE

All business firms and organizations are cordialy invited to prepare and enter floats and to decorate their cars for the parade; F.U.A. groups and 4H club groups throughout the area are urged to take part and make the parade a real district event. Children will have an opportunity to decorate their bicycles and to enter as comics, etc. Everyone is needed to make this the biggest parade in Northeastern Alberta.

SUPER ATTRACTIONS

The reports from Lethbridge and Moose Jaw on the grandstand attractions are excellent; the Irving Grossman agency of Des Moines, Iowa, is staging the anniversary attractions and the Jubilee Year is the theme of the acts with beautiful costumes and plenty of thrills and comedy.

ENTRIES ARE HEAVY

Entries of livestock and other work appear heavier than usual, while entries in the School Fair are coming from a wide area and it is certain that a fine display will be available in this section. Ladies throughout the district are invited to show cooking, sewing and handicraft, and prize lists are available at the office of the Secretary.

FIREWORKS THIS YEAR

Fireworks programmes will be held each evening with the grand finale on Saturday night following the Square Dance Jamboree, at which some 100 squares are expected to take part.

ADVANCE TICKETS

Everything possible is being done to make the Fiftieth Fair the Best Fair, and the public is advised that Advance Tickets are on sale at 5 for $1.00; these are good for both gate and grandstand and as the supply is limited you are urged to buy yours early. There is no fair in Western Canada that provides the excellent programmes at such low cost as is available at Vermilion Fair and it is hoped that everyone will take advantage of the opportunity to secure high class entertainment at nominal cost. At most fairs the gate charge is a straight fifty to seventy-five cents and grandstand prices range from 75c to $1.25, while at Vermilion exactly the same show is available at 20c for gate admission and 60c for grandstand admission for an adult through the use of the advance tickets. The Vermilion Agricultural Society has no particular desire to make money other than sufficient to maintain what is considered the best plant in the West, and to provide reserves against the possibility of a three-day rain, hence the interest in providing the highest class exhibition at the lowest possible cost to the public.

Vermilion's 1955 Fair is YOUR Fair; you are invited to support it in every possible way.

Wins V.S.A. Course

MANNVILLE. — The efficiency winner of the 4-H Clothing club is Miss Gwen Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Thompson, and she will be eligible to attend Award week at the Vermilion School of Agriculture from July 11 to 16. Canon T. W. Teape Appointed 'Diocesan Commissioner'

The executive committee has announced that the diocese is soon to have a "Diocesan Commissioner" in the well known person of the Rev. Canon T. W. Teape. He will take over his duties on the first of September.

The appointment came as a result of the meeting of Synod early this year, which asked that such an office be created for the assistance of parochial canvasses and visitations. For the first time, the diocese of Edmonton now has a full time organizer in this field. Other diocese already have similar offices. Whatever else the job may involve, it will certainly be concerned with the "Everymember Canvass and Visitation" and the task of making it a diocesan-wide event.

Canon Teape's appointment, effective on the first of September, brings to a close a three-year ministry at St. Peter's church, Edmonton. Before that, he was rector of St. Saviour's Vermilion, for five years and prior to that served in the Coal Branch for four years. Further experience in the rural ministry was gained at Tofield and Westlock, and in the six years when he was stationed at Kitscoty.

What About Ulcers?

Even though an ancient physician described ulcer of the stomach almost two thousand years ago, this disabling condition is particularly associated with the fast pace of modern life. About 10 per cent of all Americans develop an ulcer some time during their life. The disease is actually an eroded crater in the lining of the stomach or its exit passage, the duodenum. The crater is created by over-production of potent digestive acids.

Fortunately, medical scientists are finding new ways of helping ulcer victims overcome this painful, sometimes fatal, gastric ailment. If you have an ulcer, luckily, you'll have pain. This is nature's warning. The pain is usually localized right under the ribs and occurs in bouts of fifteen minutes to an hour's duration.

Unchecked, the gastric acids, which have penetrated the membrane lining of the stomach, will eat their way right on through the rest of the muscular tissue, sometimes causing a dangerous hemorrhage or a dumping of the stomach's contents into the abdominal cavity and so bringing on peritonitis.

We know that highly seasoned foods, smoking and other indulgences can help cause peptic ulcer, but the mind is evidently just as important. Persistent worrying over business or personal affairs plays an important role too.

What can be done for ulcer sufferers? Physicians know that diet is very important, that snacks between meals put something between the stomach and the potent acids it secretes. Surgeons have tried cutting certain nerves which stimulate acid production, and drugs have been developed which inhibit these nerves.

None of these techniques, however, completely shuts off the destructive effects of acid, and the stand-by of the ulcer sufferer is still the antacid. The most commonly used antacid is bicarbonate of soda, which acts to take the bite out of stomach acids by neutralizing them to form harmless compounds. A more effective substance is Gelusil, which combines two acid-neutralizing substances, aluminum hydroxide and magnesium trisilicate. Such a drug combines with the acid and also physically coats the ulcer crater to protect it from further erosion.

One of the newest methods of ulcer medication is the use of the anti-secretory drugs, which inhibit over-secretion of gastric juices. Another line of attack on ulcers is the use of sedatives such as phenobarbital to cut down anxiety and nervous tension. If all these measures fail, the physician may recommend surgery, particularly if the trouble is located in certain areas of the stomach. Under surgery, all or part of the stomach may be removed or a new exit from the stomach to the intestine may be formed by the surgeon.

Most doctors agree that the ulcer patient can do a great deal to help himself live with his essentially incurable condition. He can watch his diet, trying to avoid irritating foods and [illegible]. He can also try to avoid nervous stimulation and emotional crises. New medical techniques, in the long run, can only help the ulcer patient to help himself.

Hereford Field Day At Cross Farm

Mr. Don Clayton, the farm program director for CJCA, was the guest speaker at the Northern Alberta Hereford Club's field day at the farm of Jack Cross. Mr. Clayton told of his trip to the British Isles, and because of the special interest of his listeners in beef cattle, he described in detail his experiences in visiting some of the beef cattle farms in Britain. In closing he mentioned that he would speak to the weather man about rain for the Vermilion area. Perhaps that accounted for the excellent rainfall in this area recently.

There were about 350 people present at the program at the farm, and previous to that, some 20 cars went on tour visiting the Ilchuk, Simonet and Campbell farms.

In the absence of Mr. S. Fenton, Mr. Jack Cross gave a demonstration. Mr. D. A. Andrew, formerly of the staff of the agricultural school in Vermilion spoke on the advantages of raising Herefords. Mr. Andew is secretary of the Hereford Association of Alberta.

A very quiet but attractive, wedding was solemnized at Knox Presbyterian church, Lloydminster, on Monday, July 4 at 2:30p.m. The Rev. Wilson officiated. Stella Patricia, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Thompson of Dewberry, became the bride of Malcom Everett Roy, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fisk of Vermilion.

The bride was attended by Mrs. June Jones and Mr. Stanley Jones was the best man.

After the ceremony the bride and groom and their guests motored out to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous dinner was served.

The bride's uncle, Mr. George Fluney, gave a toast to the bride. The groom spoke in response.

Later in the evening the happy couple left for a short honeymoon. On their return they will reside in Vermilion.

BOWTELL BULLETIN

The district was deeply grieved to learn Saturday, June 25, of the sudden passing of a dear friend and neighbor, Mrs. M. Robinson, better known to us all as "Granny". She had been in poor health for some time, nevertheless, her death came as a great shock. She resigned from teaching in the Tulliby Lake district just two months before her death. Our heartfelt sympathy goes to the family in their sorrow. She will long be remembered for her many acts of kindness and for all her good work. It can be truly said, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, take now thy rest".

Mrs. Knutson and Maybelle leave from Wainwright July 8 for a trip to England. It is nearly 45 years since Mrs. Knutson last saw her brother there. We hope you have a good trip folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Scott.

Miss C. Morrison is home for a month's vacation from the U.S.

Despite heavy roads some 16 attended Pleasant Valley church on Sunday. Please note there will be a meeting July 13 at the Sherwood home at 8:00 o'clock to discuss the tidying up of the cemetery and other business. Anyone interested please plan to attend. All are welcome.

Leslie Sherwood, Allan Coutts and Frank Robinson dug out a coyote den recently, thus getting rid of four pups.

Visitors at ye writer's home Monday were Jack Coward of Easyford and Ken Risdale of Rochester.

Congratulations and all good wishes go to Roland Ronaghan, better known to us as 'Bud' who was married July 2nd at Red Deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid of Big Valley spent the week end visiting their son Ken and family.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Playne and Larry and Mrs. N. Ronaghan visited recently at the Jones' home.

An educational oil exhibit under the auspices of Imperial Oil Ltd., illustrating the various techniques used in hunting for and producing oil was opened officially Monday by Hon. A. O. Aalborg, minister of education, in the Macdonald hotel, Edmonton. The exhibit is open to the general public each day from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. "The display is of particular interest to teachers and students," Mr. Aalborg remarked. The above photo shows a group of visitors inspecting the animated seismograph panel.

Rotary Club Has Garden Party

The lawns and gardens at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Robson provided an especially beautiful setting for a garden party given by the Rotarians on Sunday, July 3.

The arrangements were made by Dr. Ben King and Mr. and Mrs. Robson, and the club members invited their wives as guests. In spite of threatening weather during the early part of the day, the rain ceased in time for the guests to assemble at 6:30.

The unobstructed view of the Vermilion park and lake which is obtained from the well kept grounds of the Robson home makes a beauty spot there that would be hard to excel anywhere.

A buffet supper was attractively arranged on a table on the lawn. Here the guests were encouraged to make up turkey sandwiches to their own design. After supper Ben King led the group in an out-door sing-song, and, encouraged by his willing listeners, sang some solos.

After watching a beautifully colored sunset from the vantage point on the hill over the lake, the guests reluctantly departed.

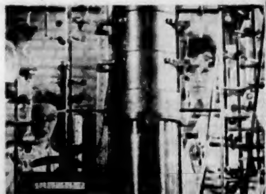
Canadian Cancer Research

For more than 3,000 years cancer has been known as a destroyer of human lives. Studied without success as early as 400 B.C. by the ancient Greek physician Hippocrates, the malignant cancer cell is now the primary target in man's struggle against disease. The answer to why certain cells should suddenly reproduce themselves at the expense of the body has led modern researchers into genetics, biology and chemistry. They've studied the reaction of cells to stimulation, grown cancer experimentally in animals, and analysed the very air we breathe.

Today's cancer problem is like a giant jigsaw puzzle. Science has some of the pieces; others are missing. To fill the gaps, scientists around the world are pooling information to arrive at a better understanding of the disease's nature that may someday lead to a cure. Until that day, early treatment and improved aids like the cobalt beam therapy unit, radioactive isotopes and new surgical techniques give the cancer patient more reason for hope than he has ever had in the past.

Mouse-eye view of scientist is obtained by test animals in cage. Mouse at upper right is partially paralyzed by implant of carcinogenic (cancer producing) substance; mouse held by scientist has been cured of cancer by injection of serum in flask.

Injecting cancer culture into yolk sac of a fertile egg, for the study of cancer growth. Industrial development brings with it agents capable of producing lung cancer - - soot, waste products of oil industry, waste from processing of certain metals.



Equipment for the production of the radioactive isotope, Carbon 14, used as a "tracer" for locating cancer in the human body. Radioactivated discs of cobalt, housed in the Atomic Energy of Canada Ltd.'s beam therapy unit, have supplanted radium in cancer treatment.

Metabolic study of gases given off by mice is made by technician at Toronto's Banting Institute. Surgery, oldest and most widely-used method of treating cancer, has been greatly aided by development of antibiotics, improved pre- and post-operative care.

Talented United Church Girls' Choir

—SHOWN ABOVE is the United Church Girls' choir which rendered such an enjoyable concert at the United church recently. The choir is organized and directed by Mr. Jack Brown absolutely gratis. The girls remain in the choir until 16 years of age and then move into the Senior United Church choir. This makes openings for other girls in the age bracket.

The concert was given in the United church and was comprised of choruses, quartets, trios, duets and solos. The variety of the numbers and the excellence of the renditions was remarkable and drew much favorable comment from all present.

Following the concert the members of the girls' choir served refreshments in the church hall at which the parents were guests. During the course of the evening complimentary remarks on behalf of the church were expressed by the Rev. C. W. MacKay, and on behalf of the parents by Mr. Ashley Cooper. Mr. Cooper felt that Mr. Brown was giving the girls a training in choral work which they would not have obtained had he not given freely of his time and talent to train them. As a result the girls now had a fine grounding and a love for music, thanks to Mr. Brown.

Gideons Picnic At Moose Lake

The Vermilion-Lloydminster Camp of Gideons celebrated Dominion Day with a picnic at the Gospel camp on the north shore of Moose Lake.

A pick up game of fastball was played to start the program of events. Races were held for the children. There were boat rides, fishing and swimming for the picnickers to enjoy.

Supper was eaten in the lunch room of the camp. After supper a Gideon service was held. Those present were the pastors and congregations of the churches north of the Saskatchewan River, who had worked with the Gideons in that area.

This Camp of Gideons has been very active during the past year. They have held 37 church services throughout the accessible parts of the Vermilion-Lloydminster area.

Pleasant Valley News

The rains came at last — so have the weeds in the garden. However, the fields certainly look much better. The late sown grain had not started to grow.

There were quite a number from the surrounding districts attending the field day at the farm home of Jack Cross. It was very hot that day but everyone enjoyed the program. The supper was really grand, such a nice way to serve a big crowd. Saves a lot of dishwashing doesn't it ladies?

The Allandale ladies are the best cooks in Northern Alberta! What man can deny this after tasting the grand salads and cakes? Did the writer start something? Hope not.

Hello Chatsworth. So glad you have found paper and pen again! It's a long time with no news.

Also Deer Lake — what happened to you? Not enough activity in your district?

Many were very disappointed on Tuesday after journeying out to Sandy Beach to see the boat races only to learn they had been postponed. However we ate dinner in a beautiful spot and then drove to Greenlawn picnic. We saw some lovely country and nice homes. We enjoyed the picnic and just got home when it rained again.

Mrs. Fisher spent some time with the writer during which time we enjoyed a few nice drives in the country. We attended several Stanley parties also journeyed to Lloydminster with the Simmons family, had afternoon tea with the Moores. Do hope you will come again soon Mrs. Fisher.

Mrs. Gillies spent a week at the writer's home also. At present she is at Betty's home.

Doris Giles is on the farm with her mother learning how to milk wild heifers. We heard you brought the milk pail to the house, Doris, in the shape of an oil funnel. What happened?

Lily, are you taking your horse to the Calgary Stampede?

There were some fine race horses at Greenlawn picnic and some good riders. Even the small fry were in the races.

Mr. Miller went to Edmonton with his school bus and brought Mrs. Dupruit back to the Islay hospital for a three months' stay. We will be in to see you when the roads dry up Mrs. Dupruit.

We enjoyed a long chat with the Lerands at the picnic. They were supper guests at the Moore home last Sunday.

A turkey supper was enjoyed on Sunday at Doreen's and Gordon's home.

Hell's Gate Feature View From New C. N. R. Train

VANCOUVER. — Travellers on Canadian National Railways Super Continental trains can now get a better view than ever of the Fraser River's turbulent Hell's Gate, about 125 miles east of Vancouver.

Ten minutes before their train arrives at "Hell's Gate", all the passengers will be notified. The trains will also slow down to about five miles per hour, giving ample time to admire the famous 'gate' with its fishways for helping salmon move upstream.

WEEDS OF THE PRAIRIES "AN ILLUSTRATED GUIDE"

This Department is privileged and pleased to announce the publication of a new revised edition of its weed bulletin, entitled, "An Illustrated Guide to Prairie Weeds". Although this bulletin has already been distributed to 80,000 farmers, rural school teachers and pupils, agricultural students, 4-H Club members and others, there is still a widespread demand, particularly from the young farm people of Western Canada, for adequate and reliable information on the common weeds of the prairies. It is in response to this important and continuous demand that a Third Edition of the weed bulletin is being published at this time.

The first step in any effective weed control program is the correct identification of the weed or weeds to be controlled. Thus the main purpose of the weed bulletin is to make available to western farmers information that will help them to identify the weeds they are most likely to find on their own farms. More than 60 common prairie weeds, and their seeds, are illustrated and described, and brief mention is made of many others. In describing the weeds, the use of technical terms has been avoided wherever possible. We feel that the great popularity of this weed bulletin lies in the fact that it is well illustrated, and written in non-technical language. The revised Third Edition is published with the hope that it will assist farmers, and young farm people particularly, not only in identifying weeds but in learning more about their habits of growth, methods of reproduction, and the best methods of combating them.

Copies of "An Illustrated Guide to Prairie Weeds" are available to farmers, free of charge. They may be obtained from local grain buyers of any of the elevator companies listed above, or by writing to Line Elevators Farm Service, Winnipeg or Calgary.

HAY AHOY!

Some farmers in the picturesque, low-lying Suffolk Broads district of England bring in the hay by water. So it was logical for a British boat builder to use lightweight aluminum to produce a 650-pound punt capable of carrying a load of hay more than six times its own weight.

In Canada aluminum is better known among farmers as a non-rusting, heat-reflecting, easily handled material for barns and roofs and silos... though of course it has many other farm uses, from milk cans to windmill blades. No hay-boats, though.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane

Women's Travel Authority

Are you guilty of spending long 'lost week ends' at home buried in the Sunday paper and the doldrums? Or are you wisely using your week ends to get away from it all"?

This summer's long week ends spell long breaks from daily routine for those who know how to take advantage of the family car. The whole family can learn while having fun by taking what I call "Tourettes". These are short week end trips within a 200-mile radius of your home town.

Adventure lies just up the road or around the corner on little known roads and byways off the main highway. Chances are 10 to 1 you can discover a museum, an historical landmark or an exhibition that both younger fry and parents will enjoy. In addition, many factories open their doors to industrial tours.

For a backward look at early history, this being Jubilee year here in Alberta, why not visit an Indian reservation or witness a tribal dance. And, there's always the lure of lakes, rivers and beaches for the marine-minded motorist.

Adventures by automobile are just a few miles from your front door this and every week end.

Health Unit Notes

HIS SIGHT . . . YOUR RESPONSIBILITY

Your child's sight is of such great importance that every consideration should be given to its care. If his eyes are injured or inflammed, get medical treatment at once and don't delay with home remedies. Bathe his eyes with clean water if dirt gets into them.

If your child has poor vision he is facing life with a definite handicap. During his early years it limits his experiences and lessens his abilities. He becomes clumsy and unable to compete well with other children and this tends to isolate him from his playmates. Often it makes him the innocent target of scolding and general misunderstanding. He may seem hesitant and slow, awkward and even 'stupid' when all the time the trouble is poor eyesight. Many a child has been unjustly branded as awkward because his eyes are not up to their normal level of ability.

EYES SHOULD BE EXAMINED

The important thing to remember is that your child will not complain of poor sight. He doesn't know that he is not seeing as well as he should and the parents usually do not realize that their child cannot see normally.

Every child should have a proper eye examination by a medical eye specialist as soon as the child is old enough to walk. A proper eye examination of all children should be done in any event before they start to school.

POOR VISION COMMON

Recent surveys in our Canadian schools have shown that about two out of five children in kindergarten and grades 1 and 2 had eye trouble of one kind or another. Most children are long sighted at birth. As the eyes develop the vision tends to become normal. If the long sightedness persists, glasses are necessary to give normal vision and to prevent the development of cross eyes.

If short sightedness develops it comes on usually at about 4 or 5 years of age and may increase up to the age of 16. A few cases worsen after that age. Short sighted children must wear glasses all the time. They should not try to read small print or hold their work close to their eyes. Sight saving classes are held in some schools for such children. Several books with large print are made for them and can be secured through provincial departemnts of education for the use of children for whom sight saving classes are available.

GOOD LIGHTING IMPOPTANT

Make sure that good light is always available for your child doing home work or reading and he should not be allowed to read in bed or in poor light. Many homes are poorly lit and this adds to his difficulties.

It is important that schools have properly situated windows and adequate artificial lighting for dull days. In some new schools the 'blackboards' are not black but gray, and yellow chalk is used, resulting in poor visibility. The board should be black and the chalk white to avoid eye strain.

If your child squints (one or both eyes turn in, up or down) or blinks, has marginal redness on his eyelids, is clumsy when playing, holds things too close in order to see them — then he is showing signs of eye trouble. Be on the alert for any of these symptoms and when in doubt consult your doctor or local health clinic.

Artificial Respiration Record Set

An example of the value of keeping up artificial respiration to a point which seems beyond hope is illustrated by this true story, which was reported by Wills Maclachlan, of the Ontario Hydro.

On May 20, 1927, a young lineman came into contact with 26,000 volts of electricity at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. He was lowered to the ground, unconscious, and not breathing. Immediately his fellow-workers applied artificial respiration. This was continued on the floor of the ambulance in which he was being transported to hospital, and also on boards on top of a cot at the hospital.

Communication was established between the local doctor and consultants in a large city, and instructions were relayed to those working over the victim.

It was not until 10 o'clock that night that the patient was breathing by himself. Artificial respiration had been continuously applied for 8 hours.

This case is unique, because artificial respiration with a successful result was kept up for the longest time on record. The same is true of drowning victims says the Health League of Canada — never stop artificial respiration (even in an ambulance on the way to hospital) and continue even though there may be neither heart beat nor breathing, until either success is achieved, or rigor mortis sets in.

PARADISE VALLEY NEWS

On Thursday we received our first rain for many weeks. We still badly need a really good rain that would go down to the sub moisture.

Miss Doris Robinson of Haney, B.C. is visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Fair. On her return to the coast she will resume her duties at Vancouver General hospital.

Mrs. E. Stinson and granddaughter Mary Stinson from Portland, Ore., are the guests of Mrs. A. Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crapo and family are visiting with relatives in town and district. On Wednesday they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Block.

Mr. and Mrs. Monty Hoskins left on Friday morning on their annual vacation. They will spend it south of the border.

Dominion Day our town was certainly quiet as people went in all directions to spend the holiday. Fishing seemed to appeal to most, while sports days had some followers.

Tuesday evening June 28 a lovely miscellaneous shower was held in the United church basement when 85 friends from Barlie, McLaughlin and Paradise met to honor Miss Shirley Gunn, bride-elect of July. Mrs. Harold Fair in a very fitting speech presented the many beautiful and useful gifts to Shirley who was seated under an umbrella of paper flowers in pastel shades. The gifts were opened and shown to the guests and Shirley in a short speech thanked all present and invited them to visit her in her new home. A social time followed this and a very dainty lunch was served.

The United Church Sunday school held a very successful picnic at the sports grounds on Sunday afternoon. A large crowd turned out and a nice get-together was enjoyed. Ice cream was served with lemonade for the kiddies and everyone went home well pleased with the fine afternoon.

Mr. William Gilchrist, Mr. Gordon Gilchrist and Miss Jean Valou, all of Wainwright, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Adams during the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Swayne returned home Thursday from the States where they attended the Golden wedding of Mr. Swayne's brother and Mrs. Swayne at Clearwater, Idaho. We are glad to hear that Mr. and Mrs. James Swayne are both enjoying the best of health. They left Paradise Valley some 30 years ago.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Stormy Session Predicted in August

EDMONTON. — Alberta's Golden Jubilee general election is all over now, although at the time of writing some legislature seats were in doubt and second counts were necessary, but there was no doubt as to what party would form our government for the next four or five years.

From all indications, the storm which has rocked the provincial political scene for the past few months has not abated. There may be even more turmoil. The next two months will tell.

Premier Manning and his Social Credit government were returned to power, as nearly everyone predicted they would be. But, as nearly everyone predicted, the Social Credit majority was reduced. Latest results at the week end pointed to a possible 20 seats for the combined opposition — the strongest showing opposition parties have made since 1940.

Things will remain quiet now until sometime early in August, when the new legislature will be summoned to a special session. Then possibly the fun will start. Even if it does nothing more than match the last session of the house, it will be a lively one, and with the stronger opposition, it could be the stormiest session in the history of the province.

Harper Prowse, Alberta Liberal leader, whose party will form the official opposition, promises there will be no let-up in the favorite sport of Social Credit opponents — asking questions.

On the other hand however, Premier Manning after the bitterest election campaign in Alberta's fifty years as a province, vows he won't let the opposition candidates and the newspapers which supported them, forget the charges that were hurled at the government.

Almost on the eve of the election he promised a "full and impartial" investigation into the charges. He added that those who cast reflections on the government could "substantiate their charges and insinuations under oath."

THE OPPOSITION

Everyone is wondering what the opposition will do when its members take their seats in the house and flex the muscles of their new strength. While a strong opposition is essential to good democratic government, an opposition which throws its weight around needlessly is a hindrance.

They have a duty to criticize as strongly and as relentlessy as possible when there is a reason, and it is their right to ask as many questions as they wish.

But criticism just for the sake of criticism will only bog down the machinery of legislative business.

Looking back, the ten-man opposition in the last legislature did a remarkable job. While there is the question of whether the opposition did actually uncover any irregularities, the questions and charges and the resulting election should have the effect of tightening up any laxness which might have existed.

PREMIER MORE POPULAR THAN EVER

In Edmonton, it was obvious that Premier Manning has lost none of his popularity. He topped the polls for the sixth time since he entered politics in 1935, and his 23,216 first-choice ballots were the most he has ever received.

It was the Premier's big vote and the distribution of his surplus under the involved proportional representation system which cinched the election in Edmonton of two other Social Credit-ers, Dr. J. D. Ross and Edgar H. Gerhart, son of Hon. C.E. Gerhart, the provincial secretary-treasurer.

Both Ross and Gerhart were trailing on the first count until the distribution of Manning's surplus boosted them into strong contention.

KENILWORTH PICNIC

Kenilworth Community centre will hold a picnic on Wednesday, July 13, starting at 1:30 p.m. Ball games, tug-o-war, etc. on program. Refreshments will be served. Big dance in the evening. Horpestad music. Admission to grounds, 25c. Children under 12, free. Everybody welcome. 2-3

Searle Precipitation Report No. 9

Jubilee Features Mannville Celebration

MANNVILLE. — Mannville Dominion Day celebration, which also commemorated Alberta's Golden Jubilee, was one of the best held for many years. Despite the weather and other handicaps, a record crowd attended the gala event.

The parade, led by Clarence Ewing on horseback and the Lloydminster band, was the first feature of the day. Complementing the band were the Majorettes who presented a striking picture with perfect step, and grace of movement. The band was outstanding, and the parade was exceptional in its originality and beauty of the floats. Visitors were loud in their praise of same. The band led the school children up main street and then marched back to lead the main parade. Members of the Legion marched smartly behind the band. The theme of the majority of the floats was the Old and the New — 1905 - 1955.

The Old Timers, being the honored guest of the day, led the parade of floats and decorated cars. Among the floats depicting the Old and the New theme were: Home & School Assoc.; M.D. of Minburn; Fire Engines; Midland Hardware; International Harvester, and the School.

Depicting the earlier days were the Five Point W.I., the Happy Centre W.I. as well as another float which could be aptly termed as 'Rub-a-dub-dub, one man in a tub!' After receiving a thorough scrubbing in aforesaid old fashioned tub, a leading citizen of the town will probably deeply appreciate the modern plumbing now available.

Other floats, most of which exemplified their own particular themes were:

The Legion, M. Mercer, Anglican W.A., Eastern Star, Birch Creek W.I., Explorers, L.O.B.A., Lutheran church, Roman Catholic church, Square Dancers, Alberta Wheat Pool, Elite Beauty Parlor, Mannville Hospital, Co-op Machinery and Massey Harris. Decorated bikes were very colorful

Prizes were awarded as follows:

Floats — 1. Midland Hdwe.; 2. L.O.B.A. and Candaian Legion.

Decorated Cars — 1. Eastern Star; 2. M. Mercer; 3. Anglican W.A.

Horses — 1. Miss Ione Parker, Marwayne; 2. Phil May, Wainwright; 3. Barry Smith; 4. R. Calder.

Bicycles — 1. Marilyn North; 2. Janet Clark; 3. Evelyn Ross; 4. Len Johnson; 5. Vic Pedersen; 6. Lorne Prosser; 7. Ken Johnson.

BASEBALL & SOFTBALL

Ball was one of the big features of the day. In boys and girls fastball, 16 and under, 4 teams competed, Lavoy A. Lavoy B. Mannville and Irma with Lavoy A taking first money and Mannville second.

In Ladies fastball, teams from Edmonton, Vegreville, Vermilion, Innisfree and Mannville were entered with the Edmonton Truckettes winning first prize and Vermilion second.

Six teams were competing in the Senior baseball but due to the rain it ended in a three-way tie between Irma, Edmonton Rockets and Viking.

Country and Junior teams played but competitions were not finished on account of being rained out. The teams entered were Marwayne, Mannville, Irma, Buffalo Coulee, Preston, Myrnam, Innisfree, Hamilton, Lloydminster, Chatsworth, Scotstoun and Vermilion.

PLATFORM ATTRACTIONS

The platform attractions which followed the presentation of the Pioneers were much enjoyed by old and young. 'Ole' the Swede with his stories and accordian pleased the children as did Bobbie and her dog Poochie. The audience remained just as mystified by the card tricks as the two young fellows helping Mr. Clifford. Even the band members couldn't figure out the mysterious things going on while the lady was tied by both wrists and ankles. The Lloydminster band played during the performance and at intervals during the day until forced to leave, by rain and wind.

BARBECUE

Almost 70 people were served at the barbecue pit. The meat was well cooked and there was plenty of salad, beans, buns, pickles etc. If it hadn't rained at such an inopportune time there would have been several hundred more plates served. The carvers were Len Manz, Earl Gray, Fred Proudfoot and Larry Myhre; and ladies from the various organizations looked after the rest. It was well organized and people were fed in short order.

NEW THEATRE OPENS

The new theatre was open for the first time and was well patronized. Record crowds attended both the modern dance in the Orange hall to the music of the Edmonton orchestra, and the modern Square dancing in the school gym where four callers, Henry Lien, Walter Donnenworth, Mr. Ziegler and Mr. Schaeffer were in attendance. With the Orange hall and the gym given free of charge a goodly sum was realized from the two dances. The total amount realized for the arena fund is not yet determined, but it was a very successful day and all those who attended appeared to enjoy themselves. It was a day for renewing old acquaintances with folks who had not met for many years.

WELL DECORATED

The decorations of the business places in town as well as the decorating of the main street added much to the gala occasion. All in all it was a very good day and despite the weather the day before and the rain on the first too.

A sincere thanks to all those who attended, all those who assisted with the various duties, to those at the gate, the Legion men and women for the booth, those in charge of the parade and those who took part in the parade.

SCROLLS PRESENTED

Old timers of 1905 were presented with their scrolls and badges of honor by Mayor A. E. Williams and W. R. Cornish, both well known old timers themselves. It was surprising the number of Mannville pioneers who still reside in the district or who returned for the Jubilee celebrations.

THE ST. LAWRENCE SEAWAY

Ever since the St. Lawrence Seaway project was finally approved in May, 1954, there has been much conjecture as to what this vast undertaking will mean to Canada as a whole and, in particular, to Western Canadian agriculture. It is clear that it will open up a new era for shipping, trade and commerce in the St. Lawrence Seaway from the sea to the Great Lakes, and it is equally clear that the whole pattern of trade will change within the next few years.

Reflecting Western Canada's interest in the project is the study of the probable effects of the Seaway upon the provincial economy, now being undertaken by the province of Manitoba. Whilst it is not clear yet exactly what effect the St. Lawrence Seaway will have, it appears that the eastern part of the prairies, including Manitoba, may now stand to gain not only from lower freight rates on commodities shipped by water and rail from abroad as well as from eastern Canada but also from a possible saving in freight on grain shipped to the eastern seaboard. Should suggested savings of 5 to 6 cents per bushel be realized in the case of wheat, this would, of course, help to put Canadian grain on a more competitive basis in world markets.

M. D. Jarell, eminent Trichologist, demonstrates causes of baldness and how it can be prevented

How To Have Hair For A Lifetime To Be Demonstrated Here By Famous Trichologist

OFFERS WRITTEN GUARANTEE

AN EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW BY WARD ALLEN

LONDON, ONTARIO (Special) — M. D. Jarell, Director of Jarell Hair Experts of Canada exploded the "myth of baldness" today in an exclusive interview.

"Baldness is unnecessary, costly, and a plague to mankind," says Jarell. "No man need be bald. No man need suffer the stigma of premature old age that is forced upon him because he is losing his hair. The Jarell method of hair and scalp treatment can prevent baldness — can turn colorless fuzz into healthy, growing hair — can make you look youthful again."

Demonstration To Be Held in Vermilion, Alberta

This revolutionary method of home treatment for the hair and scalp will be demonstrated in Vermilion Friday ONLY, July 15th, at the Vermilion Hotel. Trichologist H. L. Martin will conduct the private, individual interviews from 12 noon until 9:00 p.m. on Friday ONLY. There is no cost or obligation, and you need no appointment.

Reason For Baldness

"There is always a reason for baldness," continued this nationally known authority. "Hair cannot grow through a scalp that is infected with dandruff, excessive oiliness, or extreme dryness. A scalp that has never been exercised cannot be expected to produce healthy hair." Men, and yes, women too, walk the streets today, completely devoid of nature's greatest ornament — hair. Simply because they were not taught the basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene while they were growing up. "The simple answer," emphasized this expert, "is that children should be taught the same simple basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene that they are taught for the proper care of their teeth. If this were the case, baldness would be a rarity today!"

Heredity Not Involved

Trichologist Jarell dodged no issues. He quickly took up the most widely spread theory of baldness—heredity. "Mankind's unrealistic belief that baldness is heredity stems from a misinterpretation of the theory of genetics. Theory does not state that any person must be bald because baldness exists in the family. What it does say, is that in some families, a tendency exists towards an undernourished scalp." The purpose of Jarell Hair and Scalp Experts is to teach the methods of strengthening the weak scalp and nourishing it to a healthy, vigorous condition. A healthy scalp will grow hair, if it is not already completely bald," assures Jarell.

Is There Hope For The Completely Bald?

In his travels throughout the United States and Canada, Jarell has collected hundreds of testimonies of his ability to develop weak fuzz into healthy, mature hair. All of his clients have started with a private examination, hair and scalp analysis, and a diagnosis of the disorder. Jarell is quick, however, to tell a hopeless case that he cannot be helped. "We strongly advise," says Jarell, "that no person who is completely bald hold any hope whatsoever of regrowing hair. If there is any fuzz at all, we can restore a healthy scalp condition and the hair will grow normally again as nature intended."

Offers A Guarantee

"Jarell Hair Experts of Canada, offer a guarantee to any client who enrolls for treatment. If he or she is not completely delighted with results at the end of 30 days, the money invested will be graciously refunded," pledged Jarell. "We must have satisfied clients. We must regrow hair. After all, it is our best advertisement."

Is Your Hair Healthy?

If you have a scalp disorder, or if you are worried about you hair, call Trichologist H. L. Martin at the Vermilion Hotel, in Vermilion, Friday ONLY, from 12 noon to 9:00 P.M. The public is invited. The examinations are private and open to men and women. You do not need an appointment, and you will not be embarassed or obligated in any way. 3-4

Around Our House

By Bill and Eileen Lovett

At an auction sale we bought a large antique steel door knocker. Through the oval loop at the base we hang a colorful towel.

Another decorator tip for the bathroom: A small salad bowl containing several cakes of soap.

Bill paints brightly colored bands around the handles of our garden tools: It makes them easier to spot on the lawn.

And by the way — to remove light rust from tools use a piece of rubber cut from an old tire casing. Ask your garageman.

FOR SAFETY'S SAKE

When attempting to make some electrical repair, always turn off the power. Either pull the main switch, unscrew fuse on circuit to repair, or disconnect the cord from the convenience outlet.

Replace blown fuses with new ones of same ampere rating. Don't overfuse. Never place pennies or tin foil behind dead ones. Use a flashlight so that you have plenty of light to see exactly what you are doing.

Why not put a plywood board as a divider in the middle of your clothes hamper — use one side for soiled white clothes, the other for colored garments.

Junk jewelry is fashionable again. Gather your old broken strands of pearls and other beads, and restring them to make long colorful ropes. Almost any combination is in style. You can use lightweight nylon fish-line leader for string — and if it's stiff enough you won't need to use a needle.

Extra Pot Holders: Before you discard a burned or worn ironing board pad, cut squares from the still good parts. Bind each square with bias tape. Use for everyday pot holders.

A perfectionist, says Bill, is one who takes great pains and gives the same!

Automation

One of the bug-a-boos of the second half of the 20th century is the word "automation". Automation has been defined as the use of machines to run machines. The fear has been expressed that mass unemployment will be the result of this trend towards mechanization. Well, our experience has demonstrated that mechanization by providing goods at lower prices has in fact increased production and increased the number of jobs at the same time. Just take a look at the automotive industry. It should be recognized that jobs exist not only in the factory where production takes place, but up and down the line. Suppliers of raw materials require additional help, large numbers of men are and will be required to build new machines, repair them, control them and program the work. Additional numbers will be needed as designers of machinery, draftsmen, system-engineers, mathematicians or logicians. Above all there will be opportunities aplenty for men to fill new managerial jobs requiring a high level of training and ability.

As Peter F. Drucker has pointed out, the really serious social problem is not unemployment but the need to upgrade whole segments of the population in very short time. There will of course be dislocation, but that has always occurred with change, and ability to adapt is a built-in characteristic of a society which is flexible and not rigid.

Needed – Better Protection

Early Canadian settlers soon learned to respect the word "protection". They built forts and blockhouses and armed themselves with the latest weapons available at that time to repel bloodthirsty savages. It may be said that this nation was built on the firm foundation of the protective system of our pioneers.

Canadian farmers today also are faced with a monumental protection problem — protection no longer from other humans but from a great army of pests which are decimating their crops to the tune of millions of dollars annually. By competing with crops for valuable moisture and soil nutrients, weeds exact a $400,000,000 yearly toll of the Canadian farm income. Losses from plant diseases run into $135,000,000 annually. The annual take from the farmers' cash box by insects is estimated at $200,000,000. Of this loot, flies are said to be responsible for a $25,000,000 loss to the dairy industry alone by decreasing milk yields from cows pestered by them during feeding time. An additional $100,000,000 in damages is wrought each year by rodents and household insects.

When one considers that the national net income of Canadian farmers last year was $1,125,000,000, this total yearly loss of $825,000,000 to pests is staggering indeed and surely indicates the need of strengthening the bastions on the farm front.

While at one time farmers had few weapons to protect their crops, the same situation does not hold true today. Chemists in the past few years have developed highly effective chemicals for destroying weeds, insects, plant diseases and rodents. New chemicals and improvements on older ones are being announced almost daily.

Entomologists are convinced that if all Canadian farmers took adequate steps to provide chemical protection for their crops as recommended by agricultural scientists, they could add well over $500,000,000 to their income each year.

LOVE

I have a country cottage, complete with neighbor! He thinks he exudes brotherly love. Here's how he practised it last week end.

I went out on my patio for a quiet cup of coffee and a cigarette. He came beaming over. He dropped himself into my best deck chair, looked with baleful eyes at my cigarette and coffee. "You know, you ought to cut down", he said. "I quit smoking a month ago, and I eat like a horse. And you'd be better off without that coffee, too."

"It's a beautiful sunrise," I said.

He fidgeted (the way non-smokers do), but I could see that he was settled down for a long stay. I gulped my coffee, tossed the cigarette away, and said, "Well, I guess I'll get to work."

I disappeared into my cottage but when the coast was clear I came out and began to nail lattice work around the front. My eager-beaver neighbor was over again in a flash. He wanted to help. He was full of neighborly love. I wished that he would take his love back home to his own family, nail some lattice work on his own cottage, and let me do things my way.

Love should not mean inflicting your ideas or yourself on other people. Love means being the best person you can be, in your own life, ready to lend a helping hand when you are asked; but not until you are asked. An over-eager neighbor is like an over-paternal government. Both have a stifling effect on your spirit.

The only good thing I can say about my neighbor is this: he has no power to tax me. If he did have I am quite sure he would take away my cigarette money just for my own good.

WOODVALE NOTES

The showers and rain last week brought much needed relief as the condition of crops was getting to the critical stage.

Road building has been going on for the last few weeks in Woodvale. The east-west road past Woodvale hall will become an all-weather road and we understand the roads north and east of the Ruud farm are being built up too and will become in 1956 part of a new school bus route when several youngsters along this way will be starting to school.

Fred Webber of Toronto spent most of his holidays with his mother in Tulland and persuaded her to go back East with him for a visit. We do hope you enjoy your trip Mrs. Webber.

Ernie Isley, after writing his Grade XII exams left Sunday evening for Edmonton to take the 6 weeks teacher's short course.

Camille Goutier, who took the 6-weeks course last year will return for another summer course.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crocker on the birth of a daughter. There will be four little sisters at home anxiously awaiting mother's return with the new baby!

A directory meeting of the Woodvale Mutual Telephone Co. took place on June 23. It was decided to order more supplies and have the annual repairs and rebuilding done later in the season. Harry Turner installed 16 hydro protectors on the line.

The Red Cross auxiliary held a meeting on June 23 at the home of Mrs. Mary McGrath with 9 members present. The afternoon was spent in organizing for the coming F.U.A. picnic on July 6 when the ladies run a booth; and wrapping articles for a grab bag. As always the ladies enjoyed their get-together and the delicious and always welcome luncheon after a busy afternoon. The date of the next meeting will be decided later.

JUBILEE CONCERT

The Jubilee concert at Woodvale on June 30 was very much enjoyed by all present and despite the rain and mud quite a crowd gathered to see the children perform on this last day of school. With exams behind them and a long vacation in sight the children were in the right mood to put on a very good concert. Though one of the cars got stuck in the mud in the yard, pushing it out only added to the fun apparently — or did the delicious lunch make the men so strong?

Mrs. Suzanne Dubuc and her two children Diane and Roger of Vegreville spent the past few weeks with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Paul Goutier. Since June 30th all the children have come home including their son Maurice after an absence of six years. Last Sunday his ordination to the priesthood took place in Vermilion and his many friends and neighbors, who have followed his studies with interest, wish him a full and happy life in his chosen vocation. Rev. Fr. Goutier plans to stay on the farm for about three weeks with short trips being made to Edmonton and Red Deer.

To many people it was quite a disappointment not to see our Editor elected on the first count and to have to wait results for another week.

Joe Duzzeck, now working with a construction outfit, building bulk sales warehouses for the Imperial Oil Co., spent the week end with his brother Adam and must have seen all his old friends in Vermilion Saturday night. Don't wait for another 8 years to come home Joe, that's a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. Pelletier of Zion Park, Sask., and little daughter were also over for the ordination of their brother Maurice, as was his uncle Fernand Goutier of St. Albert.

Mr. W. Isley accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wells to Edmonton when they took Ernie to the city on Sunday.

Know Life Cycle Of Bugs For Better Control

Some knowledge of the life cycle and habits of crop-destroying insects can be a useful guide to growers as to what insecticide they should use for more efficient control.

The million species of insects in the world today, of which [illegible] occur in North America, are divided into two general classes, writes Mr. George Blais in the June issue of C I L Oval. There are chewing insects which destroy plants by tearing and chewing at their tissues, and the sucking insects which pierce through plant tissues and suck out the juices in the same way as a mosquito sucks the blood out of a human.

Bugs like the Colorado potato beetle are chewing insects and are therefore best controlled by using insecticides sprayed or dusted on the plants. The insect takes the poison into its stomach while feeding and is invariably killed. The stomach poisons however, are of little use against sucking insects which siphon their food from inside the plant below the level of insecticide sprayed on the leaves. An aphid is an example of such insects and these are best controlled by spraying with an insecticide which kills by direct contact with the body. The eating habits of maggots which get inside roots and stems have both chewing and sucking characteristics and these are controlled by use of other special chemicals. Recently, an all purpose spray and dust was introduced which can control both sucking and chewing insects as well as plant diseases with one treatment.

Can insects take over the earth? Mr. Blais answers with a note of warning that the descendants of one female cabbage aphid, each season, number [illegible].

Vol. XLVII. No. 4. — Vermilion, Alberta, Thursday, July 14th, 1955. — 16 PAGES — $2.00 a Year

ATTENTION, ALL PIONEERS

Pioneers' Day At The Vermilion Fair

Vermilion this year will celebrate the Fiftieth Anniversary of the annual exhibition, the first fair having been held in October, 1906. Happily there are many in the district yet who were Vermilion's earliest settlers and who have done so much to make this district what it is today. It is the desire of the officers and directors of Vermilion fair to pay tribute to the pioneer spirit that has resulted in a prosperous and happy community and on Thursday, July 28, it is proposed to celebrate Pioneers' Day.

A mammoth parade will be held at 11 a.m. and it will be absolutely essential that the parade start exactly on time. Following the parade an opportunity will be given for lunch and at scheduled times His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, the Hon. John J. Bowlen will officially open the fair and also will officiate at the opening of the fine new Pioneers' Cabin which has been constructed in the grounds as a permanent memorial to the grand old citizens to whom we owe so much.

His Honour will also present the Senior Citizen scrolls to those who were here in 1905 and who are still resident in the Province of Alberta. More than 125 applications have been sent to the Government for scrolls and the ceremony should be an impressive one.

All early pioneers who would like to have their scrolls presented and who have made their application through any source other than the Agricultural Society may, if they turn their scrolls in to the Secretary-Manager, S. C. Heckbert, have the honor of receiving them from the Lieutenant-Governor. All old timers who wish to take part in the parade are assured that they will be more than welcome and if families or other groups wish to appear and desire signs on the car would advise the fair manager, an endeavor will be made to provide suitable signs. The matter of transportation must necessarily be left with those concerned.

Please bear in mind that Thursday, July 28 is Pioneers' Day and that it is desired to clearly indicate to the early citizens our most sincere appreciation of their great contribution to the Vermilion District and the Province.

Kinsmen Will Raffle Car At The Fair

This year, as last, the Kinsmen are raffling a car at the Vermilion fair. The draw, to be made after the final grandstand performance on Saturday night, is for a Plymouth 4-door, two-tone Deluxe sedan. This car may be seen at Alex Marian's service station.

Last year's winner was Gerald Miller of Vermilion.

The proceeds from this car raffle go to the support and improvement of the Kinsmen wading pool. This year some playground equipment has been purchased, but much more is needed. The fence has been newly completed and grass has been sown. The supervisor, Miss Hazel Barr, has plans for some hobby classes to aid the kiddies to enjoy themselves.

Remember, help the Kinsmen to help the Kiddies by purchasing your ticket now, for $1, from any member of the Kinsmen — and even YOU might win the car. 4-5x

Well Known Old Timer Passes On

George Thomas Dibben, a well known old timer of the Thorncliffe and Vermilion districts, passed away at his home just east of town on Sunday morning, July 10th. He was 68 years of age.

Mr. Dibben had been ailing for some time and had recently been in hospital. He was at home when he passed away, in fact was sitting at the breakfast table when he was suddenly called by his Maker.

The deceased is survived by his sorrowing wife, four sons, Francis, Roy, David and Robert, all of Vermilion; one daughter, Mrs. W. T. Garnett, of Vermilion. There are 12 grandchildren. One sister, Edith, resides in Florida.

Funeral services were held at the Alliance Chapel on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 'clock. Interment took place at the Vermilion cemetery. The Rev. J. F. McNair officiated.

Moyers were in charge of funeral arrangements.

Curling Club Car Bingo August 6th

The Vermilion Curling Club's next big car bingo is being held on Saturday, Aug. 6th at 9:15 p.m. in the curling rink. A fine array of prizes, better than the general run, is being arranged so watch for full details in future issues of the Standard.

SOMETHING NEW FOR VERMILION

It has just been announced that final arrangements have been completed for the building of a community mausoleum in the cemetery here in Vermilion. Mausoleums are imposing structures built for the burial of people after death. They are constructed in such a manner as to enable burial to be made away from dirt and water and protected by stone, steel and cement. This has long been the method of burial among nobility, families of wealth and for national heroes such as many others in our own country. This model of entombment has been in use for thousands of years, since the construction of the Pyramids of Egypt, which are mausoleums for the burial of kings.

Until recently the cost of this type of entombment has been of such expense that it was far beyond the reach of the average man or woman; but now, when operated upon a community basis where many desire space therein it gives the protection of a private mausoleum at the cost of ground burial. Space for two in a mausoleum such as this, is not in most cases, as high as the cost of an average sized tombstone which is placed on a grave lot.

While mausoleums are not prominent in this immediate section of the country, they are being built in ever-increasing numbers in other sections of Canada and the United States, and will in time traverse the nation as a whole.

This project is being supervised by Herman Wilton of Vermilion. It will lend beauty to the local cemetery as well as giving protection to those who are placed therein.

HERZOG'S PLAN ATTRACTIVE CORNER

New Service Station, Car Show Rooms Taking Shape

Among the major construction projects for this summer in Vermilion is a very fine service station and motor car showroom well underway by Herzog Motors. The new building is being constructed of cement blocks and is conveniently located on three lots immediately west of the Crown Lumber Co. This is a corner location ideal for service to motorists.

The lay out as planned provides for service islands located on the west side of the property. There is a 30-foot wide strip full length of the lot, 120 feet, reserved for gas and oil service, air and checkups.

The building itself measures 80 feet long and is 34 feet wide. It will be the service station, car showroom and sales room. There will be three bays for wash rack, grease rack and one made to accommodate large trucks.

Regular garage repair work will be done in the present building.

A very pleasing exterior is being planned and when completed the new building will make an attractive corner for Vermilion, originally the site of a livery barn which met the fate of most livery barns, that of being destroyed by fire, many years ago. Cost of the undertaking is estimated at $16,000. Wm. Pettigrew is the contractor.

A modern used car lot is planned for the east side of the new building.

COMMENCE NEW NORTH STAR SERVICE

North Star Oil Co. have purchased property on the south side fronting immediately on highway 16, directly across the road from the exhibition grounds main entrance. In order to clear the site two houses have been moved to other locations. Construction of the service station has already commenced.

The building itself will have a 44 foot frontage and is 30 feet deep. Value is $15,000.

NEW BUSINESS CONSTRUCTION

Nearing completion also is a 20 by 25 foot addition to the north side of the Withe[illegible] block. This allows for the expansion of the Shoprite Foods. Announcement of the opening of the store addition will be made shortly.

NEW VAULT FOR BANK

The Canadian Bank of Commerce which has already been the scene of a complete renovation and modernization program this year, is having a new vault constructed at a cost of $7300. Owing to the nature of the cement work this is quite a lengthy construction job and will not be completed before fall.

OTHER BUSINESS BUILDING PROSPECTS

On the list of building possibilities this year also is a new office building for the King medical clinic. This will be located just west of Moren's Electric shop.

Two other oil companies have permits for service stations, one to be located on highway 41 just north of Vermilion and one on the south side at the intersection of highways 41 and 16.

With the business building program augmented by one of the largest home building seasons in the town's history, this year might well set a new record for building permits.

Vermilion Ladies Hold Successful Golf Tournament

The weather was perfect on Sunday for the Ladies' Annual Golf tournament. There were nineteen entrants, two of whom were from out of town, Mrs. W. K. Lazaruk and Mrs. H. R. Savage, coming all the way from Willingdon and were very welcome indeed. It was disappointing that there weren't more visitors.

With the low total score for the day of 102, Mrs. Al Locke won the Championship Flight and trophy. Mrs. Locke also won the prize for low qualifying score given for local players.

Mrs. Lazaruk won second prize in the Championship Flight, also the prize for low score in the qualifying round given for visitors.

Other prize winners were:

First Flight — 1. Mrs. W. Sutherland; 2. Mrs. J. Brown.

Second Flight — 1. Mrs. K. Rowe; 2. Mrs. S. C. Tough.

Third Flight — 1. Mrs. A. Mead; 2. Mrs. M. Simonsen.

Fourth Flight — 1. Mrs. Savage; 2. Miss M. Stephens.

Other special prizes were: High score for the hidden hole, Mrs. Savage; low score for the hidden hole, Mrs. T. Davis; high qualifying score, Mrs. J. Kneale.

Lunches were served in the newly renovated club house, and much sociability was enjoyed.

SQUARE DANCE JAMBOREE AT VERMILION FAIR

In co-operation with local Square Dance groups the Vermilion Fair Board is staging a monster Square Dance Jamboree on Saturday night, July 30th, the last night of Vermilion's big 50th fair. All square dance groups in Northern Alberta and Saskatchewan are cordially invited to take part in the monster pageant. Excellent callers will be on hand and every possible advantage given those taking part. The Jamboree will be followed by a grand fireworks spectacle which will bring the Golden Jubilee exhibition to a close.

Vermilion Girls Attend Guide Camp

More than fifty girls from the Vermilion and Lloydminster Girl Guide Companies, were in attendance at the camp held at Elk Island park from July 3 to 10.

Capt. Jean Manyluk and Lieut. Gwyneth Clendenning were the Vermilion leaders who accompanied the girls. Capt. Delaney and Lieut. Ross of Lloydminster went with the Lloydminster girls.

Swimming was, of course, a very important part of the girls' program. But they did have the opportunity to carry out a hike of seven miles, as well. The real highlight of the program was the initiation night activities. All girls, and leaders too, who hadn't been to camp before, were initiated on that evening. The 'greenhorns' were made to dress up, form a parade and march to the bandshell at the main beach. There they were subjected to the indignities of a mock trial.

There were eleven girls at the camp from Vermilion: Margwynne Clendenning, Joan Stephens, Anne McCrae, Marie McCrae, Deanna Currie, Sandra Park, Ann Beatty, Mavis Bottorff, Donna Bottorff, Ina DeBruin and Louise Klashinsky.

FOOTBALL MEETING

A meeting and film to be shown at the Vermilion Armouries, Friday, July 15th at 8:00 p.m. All interested in football are invited to attend.

DR. A. B. KING TO FORM CLINIC

Dr. A. Ben King left Friday for Toronto and will be away until the end of July. Dr. King travelled to Edmonton by car, leaving there by plane for the east. He is to be hospitalized for an operation during his stay in Toronto.

Dr. King's practise is being taken care of by Dr. Allan Ainscough of Edmonton. Dr. Ainscough is a graduate of the University of Alberta, and has interned at the University hospital.

When Dr. King returns in August Dr. Ainscough will remain in Vermilion as an associate of Dr. King in the King Clinic which will be housed in the King Clinic building to be erected on the site across the street from the Vermilion library.

Mrs. Ainscough will join her husband in Vermilion as soon as they have made suitable arrangements for a home here.

85 Years Old – Leaves For England

MANNVILLE. — Mr. Jack Dearnally, an old timer of the Mannville district, was honored at a party by friends and neighbors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Whitson on Friday afternoon. He was leaving on Monday morning for the east and sailing from Montreal July 16 for the old country.

Mr. Dearnally, who is 85 years of age, came to Regina in 1903 and after a trip back to England, came to Alberta in 1908 and has resided in the Mannville district ever since. He was presented with gifts from his many friends as well as a Golden Jubilee book on Alberta from Christ church, Mannville. The community wishes him bon voyage and a good holiday.

New Member Takes Seat At Ottawa

James A. Smith, new member of parliament for Battle River-Camrose, took his seat in the House of Commons on Tuesday. Mr. Smith was introduced by Solon Low, leader of the National Social Credit party, and was received with hearty hand-clapping from all members of the house.

Mr. Smith is former high school principal at Kitscoty and won the by-election over a Liberal and a C.C.F.-er for the seat.

Andy Jacula Falls From Scaffold

A good deed being done Monday evening resulted in the hospitalization of one of the 'good deeders'.

A number of the neighbors of Mr. Nick Klutz formed a bee to help him put on the roof of his new implement shed. Among them was Mr. Andy Jacula, his brother-in-law of the Clandonald district.

Andy was standing on a 6-foot high scaffolding to hold one end of the boards that were being nailed to the rafters. In reaching for one of these he must have slipped, although he doesn't remember just how he lost his balance.

The other workers saw him topple off backwards. He doesn't recall anything from the time he reached for the board until he was en route to the hospital.

On examination in the Vermilion hospital it was found necessary to put several stitches in the right side of Andy's head. He also had a cracked right shoulder blade, several broken ribs, a broken left index finger and a sprained right index finger.

However, by Tuesday afternoon Andy was resting quite comfortably in the hospital, and was feeling well enough to be concerned about the length of time that he would be unable to do some of the heavier farm chores.

Perhaps, since he received his injuries while doing a good deed, he will find that there are others who will take a chance on doing a good deed for him.

400 FORMER STUDENTS ATTEND V. S. A. ALUMNI RE-UNION

The annual Summer re-union of former students took place at the Vermilion School of Agriculture on Friday evening, July 8. Over 100 guests attended the banquet which featured special class 'get-togethers' for those who graduated in 1930 and 1950, as well as a special group of the original 1913-14 class.

Mr. Ross Gould of Rosalind, Alberta, President of the Alumni Association, presided at the banquet and after giving the presidential report presented souvenirs to members of the 1930 class celebrating the 25th anniversary of their graduation. These included: E. B. Swindlehurst, Mrs. Olive Svean (Howe), Ross Bacon, Lloyd McGhah, Mrs. Olga Winnick (Melnyk) and Mrs. Helena Lazarenko (Triska).

The guest speaker at the banquet was Col. E. W. Cormack, member of the teaching staff during the period 1925-40. After reminiscing in his own inimitable manner about features of the earlier classes with particular reference to those celebrating their 25th anniversary, Col. Cormack paid tribute to the contribution which those who have attended the Vermilion School of Agriculture through the years, have made to the agricultural life of faith in the soundness of the well-balanced program of studies directed towards the training of farm young people for good citizenship.

Over four hundred persons attended the Rose ball in the evening when each lady received a rose corsage.

Interest of former students attending the ball centered on "Calling-up" classes and singing the school song.

Young Travellers From B. C.

Two young ladies travelled all the way to Vermilion from Langley Prairie, near Vancouver, B.C. The remarkable factor is that they are so young to have gone this distance on their own responsibility and without adult supervision.

The young ladies in question are Miss Lorna Hutchinson, 10 years of age and Miss Frances Hutchinson, 9 years. They are the granddaughters of Mrs. A. Barnwell of Vermilion. Their mother is Mrs. Barnwell's daughter.

Frances and Lorna will be staying with their grandmother until the end of July at which time all three of them will be leaving for Langley Prairie. No doubt the girls will be in charge of the trip. Mrs. Barnwell expects to be away for two weeks visiting with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McGregor and family are spending holidays in Vancouver, making the trip to the coast on the Super-Continental.

90 Children Enjoying Vacation School At Alliance Chapel

Daily Vacation Bible School has continued this week at the Alliance Chapel with attendance at a record high. The enrollment has reached well over one hundred with a daily attendance of over ninety. There are four separate age-groups ranging from pre-school to teen-age. Following the theme of "Sailing With Christ" they form a happy group of young "Christian Sailors" as they respond to the "All Aboard" each morning at nine o'clock.

Wednesday, July 6, at 11:30, the roadway beside the church was the scene of great excitement for over 80 youngsters as final preparations were being made for the Bible School Parade. The procession was headed by a sound-car and boat-trailer, followed by the main float which portrayed a sail boat, displaying posters in keeping with the theme. Individual children in the boats and trailers advertised the activities of the school by holding colorful signs. Several of the junior and intermediate boys rode gaily decorated bicycles. In between announcements from the sound-car, eighty joyful voices entertained onlookers with "We Like Vacation Bible School" and "Heavenly Sunshine."

The climax will be reached Friday at 7:30 p.m. when the children will gather again to present their closing program for all parents and interested friends. The program will include songs, poems, Bible verses, etc., which have been learned during the two weeks. There will also be a display of the many interesting and useful articles that have been made during handwork periods.

It is hoped that by next year larger accommodation may be obtained for the ever-increasing number of children who love to attend Daily Vacation Bible School.

Monster Parade At Fair July 28

Vermilion's first monster parade held in conjunction with the annual fair is scheduled for Thursday, July 28th, and will move off at 11 o'clock.

Business men, members of clubs and groups, children and all others are urged to take part and help make it an outstanding success.

Next week's issue of the Standard will give complete details of the route of march and all taking part will be previously advised as to where they should be located prior to the commencement of the parade. It is absolutely essential that every-one taking part be just a little ahead of the time scheduled for the parade to begin and it will be impossible to delay the start of the parade on account of someone being late.

The various sections of the parade will be fitted into the line of march by the committee and it is anticipated that thousands of district people will be on hand to see the giant parade.

Boys and girls will have an opportunity to enter their decorated bicycles and are also urged to make up comic entries and to generally help make the parade a success.

Members of F.U.A. groups, community clubs and other community groups are cordially invited to enter floats of any kind to help swell the list; at the present time nearly 30 business places and other groups are taking part and there will be at least two bands to provide music for the march.

The grand parade is your parade and you are urged to be sure and be on hand . . . AND please be on time. Watch next week's Standard for specific time and place.

TIMELY SUGGESTIONS—

Two very timely suggestions have been made to the Standard during the past week, and both came from country people who take a personal pride in Vermilion as their own home town.

The first was that every person coming to Vermilion should endeavor to keep the town clean.

This lady was much incensed because just after the expensive street sweeping machine had rolled along cleaning up the dirt along the curb, some folks in a car who should have some civic pride too, promptly dumped the contents of car ash trays onto the newly swept street. There are plenty of garbage receptacles located all over the business section, for the sole purpose of making it convenient to keep the town clean. It is hoped that now the business section has been hard surfaced for the benefit of country and townspeople alike, and that a street cleaning machine has been purchased at considerable cost to the ratepayers, all people will unite and co-operate to the best of their ability to keep the streets clean and thus contribute to the attractiveness of the town.

PARKING ON PARK ROADWAY

The second matter is contained in Chatsworth Chatter and has to do with parking along the east and west roadway into the park. The Standard admits that it is a lovely place to park overlooking the lake, but on Sundays and Wednesdays and lots of evenings when traffic is thick, it does make driving along the road very awkward, and with the sun at certain evening levels, very hazardous too. It is nice that people to date have driven very carefully along the park roads, but this is one point in which traffic conditions could be improved.

TRAINING FOR FARM LIVING

For over 40 years the Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics of Alberta have met the essential needs of the farm and the farm young folk. They have encouraged future farmers to improve farm methods; they have inspired future homemakers with the ideals of gracious living; they have challenged all with the urgent demands of good citizenship. Training in agriculture and in homemaking has been, and continues to be the fundamental purposes of the schools, with the development of social consciousness an objective.

The courses offered in agriculture emphasize proficiency through practical instruction in soils and crops, livestock and farm mechanics. The course in Home Economics, while giving training in homemaking, also provides instruction in business fundamentals to equip young women for employment in the interval between graduation and marriage. To balance their curricula the schools include academic subjects—English, mathematics and science, and rural sociology. The schools are residential and dormitory life under staff guidance exemplifies the community. Through self-government by their own Councils which organize the extra curricular activities, the students assume group responsibility and learn to make group adjustments.

Set in beautiful surroundings, the schools are attractive places to live. Here for the first time many young people make their acquaintance with new cultural patterns, thereby gaining experiences that broaden their vision, develop their confidence, and increase their social effectiveness.

Throughout the Province may be found successful farmers and wise community leaders, University Graduates and business men and women whose feet were set toward their worthy goals by the courses they took at the Schools of Agriculture and Schools of Home Economics.

UNIQUE AND NEWSWORTHY

Old timers will probably recall with interest that it was Father Goutier who, in the early days, founded the present Parish of the Holy Name Church and ministered to it for seventeen years. He was a well loved priest, is now retired and living in France. He is an uncle of Rev. Father Maurice Goutier who only recently was ordained Priest in the very parish which his uncle founded so many years ago. In a letter home, Fr. Goutier said in part, "Should anyone have told me that in the Parish which I founded, a young man would be ordained to the Priesthood, and that young man be a nephew of mine, I would say that it is a dream, but now it is a dream come true."

Dr. Longman Retires

The recent announcement from the Alberta Department of Agriculture of the retirement of Dr. O.S. Longman brings to a close another stage in the career of this distinguished agriculturist. For 42 years, with the exception of two brief periods elsewhere, Dr. Longman has been associated with the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

In 1913 he became instructor at the newly established School of Agriculture at Claresholm and in 1915 was transferred to the School of Agriculture at Olds. In 1917 Dr. Longman married Miss Edith Barker of Claresholm and from 1920 to 1931 was principal of the School of Agriculture at Raymond. This was the period of irrigation development and establishment of the sugar beet industry and with both these activities Dr. Longman was closely associated.

A special investigation on behalf of the Alberta Government of the problems of farmers in the C. P. R. Irrigation District and the drought area occupied the years 1931-32 and from then until 1934, Dr. Longman was engaged as farm manager with the Canadian Finance Corporation at Indian Head, Sask. He returned to Alberta in 1934 as Field Crops Commissioner and retained this position until his appointment as Deputy Minister of Agriculture in 1942. Dr. Longman was the first western-born Canadian to hold office as Deputy Minister in Western Canada.

During the past few years he has acted in an advisory capacity on several important provincial and national committees and his services to both province and nation have been justly acclaimed. Among the honors bestowed on Dr. Longman have been the M.B.E. in 1946, Fellowship in the Agricultural Institute of Canada in 1948, and the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws from the University of Alberta in 1954.

Booming Alberta

Geological statistics, population figures and splendid prophecies pour from the lips of the Alberta booster writes Bruce Hutchinson in The Financial Post, like oil from a high-pressure well — "Edmonton will double in size by 1970 and contain half a million people; it already buys more automobiles per capita than any North American city except Los Angeles; 60% of its people own their own homes; and in due time, as wisely arranged by the Almighty, this will be the industrial centre of the nation."

Square Notes From Circle Eight

Sunday, July 17th was the day chosen for two couples from each individual square dance club on highway 16 and north of it, to meet together in Mannville to endeavor to form a square dance local for this area.

Six clubs sent representatives and it was the feeling of all present that our newly-formed Northeastern Square Dance local will be a benefit to all.

New ideas were brought up in addition to ironing out a few difficulties. Through this local we shall be able to schedule our dances so that no town cubs in this area have dances falling on the same night, thus we may all gain new visitors.

The local will meet in Mannville once a month with a roving chairman to be from a different club each time. Bill Hyatt of the Green River Squares shall be our next chairman and Agnes Hinton from Mannville is the secretary-treasurer.

In order that our newly-formed local shall be self-supporting, all clubs present agreed to join together to put on a huge dance in the Mannville school auditorium on Aug. 5. Henry Lien, Harold Schacher, Art Ziegler and many local callers from the clubs have agreed to donate an evening of calling with all proceeds being put into the 'local' treasury, to pay hall rent for future meetings, etc. It will not be in the form of a jamboree so come one and all as a couple or more but do come. The admission price is small, 50 cents, with no advance sale of tickets.

Come on Circle 8, and give your 'Local' a boost and have the time of your life while doing it!

Saskatchewan Book Now Off the Press

"Saskatchewan — the History of a Province' is off the press and is now available to the public at bookstores, it has been announced.

Written by Jim Wright of Saskatoon as a major Golden Jubilee project the book will be one of the lasting souvenirs of the celebration for Saskatchewan's 50th birthday. Over two years of research into the province's early days brought out the details for the history.

There are informative maps to accompany historical references, and more than 100 black and white drawings by A. W. Davey, well known Saskatchewan artist.

Dr. G. W. Simpson, head of the University of Saskatchewan history department, and Alexander Robb of Regina, an honors graduate in English and History, collaborated with Mr. Wright in the material for the book.

Chapter titles give the general idea of the book's contents. Here are some of the chapters — Rock, water and soil; first immigrants; furs, forts and pemmican; turning the sod; Progressives, Politics and Pools; depression, dust and defiance; men and machines.

New Deputy Is Well Known Here

The Department of Agriculture has announced the name of the man who will fill the post of Deputy Minister of Agriculture. He is Robert M. Putnam, former Assistant Deputy Minister and Superintendent of Schools. He fills the vacancy created by the retirement on June 30th of Dr. O. S. Longman.

Mr. Putnam is a native of Alberta who has had a wide range of experience in the service of the Department of Agriculture. After receiving his B.Sc. in agriculture in 1933 he was appointed fieldman with the Department. In 1937 he enrolled at the University of Wisconsin and received his M.Sc. in rural sociology. The following year he was appointed to the important post of Director of the Extension Service. In 1947 he assumed the additional duties of Assistant Deputy Minister of Agriculture. In 1949 he was transferred from the Extension Service to the position of Superintendent of Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics.

Mr. Putnam is the first native Albertan to be named Deputy Minister of Agriculture. His farm background obtained in the Medicine Hat district and his 22 years of service with the Department of Agriculture will undoubtedly prove to be valuable assets as he fills this important agricultural administrative post.

NOMINATED FOR DELEGATES

D. H. Mathison of Dewberry and George Davies of Lloydminster have been nominated for Alberta Wheat Pool delegates sub-district No. 603. Voting by members takes place this summer.

CHATSWORTH CHATTER

Our first really helpful rain fell on Tuesday, 28th, followed by a storm on Friday afternoon, July 1, with showers on Saturday and Sunday. Crops and gardens are very patchy as since the rain, new plants are coming.

There are a number of mudholes since the rain, and it is quite bad in our particular location. Every time it rains we are almost reduced to the method of springtime travel, that is, taking the tractor along to pull the truck out to the main road.

There were fifteen in attendance at the last church service at the Ottawa United church, many being absent through impassable roads. The next service is to be held on Sunday, 17th at 11 p.m.

Last Sunday afternoon, the Basswood baseball team were visitors to the Chatsworth diamond, on the S.E. ¼ of 28, which is one half a mile west of Chatsworth school. We have not heard the results however of that game.

PICNIC JULY 22

On Friday, July 22, a community picnic is being held at the same grounds, and it is hoped that everyone will turn out for some fun. There will be hot and cold refreshment booths on the grounds, a number of teams, Chatsworth, Basswood and Scotstoun will be playing ball, while a softball diamond is to be ready for the junior players.

There will be no admission charge to the grounds, so bring along a picnic lunch and enjoy an outing. It is hoped that neighbors from other districts will attend as everybody is welcome.

COUNTRY CLUB MEETING

The Chatsworth Country club meeting scheduled for Thursday, July 21, has been postponed until Aug. 4 at Mrs. R. Good's in town. Members (and non members wishing to ship with the club) are reminded that rags of all kinds, wool or cotton, silk, nylon, etc. are to be brought to this meeting, ready to forward before the fall rush of work is on. The lunch committee is Annie Hasenuik, Mrs. Patterson, May Panter and Evelyn Henningsen. As this is the annual meeting a good attendance is requested.

Donnie and Allen Good are visiting at the Fowler home in Edson, having travelled there with their cousin Miss Kathie Fowler, who has been teaching at Dewberry. The trip was made by car.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Honey, Sr. and June and George of Edmonton, were visitors to Mr. and Mrs. H. Henningsen's last week end, returning late Sunday afternoon.

Ruthie Tovell is visiting with the Hughes family at Basswood, while Evan Hughes is spending holidays at Tovell's.

A number of Stanley parties have been held recently — one at Mrs. Clayton Davis' on Wednesday June 22 and one at Mrs. Arnold Maggs' last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Davis left by car on June 30 for a holiday trip to Ontario and other points east. They expect to be away for about six weeks.

WIN AWARDS

Congratulations to the young people of our community who were successful in winning awards in the I.O.D.E. poster-making contest. These were Sylvia Wilson, first in Grade 6 competition; Frances Wilson, 3rd, Grade 4; Ruthie Tovell, 3rd, in Grade 3.

Mr. Arthur Tovell travelled to Pierceland, Sask., last Monday for a load of tamarac posts. He was accompanied by daughter Dorothy who didn't mind one bit getting up at 4 a.m. to make the trip with him.

F. U. A. MEETS

The July meeting of the Chatsworth Local F.U.A. was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson on Monday, July 11 with sixteen in attendance. Report of resolutions coming before and dealt with by the District 7 convention at Wainwright on July 4 was given by R. Wilson. At the close of the meeting a tasty lunch was served by the hostess. The August meeting is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henningsen on Aug. 8.

SUGGESTIONS TO THE PARK COMMITTEE

Call this constructive criticism, or just a suggestion — whatever you will — but we think it would be a good idea if the Parks committee set up "No Parking" signs on the roadway to the lake, as at times it is very difficult, not to mention hazardous, to drive through parked cars there. On the boulevard above the lake one does get a nice view of activities on the lake and beach, but it is quite inconvenient to other drivers, and we are sure the roadway was not intended as such. Cars coming out from the lake, on the south side, are forced to take to the wrong side of the road to pass these parked cars, some facing west, some east, and with incoming cars and dust almost like a fog, this creates a definite hazard.

Mr. G. Mallett, old time resident of the Fidelity district, sons Ivan and Carl of Forestburg, were visitors to Mannville, Vermilion and district for two weeks. It is the first time Mr. Mallet has visited here since leaving 40 years ago and he saw a great change in the towns and community.

Mrs. J. Farkash Jr. spent a few days in hospital last week, suffering a severe bout of sinus trouble.

British Boys Explore Wilds Of Newfoundland

Seventy-two British boys will take part in a six weeks' expedition organized by British Schools Exploring Society to explore hitherto uncharted parts of Newfoundland this month. Led by experienced officers from the three Services, they will lead a rigorous existence and will have to fend for themselves. The expedition is planned as an educational experience during which the boys will study surveying, meteorology, animal, plant and bird life and geology.

Disease resistance is another requirement to be kept in mind. Although diseases of oats have not to date been too serious a problem in central Alberta, the workers at Lacombe are fully aware of disease resistance, however, science is not the only defense against diseases of the oat crop, crop rotations, seeds of good quality and seed treatment will continue their importance in the reduction of crop disease losses.

Thirteen Houses Now Under Construction

HOME BUILDING PROGRAM IN VERMILION GAINS MOMENTUM

A home building program that is gaining momentum weekly bids fair to rival any previous year in the town's history in this avenue of construction.

At the present time there are not less than ten fine homes under construction within the town limits. Added to that are three houses on the V.L.A. holdings just west of the hospital.

Well on the road to completion are the following homes in the east end of town. These are located on lots in the new subdivision which was serviced by water and sewer lines less than two years ago.

Wm. B. Mix, John Wilhite, John Erdman, Charlie Calvert, Ted Herbert, Lester Metcalfe. In the east end but not in the new area is a very fine home being erected by Ted Edey.

Meanwhile the south side is seeing considerable construction activity. Ivan Jones has a house well underway on a corner location just north of the Ernie Corson residence while Klys De Bruin has commenced a new bungalow a little further to the west. Two other houses have been moved to locations in the same block and will be renovated, modernized and stuccoed.

In the west end of town Bill Boulton has a $10,000 home under construction. This is on the north side of the government houses.

V. L. A. PROJECT

Three homes have been started on the V.L.A. small holdings project just west of the hospital. These are being built by Gordon Ross, Tom McCauley and W. G. Keating on their three acre areas.

Will Convene At Kitscoty In 1956

School Trustees Association Hold Convention At Dewberry

The Vermilion School Trustees' Association convention was held in the school, Dewberry, on June 25.

A fine attendance assembled with Mr. Jas. McCorry president in the chair and Mrs. Mabel Golightly as secretary.

Mr. McCorry's address stressed the need of local trustees and their duties in conjunction with the divisional board, parents and their district.

Mr. Simonson, superintendent of schools, gave a very interesting talk on the teacher training programs showing how this had relieved the teacher shortage. The bursary plan had helped considerably, and the students are expected to teach in the area where it is obtained. Special teachers for commercial shop, etc. are difficult to obtain. He spoke on the teachers' pension plan where nine per cent of the teachers' wages pays for teacher retirement. Mr. David Clark gave greetings from the A.T.A. which were well received.

Mr. Geo. Cundliffe was next called upon to give the report on the convention held in Edmonton last November. The refresher course for secretaries, school room grants and the textbook question were the highlights of the report.

A highlight of this convention was a musical interlude that was enjoyed very much by all. Miss Eileen Jack of Kitscoty sang a solo, accompanied by Miss Sheila McCorry of Kitscoty. It relaxed the assembled and helped them to carry on refreshed.

Mr. Robson, secretary-treasurer of the Vermilion S.D. No. 25, spoke on liability insurance, which cleared up many questions asked by parents when accidents occur at school, etc. This is not in force yet but is under consideration.

Dr. Swift, deputy minister of education, spoke on the progressiveness of Alberta schools. He classed progress under two headings — the Capital "P" and the small "p". Anyone or organization that keeps up to date is progressing and makes a better contribution for the benefit of the people. Interest is applied to children and programs should be organized to make the children interested. Everyone is an extremist or a pacifist. If you are a teacher you should be a traditionalist or progressive. As there are no cults or doctrines in education in Alberta country schools, are reasonably progressive with a capital "P".

Mr. Andrews, general secretary of the A.S.T.A. gave an interesting talk on the 49th anniversary of the A.S.T.A. He compared the convention of today with one held in 1907. The cost of education then seemed so much less than now; grants were smaller and enrolment small. These showed a comfortable increase today. It was interesting to note the progress made in textbooks, salaries and grants. Mr. Andrews impressed the fact that the six-week course for teachers is a vast improvement over the supervisor plan and has proved successful in Alberta.

Mr. Mead, divisional chairman, gave fraternal greetings from the divisional board. He said the government bears 51% of school operation but everyone must help in a rigid economy budget to help in a tax reduction subsidy.

A lively question session then took place and Dr. Swift, Mr. Robson and Mr. Mead answered them clearly and helpfully.

The resolution committee headed by Mr. Geo. Cundliffe read three resolutions: 1. Brought by Mr. W. Hardstaff, Streamstown, wherein they want their school centralized to teach grade XI. This was tabled, as no one was left in authority to pass it. 2. A textbook rental plan, to be recommended and request the Department of Education to establish same, and was carried. 3. School bus roads be improved for spring and all transportation, carried.

Next year's officers are: Mr. R. Golightly, Marwayne, President; Mr. E. Grey, Marwayne, Vice-President; Mrs. Mabel Golightly, Secretary-Treasurer.

Mr. Neil Jones, Dewberry, spoke for the Courtesy committee thanking the speakers for their patience in answering questions and their interesting talks.

Next year's convention is to be held in Kitscoty and it is hoped for even a larger crowd and remember, everyone is very welcome.

FIFTEEN VERMILION MEN TRAINING AT SARCEE CAMP

SARCEE, Alta. July 12—"Able" Company of the Loyal Edmonton Regiment (3 Battalion PPCLI) have 15 Vermilion residents among 150 members of the regiment as part of the biggest postwar concentration of Militia soldiers in Western Canada. The Militia infantry camp counted more than 1,250 "citizen soldiers" on the week-long program of tough field training.

The "Edmontons" converged on the camp from points as widely separated as Dawson Creek B.C., Grand Prairie, Vegreville, Vermilion and the city of Edmonton, with the Dawson Creek and Grand Prairie contingents flying here Sunday.

Other members of the unit commanded by Lt.-Col. R. A. Bradburn, Edmonton, travelled by road.

Other northern Alberta units in camp include the 8th Independent Signal Squadron, Royal Canadian Signals and the 28th Technical Sq. Royal Canadian Electrical and Mechanical Engineers, both of Edmonton.

Neighbors of the northern Alberta Militia-men in the long lines of drab two-man bell tents were soldiers of The Calgary Highlanders, the Canadian Scottish Regiment, Victoria, B.C.; The Rocky Mountain Rangers from interior B.C. points; The Seaforth Highlanders, Vancouver, and the Westminster Regiment from New Westminster, along with Service Corps, Medical, Provost and Signal units.

The concentration is under the command of Brigadier John S. Adam, Victoria. Regular Army personnel performed a minimum role leaving most aspects of the training to Militia officers.

Highlight of the camp for the keen Militia-men, many of whom had given up their civilian holidays to attend, was a realistic two-day training exercise, — code-named "Trumpeter Cass." Following a brief brushing-up period, "Trumpeter" was scheduled to see attacking B.C. units pitted against the Alberta regiments in defence in the rolling countryside around Sarcee. The rapidly hardening Militia-men were slated to spend the night in the open under active field conditions.

Wednesday afternoon, the entire camp was scheduled to attend the Calgary Stampede.

Following the camp, the Edmontons will move north to Edmonton for three days of field firing at Camp Harris, Wainwright.

Tofield Lady Wins Car At Bingo

There was one very happy lady at the barbecue and bingo held by the Elks in the ball park here on Wednesday evening this week. This was Mrs. Dorothy Reilson, who came all the way from Tofield with friends, and then drove home in a new De Luxe model two-door 1955 Chevrolet. Mrs. Reilson was the first and only person to call Bingo, and so won the car in a walk. The Reilsons did not have a car prior to the Bingo, so the winner was more than usually excited and happy over winning the grand prize.

The bingo was preceded by a barbecue and the Wednesday afternoon and evening event was well handled and smoothly carried out.

A few of the prize winners are lacking, but winners of the games known to the Standard were: 2, Jack Marfleet, Vermilion; 3, Mrs. Butz, Landonville; 5, Mrs. Gunn, Lloydminster; 6, Mrs. Geo. Reasbeck, Vermilion; 7, Mr. B. Hansen, Viking; 8, Buster Larkin, Vermilion; 9, Mrs. Ritz, Dewberry; 10, the car, Mrs. D. Reilson, Tofield.

The barbecue beef was delicious and was included in the price of admission. The O.O.R.P. had a booth on the grounds, while the Scouts sold soft drinks, etc. Proceeds were scheduled by the Elks for the Scouts.

Return From Prize Trip To England

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Simonet returned Thursday of last week from a very enjoyable month spent in the British Isles. It will be recalled that the Simonet Brothers won this trip for man and wife as a result of their bull winning the Grand Championship for Herefords at the Calgary spring livestock show and sale. The trip overseas is awarded annually by Leonard P. Lord of Herefordshire, England, and comprises all expenses with a tour of England as well.

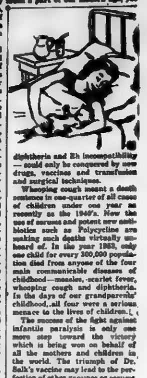
Safer Childbirth for Mothers and Babies

Among the achievements of modern medicine, probably none is more satisfying — or dramatic — than the vastly increased safety in childbirth. In 1953, while the number of births was soaring to a new high, only one American mother in 1,800 died during childbirth.



The year 1930 seems to us very much a part of our modern age, yet in that year in the United States, more than 12 women died out of every 1,000 who gave birth to a child. By 1945, this figure had been cut to four.

The benefits of new medical techniques haven't been confined to mothers. As the number of deaths of women in childbirth has plunged down, the number of their babies who survive the dangerous first year of life has risen sharply.

Today, the most dangerous time for the baby is during delivery and for the first few hours afterwards. In this crucial period, though, deaths have been cut by more than one-third in the last thirty years. Between 1915 and 1948, the number of babies who didn't survive their first month of life was reduced by one-half, and the number succumbing during the next 11 months dropped by four-fifths.

The fight against maternal and newborn fatalities has been waged on many fronts by physicians, health educators, hospitals and research scientists in institutions and pharmaceutical laboratories. One small example of this progress is the increasing use of penicillin to prevent infection in the eyes of newborn babies. The antibiotic is steadily replacing the use of potentially toxic silver nitrate for this purpose. Education of mothers-to-be, raising standards of hospital care for mother and child, and general public health education and legislation have played a major role in making births safer today than they have ever been in the history of man.

Some of the important killers, however — childbed fever, pregnancy toxemias, whooping cough, diphtheria and Rh incompatibility — could only be conquered by new drugs, vaccines and transfusion and surgical techniques.

Whooping cough meant a death sentence in one-quarter of all cases of children under one year as recently as the 1940's. Now the use of serums and potent new antibiotics such as Polycycline are making such deaths virtually unheard of. In the year 1952, only one child for every 300,000 population died from anyone of the four main communicable diseases of childhood—measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough and diphtheria. In the days of our grandparents' childhood, all four were a serious menace to the lives of children.

The success of the fight against infantile paralysis is only one more step toward the victory which is being won on behalf of all the mothers and children in the world. The triumph of Dr. Salk's vaccine may lead to the perfection of other vaccines or serums to ward off the virus diseases.

Strawberry Social Held At Islay

Saturday evening, July 9, the community hall at Islay was the scene of the Knox United Church W.A. strawberry social.

There were over 90 people served their choice of a luscious and large helping of strawberry shortcake or a generous portion of ice cream topped with strawberries.

An especially hungry group were the ball players. The 18 years and under boys of Islay played the Islay men's team. Although the men managed the higher score they will have to look to their laurels another time, for the boys are very keen.

Among those lending a helping hand with the food service in the hall were Mrs. Dave Matrin, Miss Bessie Anderson, Mrs. Bill McLean, Mrs. Elsie Clark, Mrs. G. Midgley, Mrs. W. Waterfield, Mrs. I. D. Inman, Mrs. F. Axley, Mrs. J. Axley and Miss Muriel Stone.

Bonnyville Car Winners Split Money Four Ways

Four holders of bingo cards for the Bonnyville newspaper car bingo split and each took $500 instead of gambling for the works.

Decision was made at the Bonnyville theatre where all persons involved were present. They were: Miss Solang Couillard, St. Paul; Mrs. Rene Tercier, Bonnyville; Mrs. May Erickson, Grath; and joint holders of one card, Miss Toots Chilman and Tom Papierney of Bonnyville. —St. Paul Journal.

Thirty 50-ton steel sheathed overhead-iced express refrigerator cars have been ordered by the Canadian National Railways from Marine Industries Ltd. Delivery of the new cars, for use on Canadian lines, is scheduled to be completed in December.

WOODVALE NOTES

Summer weather after a nice rain, with crops and gardens growing well once again and the countryside looking lovely and green in the sunlight and beautiful sunsets . . . At such times it's a pleasure to show visitors around our fair land. What we'd like to know though, is what happened to the beavers in the coulee, the muskrats in the sloughs? They vanished over winter and so disappeared a very picturesque part of our landscape. Are they not supposed to be protected? In past years we have refrained from telling stories about them, on request, as we were told, "certain people" knowing their whereabouts would be sure to trap them. If and when new colonies once again become established, could not something more be done about them to prevent unlawful trapping?

Mr. R. Ganton from Vancouver, accompanied by his son Herb from Edmonton, paid a visit recently to his sister Mrs. B. McGrath. Mr. Burton Tiffaney from Detroit spent a few days with his aunt, Mrs. A. McQuid and was taken on a trip by car to Jasper, Banff and Calgary by his uncle.

Fred Slocum, along with Mr. and Mrs. A. McQuid, Mrs. Edith Pettinger, son Jim and dog Mugs are staying this week at the writer's home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Lewistock left Saturday for Banff to see his sister and family, but will return in September for another month on the farm.

Mr. W. Machell was allowed to leave the hospital last week and moved into the new home in Islay, where his wife and son are well settled now.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. Hohol on the birth of a son on July 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. Pelletier have come to live on the Goutier farm and moved into the old family home, where in late years Peter and Fernand used to batch. It is nice to have Therese with her husband and three children back again in Woodvale.

TOLLAND PICNIC

The Tolland picnic on July 6th took place on one of the loveliest days of the summer and the perfect weather brought a big crowd to the ball games, where Basswood came out as the winner. The Woodvale and Preston school teams battled it out once again and this time Woodvale was the loser. Well, you can't win every time! But let us know when you do again! This yearly event brings together a great many old timers from all around, who enjoy meeting each other there, and every year a crop of new babies are greatly admired. The booths did a roaring business and a big crowd came to the dance at night, when Mr. and Mrs. W. Funnell furnished the music and Adam Dusek was M. C.

It was decided that next Red Cross meeting and quilting bee will be held at the home of Mrs. S. Oldenburg, who is staying on the ranch for the summer months.

Mrs. Pich and son Tom from Edmonton paid a visit to some of their former Woodvale neighbors. Mrs. Pich stayed with the Preston family, while Tom went to town with the Soley boys and spent the night with them.

Sincere sympathy goes to Mrs. G. Dibben and her family, whose husband died so suddenly over the week end.

The slick surface of wet asphalt roadways has sent many a motorist limping to the garage with flattened fenders and shattered headlamps. But now research engineers have come up with something that sharply reduces this accident hazard. When their special aluminum oxide abrasive is applied to the road surface, it cuts down by more than 30% the stopping distance of your car when you apply the brakes at 30 m.p.h.

. . . So in addition to saving weight and work in a thousand everyday and special applications, aluminum may prove a major factor in saving lives, too.

Bride-Elect Honored At Mannville Shower

MANNVILLE. — Miss Maxine Leitch, a bride-elect of this week was honored at a miscellaneous shower on Thursday evening last in the United church hall. After a few games and contests a beautifully decorated wagon was brought in filled with lovely and useful gifts which Mrs. Fred Proudfoot presented to Maxine on behalf of the many friends gathered there and those who were unable to attend. Maxine very appropriately expressed her appreciation for the gifts and for being remembered so well after being away from Mannville for several years.

Chief Justice Is Speaker At Rotary

Members of the Rotary Club received a rare treat last Friday when the guest speaker, His Honor Chief Justice Nelles Buchanan from Edmonton gave a most inspiring and interesting talk on Citizenship. The remarks were addressed to several citizens who have recently received their citizenship papers and who were guests of the Rotary Club on this occasion as well as to the members generally.

His Honor mentioned in opening his remarks that he had found Rotarians to be very friendly folk and that the organization was founded on a basis of high ethics, good fellowship, and had spread around the world to further the cause of Peace. He admonished the members present to do everything they could to bring newcomers to Canada to the point where they can apply for citizenship in this Canada of ours.

Thanks of the Rotarians and all present were nicely voiced by Mitchell Taylor.

91 In Shade On Thursday – High For the Year

91 in the shade here on Thursday is the high for the year to date. This followed hard on the heels of an 86 above reading Wednesday. Only a trace of rain has fallen in the past seven days. The last shower worthy of mention was on Thursday of last wek when one-tenth of an inch fell.

Growing conditions have been ideal but rain is again a necessity.

Agricultural Research Pays Dividends

The cost of agricultural research in Britain has nearly doubled in the last 5 years. The Minister of Food and Agriculture told delegates at the London Conference of the Commonwealth Agricultural Bureaux that this research is already paying big dividends and it will pay bigger ones, and that there was no end to the stream of new things pouring out of laboratories for pest, weed and disease control.

Observe Silver Wedding Anniversary

About 130 neighbors and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stone gathered at a lawn party at the Stone home to honor them on the occasion of their Silver Wedding anniversary Sunday July 3rd.

Mr A. Majury, while proposing the toast to the bride and groom of 25 years ago recalled that he had taught Alex in school, had proposed the toast to the bride of 25 years ago and had been a neighbor to the Stones all these years. He pointed out the prominent place that both of them had taken in community affairs the help that they had been to their friends and neighbors, and the high esteem in which they were held among their many friends.

Mr Stone replied to the toast by thanking Mr Majury and all those who had assembled to help them celebrate their wedding anniversary.

The ladies of the Buffalo Coulee community had arranged the lawn party under the direction of Mrs. Alfred Green, Mrs Rose Harle and Mrs. W. [illegible] as a surprise to Mr and Mrs. Stone.

The tea table set out on the lovely [illegible] was decorated with a 25th wedding anniversary cake which was made by Mrs Green, and iced by her. Mrs Harle and Mrs. Bush [illegible]. The cake was of three tiers and had an arch over the top with silver bells. The icing was decorated with pink roses.

[illegible] numerals "25" were placed on the lace cloth covering the table.

Mr Gordon Larson of Buffalo Coulee presented the bride and groom with a beautiful silver tray on behalf of their community friends. There were also many gifts in silver from various members of the family.

The guests who had arrived from a distance were Rev. Dr. M. Majury from Ireland who is visiting at the home of his brother Mr Arthur Majury, Misses Louise and Doreen [illegible], Mr George Rodgers, Mr and Mrs Bert Smith, the former a brother of Mrs Stone all of Edmonton, Mr and Mrs Archie Little and their son Stewart and daughter Glenna, from Vegreville. Mrs Little and Mrs Stone are sisters. Another guest at the reception coming all the way from India was Miss Laura Allen, presently visiting her sister Mrs W. [illegible] of Buffalo Coulee.

Vermilion Boys At Anglican Ch. Camp

On Monday, July 11th, there were nine very excited boys leaving Vermilion to go to the Anglican church camp at Kapasawin Beach.

There are between 50 and 60 boys at this Diocesan camp from July 11 until July 20th. The Rev. W. T. Elkin is the camp manager for the full month of July. The leader for the Junior Boys' period, which is that being enjoyed by the Vermilion boys, is the Rev. H. W. Buchner. The people of Vermilion will remember the Rev Buchner for his good work here until the time of the arrival of Rev. K. A. Minchin.

Boys of Vermilion attending the camp are Donald Dixon, Bert Risdale, Win Pockett, Terry Cooper, David Ackerman, Allan Cosh, Robert Parr, Eddie Waterfield and Kenny Gunn. These boys are all being housed in one cabin.

Mr. Loch Martin and Mr. Percy Cooper drove the boys to Kapasawin Beach Monday morning.

Vermilion Horse Proves Winner

Two or three years ago W. R. Hayward bought a fancy stepping Palamino stallion from Bruce Baldwin. A picture of this horse (Silver) and his rider appeared in the Kamloops paper recently with the following comment: "The 'Lone Ranger' (alias Herb Cripps) on Hayward's Palamino stallion caught the eye of the judges, and when the final figures had been tallied, the awards for the Best Horse in the parade went to this combination."

LOCALS

Mrs. Goodwin has been away visiting daughter Eleanor-Jean, her husband and family in Calgary, where a new grandchild has recently arrived. Mrs. Goodwin continued on from there to Kelowna, B.C. to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Litster. She was accompanied as far as Calgary by her daughter Carol, who remained with sister Eleanor-Jean in Calgary.

Mr and Mrs. Walter McIntosh and family from Edmonton are holidaying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kirk, town. Walter used to spend his time in Vermilion playing tennis with the Coopers and [illegible] Millward, but years finally caught up with him and he now plays golf.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Marshal, the twins Morley and Merle and Darlene from the coast, are away on a motor trip to points along the Western U. S. coast.

The many friends of Miss Gertrude Craig will be much surprised to learn that she celebrated her 80th birthday several months ago. Used to seeing Miss Craig shopping and about town, very few of her friends realized that she had reached that age. She is the oldest sister of Mr. John Craig and regretted very much that she was unable to attend the golden wedding anniversary of Mr and Mrs John Craig which was celebrated at Prince Albert on June 29th. Sixty-four years ago Miss Craig attended the 50th wedding anniversary of her grandparents, she also attended the silver anniversaries of Mr. and Mrs. John Craig and Mr and Mrs. Albert West.

A donation for the Crippled Children's Fund in memory of the late H. Wentworth Brown has been received from Frank and Doris Wilson.

Mr and Mrs. George Van den Dolder of Summerland, B.C., are visiting at the home of Mr and Mrs Van den Dolder Sr. for a couple of weeks. They will also be guests of other members of the family during their stay in Alberta.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to take this opportunity of expressing our sincere appreciation to our many friends who helped make our Silver Wedding anniversary such a memorable day and to extend our thanks for the beautiful gifts, cards and good wishes which we received.

F. U. A. DISTRICT No. 7 HOLD ANNUAL CONVENTION

For once I've done just what I always wanted to do at a convention — just sit in and have no part. I would like to report, not so much the actual work being done, but my own impressions.

When Dr. Wallace, Wainwright's mayor, pointed out the urge to co-operate between the various town councils and boards of trade, a thought passed through my mind, "to what degree does this exist?" But when Mr. Young pointed out that the basic industry of our country, 'Agriculture' consisting of approximately 20% of the population, only rated 9% of the income, there must surely be room for improvement in urban and rural relations.

Our district president, Mr. Anderson, brought out a very nice thought, viz: "Live for the present, with an eye to the future, not forgetting our past." True, most of us live for the present, but how many think of the future generations? When you see so much destruction going on, so much land being wasted by swirling clouds of dust and running water, for 'tis here that our past has lessons which we all might follow, but here again when an industry has less than half the spending power of its contemporaries, they find it a hard and difficult row to hoe.

Another point which was brought sharply to my attention was that of organizations. This is a district's responsibility. We have the set-up for it, and yet we find corners, quite large corners, where there is no local, this should not be where we have a steadily growing [illegible].

This year, the convention was outstanding in the large number of women delegates. This is all to the good, since, in my opinion, next to the juniors, the ladies are the most important part of our union. There is nothing affecting agriculture which does not affect the wives and mothers more. On the other hand, as usual, there were very few juniors. And I think that we make a mistake that we don't encourage this branch more. After all, they represent the future. In all there were 232 registered delegates, and quite a large number of visitors.

There was a large number of resolutions on a wide variety of subjects from free X-rays to all patients under a doctor's care at the advice of the doctor, to medical health care at cost; from financial assistance to young farmers starting up, to adequate homes for our pensioners and the removal of the unearned increment tax on lands which have been used by the owner for a period of five years or more.

Two Women Win Jasper Vacations

WINNIPEG. — Two all-expenses paid vacations, including travelling and five days at C.N.R.'s Jasper Park Lodge in Canadian Rockies, have been won by two Ontario women. The winners, one a waitress and the other a private secretary, are Mrs. Rita Dagenais of Sudbury and Mrs. Geraldine Coffey of Toronto.

Their answers to the question — "how can Canadian restaurants help tourists to enjoy their trip even more" was considered best by judges of the contest, which was open to 100,000 people engaged in Canada's food-service industry.

The national contest, sponsored by Standard Brands Ltd., and the Canadian Restaurant Association, was aimed at attracting more tourist dollars to Canada through its restaurants and public eating establishments.

Employees' ideas, say the contest sponsors, will "undoubtedly bring pleasure to tourists and those who like eating out". They also feel that a healthier respect for distinctively Canadian food will result.

Health Unit Notes

MENTAL DEFECT

Mental defectivness is legally defined as a condition of arrested or incomplete development of mind, existing before the age of eighteen years, whether arising from inherent causes or induced by injury or disease. The condition can be divided into the following groups:

IDIOCY — Person so deeply defective in mind from birth or from an early age as to be unable to guard themselves against common physical dangers. This is the lowest form of mental defectiveness and is recognizable from an early age. Physical deformities are common, and paralysis and convulsive attacks are frequent. Their speech consists of only a few monosyllables and they can do almost nothing for themselves. Most idiots are sterile and are very prone to disease, especially tuberculosis.

IMBECILITY — Persons in whose case there exists from birth or from an early age mental defectiveness not amounting to idiocy yet so pronounced that they are incapable of managing themselves or their affairs or in the case of children of being taught to do so. They are unable to earn a living independently even under the most favorable circumstances; a simple routine job is all that can be expected of them. They are stolid, ungainly people with poorly co-ordinated muscular movements. They can be taught simple tasks and to keep themselves clean. Physically they show numerous stigmata from paralysis to deformity of the soft tissue.

FEEBLE-MINDEDNESS — Persons in whose case there exists from birth or from an early age mental defectiveness not amounting to imbecility, yet so pronounced that they require care, supervision, and control for their own protection or the protection of others; or in the case of children, that they by reason of such defectiveness appear to be permanently incapable of deriving benefit from the instruction in ordinary schools. They do not exhibit the physical stigmata of the other two groups. In scholastic attainment they may be only slightly worse than the more poorly educated type of normal child. The type of work which they are capable is routine only, and many are unstable in their aims and occupations, moving from place to place and from one job to another. Many who rank as feeble-minded in the educational sense prove capable of supporting themselves socially on leaving school. Some acquire considerable manual dexterity and may show disproportionate accomplishments along special lines. Criminability is common among them, especially as dupes of others due to their ready suggestibility.

A Place of Permanent Burial

A Community Mausoleum for Your Local Cemetery
Vermilion — Alberta

THE MAUSOLEUM

Final arrangements have now been completed with the cemetery board for the construction of a Community Mausoleum in this town. It will be a fine building of reinforced concrete, limestone, and marble. Metal work will be of bronze. Since the first mausoleum was built in 353 B. C. which still exists, for King Mausolus (from whence we get the word mausoleum) such improvement in building materials has been made that a structure such as this is almost indestructible. It is of such strength that after a few hundred years when present cemeteries are obscure and present grave markers are lost, leaning or fallen, this building will stand out little if any the worse for the time it has stood, as stone becomes harder with [illegible].

PROGRESSIVENESS

A growing demand for The Community Mausoleum is shown by the fact that so many structures have been and are being built. While this particular section of the country has a few at the present time, in many sections of the United States they are predominant. In the past the excessive cost has made this type of burial out of reach of the average man but now it is actually cheaper than the average ground burial.

OUR DUTY TO THE LIVING

Since the beginning of time it has been man's custom to reverence his dead and it becomes a comforting thought in any age to know that one has done all possible and has given his loved one the most suitable resting place which the present time has to offer. This building provides a place where families may lie side by side in snow white compartments high and dry where neither water nor dampness can enter. Embalming has reached such a high state of perfection that if a body is kept dry it will retain its present condition for centuries to come. This was true in Egyptian burials where water and dampness were non-existent, however water or moisture quickly nullifies all of this.

To make provisions for a final resting place which will be secure, ready, and one which cannot be molested is not only a duty owed to our dead but is evidence to the living of our desire for their well being both now and for always. To put off arrangements until the time arrives is no better business than omitting other business transactions until the last moment. In the case of death the grief is so great and decisions so numerous that many regrettable and unchangeable mistakes are made.

THERE IS A BETTER WAY

From time immemorial it has been customary in Europe for families to select a final resting place for their members in advance of actual needs. This sensible practice has now become the custom in America among thinking men and women.

Death is no respector of person or persons and sooner or later every family must face bereavement. The average death follows a period of heavy expenses, often accompanied by loss of income. The insurance that was intended for the care of the loved ones or the education of the children is depleted and the family left in debt.

A final resting place must be selected within a limited time, regardless of finances, weather, mental anguish or personal inconvenience. Frequently the choice has necessarily been left to a disinterested outsider and too often have such hasty arrangements been the cause of everlasting regrets. It is often true that these sad but absolutely necessary arrangements are hampered by lack of adequate funds or lack of time and mental poise for the exercise of one's best judgment. We consign the mortal remains to a shallow earthly grave over which we have scant control at present and probably none in the future. A drive through a cemetery which is no longer in use will show how quickly earthly burial is blotted out, the grave and stone obliterated.

Only when the mind is undisturbed by grief or financial uncertainty, can this important duty be disposed of calmly and intelligently. Every family deserves the protection which the ownership of Mausoleum space offers.

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD SECURE SPACE

BECAUSE: The same business judgment demands it, that prompts you to save money, to carry life insurance and to make your will. Now in the calm of health you can consider and choose that which you think is best, an almost impossibility when a death occurs and the family's mind and judgment is racked with despair.

BECAUSE: Mausoleum entombment is a scientific and civilized, as well as a sentimental mode of caring for the dead. The only way to keep a body perfectly preserved after it has been embalmed is by keeping moisture and dampness away from it.

BECAUSE: At present the cost is no more, and in most cases not as much as ground burial when a lot, monument, [illegible] work and other cemetery expenses are considered. The building is the monument, far surpassing in size and beauty any other form of monument or memorial.

BECAUSE: This mode of entombment is both reasonable and scriptural. Our Lord was laid in a rock hewn crypt and early Christians followed this custom. The wealthier class of people have used this type of burial almost exclusively for many centuries and most of our national heroes have been buried in [illegible], some of which include Grant, Lincoln, Garfield, Washington and McKinley. [illegible] now make this type of burial in reach of almost everyone.

BECAUSE: When you place the [illegible] of any of your loved ones in this memorial, it will be a great comfort to know that they are at rest in a clean, dry place, free from the disagreeable features of ground burial.

BECAUSE: Preparation is wisdom's cure for worry—the only cure. Insuring the house does not prepare it to burn, but prepares us to live without worry as to the ever present possibility of it burning. Providing for mausoleum protection is not preparing to die, it is preparation to live without worry as to the ever present possibility of loved ones dying and being placed in damp cold graves.

BECAUSE: It is an investment. It cannot be damaged or destroyed and will be worth more in later years than it is now. Due to the fact that when a Community Mausoleum is built in a town this size all space is contracted for before it is built, therefore SPACE IS LIMITED TO THOSE WHO HAVE BOUGHT, and cannot be used by anyone except by them, unless one of the owners desires to sell his or her interest.

THE INEVITABLE — FOR WHICH WE SHOULD PREPARE

If you desire to be prepared and secure yourself and your family a permanent and clean resting place, you should inquire for particulars about the mausoleum to be erected in your town. The cost now is in most cases not [illegible] burial when all expenses are considered. [illegible]

Of Many Things . . .

COW KILLER

I had to go to a lawyer the other day. His office was lined with books.

"My gosh, do you have to read all those?" I said.

"Well, they are all related to the law," he informed me, sounding, I thought a bit proud and important about it.

But instead of thinking how important it made him, I started to think about the city farmer and his cow.

This fellow bought a small holding in the country and got himself a cow. One day the cow jumped through his fence and got into a neighbor's property. He put a yoke on it and kept it yoked. Another time it got into wet clover and nearly burst itself. He put hobbles on it and kept it hobbled. Then she caught some sort of skin disease. The vet said to dip it and treat the skin. He did — but he kept dipping it forever after. Then one day, by mistake, it got some [illegible] weed in its feed, and the milk was spoiled — so he quit feeding her. Then, of course, the cow stopped giving milk — because it died.

Can't we learn a lesson from this? For one reason or another, we've got all sorts of different laws on the statute books. They might have been all right in their day — for some specific purpose. But we have left them there, just like the green farmer did with his cow.

We've got restrictions, regulations, enactments, re-enactments; we have government forms in duplicate, triplicate, and most of the other 'cates'.

We are in danger of [illegible] Canada, young as she is, [illegible] like European countries — [illegible] the city farmer's cow.

Isn't it time we had a little more freedom again? Who would like to join me in a crusade to get rid of some old [illegible] and hobbles?

THE WORLD OF WHEAT
by
W. O. [illegible]
[illegible]

QUALITY DETERMINATION IN WHEAT

When outlining the steps that his country intended to take towards improving wheat quality, the U. S. Secretary of Agriculture, Benson, recently referred to the intended broad scale try-out in the field of a relatively new and little known method of testing the [illegible] bread making quality of wheat.

This method, which is known as the 'sedimentation test' is designed to measure both the quantity and quality of gluten in wheat. Very [illegible] wheat is ground [illegible] to produce [illegible] and this is then shaken with an acid solution so that the gluten swells. It is then left to settle for a specified period and the height to which the swollen gluten stands, after a given time, is [illegible] measure of both the quantity and quality of the gluten, which is [illegible].

At the present time, [illegible] is regarded in Canada as a rough objective one only. Whether or not, therefore, it will ultimately be used in the U.S.A. for the purpose intended, is still a question. It would seem more likely that some such system as that which is followed in Canada, namely the classification of wheats initially on the basis of variety may ultimately find favor, each wheat variety here having to pass a strict test on a basis of [illegible]

WILDMERE WINKS

A gloom of sadness was cast over our district on Sunday when word was received that Mr. Geo. Dibben had passed away suddenly that morning about 10 o'clock. He had been quite ill for several weeks in hospital but had come home and was able to sit up in a chair, where he was when he passed away. Mr. Dibben lived for many years in our corner and where their family grew up. He leaves to mourn his passing his loving wife, one daughter Gwen (Mrs. W. T. Garnett), four sons, Roy and David of the Basswood district, Frank and Robert of Vermilion. We, along with the communities of Wildmere and Basswood, extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family in their hour of sorrow. God saw the road was heavy and called him home to his well earned rest.

Here is an item we have unintentionally omitted, but nevertheless is sincere — we wish to congratulate Joan Dibben of Preston Central school and Joanne Hohol of Woodvale school on their winning essays on 'Farm Safety'. Well done girls.

Kenny Graham, Jim Seale, Gary and Wayne Green are all attending the camp for boys at Whitney Lake the past week. They will return this Wednesday. Mr. Howard Plant our student minister, is there too.

Mr. Laurence Graham, who has worked the past three months at Domremy, Sask., spent from Saturday evening until Tuesday at the Wallington home in Wildmere. He said there had been lots of rain where he was. Laurence has now gone to Ontario on the haying excursion.

This is picnic time. Mannville on July 1 and the parade there was good. A lot of work had been put on the floats and it was nice to see so many old timers who had pioneered and still call Mannville their home. Some good ball games were played that day.

Buffalo Coulee picnic, rained out June 30 was held Monday, July 4 with a nice attendance.

On Wednesday July 6th Tolland held their annual picnic. It was a perfect day, not too hot nor too cold. Preston ball team won first money; Preston softball team won from Woodvale school team. The booths sponsored by the F.U.A. and Tolland Red Cross group did a real business in supplying refreshments. A dance in the evening brought the day to a close.

Wildmere curlers are holding a picnic July 15 on the Cruthers' ball grounds. Plan to attend and meet your neighbors and friends there. Dance at night in Basswood school.

Triangle is holding their picnic Wednesday, July 20 at [illegible] Cooper's with a dance in the evening in Triangle school.

Wedding bells will be ringing this week for one of our Wildmere born and raised young men.

We are indeed sorry that our local man, Ashley Cooper, was defeated in the third count in the provincial election and wish him better luck next time if he is on the political scene then. We hope Mr Whitson is successful in his new field of endeavor.

On Sunday Mrs J. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs A. Holte and Baillie, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sweeney and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallington went over to Auburndale church to hear Rev. Dr. Majury of Antrim, Ireland, who along with Mr. Plant took the sermon. We are sure everyone enjoyed it very much. There was a nice attendance. The church board and helpers are to be congratulated on the nice addition that has been added to the church.

We wish to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stone of Buffalo Coulee on their 25th wedding anniversary July 3. May you enjoy many more years of happiness together.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hart, from west of Vermilion, visited for awhile on Sunday at the Wallington home. We enjoyed your visit, come again folks.

Next Sunday, July 17 it is planned to hold church at Preston school. Volunteers have worked faithfully getting the pews fixed up and the ladies are cleaning the school. Plan to attend church at Wildmere again.

Miss Margaret Fadden, in training for a nurses' aide at Calgary, was home for a few days not long ago. Margaret has gone to Coleman hospital in the Crow's Nest Pass for some of her training. Miss Phyllis Webb of Mannville who entered the same time has been sent to Galahad, Alberta.

We were pleased to see Mr. and Mrs. O. Weisenberger of Trochu in town Saturday. Their son Arthur is spending his holidays with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Proctor and Uncle Reginald of Hindville district.

Ellenor Tracy Bride of Albert Cleland

ST. ALBERT. — A ceremony performed by Rev. A. G. S. Edworthy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel G. Richardson recently solemnized the marriage of Miss Ellenor Sylva Tracy and Mr. Albert Beattie Cleland.

Beneath an archway banked at the base with baskets of gladioli, stock and snapdragons, the couple exchanged marriage vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. M. Sylva Tracy of Edmonton and the groom is the son of Mrs. Isobel Cleland of Vermilion.

Mr. James E. Walker of Edmonton gave the bride in marriage.

For her nuptials she wore a gown of white eyelet organdie fashioned with scoop neckline and trimmed with medallion lace. The slim bodice was designed with three-quarter length sleeves and the skirt, in ballerina-length, was bouffant.

The bride wore a wide picture hat of white lace and she carried a white Bible and cascade bouquet of Sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Harold R. Cleland of Vermilion was her sister's matron of honor, wearing a frock of yellow nylon, small hat of white satin and velvet and white accessories. A corsage of Talisman roses was pinned at her shoulder.

Mr. William Cleland of Vermilion, brother of the groom, was best man and Miss Lynn Sumner played the wedding music.

At a reception after the ceremony Mr. Richardson proposed a toast to the bride, and the bridegroom's mother poured tea.

Leaving for a wedding trip to Jasper and northern Alberta, the bride donned a travelling suit of green tweed in double-breasted style with grey pearl buttons. Her small cloche model hat was white and her accessories were in white and green. En corsage she wore Sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleland will make their home at Vermilion.

Auto Industry Has Biggest Month

TORONTO — Canadian automobile manufacturers in May, 1955 employed more people, turned out more vehicles, and yielded more tax revenue to the federal government, than in any month since the industry was started 52 years ago.

According to the Canadian Automobile Chamber of Commerce, the eight motor vehicle manufacturers in Canada had 42,807 persons on their payroll in May, earning a total of $15,500,212 in wages and salaries. In addition to employment in the automobile factories an estimated 150,000 Canadians get their pay checks from firms supplying components and materials and another 55,000 work for motor car [illegible].

The industry produced a record 58,121 passenger cars and trucks in May topping the April total of 54,087 and the previous all-time high of 52,365 in April, 1953. May output included 41,780 passenger cars [illegible] market and 4,132 cars and 1,595 trucks for export.

Total production of 224,679 cars [illegible] of 1955, notwithstanding the fact one major company was virtually out of production for [illegible] months because of a labor dispute, [illegible] the 216,109 vehicles built in the first five months of 1954. However, it was behind the record 234,280 cars and trucks produced in the first five months of 1953.

Canadian government tax collectors had their richest take in history from the automobile business in May, garnering $21,679,930 from sales and excise tax on vehicles. The previous highest month was May, 1953, with $19,053,050.

In the first five months of this year the Canadian automobile industry produced 208,017 vehicles for sale in Canada. In the period sales and excise taxes remitted to the federal government totalled [illegible] and payroll was [illegible]. — Quick Canadian Facts

Cabinet Portfolios Matter of Conjecture

EDMONTON — What does the Premier plan to do about the holes left in his cabinet by the June 29 provincial election? That's the big question in Alberta politics these days.

When the final results became known on Wednesday of last week, Social Credit had been returned to power with 37 seats and a voting majority. Three cabinet ministers had been defeated in their ridings.

Hon. Lucien Maynard, attorney-general lost out to Liberal candidate A. Soetaert in St. Albert riding; Hon. C. E. Gerhart, provincial secretary-treasurer, was defeated by a Liberal, L. Sims in Acadia-Coronation. Hon. Ivan Casey, minister of lands and forests was replaced in Okotoks-High River by R. Ellis, an independent candidate with Liberal and Conservative backing.

The defeat of Mr. Maynard left the Social Credit party without a lawyer in the legislature. The opposition on the other hand will have four lawyers, three Liberals and a Conservative, when the house meets for a special session next month. Besides Mr. Maynard, Social Credit lost Michael Ponich of Vegreville, the only other lawyer it had in the last house. Mr. Ponich was the Social Credit party whip.

This leaves the Premier without an attorney-general in the legislature and he may have a difficult job finding one. Sources close to Mr. Maynard say he will be satisfied to retire from politics. Before the snap election was called, there were persistent rumors that he planned to retire from public life. Mr. Gerhart and Mr. Casey have declined to comment on their future plans.

ALTERNATIVES OPEN

There are several alternatives open to Premier Manning. He can redistribute duties among present members of the cabinet, elevate some back-benchers to cabinet rank or run his defeated ministers in by-elections at the expense of other elected Social Credit members.

If the premier decides to redistribute cabinet duties, he may take on the attorney-general's portfolio himself. There is nothing in the rules which says the attorney-general must be a lawyer. The late Premier Aberhart, a high school principal and evangelist served as attorney-general for some time.

Mr Manning was the provincial treasurer until late last year when he turned the portfolio over to Mr Gerhart, so he is familiar with that cabinet position in case he decides to take it again.

BACK BENCHER POSSIBILITIES

Among the back-benchers he might choose for cabinet jobs, F. C. Colborne, re-elected in Calgary riding has been mentioned as due for promotion. Other possibilities are Russell Patrick, re-elected in Lacombe riding, and Earl Hardy, of Bruce riding. Both Mr. Patrick and Mr Hardy are school teachers. Dr J. Donovan Ross, returned in Edmonton riding, is another member mentioned as due for elevation.

Alberta's political history provides plenty of precedent for holding elections to find seats for important members, but it would mean other members have to resign.

Solon Low, now National Social Credit leader was the provincial treasurer when he was defeated in the southern riding of Warner in 1940. The member for Vegreville resigned and Mr. Low won the resulting by-election.

When Social Credit swept the province in 1935, the late Premier Aberhart didn't even run. The Social Credit member for Okotoks-High River resigned so Mr. Aberhart could take the seat in a by-election.

Some political observers are inclined to discount the possibility of by-elections, at least for the time being. With the political scene still somewhat storm-tossed, they believe Premier Manning would have trouble finding a 'safe' seat to throw open for one of his ministers.

FEW 'SAFE' SEATS

A safe seat would be one in which Social Credit enjoys such popularity that the possibility of a defeat would be negligible. An analysis of the province-wide voting indicates that there may not be as many of these as in past elections.

In the first place second counts were necessary in more ridings than before. In previous elections Social Credit candidates received such clear majorities on the first counts that second counts couldn't have made any difference.

Secondly, where second counts were required in previous elections, the distribution usually gave the victory to Social Credit.

This time, however, there were a great number of cases where Social Credit-ers were leading, but distribution of the low man's votes gave the majority to the opposition.

The reason for this is that more voters marked their first and second choices for opposition candidates, leaving out the government candidate altogether.

C C F SWINGS

This is what happened in Mr. Gerhart's riding of Acadia-Coronation. Mr. Gerhart was leading on completion of the first count, but didn't have a clear majority. So the CCF-er as low man was eliminated, and his votes distributed. Liberal L. Sims picked up more than 300 votes from the CCF second choices, compared with 98 for Gerhart. The second count gave the Liberal a margin of 361 votes.

The trend followed a similar pattern in many other constituencies.

In view of this, the premier may wait for some time before taking any action, possibly until after the impartial investigation he has promised into charges levelled against his government during the election campaign.

MAY REMAIN IN OFFICE

In the meantime Premier Manning's ministers can sit on the cabinet indefinitely. The only thing they can't do is sit in the legislature. The Premier has remained silent on his plans so far, but the province will be anxious to hear an announcement.

Former Islay Man Married At Red Deer

CRESTON. — Ferns and baskets of summer flowers decorated the altar of the Bible Institute Baptist church in Red Deer for the double ring ceremony of Joyce Anne Cooper and Roland George Ronaghan. Rev. G. I. Francisco heard the wedding vows of the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cooper, Red Deer, and the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Ronaghan, Creston.

The bride was escorted up the aisle by her father. Her traditional white satin gown was overlaid with net and lace featuring lace-edged tiers covering the bouffant skirt. The fitted net and lace bodice was complemented by a round neckline dotted with seed pearls and bandeau of satin and tulle held in place her fingertip veil edged with lace. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white glad florets and stephanotis centred with a white orchid.

Miss Maxine Ronaghan, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Her frock was of pale pink tulle over overglazed cotton. Matron of honor, Mrs. Gordon Hanson, sister of the bride, selected a mauve waltz-length gown. Both attendants carried colonial bouquets of sweet peas and sweetheart roses centred with a yellow rose, and wore floral bandeaux in tone with their gowns.

The flower girl, little Marilyn Cooper, niece of the bride, wore a frock of yellow organdy with a matching floral bandeau and carried a basket of mixed spring flowers. Karl Perschbacker, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mr. Ronald Munro was best man and ushers were Mr Gordon Hanson and Mr Roy Ronaghan.

During the ceremony Mr. Bill Clark sang "Lord Today We at Thine Altar Stand" and "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Mrs. D. D. Holmes.

At the reception for fifty guests, the bride's mother wore a navy and white sheer gown complemented by white accessories with a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother chose a white dacron dress with mauve figures, white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by lighted tapers. Mr. Francisco was master of ceremonies and Mr. John W. Christian paid tribute to the bride. Mr. Clark sang "O Home of Mine" and "Beautiful Dreamer".

For a motor trip to Jasper, Banff and points in B.C. the bride and groom wore matching light blue suits. The bride chose pink and white accessories, with a white orchid pinned at her shoulder.

Out of town guests included Mr and Mrs. G. H. Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Litter left behind at a camp or a picnic site may be a sign of past enjoyment but is a future headache for fellow tourists. If you've ever stopped at a spot despoiled by its former occupants, you know that a "litter bug" wreaks more havoc upon picnickers than ants or other insects possibly could.

Litter is unnecessary because it's so easy to leave a neat trail behind you. Picnic grounds and roadside parks are usually equipped with a trash receptacle for left overs. [illegible] take along your litter for disposal later.

Some people [illegible] the expense of [illegible] ways by [illegible] their trail with refuse. [illegible] avoid either extreme. Just take along a paper bag or box in which to store your trash temporarily.

It's easy to be a good samaritan when you travel. Make sure that future drivers, campers and picnickers will not be the victims of your untidiness.

M. D. Jarell, eminent Trichologist, demonstrates causes of baldness and how it can be prevented

How To Have Hair For A Lifetime To Be Demonstrated Here By Famous Trichologist

OFFERS WRITTEN GUARANTEE

AN EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW BY WARD ALLEN

LONDON, ONTARIO (Special) — M. D. Jarell, Director of Jarell Hair Experts of Canada exploded the "myth of baldness" today in an exclusive interview.

"Baldness is unnecessary, costly, and a plague to mankind," says Jarell. "No man need be bald. No man need suffer the stigma of premature old age that is forced upon him because he is losing his hair. The Jarell method of hair and scalp treatment can prevent baldness — can turn colorless fuzz into healthy, growing hair — can make you look youthful again."

Demonstration To Be Held in Vermilion, Alberta

This revolutionary method of home treatment for the hair and scalp will be demonstrated in Vermilion Friday ONLY, July 15th, at the Vermilion Hotel. Trichologist H. L. Martin will conduct the private, individual interviews from 12 noon until 9:00 p.m. on Friday ONLY. There is no cost or obligation and you need no appointment.

Reason For Baldness

There is always a reason for baldness," continued this nationally known authority. Hair cannot grow through a scalp that is infected with dandruff, excessive oiliness or extreme dryness. A scalp that has never been exercised cannot be expected to produce healthy hair. Men and yes women too, walk the streets today completely devoid of nature's greatest ornament — hair — simply because they were not taught the basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene while they were growing up. The simple answer," emphasized this expert, "is that children should be taught the same simple basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene that they are taught for the proper care of their teeth. If this were the case baldness would be a rarity today.

Heredity Not Involved

Trichologist Jarell dodged no issues. He quickly took up the most widely spread theory of baldness — heredity. "Mankind's unrealistic belief that baldness is heredity stems from a misinterpretation of the theory of genetics. Theory does not state that any person must be bald because baldness exists in the family. What it does say, is that in some families, a tendency exists towards an undernourished scalp." The purpose of Jarell Hair and Scalp Experts is to teach the methods of strengthening the weak scalp and nourishing it to a healthy, vigorous condition. "A healthy scalp will grow hair if it is not already completely bald," assures Jarell.

Is There Hope For The Completely Bald?

In his travels throughout the United States and Canada, Jarell has collected hundreds of testimonies of his ability to develop weak fuzz into healthy, mature hair. All of his clients have started with a private examination, hair and scalp analysis and a diagnosis of the disorder. Jarell is quick, however, to tell a hopeless case that he cannot be helped. "We strongly advise," says Jarell, "that no person who is completely bald hold any hope whatsoever of regrowing hair. If there is any fuzz at all, we can restore a healthy scalp condition and the hair will grow normally again as nature intended."

Offers A Guarantee

"Jarell Hair Experts of Canada, offer a guarantee to any client who enrolls for treatment. If he or she is not completely delighted with results at the end of 30 days, the money invested will be graciously refunded," pledged Jarell. "We must have satisfied clients. We must regrow hair. After all, it is our best advertisement."

Is Your Hair Healthy?

If you have a scalp disorder, or if you are worried about you hair, call Trichologist H. L. Martin at the Vermilion Hotel, in Vermilion, Friday ONLY, from 12 noon to 9:00 P.M. The public is invited. The examinations are private and open to men and women. You do not need an appointment, and you will not be embarrassed or obligated in any way.

HELP WANTED

I have been reading the classified section of the newspapers lately and I am impressed by the large number of help wanted advertisements. Jobs seem very plentiful compared to the days of my youth. I wondered what kind of a response advertisers were getting. I found out yesterday.

A business friend had advertised in Winnipeg papers for office help. He asked me to go over the applications with him to help make a selection. I learned a great deal about job-hunting in the process. I'd like to pass some hints along to young readers who may be looking for their first job.

Some candidates ruled themselves out in the first few sentences by careless spelling. Others neglected telling about their qualifications. Very few took pains to assure the advertiser that he would gain anything by employing them: they were too busy telling the advertiser the kind of hours and wages they wanted. His interests seemed to be secondary in their opinion. But one little girl won herself the job (and it is a good job) by adding this final paragraph to her application:

"I don't guarantee that I won't make mistakes but I do promise that I will work hard at any task you set before me. It will be my first job and I am keen to make a big success of it. My plan is to work so hard you'll never want to be without my services."

Yes there are lots of jobs; but I am afraid there aren't enough applicants with that spirit. The rare few who do possess it will rise high in any free country where energy and enterprise are valued. They just can't miss!

Expert Window Cleaner Retires

WINNIPEG — It takes a lot of elbow grease to wash 229,230 windows in just 21 years, but Harvey Page of Winnipeg estimates he's done it. Since 1934, Harvey has had the responsibility of keeping the windows clean at the Canadian National Railways Fort Garry hotel. But that's over now for he's on vacation prior to retiring on pension this month.

Thirty-five windows a day, six days a week was his washing average, he figures. Other "minor" [illegible], he explained, consisted of [illegible] down and putting up 2,500 storm windows a year. One day alone he washed 105 storm windows and put them in place — that's a lot of washing.

Music From Oil Drum Top

The shallow 'melody pan' held by a young member of the Esso steel band, is actually the cut-off top of an oil drum, heated over a fire and then beaten into concave shape with a sledge hammer. The player beats on the drum face, marked off into notes by white-painted loops and tuned to the right pitch by an ordinary hammer, to produce a high, haunting quality for calypsos, sambas, mambos and bongos.

Searching For New Varieties of Oats

Some of the aims of the plant breeder in his search for better oat varieties are outlined by E. C. Lowe, Cerealist at the Lacombe Experimental Station. Victory and Eagle oats have long been grown in Alberta and their yield performance has been largely responsible for their popularity. Their late maturity however, offsets to some extent this valuable feature of high yield.

Since Eagle on summerfallow at Lacombe requires an average of 113 days to reach maturity, frost damage is something of a hazard. Larain, the earliest oat variety recommended for Alberta, requires an average of only 102 to 104 days to mature but its potential yield of some 30% below that of Eagle leaves much to be desired. What the research men are striving for is a combination of the yield of Eagle with the earliness and kernel type of Larain. Following the crossing of these two varieties at Lacombe in 1950 selection and recrossing have been going on towards development of varieties with the desirable qualities of both.

Satisfactory yield in a new variety is the ultimate goal of the plant breeder but other things are required. A variety of oats for central Alberta, says Mr Lowe, should have a desirable kernel, high [illegible] and good resistance to lodging. Plumpness of kernel adds to the attractiveness of the sample and lessens the difficulty of removing weed seeds.

[illegible] resistance to lodging is another feature sought in the oat breeding at Lacombe. This character depends not only on strong stems but also on the plant's root system, Mr Lowe reports. Lodging-resisting varieties usually possess large wide-spreading anchor roots and thick stems in contrast to the small non-spreading roots and slender stems of lodging-susceptible varieties.

Wildmere Women's Institute Notes

The Wildmere W.I. held their July meeting on Thursday evening July 7 at the home of Mrs. A. Holte with 14 members present. Plans were made to have a demonstration by Miss Inglis on July 16 at the home of Mrs. Jas. Goshko. Mrs. Herricks was asked to display her fine knitting on the hobby table at the conference. Mrs. James Goshko gave a very fine report of the A.W.I. convention.

CREIGHTON

Creighton W.I. heard Mrs. O. [illegible] give a very interesting and detailed report of the A.W.I. convention. Mrs. W. Dunsworth read a paper on Home Economics and Mrs. Lee Dunsworth read a paper describing "Russian Wild Rye Grass" a very fine grass for lawns. Plans were made to hold a picnic in July.

Water Proof Shoes

Silicone water repellant and preservative treatment for shoe leather is totally invisible on application, reports The Financial Post. Treatment does not impart oily or waxy feel and since the leather doesn't soak up water shoes don't dry out stiff and hard after wetting or don't develop stains from ice-removal salts. Substance protects fibres without plugging pores, so that shoes repel water but still breathe. May be used on all types of shoes, from small-boy boots to women's suede shoes.

Time Clock for M.P.'s

It is the long week end that is holding up the work on Parliament Hill, says The Financial Post, which adds:

"Perhaps we may yet have to come to the drastic cure of a time clock in the House of Commons as has been suggested in some unfriendly quarters. If more MP's had to sit through all of the long and dreary speeches, perhaps they would make a real effort to cut the time-wasting down."

In 1953 Canadian railways had in operation 4,818 locomotives, 6,436 passenger cars and 187,960 freight cars.

Streets Take On Jubilee Appearance

As part of the celebration for the Jubilee year of the Province, of our town, and of the Vermilion Exhibition, the Board of Trade has had posters and flags placed on the light standards in the downtown area.

The posters have the words "VERMILION GOLDEN JUBILEE 1905-1955" in red lettering on a yellow background, with green edging top and bottom; the whole poster is centred with a colored picture of the Vermilion Park. The picture is an excellent view of the Park road winding along the side of the lake.

Two small flags have been placed on either side of the top of the poster.

The posters were made by the Photocraft Studio, using a new silk screen process, the equipment for which they have just recently installed in their studio. Another example of the excellent results of the silk-screen process is the decals which the Board of Trade has ordered, to be distributed the first day of the Fair.

Another decoration for the downtown streets is the strings of colored lights that the Canadian Utilities has placed on the light standards. These lights are permanently attached to the poles and so will be available to be lighted for any special occasions in Vermilion.

The decoration committee of the Board of Trade, under the capable and hard-working direction of Dr. Denis Hanlan, are to be commended for this attractive display. The Canadian Utilities can also be thanked for their community-minded spirit in their contribution to the festive appearance of the Vermilion downtown.

Farm Workers Still Needed In Ontario

Farmers are reminded that workers are still required for Ontario haying and harvest operations. As previously announced, a worker may go to Ontario at a cost to him of $10 and return at a cost to him of $11.50. Wages in Eastern Canada will approximate $85 a month up plus board and room.

This is an opportunity for farmers and their sons, or others experienced in farm work, to enjoy a trip to Ontario and assist in the harvesting in that province. Anyone wishing to take advantage of this opportunity should make contact with E. H. Buckingham, District Agriculturist, Vermilion.

Holiday Time!

To enable the staff to have two weeks' holidays to comply with regulations, The Vermilion Standard will be closed from Saturday evening, July 30th, and will re-open Monday morning, August 15th. The issues of The Standard of Aug. 4th and 11th will be cancelled.

The front office will be open to receive orders for job work, advertising, and subscriptions, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. each day (except Wednesday) during the vacation period.

Bob Dunsmore, Mayor Of Vermilion in 1911, Coming for Fair

Robert Dunsmore, one of the early business men of the town of Vermilion, a member of the first town council elected in 1906, and Mayor of the town in 1911, is coming all the way from Burnaby, B.C. to attend the re-union of Vermilion pioneers at the Jubilee fair next week. While here he will be the guest of his brother Gordon Dunsmore. Incidentally, they have not seen each other for 17 years.

Local Livestock Man Makes Good At Edmonton Exhibition

As we go to press we learn that W. Lyle Robinson, local Shorthorn breeder, has done exceptionally well in the livestock classes at the Edmonton Exhibition.

A single Shorthorn heifer from Mr. Robinson's herd has made a clean sweep of the honors in the beef cattle show. The heifer was declared Supreme Champion Shorthorn, won the Joseph Johnson Memorial Trophy, is Grand Champion of her class, as well as Junior Champion.

Mr. Robinson and his son Billy are in Edmonton for the duration of the Exhibition. Mrs. Robinson and daughter Betty joined them there for a few days.

YOUNG EQUESTRIAN BREAKS WRIST

Miss Beverly Strome, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mr. Ort Strome, broke her right arm at the wrist while playing in the yard at home. Beverly didn't realize that her arm was broken at first, but later examination proved that it was. She was planning to ride in the horse ring at the Vermilion Exhibition, as she has done for several years, but unfortunately will be unable to ride a horse so soon after her accident.

Farm Ladies Enjoy Boat Rides

Several local business men made their boats available at the Vermilion park on Tuesday last to take for boat rides ladies attending the Farm Women's Short course at the School of Agriculture.

The rides proved highly popular as many of the ladies had never before had a ride in a motor boat and after a very hot day the cool breezes on the water at the lake were most welcome.

During the evening Mr. Eddie Herzog in his motor boat towing Nick Adams on water skis provided a thrilling display of skill and daring with this relatively new water sport.

Those who made boats available to the ladies included the following: Clem Hildreth, Mac Simonsen, Ed Herzog, Carman Long and Bill Olson.

FIRST EXHIBITION WAS HELD OCTOBER 15th and 16th, 1906

TOWN PIONEERS TO BE HONORED

For half a century the Vermilion Fair has carried on valuable work in this district and next Thursday July 28th it will open brand new log construction gates, memorializing the pioneer citizens of the Vermilion district who began the Fair in 1906 and who have contributed so much in other ways to forward the interests of the district through half a century.

FIRST FAIR OCT. 15-16, 1906

The first Fair to be held in Vermilion was staged on Oct. 16 and 17 in 1906 and copies of the first prize list, held in the office of the Secretary-Manager reveals that the first officers were:

President — A. W. Roseborough
1st Vice — D. B. Winters
2nd Vice — H. N. Stephens
Sec.-Treas. — P. G. Pilkie
Directors — A. W. Roseborough, George Oliver, D. B. Winters, James Common, H. N. Stephens, W. E. Sutton, T. H. Brown, John Thomson, Geo. C. Powell, J. W. Graham, W. A. Reid.

Classes were very similar to those in effect even at this late date but prizes were very much smaller than they are today. A few of the Special Prizes offered were: For the best brood mare and foal, one pair of oil covers; for the best set of hand-turned horseshoes, a prize of one keg of horseshoe nails. Mr. Harry Bowtell offered $10 for the best baby under 4 years and C. E. Olmstead offered $5 for the biggest coyote killed in Tp. 51-6 (this prize being won by Bert Duncan, well known pioneer and for many years a staunch supporter of Vermilion Fair); C. E. Henry offered to donate $5 for the winner of a squaw race and another prize offered was for a bun eating contest. There is a photograph of the crowd at the first fair and this will be on display at the Pioneers' Building just being completed on the Vermilion Fair grounds.

The Vermilion Fair progressed through the years with interested district citizens accepting the responsibility of organization and management. Messrs. William Telford, William Steele, Norman McClellan and W. L. Robinson served most acceptably as President of the Exhibition and such stalwarts as W. H. Duncan, W. D. Williams, W. R. Jory, the Barr Bros., the Bryden Bros. and many others gave freely of their time and in co-operation with the District Agriculturist E. H. Buckingham and Principal Bentley and his co-operative staff of the School of Agriculture did much to make Vermilion Fair one of the outstanding such organizations in Western Canada. The position of secretary-manager has been filled through the years by P. G. Pilkie, Job Mace, W. E. Sutton and more recently S. C. Heckbert who has been manager for almost a quarter of a century.

The Vermilion Fair has taken a leading part in the Councils of the Western Canada Fairs Association and Norman McClellan and S. C. Heckbert have served as President of that organization. The Vermilion Fair stands highly in the estimation of exhibition people throughout Western Canada and in the minds of the public and the Directors are pleased to have reached the point where they can effectively celebrate Fifty Years of continued service.

FIFTIETH FAIR OFFERS WIDE PROGRAM

The Officers and Directors of the present Fair have been working for months to make the Jubilee Fair the most outstanding in history and judging by the program it will be just that.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' CAMP

On Monday, July 25th, 120 boys and girls from the farm areas surrounding Vermilion will register at the "College" for a week's short course and during this time will be guests of the Fair Board and will also be treated to a banquet by the Wheat Pool. They will compete for gold watches donated by T. Eaton Company and also for other prizes generously given by the Line Elevators Farm Service. The Camp has become an attractive feature of the Fair.

EXHIBITS AND DISPLAYS

Entries for the 1955 Fair are coming in rapidly and promise to provide some excellent livestock, ladies' work and handicraft displays while the 1955 School Fair is believed to be the largest in Western Canada and will doubtless attract a great deal of attention. Scores of beautiful light horses will be on hand as will some fine groups of heavy horses led by the exhibit of Bryden Brothers of Mannville. The Display Building will be crowded with unusual displays of various kinds, every foot of available space having been sold out long since. The British Columbia Plywood Manufacturers' Association are also creating a splendid outside display which will attract much attention, as will the Alberta Government Caravan containing old and new relics and displays. Many other displays including those of up-to-date machinery will fill the machinery section and this year some fine types of early day machinery will be placed on permanent display in the exhibition grounds.

GRAND PARADE

The first day, entitled Pioneers' Day, will see the first parade in Vermilion in many years and with committees working hard to make it a success it is sure to be an outstanding success. Some fifty floats and units have already been promised and the parade will feature two bands, spirited horses, ancient and modern equipment, commercial floats, organizations and groups of various kinds. Children are urged to decorate their bicycles and to enter comic costumes, etc. Please note that there will be prizes awarded in the children's sections.

The parade will line up in the area adjacent to and west of the high school grounds and all entering floats, etc. will be advised before the Fair of their location, and they are urged to be in their places well in advance of the moving off time which will be 11 o'clock sharp. Delays cannot under any circumstances be accepted and the parade will move on time regardless of latecomers. Make sure that you have an entry and be sure to be on hand for Vermilion Fair's Big Parade starting definitely at 11 a.m. on Thursday, July 28. The line of march will be east past the arena, the Legion hall and to the Masonic hall corner where the parade will turn south for one block thence west past the Columbia theatre and the Brunswick hotel and on to the fair grounds. All members of the public are urged to remain on sidewalks along the route and to keep children from danger.

Those having floats, etc. are urged to make entries at once with S. C. Heckbert's office.

Pioneers of the district are very cordially invited to attend the Fair on Pioneers Day and to receive acknowledgment of their contribution to the welfare of the district from His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta the Hon. John J. Bowlen. This will take place on the grounds in front of the grandstand at 1 o'clock and there will be an opportunity to obtain lunch between the time of arrival of the parade and the Lieutenant-Governor's welcome. The Pioneers' Building, a beautiful structure, erected to commemorate our early citizens will be officially opened by His Honour during the afternoon. Please note that there will be an afternoon grandstand performance at 3:00 o'clock.

CALF CLUB SHOW AND SALE

The annual Calf Club show and sale will be held during the early part of the day with some very fine calves being shown and judged, and this important event will culminate with the sale of the calves to the highest bidder, the sale to begin at two o'clock. All interested in fine livestock are cordially invited to be present in the west end of the grounds for this event.

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

The grandstand attractions have been reported by the fairs at Lethbridge, Portage la Prairie and Yorkton as undoubtedly the best ever offered a Western Canada audience. The theme will be the Jubilee of our Province and our Fair and the outstanding grandstand attractions will have unusual support by a group of 26 skilled motor cycle performers who will stage two shows per day and will give attractive performances whenever time permits. Each evening there will be a Grand Fireworks Display in front of the Grandstand and on Saturday night there will be a Monster Square Dance Jamboree also in front of the stands. This will commence immediately on conclusion of the grandstand attractions and should prove attractive to all lovers of square dancing.

THE MIDWAY

Jimmie Sullivan, popular midway proprietor who for so many years provided good clean midways for the Western Canada Fairs, will be back on the job again this year and Fair patrons are assured of plenty of thrills and fun without unfortunate demands for undue sums of money. Included in the midway is a fine circus which will doubtless prove attractive to the youngsters and others attending Vermilion Fair.

Vermilion Fair program for 1955 is just too large to outline, come and see for yourself the greatest exhibition program ever presented in the West. Advance Tickets are still on sale at 3 for $1.00, these tickets are good for both gate and grandstand and the sale will definitely end on Wednesday evening, July 27th. This coming Saturday may be your last day in town . . . make sure you buy your tickets and effect a worthwhile saving.

Vermilion Fair is YOUR Fair . . . Support it . . . Help make it a success!

Lieut. Raymond Bell, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Bell of Victoria, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Hill. Lieut. Bell's parents were residents of Vermilion for many years before they moved to the coast.

VERMILION, ALBERTA, THURSDAY, JULY 21st, 1955.

THE FIFTIETH YEAR—

Alberta has reached the half century mark as a province of Canada. Through fifty years, many of them marred by war and depression, she has grown and prospered and turned these years into fifty 'Golden Years'. It is well worth celebrating. In this year of 1955 all present and former citizens of Alberta are joining in the Jubilee. By attending church services on the Provincial Day of Prayer, Sunday, September 4th we will be entering into the true spirit of Thanksgiving. We will be celebrating at fairs, at stampedes, with fireworks, parades and pageants. We will be honoring our pioneers and senior citizens and making our pride in Alberta manifest to all our sister provinces.

VERMILION, TOO—

It was fifty years ago that Vermilion was incorporated as a village and thus started forth as a centre in this province of Alberta. The very next spring the village became a town, so rapid was the influx of settlers to augment the little band of intrepid ranchers, farmers and tradesmen who had by dint of trekking in various ways made their journey to Vermilion to carve out a home and settlement in a new land. The hardships of travelling, of building, of living were a far cry from the ease of modern accomplishment but these pioneers revelled in it, they took a great joy from seeing buildings [illegible] by their own hands, of seeing roads carved out of the prairies, of seeing fields of golden grain replace the prairie wool. There will always be old timers, but there will only be one generation of pioneers, and the remaining band of Vermilion pioneers will be those men and women who will be honored at the opening day of the Fair Thursday July 28th.

Era Of Expansion For Canada

Canada is in for a new era of free capital spending by the federal government reports the Ottawa correspondent of The Financial Post.

A buoyant and expansionist outlook has taken hold of government thinking. It is now firmly based on the idea that Canada's population will grow tremendously in the next half century and that public services must match that growth.

The Government is now ready to run into debt if necessary in order to finance capital projects which will contribute to national development or provide improved amenities for a growing population.

Public [illegible] is being viewed not just as a make-work expedient, but as a long-term program. The aim is to use it:

1. To meet the future needs of a growing economy.

2. To help keep the economy going at full tilt by flexible timing of expenditures.

The dynamic new approach will get its first official unveiling at the October conference with the provincial governments.

A Welcome Move

Students from Britain are to be helped to take courses in Canadian universities. Hitherto restrictions on the transfer of sterling have prevented such interchange. Now the British treasury has agreed to allow students sponsored by the Canadian and British Education committee to transfer [illegible].

This is a welcome move, states The Financial Post. Any exchange of people like this, students, teachers, business groups or others helps for better international relations. These university students should return to Britain with a far better understanding of Canada and Canadians than they could gain in almost any other way.

Pool Delegate Election Being Held

Elections for the position of Alberta Wheat Pool delegate are now being held. There are two candidates running for the position in Wheat Pool sub-district 603 which takes in the area from Streamstown to Clandonald and the [illegible] districts. The candidates are George H. Davies of Lloydminster and D. E. Mathieson of Dewberry.

Pool members will have been furnished with postcard ballots which must be marked and returned so that they will reach the Wheat Pool head office in Calgary by Aug. 15.

Hospital News

Patients confined to the Vermilion Municipal hospital this week are: Mr. Geo. Little, Mr. Harry Marfleet, Mr. Albert Kather, Mr. Lawrence Saur, Mrs. Alice Mercier, Mrs. Harry Good and baby, Mrs. [illegible] Webb, Mr. Joe Wisley, Mr. [illegible] White, Mrs. Helen Campbell, Mrs. Frances Telford, Mrs. Georgina Macnab, Mrs. Rebecca Beaudry, Mrs. Tillie Mudryk, Miss Vivian Trost, Miss Fern Freeborn, Mr. [illegible], Mr. Wayne [illegible], Miss Beth Hobbs, Mrs. [illegible] and Miss Beverly [illegible].

Princess Anne W. I.

Mrs. Garnett moved that a sincere vote of thanks be tendered to Stephens Limited, of Vermilion, in the good work they did in making name plates for the farmers so desiring, to place at the entrance to their farms. These certainly make it so much easier to find someone when you are driving in a strange district. With Mrs. Garnett's thanks go also the thanks of the Branch, as nearly all members are in possession of said name plates.

DESTROY OLD FRIDGES—

Canadian refrigerator manufacturers renewed their warning to parents this week to minimize the hazard of young children closing themselves in abandoned ice boxes or refrigerators.

Purchasers of new refrigerators are advised to remove the hinges or latches from their old cabinets before discarding them. If stored in the home, the cabinet should at least be placed with door against a wall, state the manufacturers.

They point out that some 100,000 ice boxes and refrigerators are discarded each year in Canada. They usually wind up in [illegible] backyards, [illegible] or garages, providing enticing hiding places for children.

The warning is part of a nation-wide program which was started by Canadian refrigerator manufacturers last year. Since then, some 300,000 new refrigerators placed on the market contained stickers reminding purchasers to remove latches or [illegible] from their old cabinets.

The manufacturers have enlisted the support of some 12,000 dealers in ensuring that appliance servicemen and purchasers of new refrigerators are aware of the potential hazard.

APHIDS ON BARLEY

Recently reports have come in from dozens of farmers that aphids (plant lice) are causing damage to barley. If hot, dry weather continues aphids may kill the barley plants. Malathion can be sprayed with the weed sprayer at a cost of 90c per acre. Further information is available from this office.

SILAGE AND HAYING FIELD DAY

A field day has been arranged at the farm of Andy Ferguson, Marwayne for 2 p.m. Aug 4 when silage will be put up by forage harvesters. Also a field baler will be demonstrated. This is a good chance for farmers to see the new methods used in putting up stock feed for the winter.

BEES AND HONEY

Reports would indicate that bees are not doing well this year. The colonies have been weak all season. Sweet clover is scarce. The one thing we can suggest is to take the hives to a sweet clover field where the bees can bring in the nectar. Honey will be high priced this year so every effort should be made to increase the yield of every hive.

INSECTS ON SPRUCE

All over the district insects are infesting spruce trees. It is advised to spray the infested trees or they may be killed by the various insects. Mites, aphids, saw flies and caterpillars are all busy this season. Malathion will kill them all. Black Leaf 40 will kill aphids only. Aramite is useful for mite control. Caterpillars of course can be killed with any arsenic poison such as Paris Green.

PIG LOSSES COMMON

Several farmers have lost pigs weighing 250 pounds or more. None of them were feeding supplements. These farmers believed that their pigs had erysipelas and they spent money for serum. The real reason for the losses was poor feeding. Get a circular from this office on the use of supplements, that is, the feeding of minerals, protein and vitamins to growing pigs.

GRADE A EGGS

The spread between Grade A and Grade B eggs is 20 cents per dozen. Poultry raisers should make every effort to keep all eggs in the Grade A class. Keep them clean, cool and don't crack them. Dark yolks caused from hens eating grass also degrade the eggs. Get a circular from this office on 'Production of Quality Eggs'.

THE SELF-SERVE FOOD ROW

Vermilion's Friendly Shopping Centre

1904 — 1955

It's a far cry from the store of 1904, with its open cracker barrel and pot-bellied heating stove, to the store of 1955 with perishable products all displayed in refrigerated cases. In keeping with the past policy of the store to keep up to modern methods we have just installed a new moisture controlled Refrigerated Vegetable Display Case, which will assure our customers of vegetables even fresher than picking them out of the garden on a hot day, for they are cool and moist! This addition to our Refrigerated Units makes the Food Row one of the best equipped Food Stores in this part of Alberta.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

The weather has been favorable, some very hot days. Friday July 15 it was 95 in the shade. Next day was considerably cooler but it turned real hot again on Sunday.

It was a lovely warm afternoon for the Hereford Tour and Field day at the Jack Cross farm June 28. To all those who helped the W. A. in their work we are truly grateful. It's very pleasing to hear such kind remarks too. Thank you, Pleasant Valley and all you others. Here are the salad dressing recipe for all you folks who have asked for it. It makes around three pints: 1 cup sugar, 1 tsp. salt, 2 tbsp. flour, 2 tbsp. dry mustard, 1½ cups vinegar, 1½ cups water, 6 eggs, cook until thickened. And there you have it!

Alvin Throndson and Uncle Orley Omness had a very successful fishing trip to Muriel Lake June 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Zaworksi and Mrs. Robt. Wilson, Martin's mother, from the city, spent the long week end of July 1 visiting the Nelson families in the district. They and the Wilson families gathered at the [illegible] home for Sunday dinner and the afternoon.

Sorry this was omitted in the last news — The Ted Bessemers, their two youngest boys, Dad McBride from town and Mrs. Lizzie McIlwaine from the coast, sister of Ted, were visitors in the district on June 26. It was good to see Lizzie and hear of her family and the folks at the coast. There have been many changes since the family left around 1923.

Mr. Edwards is home from the hospital and getting on very well. Freddie Dougan was a patient in the same ward: We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Chevelier (nee May Phillips) and family from the city spent the long week end at the Phillips' home July 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kormos (nee Nora Phillips) and Sonny from Saskatoon spent the same week end at home. Julius returned and Nora and Sonny holidayed longer. Mrs. McGinnis (Maggie Butler) and family accompanied them and are holidaying at the Butler home.

EXCELLENT CAMP AT WHITNEY LAKE

It was good to be back at camp after 11 years. To do my wee bit for a few days under very different circumstances than we had at Campbell Lake in 43 and 44, although we did very well. Camp Whitney has a wonderful start in convenience, grand leaders and excellent help for preparing food which is an important thing too, in camp — Mrs. Jones from Dewberry and Mrs. MacKay from town. Girls' camp started at the closing of boys' camp, Wednesday, July 13. Myrna and Irene McPhee went from Allandale.

Holiday time — safe journeys all.

To all the students and teachers may your holidays be perfect in all ways.

To all the newlyweds — Dupuit-Elliott; Maggs-Cruthers—congratulations and our very best wishes for a long and happy life. Also to Dougie Maggs and his bride, our very best.

LUNCH AT VERMILION PARK JULY 24th

The Allandale W.A. met at the Throndson home on the afternoon of July 14 with all the members present. If the weather permits, plans are that anyone who cares to go to Vermilion Lake for lunch after church service on July 24th 11:30 a.m. is welcome. We hope the day is nice and all can spend a restful afternoon. Each family is responsible for their lunch.

Miss Marguerite Dupuit Becomes Bride in Double Ring Ceremony

Baskets of pink carnations and white baby mums and other summer flowers decorated the First United church in Vermilion on July 9th, when Marguerite (Peggy) Dupuit, daughter of Mrs. M. Dupuit and the late Mr. M. Dupuit of Dewberry became the bride of Eric Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Elliott, also of Dewberry.

The Rev. C. W. McKay officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Noel Kent, looked very charming in a floor length gown of white net over satin with redingote, fashioned with lace top fastened down the front with tiny buttons, Peter Pan collar and lily point sleeves. The skirt had side panels of deep lace and net. Her fingertip veil of French illusion net edged with deep lace misted from a crystal tiara and she carried a bouquet of red roses and fern. Her jewellery of rhinestone necklace and earrings were a gift from the groom.

Bridesmaids were Miss Elva Elliott of Hay River, sister of the groom, and Miss Cherie Gagne of Edmonton. Little Miss Arlene Goldsmith, neice of the groom, was flower girl.

Elva wore a waltz length dress of blue net, strapless style, modified with a shrug bolero. Her colonial style bouquet was of pink carnations.

Cherie's dress also waltz-length of pink net over taffeta. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations.

Both wore matching shoulder-length veils held in place with pearl trimmed tiaras, and nylon gloves.

Little Arlene looked sweet in a blue net, over taffeta, dress with matching head-dress and a bouquet of pink baby mums.

Attending the groom were Mr Leslie Bowman and Mr. Elgie Schirrmacher. Mr. Dever De Ford was usher. The guests' pews were marked with pink rosebuds and white bows.

The bride's mother wore a dress of yellow figured nylon acetate with white accessories and corsage of red roses.

The groom's mother chose a dress of white figured nylon acetate with white accessorie and red roses en corsage.

Mrs. Wm. Roebuck played the wedding music. Soloist was Miss Evelyn Parker.

An open reception was held in the Dewberry hall which was prettily decorated with pink and white streamers and white bells. The tables set in a U shape were covered with white table cloths and complimented with vases of summer flowers. The bridal table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake flanked with vases of pink and white peonies. About 170 guests sat down to a cold turkey supper. Servitors were the Dewberry Ladies' Aid, who also catered for the reception. Mr. Stanley of Clandonald proposed a toast to the bride, to which the groom ably responded.

For travelling on her honeymoon trip to Calgary and Banff the bride changed to a pink nylon dress and shortie coat with white accessories and red rose corsage.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Lawrence of Unity, Sask., Mr and Mrs. J. T. Gagne, Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. Art Schirrmacher.

The young couple will make their home in the Deer Lake district.

WILDMERE WINKS

A well filled church paid last respects to an old friend and neighbor, Mr George Dibben, on Wednesday last at the Alliance chapel. He was laid to rest in the Vermilion cemetery. Rev McNair gave a very comforting sermon to the bereaved ones, and the favorite hymns of the deceased were sung. Another old timer thus was laid to rest. One by one they are passing to their well earned rest.

Mr and Mrs. R. Gilholme of Edmonton came down to attend Mr Dibben's funeral and visited Mr. and Mrs W J Granett of Basswood, also other neighbors over the week end. They returned to the city on Sunday.

A short time ago Mrs. M. Ruud of Triangle had a surprise visit from her cousin Carl Sjol and wife of Minot N.D. They only recently returned from a visit to Norway. It is 25 years since Mr. Sjol last visited here and he found many improvements in the country during that time.

On Thursday evening at the St. Saviour's Anglican church, Vermilion, Rev K. A. Minchin performed a wedding ceremony when Lily Maggs of Vermilion, became the bride of George Cruthers of Wildmere son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cruthers, with the immediate relatives of both sides attending. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ort Stromme, brother-in-law and sister of the bride. Later the happy couple left on a short honeymoon to Edmonton. They will reside in Wildmere on their return. May you have a long and happily married life Lily and George, is the wish of all your many friends.

Church on Sunday evening was held at Wildmere school with a nice attendance. It seems much more like a church with pews and pulpit. From now on service will be held at Wildmere. Summer is fast slipping by. Mr. Plant gives very interesting sermons folks, so come and hear him.

Several from out our way took in the barbecue binge and report an enjoyable time although none were lucky in winning prizes.

The Wildmere curlers picnic is past and a nice crowd turned out even if it was a very hot day. The Scotstoun ball team failed to show up so there were only two ball games. Preston won first money. Tolland took second. A well attended dance in the evening was held at Basswood. Henry Eyben and Albert Cleland furnished the music with Adam Duzzeck M.C.

On Friday July 22 Triangle will hold their annual picnic with a dance in the evening. Chatsworth is also holding a picnic the same day. The Preston ball team is supposed to play at both these picnics. As there are players from Triangle on the Preston team Triangle will probably win out.

Early Friday morning last Mrs. Chas. Morand, daughter Gloria and son Leo arrived by car at her sister's home, Mrs. Cliff Cruthers' to attend the picnic. She also visited her brothers Bill and Adam Smith. June met a lot of her old neighbors and friends at the picnic. They have sold their farm south of Calgary and bought a house in south-west Calgary and are now nicely settled. June says she always looks for the Standard and the "Winks".

Lorraine and Gail Cunningham of Drumheller are spending part of their holidays with their aunt and uncle and cousins Mr. and Mrs. A. Labourane, Clarence and Joe of the Triangle district.

The boys have returned from the camp at Whitney Lake. Some enjoyed it, some did not but camp life does not appeal to everybody. Kenny Graham took the stomach flu and Wayne Green had to return home owing to his dad being sick with the measles.

It is so nice to hear the Salvation Army band play on the street Saturday night. We wish them every success in their work of doing good to others.

The writer wishes to thank everyone who remembered her birthday with cards, gifts and personal greetings. It gives one a great lift to be remembered that way. Thanks again folks.

Nice chats were enjoyed with Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Gould, Mrs. T. Wilson, Mrs. Sherwood and many others on Saturday in town.

Successful Vacation School, Alliance Chapel

Final report of the daily Vacation Bible school recently concluded at the Alliance chapel, shows a total enrollment of 128, of which 64 children were from local churches other than the Alliance. The average attendance for the ten days was over 90, and these were divided into four departments, namely: pre-school, primary, junior and intermediate. Instructors for the respective classes were Mrs. McNair and the Misses Betty Little, June Gunderson and Evelyn Wilson. These in turn were assisted by eight other part time helpers and the school was directed by the chapel pastor.

The total expense for supplies, handwork etc. amounted to $85.90, which was defrayed to the extent of $35.00 by program offering and individual contributions. Net cost to the Chapel S.S. was $50.90.

Daily offerings of the school and staff, amounting to approximately $37 constituted the missionary project, and was forwarded to the Worldwide Evangelization Crusade with which one of the staff is engaged in missionary service.

It is felt that the entire project was most successful both from a numerical and spiritual standpoint, and it is hoped that another D.V.B.S. shall be held next year.

GROWING WITH ALBERTA
And Looking To The Future

COMMISSIONING CANADA'S FIRST GAS TURBINE ELECTRIC GENERATOR IN VERMILION, ALBERTA NOVEMBER 20th 1954

CANADIAN UTILITIES, LIMITED has served Albertans for 28 of the province's 50 years. In that time, planning and vision have enabled us to provide the best in electrical service while at the same time reducing the domestic cost per kilowatt hour to ½ of what it was when we first commenced operations. The system of free enterprise is responsible for the great strides of progress made during Alberta's history. Future plans of Canadian Utilities are built around the ideal of constantly improving service to the province we serve.

ARTIST'S CONCEPTION OF THE BATTLE RIVER PLANT THAT WILL BE IN OPERATION BEFORE THE END OF 1956

MODERN FURNACES BURN POWDERED COAL WHICH IS BLOWN IN LIKE GAS AT DRUMHELLER

SINCE BEGINNING OPERATIONS in 1927 Canadian Utilities, Limited has established many "Firsts" in Alberta. We were first in electrifying an experimental rural area ... first to use pulverized coal in generating electric power ... first to install a gas turbine electric generator. The most modern equipment is utilized to bring the best in electric service to 7,500 farms, 20,000 homes and 7,000 businesses in Alberta. In keeping with our progressive outlook, we are now constructing a new power plant on the Battle River near Forestburg. Total cost of the plant and attendant transmission lines is estimated at seven million dollars. When this project is completed in the Autumn of 1956, it will guarantee ample reserves of power for years to come.

Enid Hollen, Hugh Shepherd Are Married In Double Ring Ceremony

At the First United church in Vermilion, on Friday, July 15th, at 4:00 p.m. Enid Mae Hollen was united in marriage to Hugh Dawson Shepherd. Enid is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Cliff F Hollen, Vermilion, and Hugh is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Shepherd, also of Vermilion. The Rev. C. W. MacKay officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, wearing a clover - embroidered marquisette white dress of ballerina length. The bridal gown was of one piece with a simple bodice having cap sleeves, a set-in waist, and a very full skirt. She wore gloves of marquisette to match her dress. She had a bridal cap to which was fastened a shoulder-length veil. Her bouquet of sweetheart roses were deep pink in color. The gift of the groom, a three-strand pearl necklace, complemented her lovely ensemble.

Miss Lorna Daley was bridesmaid and chose a pastel yellow princess style dress in ballerina length. On her hair she wore a yellow circlet with in-set pearls from which hung a lace veil of shoulder-length. She carried a nosegay of small summer flowers.

Mr. Jim Adam Jr. of Edmonton was best man. Messrs. Tony and Harry Hodgson, Dale Hollen and Bobby Shepherd ushered the guests to their places.

During the marriage service Mr. Ed Lyons sang "I Love You Truly" with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Johnny Hillcox.

Mrs. Hollen received the guests after the wedding in the church hall. She was becomingly dressed in a natural linen dress with a bolero jacket.

Mrs. Seuffert's W.A. group of the United church was in charge of catering, and friends of the bride helped serve. Those serving were Misses Lila Porter, Muriel Thompson, Myrtle Terry, Rhoda and Rhona Hodgson, Madeline Maughan and Shirley McIntosh.

Miss Joan Shepherd, sister of the groom, served the bride's table. A three-tiered bridal cake decorated with natural, deep-red sweetheart roses and with a small vase of sweetheart roses on top, centred the lace-covered bridal table. There were bud vases of roses placed to either side of the cake.

As the guests entered the reception room they were asked by Mr Roy Walker to sign the guest book. Mrs. Charles Hollen, on behalf of the bride, accepted gifts brought to the reception.

After the wedding supper Mr J. Payne proposed the toast to the bride, and the groom gave a suitable response.

Guests from out of town were Mr. Jim Adam and his mother, Mrs J. D. Adam of Edmonton; Mrs Adam's mother, Mrs. M. J Schneider, also of Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Dutton and family from Edmonton, and Mrs. Robt. Smith and family of Montreal.

The happy young couple left by car for their honeymoon at Sylvan Lake, planning to be away about a week.

On their return Mr and Mrs. Shepherd will make their home in Vermilion.

Robertson Family Suffers Tragedy

(By Our Islay Correspondent)

A very sad and tragic accident befell some relatives of Mr. Clarence Robertson, an old agent here. A brother, Mr. Gordon Robertson and family of Calmar, were visiting Mrs. Robertson's folks at Alameda, Sask. They were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Morrow, sister of Mrs. Gordon Robertson.

A 12-year-old son of the Gordon Robertson's and a 10-year-old son of the Morrows were both killed in a tractor accident. A 13-year-old daughter of the Morrows was badly injured. She was still unconscious several days after the accident. Another son of Gordon Robertson's was thrown clear.

The youngsters were on the road with the tractor. Somehow it went off the road into a 6 foot ditch partially filled with water.

The parents had gone to Estevan fair to accompany some of the other children who had stock in the 4-H club. The one boy who was able phoned his parents Mr and Mrs Gordon Robertson who had stayed in Alameda while the others went to the fair.

The doctor said that the boys were not drowned but had been killed before being immersed in the water and mud.

Mr and Mrs Clarence Robertson left at once after word came. They went on to Provost where they met his brother Howard. The men went on by car to Alameda leaving Mrs C. Robertson and children with Mrs. Howard Robertson.

TEACHER RETURNS TO DISTRICT

What a grand surprise and such a pleasant one when we heard Mr and Mrs. Fleming would be living in Vermilion. Milo as our Field Service representative for the Alberta Wheat Pool. Marguerite taught Allandale in 1945 and stayed with us. Milo returned from overseas on New Year's 1946. It was so good to see Marguerite after ten years and meet Milo and the children Myrna Jackie and Carla. They were dinner guests at the Omness home July 10.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Conboy were away on holiday for two weeks. They drove to Banff and stayed there for awhile, then went on to Cranbrook by way of Radium. The weather was discouraging for camping, not actually raining, but dull and cloudy. Rather than stay tenting the Conboys were glad to return to Edmonton where they could have a visit of several days with their daughter Mildred. In spite of the weather, though, they enjoyed their holiday.

Mrs. Reg Mitchell and her daughter Joanne visited Mrs. Mitchell's mother, Mrs. C. E. Tingvall, and brother, Mr. A. R. Tingvall, at their farm home near Lloydminster for a week. Mrs. Tingvall accompanied her daughter back to Vermilion. Here she will meet her brother Mr. Herbert Shaw, who will arrive from Lashburn. Mrs. Tingvall and Mr. Shaw will then travel by car to Victoria, B.C. After three weeks' vacation in Victoria, which she is visiting for the first time, Mrs. Tingvall will return to her home by plane.

Just back home in Vermilion from an extensive trip to Eastern Canada are Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Curtis and Rickey. They were away for three weeks visiting relatives in Toronto, Ottawa and Winnipeg. While in the east they were pleased to have a real contact with home—they saw the excellent picture of Mr. S. R. P. Cooper in a Liberty magazine containing an article all about weekly newspaper editors. Niagara Falls were seen and they are enthusiastic about what a wonderful sight the Falls are. The Curtis family travelled both ways CNR.

Mrs. Leonard Yarwood and son Jim of Port Colborne, Ont., are visiting the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cartwright. They plan to spend some six weeks here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Boake were in Edmonton last week when they drove Mrs. M. J. C. Boak, Ross's mother, home after she had had a week's visit with them here. The Boakes returned by way of Fort Saskatchewan where they saw Mrs. Boake's family for a few hours.

Mrs. N. Cleveland (nee Evelyn Jory) and her son Alvin from Camrose, and Miss Eleanor Jory from Edmonton, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jory.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Upshall and children returned over the week end from two weeks holiday spent in Vancouver and coastal points.

Mr. Bill Moses very much enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Duncan of Estevan, Sask., whom he hasn't seen for sixty years. They were in Vermilion en route from a holiday trip through the Peace River country and had been as far north as the big Peace River bridge in the B. C. block. They made the return trip over the new Valley View road.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis and daughters Mrs. Louise Lang and Marcia left at 3.45 a.m. on Tuesday, July 12th for the Calgary Stampede. They arrived in time to enjoy a day at the Stampede, stay overnight with Mrs. E. W. Nettleton of Calgary and to return to Vermilion by 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 13. They had an enjoyable journey but found such a fast trip very tiring.

BORN — To Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Dorey (nee Irene McLeod) [illegible] donville, the gift of a son [illegible] Herbert on July 2nd at Elk Point hospital, weight 9 pounds.

CORRECTION

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B[illegible] daughter is named Jane not [illegible] as reported in the birth announcement in last week's local news column in The Standard.

VISITORS FROM THE U. S.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bowman and their family, Jerry, Magaret Jean, and Stephen, arrived from Piacentia, California, Sunday noon. They plan to make their headquarters in Vermilion for about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowman and Stephen are staying with Mrs. Bowman's mother and sister, Mrs. H. N. Stephens and Miss Margaret Stephens. Jerry will be visiting his cousin, Roger Stephens, and Margaret Jean will be with another cousin, Joan Stephens.

The Bowmans drove to Edmonton Thursday to meet Mrs. Bowman's brother, Dr. Harry N. Stephens, who arrived there from White Bear Lake, Minnesota, and who will be in Vermilion for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hart have as their guests Mrs. J. E. Hawkins and her family of three children from Tulsa, Oklahoma. Dr. Hawkins will join his family here Aug. 1, coming by plane, but will make the return journey with his family by car. Mr. and Mrs. Hart also had daughter Delle (Mrs. P. F. Dawson) of Edmonton, as a visitor last week.

OLD TIMERS HERE FOR THE FAIR

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McNamara are in Vermilion visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Johnson. The McNamaras settled in Vermilion in 1907, and lived here until six years ago, at which time Mr. McNamara retired from his position with the CNR. They left Vermilion then to go to Edmonton to live with their daughter Mrs. Bert Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. McNamara are planning to stay in Vermilion until after the fair, to give them an opportunity to visit with the other old timers at the special celebrations for them during the Exhibition days. In the meantime they will be spending a few days with his brother, Mr. W. M. McNamara of Landonville.

F/O Stan Manyluk will be in attendance at the Air Cadet camp at Abbotsford, B.C. He and Mrs. Manyluk, with their children, Glen, Marilyn and Dean, are driving to the coast.

It will be of interest to their many friends in Vermilion to hear that the Rev. D. A. Ford, Mrs. Ford and family of Calgary were enjoying a holiday trip in the mountains recently. They drove by way of Banff and Radium Hot Springs to the Windermere highway. They spent some time at Fairmont Hot Springs also.

Mr and Mrs Claude Brennan and family were away on a motor trip for about two weeks. They visited with Mrs. Brennan's family in Red Deer. Driving on to Calgary they met Claude's father in that city. Mr R. Brennan is an old timer of Vermilion, having farmed here for many years. The Claude Brennans then went on to Banff to enjoy the mountain resort there.

They hauled their boat on a trailer all the way, going by way of Spokane Wash. but it was well worth it to have the boat, motor and water skis for use on the Okanagan and Skaha lakes at Penticton.

DEWBERRY VISITORS

Sunbeam Merry-Go-Round Brings Joy To Kiddies Here

A novel manner of expressing appreciation to their patrons was carried out by Sunbeam bread on Wednesday this week. The makers of this popular bread, which is advertised every week in the Standard, brought a merry go round to Vermilion and dispensed free rides to the kiddies all day long. The merry-go-round was set up in the business area during the morning, and in the afternoon moved down to the beach where it again proved quite an attraction for the youngsters with its gay painted horses and lively music.

The New Mausoleum

A preliminary survey is to be made of the Vermilion area starting in the next few days for the Community Mausoleum to be constructed in the cemetery as explained in the last issue of this paper. This mausoleum is being supervised and financed by H. R. Wilton of Vermilion with Mr Geo. Pearce of Vermilion assisting in the canvassing. They will make a canvass of the entire community, showing pictures and explaining to each one exactly what the mausoleum is and gives to each individual. This survey is necessary first, because few people understand the important aspects of this type of burial and second, it is necessary because in this type mausoleum only space is included in its construction for those desiring it. After seeing the pictures and other explanatory data which gives each person a full knowledge of its many points, then an intelligent decision can be rendered. Those inquiring about or those having the mausoleum explained to them are under no obligation whatever. Your co-operation in helping in this part of the survey will be greatly appreciated and the more quickly it is completed the sooner construction can begin on the mausoleum. 3-4c

Tigers Win At Derwent, Lose Here

Vermilion Tigers have played two baseball fixtures this past week. On Sunday they won 20-9 at Derwent against the Dodgers, only to lose out by one run at home Wednesday evening.

At Derwent Sunday the score was tied at 4-all when the Tigers went on a batting rampage and from there on in it was all Vermilion.

Ray Jones was on the mound for the Tigers and Bob Dunbar did a good job of receiving.

ST PAUL 6 -- VERMILION 5

On Wednesday night at home the Tigers just couldn't catch on to their batting stride and went down 6-5 to St. Paul. The locals had one bad inning letting the visitors run in four counters in the opener and this lead they couldn't quite overcome.

Charlie Birkett who works at Borradaile but who hails from near Marwayne was on the mound for Vermilion, with Wilf Little and Bob Dunbar catching. For St. Paul it was Bob Sambo and Marcel Joly. Both the twirlers were in top form with the batters having trouble with offerings all evening. The game was called by Umpire Irvin Gordon at the end of the 6th due to early darkness caused by a cloudy evening.

SCORE BY INNINGS

St. Paul	4	1	1	0	0	0	6
Vermilion	1	2	2	0	0	0	5

Regular league games left on the schedule call for Vermilion to play at Elk Point on Sunday July 24 and at St. Paul Wednesday, July 27th.

Hottest Day For Ten Years – At Least

Hottest day on the records of the Vermilion weather station, established ten years ago, was Monday, July 18th when a high temperature of 95.7 was registered. July 14 and 15 had seen 91 and 92 registered. Weather since Monday has been much cooler. It could be that it was the warmest day in the history of the district.

Highest readings of all the years since the weather station was established here in 1945 are as follow: 1945 95; 1946 92.6; 1947 91.4; 1948 — 90.2; 1949 — 92.6; 1950 92; 1951 89.2; 1952 90.4; 1953 — 90.2; 1954 — 88; 1955 95.7

Just in case you get the mistaken idea that it is all sun-tan weather in Vermilion, the lowest point in that same period of time was 35.4 below registered on Jan. 14, 1950. But as the saying goes, variety is the spice of life.

Clog Dances On 85th Birthday

Arthur Snape who knows as much of the history, first hand, of Vermilion and district as anyone, having lived here since 1904, celebrated his 85th birthday on Tuesday, July 19. Just to show the editor of the Standard that neither his memory nor agility has failed he danced a clog dance learned when he was a boy in England. Art was born at Accrington, Lancashire, leaving his native heath to emigrate to Vermilion in 1904, the year before the arrival of the railroad. His biggest disappointment of recent years was the defeat of the Social Credit candidate for Vermilion on June 29th.

TAKE THAT, and THAT!

Before a new telescope-type stretcher, made of nylon and aluminum, was adopted by the Canadian Armed Forces, it got the works. They jumped on it, dropped rocks on it, tossed it out of aircraft and army lorries, froze it in ice, buried it in mud and sand. They finally gave up —and placed the order.

Its lightness and compactness makes this rugged stretcher a natural for everything from northern air-rescue work to the needs of hospital, police, Civil Defence and other authorities ... Another job for Canada's aluminum and the men who work wonders with it.

District No. 7 F.U.A. Holds Annual Convention At Wainwright

District 7 of the Farmers' Union of Alberta, recently held its annual convention at Wainwright. About 250 delegates and visitors gathered to form one of the largest district conventions held in the province.

Convention chairmen were J. Anderson, District 7 president, Andrew Wood, W. C. Drever and Fred Collins. Acting as convention secretaries were Mrs. Mildred Redman and Frank Harding.

The convention was welcomed to Wainwright by Mayor Douglas Wallace, and by the Chairman of the Wainwright Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, Mr. Rosme.

President Anderson in his report on District F.U.A. work for the last year spoke of the greatly increased membership and the fine attendance of sub-directors to District Board meetings. He asked for increased interest in all phases of F. U. A. work and spoke of the need for an equal interest in municipal and provincial affairs.

Mrs. Mildred Redman, District F. U. A. director, reported on her work during the year, and reports were made by Mrs. D. Mathieson and Mrs. H. Ruste on F.W.U.A. work.

The election of officers returned Mrs. Mildred Redman by acclamation as District F.U.A. Director, while Mrs. Geo. Findlay was elected as F.W.U.A. Director. An alternate director, F.U.A., J. Magill will serve for the next year while the F.W.U.A. alternate director will be Mrs. A. Gibson. J. Ewanciw was elected by acclamation as the Junior director.

During the afternoon session, the convention was addressed by Henry Young, Provincial F.U.A. President. He spoke of the great provincial gain in membership and stressed the need to maintain that membership in the future. He reported on the F.U.A. office building which is being erected in Edmonton and the many services which it would make available to members. He felt that it might also be possible in the future to maintain district offices to give extended services to locals and members.

Assessing the work of the organization for the year, Mr. Young spoke of ten advances that had been made through F.U.A. efforts. Among these were amendments to the tax acts, and trucking regulations; increased school grants and the setting up of provincial grants to assist homesteaders. There were also increased possibilities of obtaining many of the objectives of the F. U. A.

Speaking of future objectives Mr Young said that parity prices were essential to the well-being of agriculture. He felt that some form of crop insurance would be beneficial as the present P.F.A. system did not work satisfactorily. Closing he commended District No. 7 on its fine convention and general accomplishments.

As Provincial FWUA President Mrs Armstrong, Calgary, in addressing the meeting stressed the similar aims of the FUA and FWUA. She said that parity prices affected farm women as well as farm men, but that in addition to such financial problems the FWUA worked on a wide program concerning education and social laws. She spoke of the Stampede Queen competition and the fine publicity it afforded the FUA. She felt that the farm population should know of the world's activities such as the Food and Agricultural Organization, a United Nations project. And she advised the use of services of local District Agriculturists and Home Economists as a fine way to make local meetings more interesting. Listing some of the accomplishments of the women's group, she spoke of future objectives, such as homes for the aged, and a national health program.

In a brief speech, Mr. Logan, FUA organizer, outlined plans for the coming membership drive, and for more vital organization.

Sub-District Directors elected at the convention were M. Chmilar, Sub-District 1, R. Willson for Sub-District 3, and Geo. Jack for Sub-District 4.

A full agenda of resolutions was submitted for consideration. Among those passed were resolutions asking for amendments to PFAA; to farm income tax; for a provincial car insurance; for a provincial health insurance, and for a pension plan for farmers.

APPRECIATION

I wish to publicly express my sincere appreciation to the voters of the Vermilion Constituency for the support accorded me at the election on June 29th, support which topped the poll with the splendid total of 2020 first choice votes -the highest Social Credit vote registered since 1944; my heartfelt thanks to the key men at the various towns and villages who arranged halls for meetings; to others who helped in various ways; to the workers on election day, and for the generous hospitality accorded to me and to members in my party in so many homes during the campaign.

My disappointment at the result of the second and third counts is not a personal one, but I deeply regret that the Vermilion Constituency will not have a voice on the Government side of the Legislature in the progressive years immediately ahead of Alberta. I am happy in the knowledge that the Social Credit Government will continue its policy of giving the most generous grants in the Dominion to cities, towns, villages, hospital districts and school divisions, for the general benefit of You the People.

Agricultural Show On Wheels At Vermilion Fair

The "Agricultural Show on Wheels", exhibited by the Line Elevators Farm Service, will visit fair and field days in Alberta and Saskatchewan this summer. This is the only Mobile Agricultural Show in Western Canada, and no effort is spared to remodel and improve each year the display material it contains.

During the summer of 1955 the Exhibit will visit many 'B' and 'C' fairs and Agricultural field days in Alberta and Saskatchewan. This year's mobile unit features grain sanitation, smut control, soil erosion control and tractor safety. Line Elevators Farm Service publications on various important agricultural problems will be available upon request at the mobile exhibit.

Truly the new exhibit is the last word in agricultural shows. Don't miss the opportunity to see it at the Vermilion fair July 28, 29 and 30.

"1955" is Alberta's Golden Anniversary Year. It was in 1905 that this territory joined Canada as a province. Now Alberta is recognized as a region with as bright a future as any of the provinces which go to make up the Dominion of Canada.

Agriculture has made the greatest contribution to the economic advancement of Alberta, and the Alberta Wheat Pool pays its tribute herewith the men and women engaged in that great industry.

Within the span of a single generation the enterprising an energetic farm people of Alberta have created a record of diversified production of quality food products which is unsurpassed by any other province.

The wealth produced by Alberta farmers has permeated the economy of the province to a greater extent than all other sources of wealth combined. It sustains the villages, towns and cities and provides the basis for employment for most Alberta people.

Agriculture provides the most freight for the railways and other forms of transportation, the basic source of raw materials for Alberta manufacturies, and a constant inward stream of wealth from the substantial annual exports of food to other parts of Canada and other nations.

While Alberta people celebrate the province's Golden Anniversary they should keep in mind the immense contribution made by the people on Alberta farms to the prosperity and progress of this growing province.

HASENIUK-KAPUSTINSKI NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED IN VERMILION

At a beautiful double-ring ceremony in the Greek Catholic church in Vermilion, Jenny Kapustinski, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kapustinski of Leaman, was united in marriage to John, son of the late Mr. Steve Haseniuk and Mrs. Haseniuk of Edmonton.

The Rev. Father [illegible] officiated at the candlelight service for the June bride and groom.

The bride wore a white nylon net and tulle over satin bridal dress. It had an appliqued tiered skirt with medallions, topped with a high-necked bolero with lily point sleeves. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Thos. Shaughnessy, sister of the groom, from Edmonton. Mrs. Shaughnessy wore a mauve dress of cocktail-length.

There were four bridesmaids, Olga Dutchak, Grassland; Anne Stetzenberger, Edmonton; Florence Yaceyko, Mannville, and Irene Haseniuk, sister of the groom, of Edmonton. The bridesmaids were in pretty pastel floor-length gowns of pink, mauve, green and yellow.

The little flower girl, Bonny Lutchka of Mannville, was dressed in pink.

Attending the groom was the best man, Caesar Myshak of Vermilion, and three groomsmen, Nick Yaceyko, Mannville; Johnny Wynnychuk, Vermilion and Nick Styko of Vermilion.

The ushers were Ralph and Roy Yost, Stony Plain; Bill and Nick Woywitka, Vermilion; Bill Haseniuk, brother of the groom; Bill Wynnychuk, Vermilion; Tommy Shaughnessy, Edmonton, and Mike and Paul Haseniuk, brothers of the groom from Vermilion.

The reception was held in the Elks hall, Vermilion, with over 300 in attendance.

Following the bride's supper the guests enjoyed an evening of dancing to the Derwent orchestra.

During the evening the ceremony of presentation of gifts to the happy couple was enacted. The first gifts and wishes for a happily married life were offered by the bride's parents, then by the groom's family. These were followed in turn by the more distant members of the families and then the many friends who were gathered to do honor to the bride and groom.

During these ceremonies the toast to the bride was proposed by John Woywitka of Vegreville.

For their honeymoon the newlyweds took a trip to Miette Hot Springs and Jasper. On their return they have taken up residence on the groom's farm to the north of Vermilion.

Good Crop News

A lot of things can happen between now and the time when farm trucks start trundling grain into local elevators. There's still rust, weeds, worms and weather to worry about — not to mention the real problem of finding markets for our wheat and coarse grains.

But, right now, reports Financial Post, the crop is in far better shape than anyone dared predict six weeks ago.

There's a distinct chance of a prairie wheat crop of 450 million bushels.

That's 75% larger than last year, though only about 80% of the tremendous 1953 wheat yield. But it would be an impressive total, and especially so if quality is high.

WOODVALE NOTES

We will try very hard this time to write neatly and space our notes properly so we might avoid some of the mistakes that creep into our news every so often! We imagine Fred Slocum and Mr and Mrs. McQuid were as surprised as we were to find themselves guests at our home, instead of travelling pleasantly with their nephew to Jasper and Banff in the paragraph above.

Several parties went fishing at Moose Lake on Sunday July 10. Betty Ann and Wayne Lysons accompanied their parents and caught their first fish. The whole family caught a dozen, while Clarence Lewis and party managed to land 32.

Mrs Stranahan has been travelling in the district, selling farm paper subscriptions and taking with her occasionally her friend Mrs. C. McGrath, staying for a little visit here and there; calling at the writer's among others, for a very pleasant chat.

Mr and Mrs. L. Wilkinson and family from Vancouver Island, formerly of Vanesti, spent Sunday July 10 in the Tolland district, having dinner and supper at the McGrath home and attending church in Ganton hall, where they met many of their former friends and neighbors.

The Tolland ball team played 3 times at picnics this past week, winning first at Auburndale where they won by a narrow margin, 10-9 over Preston, but they did not do so well at Earlie and Basswood. Their team suffered a casualty when Frankie Wolters tore the tendons in his arm while sliding into base. He spent a day in the hospital and will not be able to use his arm for quite a spell.

Freddy McGrath tried to chop off a finger while sharpening fence posts, but luckily did not succeed, though his finger was badly cut and needed many stitches.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Marketing Boards, Lands Act, Likely Items Before August Session

EDMONTON — Two items of wide interest to farmers likely will come before the new Alberta legislature when it convenes in August for a special session.

Some time before the election, Premier Manning announced that the special session would be called mainly to complete business left unfinished when the house was dissolved suddenly and the snap election called.

One of the major items was the contentious bill which would allow farmers to establish producer-controlled marketing boards for certain agricultural products. A meeting of the house agriculture committee had just settled into a study of the matter when the storm broke which caused the election.

The other item was a bill which would permit the province to set up a special board of experts to study various types of land in the province and advise farmers on the most efficient use of them. When he introduced the bill Agriculture Minister L. C. Halmrast described it as an entirely new departure, and said it was the most important piece of legislature to come before the last session.

Presumably, both these bills will be dealt with when the special session is held.

The premier hasn't said whether the agriculture committee will meet again in August to hear arguments from the various farm and ranch organizations which sent representatives to the short-lived meeting in May. It is known, however, that the government doesn't want a lengthy session.

Social Credit ranks are divided on the marketing board issue and some SC members spoke strongly against it at the last session. They are opposed mainly to certain 'compulsory' features of the enabling legislation.

Under the bill as presented to the last house, 51% of the registered producers could vote to establish a marketing board for a certain product in a certain area. It then would be compulsory for the other 49% to participate, even though they might be opposed to the marketing board principle.

The Farmers' Union of Alberta is in favor of producer-controlled marketing boards, but wants a few changes in the enabling bill. For one thing, it thinks the voting restrictions would make it impossible almost to get a strong enough vote to establish a board. The FUA wants the bill changed so a board can be set up with the approval of about 60% of those who vote instead of 51% of those eligible to vote.

RANCHERS OPPOSED

The ranchers of southern Alberta are most violently opposed to the idea of marketing boards and had a voluminous brief to present to the house committee in May. They made representations to the government before the bill was drafted, and as a result sheep and cattle were excluded from the provisions of the bill.

The legislation appeared to be developing into a real political hot potato, and it takes quite a hot one to split the usually solid Social Credit ranks. Some political observers believe the bill may have been introduced in order to bring about a full-scale discussion, with all opposing sides represented.

LAND USE BILL, GOOD COMMON SENSE

The government shouldn't have any trouble passing the land use act which many think is long overdue. It could provide for a more intensive study than ever before of land, forest and water resources. One duty of the panel of experts would be to study land characteristics in new areas before they are open to settlement. With settlers advised as to the best land use, there could be less heartbreak and disappointment. Mr Halmrast mentioned the grey wooded soil areas as an early project.

In some backward areas, exchanges of land might be arranged and the residents moved to land better suited for farming.

DR LONGMAN RETIRES

Alberta recently bid farewell to one deputy minister of agriculture and welcomed another.

Dr. O. S. Longman retired from the post of deputy minister after thirty-seven years of service to agriculture in Alberta. He is succeeded by R. M. 'Bob' Putnam, 50, who has been assistant deputy minister since 1947, and superintendent of agricultural schools.

Mr Putnam is a graduate of the University of Alberta and received his farming experience on dried-out land in the Medicine Hat area during the late 1920's. He has been with the department of agriculture since 1933, starting with the field crops branch. Mr Putnam brings considerable experience to his new post, and his appointment should be welcomed by Albertans.

The 70,000 pulp and paper people permanently employed in the mills, woods, and auxiliary services in Canada are amongst the highest paid workers in industry.

Kinsmen Will Raffle Car At The Fair

This year, as last, the Kinsmen are raffling a car at the Vermilion fair. The draw, to be made after the final grandstand performance on Saturday night, is for a Plymouth 4-door, two-tone Deluxe sedan. This car may be seen at Alex Marian's service station.

Last year's winner was Gerald Miller of Vermilion.

The proceeds from this car raffle go to the support and improvement of the Kinsmen wading pool. This year some playground equipment has been purchased, but much more is needed. The fence has been newly completed and grass has been sown. The supervisor, Miss Hazel Barr, has plans for some hobby classes to aid the kiddies to enjoy themselves.

Remember, help the Kinsmen to help the Kiddies by purchasing your ticket now, for $1 from any member of the Kinsmen — and even YOU might win the car. 4-6x

A JUBILEE FEATURE

An official announcement was received that the branch of the Canadian Northern Railway from North Battleford to Athabasca Landing will be built this summer. This will enable the farmers of the Jackfish district to find a ready market for their wheat. The farmers were determined they would not repeat last winter's experience of hauling grain from 70 to 100 miles to the railroad, and so had decided not to increase their acreage until they were assured that the road would be pushed through this summer.

Mr. Clarence Fue has bought a new driver. Clarence likes to have a good horse.

Miss Bessie Pilkie was awarded the 'Special Prize in Voice' value $50; while Miss Beth Witherbe secured the 'Cushing Prize in Elocution', value $25, at the closing exercises of Alberta College.

An extensive and modern farming plant has been installed on the farm of H. C. Pierce, south of town.

With a 22 h.p. Hart-Parr kerosene engine Mr. Pierce is engaged in cutting his grain and ploughing his land. The engine is hauling an 8-foot Massey Harris binder and a 14-inch 6-furrow Cockshutt steam plow. The sheaves are dumped from the binder upon the ploughed ground.

The outfit is averaging 35 acres per 24 hours. The binder is doing excellent work so that no litter is being left on the ploughed ground.

The 4th annual Fair and Exhibition was held Sept. 30 and Oct. 1. The greater part of Friday, Oct. 1 was decidedly cool and an unpleasant wind prevailed. However, the attendance can be said to have been exceptionally good under the circumstances, though the prevalence of prairie fires kept many from exhibiting who otherwise would have done so.

There was a fine showing in the horse classes. Cattle were fairly numerous. Vegetables and field roots made quite a display and were probably among the most interesting of the fair.

The Canadian pulp and paper industry is one of the major industrial enterprises of the world.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

July 20th, 1939

Starting July 27 and continuing until the 29th, the Vermilion Fair board have contracted one of Canada's finest midways to appear and to provide entertainment for the patrons. This will be the first appearance of Wallace Bros. shows in Western Canada and they promise to present several new and unusual features.

The Vermilion Senior baseball team turned in three victories on Wednesday to cop the big prize money at Marwayne sports. The scores of the games and local batteries were: Vermilion 7, Elk Point 6, Jim Banks and Ken Corson; Vermilion 9, Rivercourse 0, Rogers and Art Wiebe; Vermilion 8, Lloydminster 2, Jim White and Ken Corson.

Vermilion was well represented at the annual C.G.I.T. camp held at Elk Island park from July 5 to 12. The girls attending from town were Dorothy and Betty Barr, Katharine Forbes, Agnes MacDonald, Irene Jory, Betty Rowe, Leola Jones and Jean Greig.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

July 19th, 1923

The Rev. Father Charles Goutier arrived in Vermilion on the 21st after a three weeks' journey from his home in Belgium on a visit to his parents and brothers whom he has not seen for 16 years.

H. P. Long, secretary-treasurer of the town, accompanied by Mrs. Long and daughter Lois, left Wednesday night for a vacation trip through southern B.C. and the Arrow Head Lakes. While away they will visit friends at Nelson and Penticton.

W. Nelson Gourlay of Lacombe has been appointed principal of the Vermilion Public school. The following teachers have now been appointed to the staff: Miss Muriel Stone, Miss Blanche Mitchell, Miss Daley, Mrs. Mildred Pilkie, Miss Dorothy Oakley, Miss Eleanor Samis.

Paradise Valley

Mrs. Olga Todman and daughter Karen from Victoria and Mrs. Ragna Olsen and son Allen from Rimbey, Alta., were visitors of their sister Mrs. Robert Adams. Their mother Mrs. Halvarson and Mr and Mrs Art Opseth from Provost also accompanied them.

Mr and Mrs Syd Bennet who were former residents of the Vanesti district took in the Earle picnic on Wednesday greeting many old friends.

Mr and Mrs Art Levitt, Mr and Mrs Reg Holgate, Mr and Mrs Arnold Nickle and Mrs Lloyd Knutson left on Friday to attend the wedding of Miss Helen Levitt which took place the next day.

VISITORS FROM NEW YORK

Mr and Mrs George Henton of Bingamton, New York, called on a few of Mr Henton's old friends on Thursday. Mr. Henton left Paradise Valley in the spring of 1923 while a young lad and the changes that have taken place since that time made George almost a total stranger. Mr and Mrs Henton are on their way to travel the Alaska highway. They intend to sell their car and fly back to New York. A word or two about the Henton family might be of interest to the old timers around here. Earle is living in Texas, Hazel in San Louis O Bispo, Calif. Ruth also makes California her home. Mable lives in Syracuse, Mary and Frances too in New York State. Mr and Mrs Frank Henton have both passed on.

MANY ON HOLIDAYS

Our town and district is pretty well deserted these days as everyone is either away or going away on holidays. Mr and Mrs E. I. Kragness, Mr and Mrs Elmer Clay and Mrs. J. W. Guy have returned after their holiday.

Mr C. A. Richardson is attending summer school at [illegible]. Miss Joan Richardson is working at Chauvin and Miss Carol Richardson is at Athabasca for her holidays.

Mr and Mrs William Stoddart and family are spending two weeks at Loon Lake Sask. Mr and Mrs Emil Knor and family have gone down to Nebraska for their vacation. Miss Ruth Walters is visiting with relatives in Calgary.

Mr and Mrs. Donald Churchill returned on Friday after attending the Golden wedding of Mr and Mrs. Clyde Churchill at Kinuso, Alberta.

Weather has been on the hot side during the past week. We will need more rain very soon as the heat has been using up the moisture. Haying is in full swing.

Mr Andrew Dodds who has been visiting his sister Mrs. Jim Allan and Mr Allan, left Saturday morning on his return journey to Scotland but will stop over at Winnipeg to visit a son there.

Wee Walter Christie, who, with his parents Mr and Mrs. Colin Christie of Winnipeg, are visiting Mr and Mrs. Jim Allan, was having a grand time riding horseback along with Jimmy Shaw. But the big horse had a slippery back and the boys fell off, Walter sustaining a fractured arm. He is now in the Islay hospital.

Mr and Mrs. Charlie Robertson, Cathie and Minna have returned from a holiday spent at Banff and down into Washington State. On the way they called on Mr and Mrs Harold White and family at Lacombe. The Whites like it there very much and we learn that Ann won the I.O.D.E. scholarship. Congratulations Ann and hello to the whole family from us at Islay. Robertsons also visited the Vogels they are transferring to Calgary to teach. Mr Vogel is to be relieving three principals. Also saw Erva Sweet and Betty West in Red Deer, and at Banff Mr and Mrs. Bill Gillies and the boys.

We learn that Lawrence Venance, at one time on the Islay school staff is leaving the profession and joining Civil Service, in the Income Tax Dept.

Mr and Mrs. Gordon Gould and boys have gone to Jasper and were taking in the Edmonton parade on the way. Miss Marion Teskey went with them as far as Edmonton where she will visit her cousin Shirley Bootsman for a few days.

HOUSE ROBBED

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Olds and daughter Marymae and Mr Dave Riley of Edmonton, were week end visitors at the Henry Olds. While away the Albert Old's house in the city was entered and considerable property taken. A set of dishes, some very special cups and saucers, electric clock and radio to mention a few things.

Mrs. Helen McCaughan is in Chilliwack visiting her old home.

Ralph and Bessie Anderson have gone south to the Alsask Stampede and to visit old neighbors and friends in that area. Mr. Anderson is holding down at the farm.

Miss Katherine MacKay of Woodville, Ont. spent two days at the home of Misses Muriel and Gladys Stone. Miss MacKay is a sister of Dr. Bert MacKay, Canadian delegate to the U.N. She is on her way to Victoria, San Francisco, Salt Lake and then back home to Toronto.

TWO HO-BO TEAS

On Tuesday Mrs. Irene Martin started out and gathered Mrs. Bill Shaw, Mrs. Violet Schaeffer, Mrs. Neil McLennan and Miss Ann Gretch. They called on Mrs. Frank Hutchinson, and a lucky day it was for the Hoboes as Mrs. Hutchinson had baked some goodies expecting some of her own family to come home.

From the north Mrs. Flossie Axley called for Mrs. Axley Sr., Mrs. Doris McFadyen, and for Mrs. Irene Herricks but she wasn't home so on the three went to the Both wells, and they were in time to quilt (if they did) as Mrs. Bothwell and Mrs Adams her sister from Ontario had a quilt on the frames.

Mrs Dalt Torrance and Linda went with the Andersons as far as Kindersley where her sister of Eston, Sask., will meet them.

Miss Barbara Golby has gone to Vancouver to visit an aunt, her father's sister.

Mr and Mrs. Bill McLean, Marilyn and Tommy were at Legal for the week end. Tommy is still there with his grandma.

Remember that shipment of rags? Jean Axley will send it the second week in August — so hurry!

MENTAL DEFECTIVENESS

Mental defectiveness may be inborn or due to injury or disease. When it is due to injury, the injury may be caused before, during or shortly after birth. The following diseases may be the cause of mental defectiveness:

CRETINISM: Due to a congenital deficiency of thyroid secretion, and all degrees of severity occur. The child is usually dull and stupid looking, and does not develop either mentally or physically. The body is dwarfed, the head is large, lips are thick and protruding, tongue hangs out of mouth, skin is dry, hair scanty, and eyelids are swollen. Teeth are slow in appearing, and muscular movements are inco-ordinated so that walking is clumsy or impossible. Child does not speak and is usualy placid, harmless and easily managed. The effect of treatment with thyroid is often mira-culous if started early.

MONGOLISM: This is so called because of the facial resemblance to members of the Mongolian race. The causation is still obscure. The skull is small and diminished in its antero-posterior diameter. The face is flattened and the tongue enlarged. The eyes are oblique and narrow. The hair is scanty and dry and the mouth lies open. The middle and little fingers are often shortened. The child is good natured and easily amused and a great mimic. Expectation of life is poor.

HYDROCEPHALUS: Due to the accumulation of an excessive amount of cerebro spinal fluid within the brain. The skull is enlarged and the brain tissue is compressed. There is a marked disproportion between the size of the head and the face. Expectation of life is very poor.

MICROCEPHALY: The skull is very small and cone-shaped. The forehead and chin are receding and the nose is beak-shaped. The scalp is too abundant for the skull and is thrown into furrows. They mostly belong to the imbecile class and are good tempered but restless and unable to persevere.

PARALYTIC TYPES: In this type, the mental defectiveness is associated with some degree of paralysis and is due to lack of development of part of the brain, injury or tumor growth. The most common cause is hemorrhage.

SYPHILITIC TYPES: Many children suffering from hereditary syphilis are mental defects. The other signs are peg-shaped teeth, scarring around the mouth, keratitis, saddle-shaped nose, and bossing of the bones of the forehead. The child is backward in learning to walk and talk and the body is often stunted and poorly formed.

INFLAMMATORY Types: Caused by inflammation of the brain and its coverings as a result of an infectious process, pneumonia, influenza, measles, etc. The degree of mental defectiveness varies greatly.

AMAUROTIC FAMILY IDIOCY: This is usually confined to members of the Jewish race. They are mentally defective, have paralysis of the limbs, and are blind.

Bone China Exports To Canada Increase

Canada has long been Britain's best customer for fine bone china. The latest figures made available in London show that Canadian sales this year have risen again. Exports of bone china to Canada in the first five months of this year amounted to more than $2,520,000 as compared with just under $2,324,000 for the same period last year.

Refuse To Accept Vote As Final On Islay Hospital Issue

ISLAY. — The regular monthly meeting of the Islay Municipal Hospital board was held in the hospital July 9th. Present were G. D. Jack chairman, and D. B. Shirreff, John K. Whiteside, R. G. Purves and the secretary.

The minutes of the preceding meeting and the financial statement were adopted as read.

A delegation waited on the Board in support of the following petition: (26 signers) — "This is to advise you that we are not going to accept the vote taken on Wednesday, June 22 on our resolution as final.

"It was not carried out in any way that was right or fair as there was not even standing room in the hall for the people to hear the meeting or the resolution and many did not even know the resolution they were voting on. Many left, after standing outside all afternoon, and never even knew there was a vote taken. If you want to have time to find out more from the other hospitals concerned regarding our resolution it will be O.K. otherwise we demand an immediate plebiscite.

"This matter is just as important to us as closing the hospital is to others and this cannot be done without a plebiscite which is the only fair way of voting."

The Board agreed to secure further information from the hospitals concerned.

Holidays for the matron were authorized from July 11. Miss G. Neuppa, R.N. was appointed acting matron; for the Secretary Aug. 1. Mr. R. G. Purves was appointed as acting secretary-treasurer.

Matron's report: In hospital 11, admitted 38, discharged 37, remaining 12, out patients 14, births 2, deaths 2, operations 2 major, 4 minor. Receipts $5282.52.

A tender submitted for stove length wood was rejected.

Liability insurance policy was renewed.

Salaries and accounts were ordered paid as approved. Authorization was given for renovation of the maternity section of the hospital.

THE FAMILY

Down at the railroad station yesterday I saw a father saying farewell to his family. They are moving to a western city and he is to follow as soon as he gets his business affairs in order. It is a very lively family ranging in age from 4 to 14 and as I helped Charlie get settled into his hotel room I said, "Well I suppose you'll enjoy a few weeks of peace and quiet without the youngsters underfoot?"

"That's what I always tell myself," he said. "But it doesn't work that way. The peace and quiet bores me. I don't amount to much without the family."

I know just how he feels because I have a family of [illegible] myself. They disturb me when I am trying to write or read or think. They wake me early in the morning when I'd sometimes like to sleep. They pester me for car rides and they bother me for spending money. They worry me about their homework and [illegible], and they get noisiest and most demanding just about the time when I am loaded with problems of my own. But that is not the worst of it.

The worst of it is when they go away!

That is when the terrible peace and quiet settle in. And just like Charlie — I don't amount to much without the family.

I don't think a nation would amount to much for long, either, unless composed of families where each father is responsible for the welfare of his own brood. That's [illegible] why I am always suspicious of governments that try to take over all or part of that responsibility. Hitler did it; tyrants have always invaded the sanctity of the family. They use wonderful excuses and they pretend it is only to help and improve the family welfare. They may even be sincere about it at first. But it never works.

Families are a terrible load, an awful burden, a great responsibility. But they are worth it — ten times over!

Power From Peat

New ways with old fuel, peat, are being developed in Scotland, where workable deposits of peat are estimated at 600 million tons. An experimental power station is to be equipped with a closed-cycle gas turbine which has already made a continuous test run of 1000 hours on pulverized peat.

OPENING IS FAVORED BY BEAUTIFUL WEATHER

Lieut.-Gov. Bowlen Opens 50th Fair

Despite threatening weather all day Wednesday, Vermilion fair plans were completed and all in readiness for the big event to open on Thursday. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor was on hand to welcome the pioneers of the Vermilion district and the province and paid tribute to the mangnificent contribution made by those who came to the area in the early days and did so much to establish what has come to be recognized as one of the outstanding agricultural districts in the province. The Hon. Mr. Bowlen officially opened the fair after his address and after presenting Queen Scout Badges to four members of the local troop, who by their application to the principles of scouting had earned that high honor. The four scouts were Tom Kibblewhite, Dan Leversedge, Pat Bentley and Donald Stewart.

The Lieutenant-Governor then officially opened the Pioneers' Cabin, erected in the fair grounds by the Agricultural Society as a permanent tribute to the Old Timers. The building is a fine one, constructed of log siding donated by Mr. G. E. Hayward, President of the Hayward Lumber Company of Edmonton and an original settled in the Vermilion district. The cabin is equipped with a fine stone fireplace, the work of Mr. Pool of the W. J. Pettigrew staff and a splendid piece of work. Imbedded in the chimney is a copper box made and donated by Mayor Hill and in which records of the 1955 fair with a copy of the Pioneers' register etc. will be deposited and the box sealed, with a request that it be opened at the celebration of Vermilion's 100th fair. Altogether the cabin will serve a most useful purpose as a meeting place for the fine early settlers to whom so much is due and is a decided credit to the Vermilion Agricultural Society.

EXHIBITS WELL ABOVE PREVIOUS YEARS

The exhibits in every single department are away up over previous years and are being much enjoyed by fair patrons. The displays of various kinds are tops in their class and the grandstand attractions and midway are most acceptable in every respect.

Details of the parade will be given in the next issue of the Standard and meanwhile the Society wishes to thank all who so generously devoted their time and energy to making it a success.

DON'T MISS GRANDSTAND

Everyone in the district should see the 1955 grandstand attractions which include the McHendry Trio, said to be the most refreshing comedy act in show business; the Zoppe Troupe with its act 'tricks on high' on unsupported ladders draws many expressions of appreciation as does the act of the Zavatta Troupe with tis beautiful horses; the Three Goetchis, a free-wheeling group of fine actors and Torina and Eric, the boy and girl in the moon go to make a magnificent program which is thoroughly rounded out by the antics of 'Peg-Leg' Bates, a one-leged marvel who has been thrilling audiences all over the U.S. and Canada for several years past. The attractions have a genuine Golden Jubilee theme and are claimed by many to be the best ever seen in Wtsern Canada. Roy and Helene, the Mystic Fun Masters, complete a truly wonderful program.

FIREWORKS EVERY NIGHT

The fireworks display which will be held every night of the fair and the grand Square Dance Jamboree which will be held imediately following th platform attractions on Saturday night make Vermilion's Fiftieth Fair one of which the directors may well be proud.

The Kinsmen with their car raffle and the Elks with their booth are seeking the support of the public in their endeavors to advance the welfare of the boys and girls of our district.

AN INVITATION

You are cordially invited to attend the remaining days of Vermilion Grand Jubilee Fair and enjoy meeting so many pioneers who are the backbone of the country and the pride of those who find so much of beauty and value in today's Alberta.

Full Enrollment At Fair Camp Week

Some sixty boys and 60 girls from widely scattered districts within the general Vermilion area are attending the popular 'Fair Camp Week' at the Vermilion School of Agriculture.

The short course, which is sponsored jointly by the School of Agriculture, the Vermilion Fair and the Dominion Department of Agriculture, provides an educational holiday for farm boys and girls. They registered on Monday afternoon, are attending a number of lectures, demonstrations and organized entertainments during the week and will be guests of the Agricultural Society at special features of the fair. The boys and girls compete for a number of prizes for general proficiency which will be awarded at their closing banquet Saturday afternoon.

Similar 'Fair Camps' are held in connection with other agricultural fairs all across Canada but few, if any, have the advantages of the exceptionally suitable facilities that are offered by student residences, classrooms, gardens, field crops plots and farm at the School of Agriculture here.

Pioneer Vermilion Man Celebrates 90th Birthday

Wesley John Parsons, a pioneer district resident is 90 years old on Friday, July 29th. He plans to celebrate his birthday at his home in Vermilion where neighbors and friends will gather at an informal reception in his honor.

Mr. Parsons was born and raised in Compton, County, Que. In the year 1900 he went to Colorado where he remained for five years. He then returned to Quebec and came to Vermilion in March, 1907. He followed his trade of building contractor until 1913 when he moved to his homestead in the Rusylvia district some twenty miles north of Vermilion. He farmed until 1935 when he retired. In 1948 he moved into Vermilion where he has since made his home with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson. One other daughter, Mrs. J. F. McNaught lives at West Monkton, Ontario.

New Band Shell For Lake Park

Contract for the new band shell at the provincial park has now been awarded to Wm. J. Pettigrew. Site for this asset to the park has already been levelled.

The location of the band shell is such that it will overlook the entire parking and beach area, so that vaudeville acts, movies and concerts may be seen and heard either from cars or seated on grass or beach.

The band shell, which is dome-shaped, has a frontage of 40 feet and is 30 feet deep. It is being jointly financed by the M.D's of Vermilion River, Minburn, Town of Vermilion and the Parks Board of the Provincial government.

An official opening of the band shell with a special program is being planned for later in the holidays.

Large Attendance At Farm Women's Week

A total of 180 ladies attended the School of Agriculture during Farm Women's Week July 18 to 21.

Some 65 ladies enrolled for the full duration of the short course and stayed in the school residence. Others came in for special features of the program. One group of 28 ladies from the F.W.U.A., Viking chartered a special bus, arrived at the school on Tuesday morning in time for breakfast, and stayed through the day until after the evening program.

The Tuesday program, including "Sewing Aids", "Trees and Shrubs", "New Fabrics", "Sensible Weight Control" and a picnic at the Vermilion Provicial park, proved most popular this year. Over 100 ladies attended the demonstration on water safety given by Mr. Glen Turk the supervisor of the swimming facilities at the Park, and many of them enjoyed rides in motor boats on the lake after supper.

Wednesday's program, featuring Mr F. H. Crowther, Manager of the China department, Hudson Bay Co. in Edmonton, and Dr. Wm. E. Gladstone, Chiropodist, of Edmonton, proved exceptionally interesting and gave rise to considerable questioning of the speakers and discussion by the ladies attending.

The guest speaker at the banquet on Thursday evening was Mr. F. H. Newcombe, Director of the Agricultural Extension Service. His topic "Farming by Blueprint" provided a most suitable climax to a most successful Farm Women's Week program.

The Baby Clinic scheduled to be held in Vermilion, Monday, Aug. 1, has been cancelled owing to that Monday having been declared a Civic holiday.

World's Finest Shows Now Playing At The Vermilion Exhibition

By far the biggest show ever to appear at the Vermilion Fair, the World's Finest Shows, will present a most unusual galaxy of attractions. Combining America's biggest kiddieland, Terrell Jacob's world-famous wild animal circus and more than 35 thrilling rides and shows, the World's Finest arrived today with their own special train of 45 double-length flat cars, and with more than 500 performers, workmen and concessionaires.

LIONS & TIGERS

Terrell Jacobs, famed throughout the circus world as one of the most competent and fearless of all 'cat' trainers, presents a mixed group of ferocious battling lions and tigers, hereditary natural deadly enemies of each other and of man, in the great steel arena. There are also wonderfully trained liberty hackney ponies, a trained Indian elephant, and many other animals under the circus big top, complete with clowns, calliope music and barkers that will bring to many the old thrills and chills of youth when the circus came to town.

SENSATIONAL CYCLE ACT

Two of the most outstanding motorcycle performers in all Europe, Bob and Mildred Lee, ride motor cycles and midget racing cars in an act described as one of the most awe-inspiring and sensational ever seen. The Lees race at terrific speed around the inside of a ball of basket woven steel only 14 feet in diameter. They cross and recross each other's paths with only a fraction of an inch between their wheels. The slightest error would mean certain injury and possible death.

Notably light and gay is the exotic and entertaining Bob Hermine's Lilliputian Revue. Recognized as the most talented group in the world of 'little people' this most remarkable Migret Revue has recently achieved fame in the world of the grown-ups too. They have just completed the new Paramount Vista Vision production of The Court Jester, starring Danny Kaye, Basil Rathbone and other screen notables. These perfectly formed miniature men and women, some of whom are less than 27 inches tall, have their own 8-piece band, and it plays everything from Bach to boogie, with variations. They sing, dance, perform on the trapeze and tight rope with an enthusiasm and skill that make their performance unforgettable.

Another astonishing presentation along the great mile-long midway is the side show known as the 'World's Strangest Living Freaks'. This exhibition has a dozen human oddities that have to be seen to be believed. There's Freddy, the armless wonder, born without arms, he has overcome his almost unsurmountable handicap to such an extent that he can load a rifle and shoot with amazing accuracy, thread the finest needles, pitch 'ringer' horseshoes and eat with a knife and fork as well as most normally equipped persons, by using his feet and toes. One of the strangest medical phenomena of all times is William Burks, who was born with two mouths, two noses, but only one eye which certainly earns him a unique position among these strange people. On the lighter side is the great Vantin, master manipulator of magic, the African Pigmy, the midget fire eater, and many more strange and weird examples of the queer pranks of mother nature.

No midway could be complete without a troupe of beautiful singing and dancing [illegible]. The World's Finest Shows have a generous and colorful array of these delightful and pleasurable artists. Headlined by Linette O'Dare, beautiful and statuesque star of many of America's largest theatres and clubs, this fast moving comedy treat has ten gorgeous girls, the hottest colored quartet of musicians this side of New Orleans, the novelty acts of Abdullah, king of the oriental jugglers, and the beautiful Jackie Riley, with her melodious electric guitar. Mickey Larue and Niki Jordan present exotic dances direct from the night clubs of Chicago's Loop, and Pat White, in her sensuous dance of the Apaches, presents the stormy turbulent story of the French underworld.

There are more than 35 fabulous thrilling rides and shows with this great congress of fun, with plenty of attractions guaranteed to please every member of the family. For junior patrons, there's America's biggest kiddieland with more than a dozen rides especially designed for the children. In addition to a small merry go round, and a big one too there are real boats sailing in water, real live western ponies, little kiddie autos, the Tubs o' Fun, and the ever popular roller coaster. The miniature scenic railway and its congenial engineer have always been a big favorite and the new Kiddie Turnpike with its racing cars and long twisting, turning speedway will thrill the young folks most of all.

"Thrill rides" for the older set who are still young at heart include the highest of all rides the Hi-Ball, the twisting, twirling Tilt-a-Whirl, the speedy Moon Rocket, the ever-popular Ferris Wheel, and the heart-palpitating Rolloplane. The dipping, spinning Octopus, drive-yourself auto scooter, the fly-yourself sensation, the Fly-a-Plane, and the eerie Ghost Ride will provide plenty of action for most thrill seekers. The Rolloplane and the new Firefly have all of the crazy mixed-up experiences in one. Of course whether you're 8 or 80, or just feel that way, there will always be the big merry-go-round, with its dashing, colorful steeds and mighty symphonic band organ.

Insofar as the midway is concerned, the exhibition this year promises to surpass all expectations.

ISLAY PIONEER PASSES AWAY

William James Tuohey, well known old time resident of the Islay district, passed away at the Islay hospital on Wednesday, July 20th at the age of 80 years. He is survived by two sons, William and John both of Islay and one daughter, Mrs. S. Grout, also of Islay. There are four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the United church, Islay, on Saturday July 23 with interment in the Islay cemetery. The Rev. Ian Holter of [illegible] officiated. Moyers of Vermilion were in charge of the last rites.

VERMILION WINS AT MINBURN

The Vermilion Fastball All-Stars journeyed to Minburn for a double-header last Sunday [illegible] away with both games.

They beat Minburn to the tune of [illegible] in the first game, and then edged them to the score of 8 to 1 in the second part of the double-header.

The Vermilion battery was M. [illegible] and I. Butler to B. Bentley. Rest of the line-up: 1b. J. Brower, 2b. K. Goodenough, 3b. L. Joah, s.s. A. Heidebrecht, l.f. H. Joah, c.f. R. Bellingham, r.f. D. Wilson.

VERMILION WINS AT ELK POINT

Vermilion Seniors batted their way to a 17-11 victory at Elk Point Sunday afternoon. Big hitter for the day was Vermilion pitcher Ray Jones who got five for six times at bat, one of them a mighty homer which cleared the 380-foot centre field fence with plenty to spare. Bob Dunbar was the Vermilion catcher. The Elk Point battery was Lefty Shiplowy to Stetso.

BROADCAST GAME

The Elk Point baseball management is to be congratulated on the nice arrangements at their games. The game is broadcast play by play from a loudspeaker system. The big scoreboard is used with an adult in charge. All this helps the interest in the game materially and the Vermilion management should take note.

SCORE BY INNINGS

Vermilion	0	1	4	2	1	3	4	0	2	17
Elk Point	2	4	0	1	0	3	0	1	0	11

Vermilion ended the game with a snappy double play, Jones to Winters at second, to Pryor at 1st.

A new Canadian 5-cent stamp is being issued to commemorate the Golden Jubilee of both Saskatchewan and Alberta.

GREATEST CELEBRATION OF HALF CENTURY OF PROGRESS—

Vermilion and district people are this week witnessing the most ambitious celebration ever planned in this area. This is the 50th annual Fair along with the Golden Jubilee of the Town of Vermilion. It so happens that the Province, the Town and the Fair Association came into being at the same time, all these calling for Golden Anniversary celebration.

For this year's fair the mammoth amount of work necessary by the Fair Board has been increased by the Jubilee celebration and the paying of well merited tribute to our pioneers. In this the Board has been joined and aided by the Town Council, Board of Trade, Old Timers Association and many other organizations.

The effort expended has been terrific. It now remains for the population in general to show their appreciation by attending the Jubilee Fair in thousands. Two big days are left, the weather is lovely ... so everybody come to the Fair!

"GREEN ACRES"

MALATHION KILLS INSECTS

The new insect killer called Malathion is proving itself useful in controlling everything from spider mites to potato beetles. It is reported to be one of the safest insecticides to handle. It can be used on the vegetable garden, and the vegetables may be used safely in a week's time. It is recommended specially in this district for spraying spruce trees and for plant lice on barley.

DEHORNING CALVES

The Mannville Calf club put on a very useful thematic display at the Lloydminster and Vermilion fairs. Caustic paste calf dehorners and electric dehorners were all on display. My only comment is that the longer dehorning is delayed the harder it is on both the calf and the operator.

SAVING PIGS

The other day I heard a fellow tell one of his sows not to lay on her two-day old pigs. How much safer it would be to build a creep and a guard rail. Even in warm weather a heat lamp in the creep will draw the little pigs away from a clumsy sow.

BUGS ON THE BARLEY

The aphids (plant lice) on the barley has destroyed a lot of barley fields already and it still goes on. The aphids do not seem to hurt the crops which are in head but only the juicy young plants. Malathion can be used order through your drug store, hardware or M.D. office. This poison costs $1.50 to $2 per acre.

FAT TYPE HOGS

Peter Wylie, Yorkshire pig breeder from Leduc said to me this week at Lloydminster fair, "there are many farmers in Alberta from the corn belt who will never give in that they should change over to producing the lean bacon which people want." Yorkshire and Tamworth bacon type boars used on good gilts will soon improve the grade and the profit.

SODIUM CHLORATE

Bert Hosack, Field Supervisor for Vermilion River M.D. and Chester Gamble, Field Supervisor for Minburn both tell me that Toad Flax is in flower. Now is the time for every farmer to look over his land for Toad Flax. If any plants are found then Sodium Chlorate can be bought at one-third cost from the Municipal office. In Vermilion River M.D. agents have been appointed in every village to stock the chlorate. Everyone knows the risk one takes when Toad Flax is neglected.

Chronological Age, Physical Age Two Different Things, Says Dr. Bates

"It seems that society finds it hard to grasp the fact that preventive medicine has so increased the expectation of life that old people are no longer old," writes Dr. Gordon Bates in an editorial of the current issue of HEALTH magazine, official publication of the Health League of Canada. "Since 1900 the average duration of life has increased in civilized countries from an average of 50 years to nearly 70 and one authority has predicted that by 1970 the average in Canada will be about 80."

"Even newspaper columnists, generally quick on the trigger, have scarcely sensed the change," says Dr. Bates. "Their constant reference to the aging Sir Winston Churchill is an evidence that they haven't caught up with the times. It is probably a source of annoyance to a great statesman, who, in his 80's, has still more wit, energy and wisdom than any of them."

Dr. Bates says that it was Sir William Osler who said that man is as old as his arteries. "What he said in effect was that chronological age and physical age are two different things. This fact has not yet been realized by either universities or industry. Universities still throw out their best professors at 60 or 65 to make room for less effective youngsters and industry sacrifices its own interests by retiring men who have grown wise in experience to rust and deteriorate."

REPORT TO THE PEOPLE

Liberals Vote Against Parity Prices For Agricultural Products

BY JAMES A. SMITH M.P. Battle River-Camrose

This is my first report to you as your Member of Parliament.

I received my official notification on Sunday, July 10 and left that day for Ottawa. I arrived here Tuesday afternoon and was met by Mr Low and Mr Hansell. Within the next hour I had met the Speaker and the Clerk of the House of Commons, signed the register and taken the oath. Wednesday morning I was officially introduced to the House of Commons and given the right to take my seat. That afternoon I registered my first recorded vote as your member. I voted in favor of a resolution to establish parity prices for agricultural products. The resolution was defeated as the Liberal group, including our Alberta Liberal members, voted solidly against it.

My feelings were confirmed when I discovered our Social Credit group here is very active. It was with a great deal of pride that I listened to Mr Low, Mr. Hansell and Mr. Quelch "match wits" on the floor of the House with the Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Trade and Commerce, on the subject of how to dispose of our wheat and other agricultural products.

As a new member I realize that I have many things to learn in order to represent the people of Battle River-Camrose in the way they deserve to be represented. It will always be my ambition to gain from all concerned the same respect and confidence which was so rightly placed in our late member, Robert Fair.

I wish to appeal to you as individuals to help me in this regard. Should you have any problems of your own, or know of any problems in your area of which I may be of some service, I would be pleased to have you refer these to me. Again I trust that you will at all times feel free to write to me expressing your opinion on any matter of public interest. If you will do this, you will help me to truly reflect the opinion of my constituents in parliament. So again I say when a problem arises or you have something on your mind which you feel will enable me to serve you better, please do not hesitate to drop me a line.

Aphids Cause Heavy Barley Damage in This Area

Corn leaf aphid infestations have now been reported from practically all parts of Alberta. Apparently this aphid will attack barley, corn and sorghums. Observations show that infestations are confined to the very late seeded barley crops which are 6 to 8 inches in height or less, although a few fields are infested in which the grain is heading out.

If aphids are found in the more advanced crops, that is, in the headed-out stage, it is not likely that any serious damage will be done to that crop. Advanced crops have been known to withstand very heavy grain aphid population, and according to Prof. Strickland "They do surprisingly little damage" on maturing grain. However extensive damage can be caused to late seeded crops, by the aphids sucking sap from the leaves and stems of young plants. Heavy infestations can cause the plants to turn yellow, later to brown and finally cause complete kill. (One should check carefully that the 'yellowing' of crop is due to aphid damage, as observations on some fields indicated that there was some drought damage, especially on sandy loams.)

Very late infested crops may warrant the application of an insecticide to control the grain aphid and prevent further damage. The recommended spray material is Malathion emulsifiable concentrate. A 50% Malathion emulsion should be used at a minimum rate of one to 1½ pints of the concentrate per acre. Rates for other concentrations of Malathion should be adjusted accordingly. Regular weed sprayers can be used but should be adjusted to put out at least 5 to 10 gallons of solution per acre. Heavier rates of water are desirable for more thorough coverage since aphids are killed by direct contact only. By increasing the pressure and reducing the rate of travel this can be [illegible] without much difficulty.

Since many aphids are hidden within the sheath on grain plants, one spraying is not likely to kill them all. The population however will be reduced to allow grain to advance enough so that a subsequent aphid build-up, if any, may not seriously affect the crop.

How W. J. Macnab Came To Vermilion

A Trip Down The Saskatchewan River In A Scow . . . 1905

By W. J. MACNAB.

After a period of nearly twenty years working for the C.P.R., that great 'Nation Cementer', as wiper, fireman, and night foreman at North Bend, B.C., then as locomotive engineer on work and freight trains in the Pacific Division of the C. P. R., I was transferred in line with seniority to the Kootenay Country with headquarters at Nelson, B.C., on a freight run between Revelstoke and Kamloops. I made my last trip on the 29th of April, 1905.

Having been in Edmonton in 1902 I saw great possibilities in Alberta. In 1905 I went back to Edmonton after leaving the railroad and was induced by my brother-in-law to look over a general store business, Hume & Ross, in Lloydminster. Dan Fraser's Saw mill at Edmonton had a scow under construction, practically ready to load merchandise, down the river. They kindly offered to take me with them.

We started early. My job was to keep the water down below the level of the goods. Some job! They had two oars, one in front and one to steer with in the stern. If we got too close to either side of the river they both rowed. The river was in full flood. As we approached Fort Saskatchewan, a boom of logs appeared in our track. The oarsmen both rowed, but not [illegible]. I was thinking of taking off my clothes but, when I looked ahead I saw the boom was open and no logs in it. So I breathed a sigh of relief and started pumping again.

Shortly before dark we saw a good place to land. This was my first experience of snubbing a scow on the river.

The next morning we passed an Indian school . . . flying the Stars and Stripes?

All the way down from Edmonton we passed rafts made of logs. These were the people who settled north of Vegreville. We saw rakes, mowers, cows and other farm equipment. These people were the best pioneers that ever came into the country. At least, that is my opinion of them.

We tied up, west of Parity's Crossing, and next morning continued on our trip. We got quite a thrill for a few moments when a rock in the river loomed up in front of us which looked to be about 30 feet high. We passed it close enough to suit me.

After that the river got wider and the river pilot had his work cut out looking for deep water. We ran on a sand bar but were able to push off after undressing and taking a bath. We eventually arrived at Hewitt's Landing.

From there we went to Lloydminster over virgin prairie. Steel was at Lashburn some 40 or 50 miles east of Lloydminster. Mr. Hume asked me to take a team load of goods to Onion Lake, north of Lloydminster, which I did. About that time I got a telegram from Mr White, Vice-President of the C.P.R. Western Lines, asking me to come to Winnipeg, saying that transportation was waiting for me at Saskatoon.

I wired back I was going to Onion Lake for Indian Treaty Day, and would come to Winnipeg on my return. The operator was Miss McLennigan, a daughter of General Middleton's official telegrapher. She later became the wife of Harry Bowtell, Homestead Inspector.

I decided not to buy out the store business of Hume & Ross at Lloydminster and left there. I was about to accept the position offered me by Mr. White when I got a telegram from Mr Hume saying they had sold their Lloyd business, to come back and we would start up in the new divisional point at Vermilion. I returned to Edmonton, and we drove down with a horse and buggy arriving at Vermilion on the 23rd of August, 1905, after three days of travelling.

At Birch Creek near Vermilion, I saw a tent set up having a sign reading, "Hayward & Long, Lumber and Drugs". This was the first time I met Fred Long who for years conducted a drug store business in Vermilion. His son Carman Long is now running the same business in Vermilion.

A mile west of Vermilion H. N. Stephens had started in the general store business. A general store now in Vermilion, Stephens Ltd., is managed by his son Gerald. Fred Miller, now Dr Miller of Elk Point, was clerk for him. Some time in September 1905, the town was surveyed and things started to hum. Johnstone Brothers built the Brunswick hotel, Ed Connors built the Vermilion hotel, and J. McCue built the Alberta hotel.

Millers Bros. established a store at the Hamlet of Breage, east of Vermilion, with Matt Brimacombe as manager. Radditz had a blacksmith shop there and Dr. Burroughs also located there. Permanent buildings built at Vermilion included Craig Bros., Stephens Ltd., Orin Baker, Western Canada Trading Co and the Giles and Bowtell buildings, McCormick Pool hall, the Brimacombe block and Macnab building and the H.B. store west of the Brunswick hotel, and Bert Woods and Renie Hayward's livery barn.

After 16 months of good luck I hit out and located on the south of 14-47-7, W4thM where you will now find four generations of the Clan Macnab.

Pleasant Valley

It's much cooler after the nice rain, let's hope it will dry up in time for the big fair. I know of a few ladies planning a ride on the merry go round.

TRIP TO FARM WOMEN'S WEEK

A jolly car load of ladies from this district enjoyed last Tuesday at the college. They were Mrs Potvin, Mrs Bothwell, Mrs Adams, Mrs Gillies, Mrs. Fisher and the writer. We had our picnic under the lovely spruce trees. There fried chicken, salads, apple pie, ice cream, angel cake and cookies were greatly enjoyed, including the delicious hot tea we begged from the kitchen. Our first lecture was on diets and dieting. Tea was served during the afternoon after which we all enjoyed the demonstration and talk on new fabrics. Most of these are washable which saves a lot on dry cleaning bills. The newest is the pleated cotton which costs 19 cents an inch, that is waistline inch. This is a very pretty material.

The Busy Bees held a bake sale on Saturday at the Northern hardware where some nice things were brought in and sold, including spring chicken. Thanks to the staff for the use of the fridge. It was nice for the cream and eggs.

Mrs Gillies went to Edmonton Saturday night.

[illegible] motored up to the city and back again on Saturday.

The writer and hubby visited the Moores on Sunday. See you at the fair. Mrs Wallington.

The ball team enjoyed a picnic at the lake Sunday. It was a grand day after the shower in the morning. Hot dogs, drinks and ice cream were served by the ladies. Then rides were enjoyed in Repp's boat on the lake.

The community turned out in force for two days for a clean up at Pleasant Valley church. Rev. Minchin who can drive a tractor or push a paint brush was a great help. The ladies served a delicious fried chicken dinner to about 24 workers. Thanks to everyone.

Mrs. J Payne and Mary enjoyed a few days at the Calgary Stampede.

Mrs. William Walker and William were visitors to Edmonton recently.

Safe Tractor Demonstrations At The Vermilion Fair

One of the features at the Vermilion Agricultural Fair is the Tractor Tipping Demonstrations conducted by B. T. Stephanson, Assoc. Professor of Agricultural Engineering, University of Alberta. In the above picture, taken during an actual demonstration, Mr. Stephanson is illustrating one of the causes of 'back-flips'. The demonstrations, sponsored by the Alberta Safety Council in co-operation with local Fair boards, stress the importance of safe tractor operation.

WILDMERE WINKS

What a grand and glorious rain we had Sunday and again Monday night! It will give the thirsty crops, gardens and grass a boost. And maybe it will drown those aphids that are so thick on the late sown barley — and they really are thick!

W.I. CONFERENCE ENJOYED

Our W.I. conference in Vermilion at the School of Agriculture was a decided success. About 60 attended before dinner, and more arrived later. The Handicraft display was nice to see and the Wildmere ladies did very well. Kitscoty won the cup this year.

Mrs. Howes, our Provincial President spoke, and Mrs. Bielech, our District director also gave a talk. Both were very interesting and instructive to all the branches represented at the conference.

Mrs. Hamilton resigned as our District convener. We regret that she didn't have the time to give to the work. We are fortunate however that Mrs. Rock Mead will be our new District convener.

There is much more to report of the conference, but our delegate will be able to deal with all phases of the conference to greater length in her oral reports. However, we cannot close without saying how much everyone enjoyed the lovely dinner and lunch, and we extend our heartfelt thanks to the college staff for their hospitality.

Wilf Carter Coming To Lloydminster

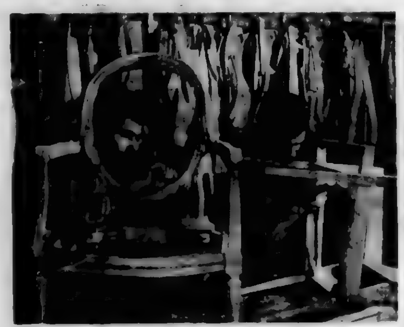
It has been arranged to have Wilf Carter appear at the Lloydminster arena in a fine western-variety family attraction. Wilf, with his two talented young daughters, will be at the arena there on Thursday, Aug. 4 at 8:30 p.m. His daughters Carol and Sheila are now 9 and 11 years old respectively.

Besides singing and yodelling with their famous 'Daddy' these young ladies also do ballet and tap dancing.

Sharing the spotlight will be the champion old time fiddler of Canada, Ward Allen. He won the Shelburne cup over 87 other contestants.

As a supporting cast there is a total of nine highly recommended entertainers. Among these will be instrumentalists, vocalists and a comedian.

Furniture Making in Canada a Fine Art



Under the sensitive fingers of Andre Campeau (left) and Maurice Beauregard, second year student's fine woods turn into beautiful chairs of period and modern design.

In this age of mass-produced, machine-stamped furniture, Montreal's provincially-sponsored Ecole du Meuble. (Furniture-Making School) is dedicated to restoring furniture making as a fine art.

The 25-year old Ecole du Meuble is more than just a trade school for carpenters. Its 3-year course gives students a complete training in art as applied to cabinet making. To further this aim, students receive instruction in sculpturing, ceramics, interior design, as well as furniture design and construction. The teaching encourages students to introduce individuality into their creations.

The school, with an enrollment of 400, graduates fine craftsmen. Skilled in the use of beautiful woods, they handle their material with the deftness of artisans, from drawing board to finished product.

FOOKS-PIDRUCHNEY VOWS PLEDGED AT ST. SAVIOUR'S CHURCH

Baskets of white, pink and red peonies were placed at the chancel steps, bouquets of lilies and peonies decorated the pulpit and organ, while daisies, English iris and white peonies graced the altar of St. Saviour's Anglican church on Saturday, July 9th at 3:00 p.m. when Adeline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Pidruchney, and William Keith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fooks, all of Vermilion, exchanged marriage vows in a pretty double ring ceremony. The Rev. K. A. Minchin officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor-length gown of white nylon tulle edged with Chantilly lace, and modifying the strapless bodice was a Chantilly lace over-jacket fastened with a row of satin-covered buttons, a small pointed collar and lily point sleeves. Her double finger-tip veil of silk illusion net edged with Alencon lace was held in place by a headdress of pleated tulle embroidered with seed-pearls, rhinestones and sequins. Her only jewelry was a rhinestone necklace and earrings, a gift of the groom. She carried a shower bouquet of red roses and fern tied with white satin ribbon.

As maid-of-honor to her cousin, Miss Gladys Lynkowski chose a ballerina-length gown of apple green satin and net, with matching bolero and coronet.

Miss Agnes Tulodzeicki, bridesmaid, wore mauve lace and net, over taffeta, with lace bolero, and matching coronet.

Miss Marie Gordashko, bridesmaid and also cousin of the bride, was dressed in shrimp-pink ballerina-length gown of satin and net with satin bolero and matching coronet.

The bride's attendants wore pearl earrings, gifts from the bride, and carried basket bouquets of spring flowers.

Miss Lynn Fooks, as flower girl, was gowned in ballerina-length dotted lime-green nylon trimmed with daisies. She wore mittens to match and a coronet of white apple blossoms and lily of the valley. Her jewelry was a moonstone necklace and bracelet, a gift from the bride. She carried a basket bouquet of spring flowers.

Mr. Orville Tebbutt was best man. Ushers were Bill Kerr, and Ken Thompson, cousin of the groom. Gifts to the groom's attendants were matching ties.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. M. Simonsen, and Mr. Thos. Watts rendered "A Wedding Prayer" during the signing of the register.

A reception was held in St. Saviour's parish hall, at which one hundred and thirty-six guests were received. Mrs. Pidruchney, mother of the bride, received in an afternoon gown of lilac taupe lace over taffeta. Her accessories were white and she wore a corsage of deep-pink carnations.

Mrs. Fooks, mother of the groom, chose a dusty rose taffeta gown, also with white accessories. Her corsage was of shaded pink carnations.

Centering the bride's table, laid with a lace tablecloth, was a four-tiered wedding cake, embedded in pink tulle, and topped with a miniature bride and groom. It was flanked by white tapers in silver candlesticks and vases of red roses. A silver cake knife, a family heirloom, was used to cut the cake.

Mr Tom Roth proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom suitably replied.

A wedding dance was held the same evening in the Legion hall, with music by the Inman orchestra.

The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. They were also presented with a purse of money with the good wishes of those attending the dance.

For a honeymoon trip to Calgary, points in U.S.A. and B.C., the bride wore a box suit of two-tone grey with red accessories. Her corsage was red rosebuds.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Fooks will reside in Vegreville, where the groom is employed by Canadian Utilities.

Tulliby Lake 4H Calves At Vermilion Fair

Tulliby Lake school was the scene of a very successful Achievement day recently and a special attraction at the picnic was the Calf Club competition, where the boys and girls led their calves into the ring to be judged. Mr. Vic Janssen, the farm manager of the Vermilion School of Agriculture, judged the calves and certainly did a fine job with the placings.

Top honors went to Robert Nelson who won a silver cup donated by Mr Oscar Peterson, the club leader. Second honors went to Gordon Walterhouse and Gordon received a silver tray donated by the Alberta Hereford Association. John Marsh stood third.

In the showmanship class judged by Mr Bruce Jeffery assistant D.A., top honors went to Gordon Walterhouse who was presented with a fine leather show halter donated by the Merry Makers' Club. For having the best groomed calf Douglas Adamson was presented with a traveller's clock.

The day was by all accounts a huge success and the boys and girls are certainly to be highly commended on the excellent efforts in fitting and showing their calves.

The calves from Tulliby Lake Calf club are being shown at the Vermilion fair and will then be sold by auction.

Communists And Prosperity

The main conclusion to be drawn from Justice Minister Garson's report on the declining vote and activities of the Labor Progressive party in Canada is that Communists cannot stand prosperity, argues The Financial Post.

Many of them apparently cease being Communists when they acquire a better stock of this world's goods.

In a riding which gave Tim Buck, perennial national secretary, 7500 votes in 1945 and 6500 as late as 1949 the Communist candidate couldn't get 1600 votes in a recent by-election. Stewart Smith, another of the half-dozen top Reds in Canada, one-time controller in the city of Toronto and for years assured of 40,000 votes when he ran for this post, could only get 1500 votes last month in an Ontario provincial riding held for years by a Communist. Joe Salsberg, long a solid vote-getter was beaten in a four-way fight.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

There's no reason for temperatures and terrain to trouble you on your next summer trip. When summertime's main car ailments, blowouts, stalling and overheating, occur, just apply a little roadside "first-aid".

It's always wise to keep your tires properly inflated. It's also a good way to minimize blowouts. Have them checked regularly for damage or unusual wear. Rotate them regularly, but don't try to squeeze extra mileage out of tires that need replacing. In case of a blowout, stay calm, keep a firm hand on the wheel, maintain a safe course and bring your car to a stop.

On very hot days, a vapour lock may occur and cause your engine to stall. If this happens, keep 'cool', and remember that vapour lock is only temporary. Get off the road, lift the hood to aid the circulation of air, put a damp cloth over the fuel pump, if one is available, and wait for a few minutes.

There are several ways to prevent overheating. First, make sure your radiator is clean, inside and out and your fan belt in good condition and tight enough to drive the water pump.

In traffic, it may be advisable to drive in the lower gears. Keep your engine turning over in traffic instead of shutting off the motor. If your radiator boils, loosen the cap to release steam and pressure. Then remove the cap and add water slowly.

Most of your hot weather driving difficulties can be solved if you stay 'cool' and collected.

Rotary President Speaks On 'Vocations'

President Reg Mitchell was the speaker at the Rotary luncheon on Friday. Each Rotarian is scheduled to address the club on his own vocation, and the president set the example. He gave a concise idea of the service an insurance agent is prepared to give to his clients, as well as steps involved when a fire or accident claim is made.

Visiting Rotarians welcomed to the luncheon were Archie Miller and Russell Yates of Lloydminster, and Bob MacKenzie from Vegreville.

Note was taken that the next Rotary luncheon to be attended by Mitch Taylor would be in his native land of Scotland.

LOCALS

At the time of the July 1st sports day at Mannville Mrs. J. Kerr of Vancouver was there and renewing old friendships in the Mannville district. Mrs. Kerr was the first white woman to live in Mannville, having come there in 1904. She was the guest of Mrs. Jack Bryden. At present visiting in Vermilion and district, Mrs. Kerr has been at the home of Mrs. W. Smith, and is now with her daughter, Mrs. R. Saville. She is planning to be at the Old Timers' celebration at the Vermilion fair. Mrs. Kerr moved to Vancouver in 1947 where she still makes her home.

Two pioneer Vermilion business men, the well known Craig brothers, 'John' and 'Chum' are in town for the Jubilee celebrations. They flew in to Lloydminster Wednesday by CPA. Chum comes from North Battleford and John from Prince Albert.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. 'Sandy' Watt from Victoria visited in town over the week end and received a warm welcome on every hand. They motored from the coast, visited son Bob and family at Red Deer and Jim and family in Edmonton. On the return trip they will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Watt as Jim will be an officer in charge of the Sea Cadet camp at Comox for two weeks. During this time Mrs. Watt Jr. will stay with her parents-in-law. Incidentally Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barr have purchased a beautiful property some seven miles away from the Watt home.

Mrs. L. L. Kehoe Sr. has as her guests her sister Miss Philomine Simonet and her niece Mrs. Lee Sally from Lee Centre, Minn. The visitors plan to spend a week here with Mrs. Kehoe and other relations. This is their first trip to this part of Canada.

Miss Anne Snaychuk is at present on an extended trip. She will visit in Toronto, Ottawa, New York in the east, and then will be motoring with friends across the States to the west coast. Miss Snaychuk plans to be away about a month.

Mrs. R. Woodman of Edmonton, with her two daughters, Sharon and Norma, are visitors for the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Folk at the School of Agriculture.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hunt and family have now moved to Hay River, N.W.T., from Edmonton. Ken has been working there since February and the family moved to join him the end of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stephens and daughter Joan are planning to leave next Thursday for a motor trip through B.C., expecting to spend most of their two weeks' vacation in Penticton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Webb and the children returned Sunday from a week spent camping at Loon Lake in Saskatchewan. They report a very fine lake with a nice beach, good accommodation and excellent fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Koshil and family renewed acquaintances around town last week end. They now live at Hythe where Ted is the manager of the Dixon-Hill general store.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Donnell (nee Gladys Coutts) of Calgary proudly announce the birth of a daughter, Patricia May June 9th, 1955, in the Holy Cross hospital, Calgary, 8 lbs., 3 oz.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stewart and two daughters are back in Vermilion after a week's holiday at Sylvan Beach. They still think that the facilities at the Vermilion Lake are hard to beat.

Bill Walden, former John Deere agent here who moved to Vegreville and is now living at Ninian was a visitor in Vermilion last Saturday. Bill was greatly surprised at the election results in both his old constituencies of Vermilion and Vegreville. He noted that in Vegreville a CCF member was elected on Liberal second choice votes in a three-way contest. M. H. Ponich, a lawyer and former Social Credit whip would in all probability have been the new attorney general. Instead Vegreville has one of two CCF members elected.

Safety Council Continues Careful Driving Campaign

Motor accidents in Alberta decreased during the first six months of this year but the death toll and number of persons injured show increases, according to a summary of reports to June 30 compiled by the Alberta Safety Council.

Officials are confident that the province-wide Courtesy Campaign sponsored by the ASC for the month of July will promote a greater trend toward safe driving.

In the six months ended June 30 there were 92 deaths in motor car accidents, an increase of ten over a year ago. For June only, there were 15, a reduction of three as against the same month of last year. There were none in Edmonton last month. Calgary had one and Lethbridge one, while the remainder were reported by the RCMP in rural sections of the province.

Over the January to June period, Alberta had 7,599 motor accidents, compared with 7,698 in the similar period last year. The June report shows 1,145 for the month, which is an increase of 20.

Edmonton's total for June was 423, up from 385 a year ago, while Calgary dropped from 210 to 206.

Since the first of the year, 1,679 persons have suffered injuries in motor car accidents, says the report. The cumulative total a year ago was 1,514.

Due largely to accidents in rural areas, the total in June was 335, as against 313 in the same month of 1954. While rural areas showed 182 persons injured, this was 12 below the total in the comparable period of last year. In Edmonton, 90 persons were injured, an increase of 22. The report from Calgary shows that city had 51 persons injured, a gain of 9.

F.U.A. Board Holds Important Meeting

At the mid-summer meeting of the F.U.A. Board held in Edmonton, July 14 to 16 several important decisions were made.

It was decided to hold the next annual convention in the Alberta College auditorium, Edmonton, on Dec. 5 to 9 next.

Plans for the new membership year which starts Nov. 1 were discussed. It was decided to hold a special one-day membership drive under the title of "F.U.A. Jubilee Day". The objective will be to enroll every farm family in Alberta in the Union. Plans are being worked out through the sub-district setup to canvass all farming areas in the province.

During the F.U.A. Board meeting, a joint session with the A. F. A. board was held to discuss closer collaboration on matters of concern to farmers. It was agreed that joint action should be taken on such matters as Marketing Legislation, Car Insurance and Electric Power.

The Board endorsed the action taken during the election campaign to contact candidates and seek endorsement of the Farm Union Program. Further public relations work with the new Legislature will be undertaken.

Members Of The First V.S.A. Class, 1913-14, Meet At Re-Union

Several members of the original class at Vermilion School of Agriculture had dinner together on Friday evening, July 8 at the annual Alumni Re-union. A rather remarkable feature of this particular group is that they are all still resident in the Vermilion district and during the course of their visit discussed the fact that three additional members of their class who attended this school in the first term 1913-14 are also living in the Vermilion district. Plans were made to bring all members of this group together for an entry in the Vermilion Jubilee parade which is being held on the first day of the Vermilion fair, July 28.

Those attending the dinner included Mrs. George Maggs, Mrs. Carl Johnson, Mrs. Tom Davis, Miss Beth Witherbe, Mr. Basil Hawley, Mr. Clarence Barr and Mr. Harry Taylor. The other members of this class also presently resident in Vermilion include Mrs. Albert West, and Mrs. Owen Burns.

Work of surfacing Alberta's highways is proceeding rapidly, according to Hon. W. A. Fallow, Minister of Public Works. Blotter surfacing of the Edmonton-Stony Plain section of the Jasper highway is now completed.

A phone call at 3:00 a.m. announced to his family that the long trip of Mr. Mike Ilchuk to Roumania had nearly come to an end and that a six mile lift to his home north of town would be much appreciated. Mr. Ilchuk is now more convinced than ever before that Canada is the best country wherein to live after all. He reports undesirable living conditions in most of the European countries through which he passed.

Men's Open Golf Tournament, July 31, Aug. 1

The Vermilion Men's Golf Club is holding their annual Open Golf Tournament, Sunday, July 31st and Monday, August 1st.

Flights have been arranged for everyone, whether their score is high or low. So all visitors are very welcome.

Meals will be served at the club house both days.

NEWS from ISLAY

Ralph and Bessie Anderson went to the Stampede at Alsask and to visit old time neighbors and friends. Mrs. Dalt Torrance and Linda went too, as far as Kindersley where her sister was to meet her and take her to Eston, Sask. Mr. Anderson kept house while the folks were away.

Mrs. Neil McLennan, Muriel and Gladys Stone went to the Bothwell home Friday afternoon to quilt but Mrs. Bothwell and her sister Mrs. Adams had it nearly finished. It was a Dresden plate pattern. Anyway we finished it and had a nice visit.

We spent an evening at the Neil McLean's and saw some forty views of Kitimat, colored, through a view master. They were beautiful scenes. The project there is marvellous to see how a city and a huge industry has been hewed out of the forest. Is really something. Everything of course is most modern.

CROPS LOOK GOOD

Crops in this area look good in fact, very good. Barley is ripening and some will be cutting it before the end of the month.

Miss Marie Carey has returned from her holiday at Montreal by plane.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Inman are home from a holiday at Cold Lake.

Mrs. Fyfe is home after spending some days with Mrs. Geo. Connon at Irwinville.

There was a little grain spilled on the ground from the annex of the Searle elevator here. It appears that a couple of piers in the foundation fell away, allowing the floor to settle a couple of feet. Thus the siding was pulled down making an aperture in the wall. Mr. Purser, local agent, is awaiting the crew to remedy the break.

RETURN FROM B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Simmons and Emerson have returned after a couple of weeks at Creston and Marysville, B.C., and also visiting at other points. Mr. Simmons bathed in the warm waters of the hot springs and really enjoyed it. A little behind with the haying as regards the neighbors — but then, who wouldn't be to get a trip to B.C.!

Mrs. Geo. Connon was a patient in Islay hospital and returned to her home Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Olds has had to return to hospital for a few days.

DISEASES CAUSED BY RATS

Rats are steadily invading Alberta and as people generally seem to be unaware of the extent of the damage to property and disease that they are responsible for there is set out below a list of diseases associated with rats.

WEILS DISEASE: This is primarily a disease of rats and in some cases up to half the rat population may be infected. The germ which causes the disease is excreted in the rats' urine and can gain entry to the human body in two ways — 1. The germ is excreted into water and if anyone comes into contact with this water the germ can enter his body through minute breaks in the skin; 2. Food may be contaminated with rats' urine and if this food is eaten the germ enters the blood stream from the stomach. Weils Disease is characterized by fever, general malaise, kidney symptoms, and usually jaundice, often 4 or 5 days. The disease causes an absence from work of up to 6 weeks and in some cases has been fatal.

TRICHINIASIS: This is caused by a worm and the spread of infection is from rat to hog and from hog to man. The hogs eat dead rats which are infected and the worms grow in the hog's muscles. Anyone eating this hog meat inadequately cooked will be infected with the worms. The symptoms include loss of appetite, abdominal pain, vomiting and diarrhoea and after two weeks severe muscular pain. The disease runs a course of several weeks.

TYPHUS FEVER & SCRUB TYPHUS: This disease is transmitted from rats to humans by a flea. The symptoms include high fever, headache, pain behind the eyes, dizziness, noises in the ears, cough and pains in the limbs. The patient is mentally confused and excitable and coarse red rash appears after about 4 to 5 days. Possible complications include cerebral haemorrhage, often neuritis, nerve deafness, gangrene of feet or hands, pneumonia and arthritis. The disease runs a course of twenty days and the patient is convalescent for many years after this.

RELAPSING FEVER: There is a sudden onset of fever, weakness, abdominal pain and vomiting. This lasts for four or five days, then a fine rash appears and the patient begins to feel better. After a few days a relapse occurs and the sequence of events is repeated. This continues for two or three months and then the relapses get less frequent and less severe. This means the total course of the disease lasts for several months. It is transmitted from rats to man by ticks and fleas.

BUBONIC PLAGUE: This is spread from rat to man by the rat flea. There is a sudden onset of headache, backache, high fever, and complete collapse in a few days; extreme enlargement of the glands all over the body occurs and they are painful and tender. Delirium and convulsions sometimes occur and 70 per cent of all cases are fatal.

RAT BITE FEVER: Due to an actual bite of the rat. The wound heals and then after one to three weeks shows signs of irritation. This is accompanied by fever of an undulating type. It is common in children who are likely to be bitten by a rat while sleeping. There have been several cases of extreme mutilation of a sleeping child by a rat.

FOOD POISONING: The rat carries the organism in its digestive system and foodstuffs may be contaminated by the rats' urine or faeces. The patient has cramps, abdominal pain, vomiting and diarrhoea, a dirty tongue and an extreme feeling of weakness. The illness lasts for several days according to the severity of the infection.

All these diseases can be prevented by only one method — preventing the rats from getting established.

William George Martin Married At Rimbey

RIMBEY — A very pretty summer wedding took place in the Rimbey United church on Saturday July 9 when Elizabeth Jane Hoag, daughter of Mr and Mrs W. R. Hoag of Rimbey, became the bride of Mr William George Martin, son of Mr and Mrs George Martin of Vermilion.

Rev W. E. Julian performed the double ring ceremony before the altar which was beautifully decorated with white wedding bells, pink and white streamers and large bouquets of peonies. Guest pews were marked with white bows and peonies.

The bride was lovely in a gown of illusion lace over white satin with fitted bodice and long lily point sleeves. Her chapel veil fell from a headdress of satin embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis and her jewelry was a string of pearls, gift of the groom. She was given in marriage by her father.

The bride was attended by her sister Miss Yvonne Hoag as maid of honor, her sister Miss Jackie Hoag and Miss Anne Martin, sister of the groom, as bridesmaids. They wore ankle-length gowns of pink French lace and nylon tulle, mauve satin and nylon tulle and aqua tulle embroidered in silver thread, and carried nosegays of blue carnations, yellow carnations and pink carnations respectively. They wore matching headpieces.

The bride was preceded down the aisle by a little flower girl Joanne Hoag, niece of the bride, who scattered flower petals in the path of the bride. Her dress was pink tulle over taffeta. Ring bearer Clive … cousin of the bride, wore white linen trousers and a double-breasted navy blazer.

Mr Joe Watson of Olds was the best man and Mr. K. O. Hoag, brother of the bride, and Mr Frank Martin, brother of the groom, attended as groomsmen.

Mrs. L. Baudais played the wedding music and Mr. E. Krefting sang "The Lord's Prayer" prior to the ceremony, and during the signing of the register "A Wedding Prayer".

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hoag chose an afternoon dress of charcoal starched shantung with pink and white accessories, and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Martin, mother of the groom, wore a green crepe afternoon dress with pink and white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Legion hall for over 130 guests. The bride's table was laid with a lace tablecloth and centred with a four-tiered pillared wedding cake, flanked by white tapers and vases of peonies. Mr. W. A. Cotton proposed a toast to the bride, to which the groom very ably responded. During the reception, Mrs. H. E. Bell sang "I Love You Truly" and Mr. E. Krefting sang "Danny Boy" and "Bless This House".

The happy couple left for a short honeymoon in Spokane. For travelling the bride wore a two-tone grey suit with a corsage of talisman roses. They will make their home in Drayton Valley.

Approximately 75 out of town guests attended the wedding.

Maxine Leitch Becomes Bride of Murray Brown

Mannville United Church Is Setting For Lovely Summer Wedding

MANNVILLE — McQueen United church was beautifully decorated with baskets of coral gladioli and white peonies for the afternoon ceremony when Maxine Elizabeth, eldest daugher of Mr and Mrs Ross Leitch of Mannville, exchanged vows with Mr Murray Neil Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brown of Acme. Rev. Ian Holter performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore an original model floor length gown with a bodice of French imported lace applique, neck line and lily point sleeves. The skirt was of tulle over nylon taffeta with lace panels over a bouffant crinoline skirt. She wore a matching lace Juliet cap with a fingertip veil of fine French illusion. Her bouquet was of white stephanotis centred with mauve orchids and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls with matching earrings, a gift of the groom.

Miss Arlene Leitch, maid of honor and sister of the bride, and Miss Dorothy Brown, sister of the groom, and Miss Sandra Leitch, sister of the bride, attended the bride wearing identically styled gowns of coral nylon tulle over taffeta in ballerina length with sheered, shrug jackets. They wore head bandeaus of split white carnations and carried cascades of white carnations. Little Jo-ann Leitch, youngest sister of the bride, was flower girl in coral tulle over taffeta styled with ruffles with a bandeau of split white carnations and she carried a small Colonial nosegay of white carnations.

Mr Jack Brown was best man and ushering the guests were Mr. Loran Pilling and Mr Stuart Wilton. Mrs Harold Elliott played the wedding music and Mr Bob Fowler was soloist. He sang "The Lord's Prayer" and the "Wedding Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding Mrs Leitch chose a dress of magic crepe in Queen's Blue with an applique lace bodice over a background of pink tulle with matching jacket. Her hat was a pink straw wide brimmed model with a lace and rhinestone crown and her accessories were pink. She wore en corsage pink roses and white stephanotis.

The groom's mother wore a two-piece light brown crepe dress with bead trim complemented by lime green accessories. Her corsage was of tea roses.

A reception for one hundred guests was held in the school auditorium where the bridal table was centred with a three-tiered cake topped with sweetheart roses and banked with coral tulle. Mr A. F. Williams proposed the toast to the bride.

For a honeymoon in the Western United States and Yellowstone Park the bride donned a white flannel suit with mauve accessories and mauve orchid en corsage. The newlyweds will make their home in Acme.

The groom was a 1953 graduate from the University of Alberta in Agriculture and is affiliated with the Kappa Sigma Fraternity. The bride attended the Faculty of Education at the University of Alberta and has taught on both Edmonton and Calgary public school staffs.

Out of town guests at the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Manz, Betty and Margaret, Mrs. Neil Longson, Mr. Edward Trott, Mr Bob Choots, Dr and Mrs H. S. Wood, Mr. Loran Pillings, Mr Stuart Wilton, all of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs Fowler, Mr and Mrs G. Benson, Mr and Mrs B. Brown from Acme, Miss Dot Brown and Mr and Mrs Jack Brown of Calgary, Mr and Mrs Bern Whiting from Lloydminster, and Mr and Mrs Morris Manz from Evansburg.

NEWS from CLANDONALD

(Held over from last week)

This district has received almost more than its share of rainfall during the past few weeks. A week ago Saturday, rain, consisting mostly of gentle showers fell a good part of the day which, following the severe heat wave, was very welcome. In the very early hours of Saturday morning an electrical storm accompanied by a very high wind caused considerable disruption to power service. The heaviest part of the storm seemed to be in the Landonville district. At Ted Dewey's farm lightning struck the house knocking the top off the chimney and damaging wiring considerably. Fortunately no one was injured.

During a severe storm which swept through the district from the south-east about the end of June, hail fell for over half an hour. The gardens were chief sufferers. The area north-west of Dewberry [illegible] seemed to be in the centre of the storm. Hail falling there for over an hour and a half to a depth of 5 inches pretty well pounded gardens and crops right into the ground. Fields and roads were flooded, one farmer reporting 7 inches of rain in a four hour period. An estimated two inches fell around Clandonald during the same storm and some flooding and erosion was noticed while hail was still to be found almost 24 hours later in protected spots.

ROAD IMPROVEMENTS

Work is progressing steadily on the continuation of highway 45 to Dewberry from 41. The heavy rains caused some delay and great difficulty is being experienced disposing of the heavy timber which has to be burned up completely. Some brush piles are floating and more still standing will be pulled out by cable.

The North American Construction Co. arrived on the job during the past week and is well started on the last five miles to Dewberry. Given favorable weather the road should be completed long before freeze up.

Farmers whose land the road passes through are very well satisfied with the generous treatment they received from the provincial government for the right of way.

FIVE MEMBERS ATTEND F.W.U.A. CONVENTION

Five members of the Clandonald F.W.U.A. local attended the district convention held in Wainwright on July 4. Wainwright is to be commended on the manner in which they went all out to make the delegates welcome. Our thanks especially go to Mr. May, owner of the theatre, who very kindly gave the convention the free use of the building for the day.

Mrs. M. Convey, a former district resident but now making her home in Montreal, is spending the summer months here keeping house for her youngest son Tony. Three other sons also have their homes in the district.

Pat Convey and family left recently for the coast where a sister of Mrs. Convey's has her home. The Conveys expected to be away about three weeks. The trip is being made by car.

Mrs. Hartwell, also a former district resident, spent a few days with her son Stuart and family in the Dewberry district. The Hartwell farm was directly in the path of the big hailstorm so that road conditions were not very favorable for visiting. However, they did manage to get to the Old Timers' picnic at Greenlawn on July 1 after one or more unsuccessful attempts.

Another old timer who really gets around, Mrs. S. Filgate, accompanied Norman and Alfred Stanley on a trip by car to the coast early in May. Wishing to get back to Calgary on short notice, Mrs. Filgate, a great grandmother for several years, took her first plane ride enjoying it immensely. While at the coast Mrs. Filgate visited with her son Eli and family, also former district residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rowntree are at present visiting with their married daughters, Mary and Margaret in Edmonton, and Kathleen in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stanley and grandson Russell Kada attended the Golden Jubilee exhibition at Saskatoon last week. The exhibits consisted of almost everything imaginable which were common during the pioneer days of the province.

This reminds the writer of the fine show sponsored by one of the churches in Vermilion about a year ago when hundreds of interesting historical and [illegible] items were on display. It is to be hoped a similar display will again be undertaken or better still, a museum established in Vermilion.

Not many were present at the last meeting of the Clandonald F.U.A. local held in Rye school. Probably the excessive heat was responsible in part. In spite of the weather though, and small turn out, quite an interesting meeting was held. Next meeting in Clandonald, Thursday Aug. 11 may be in a different location so listen for word of it over the farm broadcast.

TWO FAMILIES BEREAVED

A resident of the district for almost thirty years, Mrs. Kirwin passed away in the Vermilion hospital on Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Kirwin had been in poor health for several years.

A few days previously Mr. and Mrs. Art Gratton and Antoine drove to Edam, Sask., word having been received of the death of Mrs. Gratton's mother.

To both these bereaved families deepest sympathy is extended at this time.

HAY AND CROP NEWS

Haying in the district has been going on steadily and there has been good progress, aided by the fine weather. Crops are generally good and no doubt many are speeding up their haying operations following the disastrous experience of last year.

More reports are being heard every day of barley crops being ruined or severely damaged by the plague of plant lice. Farming certainly gets more complicated every day.

NEW A. P. ANNEX

Work has started in town on a new permanent annex at the Alberta Pacific elevator operated by Hugh Logan. When completed the storage capacity in town will be around the 300,000 bushel mark.

DEFEAT PARITY PRICES BILL

A CCF sponsored bill, calling for parity prices for Canadian farm products, was defeated in the house of commons last week. Agriculture Minister Gardiner said that parity prices would lead to over-production "that in the end would make the farmer worse off, not better off."

Farm Building Plan Service

A new service has been started for Canadian farmers. It's a Canadian Farm Building Plan Service and has been established to develop and produce workable plans of farm buildings and labor-saving equipment that will be suited to different parts of Canada. The service was started and co-ordinated by the National Committee on Agricultural Engineering. This group is made up of agricultural engineers from federal and provincial departments of agriculture and agricultural colleges across Canada.

The program is designed to meet the [illegible] requirements of all classes of farmers. Plans will be published for dairy, beef, sheep, swine, poultry, grain storage, fruit and [illegible] storage and miscellaneous buildings. Also, in each case plans for equipment to go [illegible] with these buildings are included. For example in the Beef Cattle catalog, several different types of barns and shelters are shown but plans of corrals, feed lots, stanchions, loading chutes, etc. are listed.

At the present time the only catalog of plans is for Beef Cattle Housing & Equipment. Others will be available as soon as they are published.

The system will work like this: Order the catalog of plans from the Extension Branch of the Alberta Dept. of Agriculture in Edmonton or from the local D.A. Select from the catalog the plan or plans most suitable to the situation and order these free of charge from the Extension Branch, Alberta Dept. of Agriculture, Edmonton.

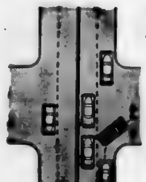
Safety Sam Says...

Never attempt to make a right hand turn from the inside lane



One of the causes of damaged fenders and frayed tempers is the habit of too many motorists trying to make a right-hand turn from inside lanes and left-hand turns from the right-hand lane. As well as being discourteous and a traffic hazard this constitutes a traffic violation.

The proper procedure is to signal well in advance, then move into the lane on the side that you will be turning to and slow down on approaching the intersection. And, remember, where a pedestrian has stepped from the curb or is crossing a marked or unmarked crosswalk, the vehicle making the turn shall not proceed until the portion of the street upon which the vehicle is travelling is clear of pedestrian traffic.

A JUBILEE FEATURE
The Homesteader - 1905

Going to get a homestead? Going to take up land?
Why certainly you're wise, my son, I think the notion's grand.
When I look back to those good old days, way back in 1905,
When I first went homesteading — my gracious sakes alive!

If I was young and strong again
I'd quit this plagued town,
And come along with you my son
And help to hold her down.

That summer I started out with a stove, a mooly cow,
A team of Western bronchos and an old long-handled plow?
I broke a little 'tater patch, fenced it round with rails,
Tying the parts with willow withes — we didn't have no nails.

Then I built a sod-roofed shack and turned some more black loam
Till there wasn't a place in God's wide earth looked half so much like home.
The town was eighty miles away, and the mail came once a week
If the mailman did not stick his team in a mudhole or the creek.

For there weren't any bridges, and the trail just wound about
Among the sloughs and hay meadows a-twisting in and out
From neighbor's shack to neighbor's shack, and by the schoolhouse door,
And past the local blacksmith shop and the little country store.

Hay there was a-plenty, and wood and water too,
And all we had to think about was the work we had to do.
So pleasant-like the days passed by, and soon the fall came 'round,
And we had to finish threshing with the snow upon the ground.

Then we pulled the bobsleighs out, and every blessed chance
We'd gather at some neighbor's house and have a bully dance.
So year by year the seasons came; found us better fixed,
Being content to plug along with work and pleasure mixed.

We put no mortgage on the farm, had no debts to pay —
Just made enough to live upon — enough to pay our way.
And, if perchance, someone took sick, or some misfortune came,
We all chipped in and helped him out 'till he was well again.

But now they tell me life down there ain't what it used to be,
With wages up to five a day and wheat two twenty-three —
People fussing 'round in cars and using telephones,
And a town with banks and picture shows, real estate and loans —

Agents coming 'round to sell insurance and such stuff
I guess if I went homesteading I'd sure be out of luck.
So, son, I guess I'll change my mind and stay right where I be Until I stake that other claim that comes to you and me.

When I can lie and be at rest beneath the sod once more
Just as we did 'neath the old sodroof in the good old days of yore —
The time I went a-homesteading with a stove, a mooly cow —
A team of western bronchos and an old long-handled plow

CHANGING DIET

Within a single generation over two-thirds of the people of Japan will be eating wheat and barley, says Koto Matsudaira, Japanese ambassador to Canada. The big problem facing Japan in securing these grains is balancing its trade with supplying countries.

Local Delegates At Jehovah Convention

Delegates of the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, returned home from their convention last week in Vancouver, B.C. This Vancouver convention was the second of the series of eleven being held on this continent and in Europe this summer. Officials of the convention have moved on to Los Angeles, Calif. from there to Dallas, Texas and then to Yankee Stadium in New York. Six cities in Europe will be next on the schedule.

The witnesses here reported a peak attendance of close to 22,000 at the Empire Stadium in Vancouver. Ten countries besides 35 states in the U.S.A. and eight provinces in Canada and the far northern Yukon territory of Canada and Alaska were represented.

The highlight of the convention was the discourse of the president ing the convention

Officials from the civil defence and Red Cross organizations in Vancouver surveyed cafeteria operations at the stadium with the view to caring for civil defense needs during an emergency.

A section of the stadium was provided for the deaf mutes. An interpreter speaking sign language with the hands to form words plus facial expressions served as a hearing aid to those in need.

At the mass immersion 300 persons completed their step of ordination as ministers of Jehovah's [illegible] of the Watch Tower Society N. H. Knorr entitled "World Conquest Soon — By God's Kingdom".

The primary purpose of the convention was to provide their ministers with advanced and practical training in Bible education.

To the vast audience assembled Knorr said, "Fear of world conquest — this is what haunts both political blocs of today's divided world. This fear blinds the nations to what Almighty God can do". Knorr showing the world's doomed, stated "If, before Armageddon ended the earth were conquered by communism or by any other radical or aggressive group, this in turn would finally be conquered by God's Kingdom. Nations, in and outside Christendom err in leaving this ultimate, inevitable world conquest out of their deliberations."

To provide rooming for the thousands of delegates, 3000 private citizens opened their homes to the witnesses in addition to 2500 listed in hotels and motels. A rooming staff of 25 volunteer clerks, stenographers and typists took care of the office work necessary in filing.

A mammoth cafeteria staffed and operated by Jehovah's Witnesses served the witnesses hot meals

Peter Cartwrights Honored On Golden Wedding Anniversary

Over eighty guests gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cartwright on the occasion of their Golden Wedding anniversary on Wednesday, July 27.

Mrs. Cartwright looked very becoming in a grey floor length dress with a corsage of yellow gladioli Mr. Cartwright was suitably attired in a blue-grey suit.

Featured in the reception room was the tea table decorated with a three-tiered wedding cake and beautiful floral bouquets.

The visitors were asked to sign a guest book by Miss G. E. Craig.

The Cartwright's daughter, Mrs. L. Yerwood, and their grandson, Duncan came all the way from Ontario for the occasion.

Many beautiful cards and gifts were presented to the happy couple. In the evening over one hundred friends and neighbors gathered at the Union Community hall to further honor the bride and groom of fifty years ago.

Rising to greet His Honour and to acknowledge their genuine welcome were men and women who first saw the district as an unsettled new land, a land that called for pioneer and hard work, but a land that promised ample reward to their worthy efforts. Men and women bearing honoured names, but in many cases personally unknown to many of the "newcomers", were introduced and applauded as they received their token award and were greeted by His Honour, the Lieutenant Governor.

Following the ceremony His Honour, was the name of the Honourable Mr. Bowlen, followed by that of Mr. Wm. Steele who came to the district in 1903 from the Province of Ontario and who was later a member of the Municipal Council of Minburn for many years and for long president of the Vermilion Agricultural Society and as such, responsible for much of its success. It is difficult to select from among the great list of names individuals for personal mention. suffice it to say that all of the old timers in attendance were given a royal welcome and their presence was deeply appreciated. It was regretted that Mr. G. E. Hayward who had so generously provided much of the material for the cabin was overseas at the time of the opening and could not be present.

An endeavor is made herein to give a resume of those who so early took their share of the settling of our district and if, by any chance, any individual name is missed or overlooked prior apology is given. Some of those who signed the register failed to give the year of their arrival, but the year is suggested in some cases by information received and which, it is hoped, will prove to be substantially correct.

Scanning the Guest Book, which will be retained as a valuable souvenir of a momentous occasion, it is found that the following came to the Vermilion district before 1903, or were at least pioneers of the great province of which they must now be so proud and in which they played their part in the building. The names are given as they appear in the book and no attempt appears reasonably possible to place them in any order, other than that on which they are written:

William Onischuk 1899. Mrs. Annie Onischuk 1899. Mrs. M LeLacheur 1894; Mrs. M. Cassidy, 1893; Mrs. W. L. Sharp 1900; R. G. McDiarmid 1893. W. J. Potvin 1895; Rubes Omaese 1899. Otley Omaese 1899. Mabel L. Evers 1894. Ralph Boe 1895. Alma J. Scott 1895. Mrs. Ida Shaw 1908. A. Oshaleson 1900. Robert Jamieson 1886. Gertrude Swanson 1880; Mabel G. Lee 1899. Mrs. E. S. Ottewell 1886. Henry Ziegler 1893. Lawrence Rye 1892. Mrs. Stan Cooper 1886. Mrs. A. Warrington 1900. R. H. Reid 1886. Mrs. Wm. Armstrong 1886. Hannah Rush. Mrs. Neil McKinnon 1907. Jas. Horricks 1899. Mrs. R. L. Rohrer 1900.

Also listed in the Guest Book are scores of citizens who came to Alberta prior to 1903. Many regretted that they were most welcome visitors at Vermilion's Fiftieth Fair and the celebration of the half century of progress.

The annual recurrence of the Exhibition which has won a place of honour among such events in Western Canada will be cause for continued renewal of long time friendships and the latch string on Vermilion's Pioneer Cabin will always be out for neighbors and visitors.

To Form Stampede Assoc'n, Marwayne

MEETING ON AUGUST 30th AT 8:00 P. M.

MARWAYNE—On June 21st and 22nd, 1955, a Stampede was held at Lea Park on the old grounds used for this many years ago, when the Lea Park Stampede was well known and very popular.

This year's Stampede was entertainment of the best in its class. Unfortunately it fell short of the hopes and expectations of its promoters and did not pay off financially. However, many of those who were present were greatly impressed with the display, and feel that this was a worthwhile enterprise deserving of the support and encouragement of the community.

With this thought in mind an Association is being formed which will carry on the Stampede in the future. A general meeting was held August 1st which was well attended. This meeting unanimously supported the idea of forming an Association. A temporary executive was appointed and this body has also held a meeting since then.

Another general meeting will be held on Thursday, 25th August, in the Legion Hut in Marwayne, at 8:30 p.m. At this meeting a president and executive will be elected to carry on until the annual meeting. This meeting is open to the public. All those interested in promoting a Stampede at Lea Park are urged to attend.

Dr and Mrs F. S. Cleall of Edmonton spent Sunday with Dr and Mrs A. S. King

Clandonald Fish And Game Stock Lake With Rainbow Trout

Through the efforts of the Clandonald Fish and Game Association a fine fingerling Rainbow trout have been put into the lake located six miles north and 1 mile east of Clandonald on August 3rd. This lake was carefully examined and tested and found suitable for trout.

The trout were brought from Calgary leaving there at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday and arrived at Clandonald at 8 a.m. Saturday. The fish were found to be in immediate condition upon arrival and were unloaded into the lake in a matter of minutes. In this the two men of the Alberta Fisheries Branch and also three were aided by members of the Clandonald Fish and Game Association.

As the little fish were being unloaded they were immediately spotted by black bream, who doubtless them intend on eating the valuable trout. Fortunately Vic Dannell had his .410 shotgun with him and soon scattered the toms.

After finishing the work of unloading the fisheries men were entrusted to dinner at the Clandonald hotel by manager Pat McGrath, and the Clandonald Fish and Game Assoc. went to publicly thank Mr. McGrath for his generous gift.

Henry Schneider is the president and Fred Goddard the secretary of the very active Clandonald Fish and Game Association.

Incidentally the trout put into the lake will reach fishing size next year and some grand sport in the lake is anticipated.

VERMILION HONOURS PIONEERS

677 Register At Old Timers' Cabin

When Alberta became an organized Province of Canada in 1905 there were scattered throughout the confines of the Province some hardy souls, who, imbued with the spirit of the pioneer, had journeyed from the settled areas in Eastern Canada, from far over the seas or from points in the United States to open up a rich and bountiful land, to pit their strength against hardship and to eventually establish what is now recognized as one of the favoured places in the modern world.

The Vermilion district, even then, without railroad facilities and a long trek from settlement, had its quota of strong men, determined to wrest success from the rolling lands between the North Saskatchewan and Battle Rivers and in this Jubilee year for prosperous and happy people of the widespread Vermilion district joined hands to pay tribute to the pioneers who were assembled under the auspices of the Vermilion Agricultural Society, an organization that was formed in 1906 and has carried on splendid agricultural service work in the area down through the years.

With the section of a beautiful Pioneers' Building on the exhibition grounds, a central meeting place had been acquired and with the cooperation of the active Old Timers' Association the structure was completed to fittingly welcome the early settlers and to mark the contribution made by the settlement and development of the Vermilion district. From near and far came the old timers, to meet their friends, to scan the progress of their district and to glory in the knowledge that they had established the general work for all the advancement that was so evident.

The Honourable John J. Bowlen, Lieutenant Governor of Alberta, himself a pioneer of the Western prairies and a native of the little province of Prince Edward Island, came to Vermilion for the express purpose of extending a welcome to those who had settled the district and after officially opening the Fiftieth Fair, and the Jubilee of the city who had been early on the ground to help establish homes and schools, roads and churches and all of the facilities that are basic to the establishment of the progressive community. His Honour was loud in his praise of the spirit of the pioneer and forthright of those who had contributed their share and had since passed on their reward. on behalf of the Vermilion Agricultural Society, the representative of Her Most Gracious Majesty in the province then presented suitable cards of appreciation. In this he was assisted by four members of the local Boy Scout Troop, Pat Beattie, Danny Lewenberger, Tom Hollingsworth and Donald Stewart, to whom he had, moments before, presented the coveted Jubilee medals, for Citizenship and Worship Mayor Melvin Hill, Mr. E. A. Meyers, president of the Board of the Town of Vermilion and Chairman of the Jubilee Committee, Principal Lawrence of the Provincial School of Agriculture, Mr. Bert Hollingsworth, president of the Vermilion Agricultural Society and R. C. Heckbert, Manager of the Society who announced the dates for the fairs years of 1905 and 1906 and called on them to accept the tribute of their fellow citizens.

Following the toast to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cartwright proposed and Wm Funnell, the company enjoyed a very pleasant lunch

The head table was impressively decorated with a lace cloth on which was a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake. All the tables were brightened with fragrant bouquets of fresh cut flowers and the hall was tastefully decorated in white and gold streamers with white bells.

After lunch the guests were treated to an enjoyable program of singing recitations, etc. At 10:00 o'clock the guests of honor were presented with a lovely lamp and a radio. The radio was immediately put on and an announcement of the occasion was heard over CJCA The program then resumed. and the entertainment continued until about 11:00 o'clock. At that time the guests all joined hands in a large circle around the Cartwrights and sang "For They are Jolly Good Fellows"

VERMILION HONOURS PIONEERS

677 Register At Old Timers' Cabin

When Alberta became an organized Province of Canada in 1905 there were scattered throughout the confines of the Province some hardy souls, who, imbued with the spirit of the pioneer, had journeyed from the settled areas in Eastern Canada. From far over the seas or from points in the United States to open up a rich and beautiful land, to put their strength against hardships and to eventually establish what is now recognized as one of the favoured places in the modern world.

The Vermilion district, even then without railroad facilities and a long trek from settlement, had its quota of strong men, determined to wrest success from the rolling lands between the North Saskatchewan and Battle Rivers and in the year Jubilee year the prosperous and happy people of the widespread Vermilion district joined hands to pay tribute to the pioneers who were assembled under the auspices of the Vermilion Agricultural Society, an organization that was formed in 1908 and has carried on splendid agricultural service work in the area down through the years.

With the erection of a beautiful Pioneers' Building on the exhibition grounds, a memorial project that had been arranged and with the cooperation of the active Old Timers' Association interments were completed to fittingly welcome the early settlers and to mark the consideration made to the settlement and development of the Vermilion district. From near and far came the old timers, to meet their friends, to scan the progress of their district and to glory in the knowledge that they had established the groundwork for all the advancement that was so evident.

The Honourable John J. Bowlen, Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, himself a pioneer of the Western prairies and a native of the little province of Prince Edward Island, came to Vermilion for the express purpose of extending a welcome to those who had settled the district and after officially opening the Fiftieth Year, paid tribute to those who had been early on the ground to help establish homes and schools, roads and churches and all of the facilities that are basic to the establishment of the progressive community His Honour was loud in his praise of the spirit of the pioneers and spoke feelingly of those who had contributed their share and had place pennies on their graves in the sacred soil of the Vermilion Agricultural Society, the representatives of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Elizabeth presented suitable cards of appreciation to the old timers present by four members of the local Boy Scout Troop, Pat Stanley, Danny Laverdure, Tom Ribbonmaster and Donald Stewart, to whom he had entrusted before a crowded and expectant Queen Scout badges, by His Worship Mayor Melvin Hill, Mr. A. A. Lamont a member of the Council of the Town of Vermilion and Chairman of the Jubilee Committee, Principal Bentley of the Provincial School of Agriculture, Mr. E. M. Stewart, president of the Vermilion Agricultural Society and S. C. Heckbert, Manager of the Society who announced the names of the pioneers of 1905 and 1906 and called on them to accept the tribute of their fellow citizens.

Rising to greet His Honour and to acknowledge their genuine welcome were men and women who first saw the district as an unsettled raw land, a land that called for patient and hard work, but a land that promised ample reward to their efforts. Men, women and women bearing honoured names, but in many cases personally unknown to many of the newcomers" were introduced and applauded as they received their token award and were greeted by His Honour, the Lieutenant Governor.

Following the ceremony His Honour officially opened the fine Pioneers' Cabin and guests were requested to sign the Guest Book which now bears the names of hundreds of early settlers and which will be a valued reminder for those who so greatly appreciate the outstanding services of those who early settled the Vermilion district.

Heading the list of pioneer settlers in the name of the Honourable Mr. Bowlen, followed by that of Mr. Wm. Steele who came to the district in 1905 from the Province of Ontario and who was later a member of the Municipal District of Missouri for many years, and for long president of the Vermilion Agricultural Society and as such, responsible for much of its success. It is difficult to select from among the great list of names individuals for personal mention suffice it to say that all of the old timers in attendance were given a royal welcome and their presence was deeply appreciated. It was regretted that Mr. G. E. Hayward who had so generously provided much of the material for the cabin was overseas at the time of the opening and could not be present.

An endeavor is made herein to give a resume of those who so early took their share of the settling of our district and if, by any chance, any individual name is missed or overlooked prior apology is given Some of those who signed the register failed to give the year of their arrival, but the year is suggested in some cases by information received and which, it is hoped, will prove to be substantially correct.

Scanning the Guest Book, which will be retained as a valuable souvenir of a momentous occasion, it is found that the following came to the Vermilion district before 1900, or were at least pioneers of the great province of which they must now be so proud and in which they played their part in the building. The names are given as they appear in the book and no attempt appears to be made to place them in any order, other than that as which they are written:

William Oulanchuk 1899; Mrs. Angele Oulnchuk 1899; Mrs. M. LeLacheur 1894; Mrs. M. Cassidy, 1900; Mrs. W. L. Sharp 1900; R. G. McDiarmid 1883; W. J. Potvin 1895; Nathan Dansereau 1899, Orley Cameron 1900, Mabel L. Evers 1894, Ralph Boe 1895, Alpha J. Scott 1895, Mrs. Ida Shaw 1898, A. Cobaldenstein 1897; Robert Jamieson 1898; Gertrude Dansereau 1900; Mabel O. Lee 1900; Mrs. E. S. Ottewell 1898, Henry Ziegler 1893; Lawrence Rye 1899; Mrs. Stan Cooper 1898; Mrs. A. Warrington 1900; R. S. Reid 1899; Mrs. Wm. Armstrong 1899, Burton Parker 1900, Nell McKinnon 1897; Jos. Horricks 1899; Mrs. R. L. Redner 1900.

Also listed in the Guest Book are scores of citizens who came to Alberta in 1901, 1902, 1903 and onward and they were most welcome visitors at Vermilion's Fiftieth Pulse and the celebration of the half century of progress.

The annual recurrence of the Exhibition which has won a place of honour among such events in Western Canada will be cause for continued renewal of long time friendships and the latch string on Vermilion's Pioneer Cabin will always be out for neighbors and visitors.

To Form Stampede Assoc'n, Marwayne

MEETING ON AUGUST 25th AT 8:00 P. M.

MARWAYNE - On June 21st and 22nd, 1955 a Stampede was held at Les Park on the old grounds, used for this many years ago, when the Les Park Stampede was well known and very popular.

This year's Stampede was entertainment of the best in its class, unfortunately it fell short of the hopes and expectations of its promoters and did not pay off financially. However, many of those who were present were greatly impressed with the display and feel that this was a worthwhile enterprise deserving of the support and encouragement of the community.

With this thought in mind an Association is being formed which will carry on the Stampede in the future. A general meeting was held August 11 which was well attended. The meeting unanimously supported the idea of forming an Association. A temporary executive was appointed and this body has also held a meeting since then.

Another general meeting will be held on Thursday 25th August, in the Les Park in Marwayne at 8:30 p.m. At this meeting a president and executive will be elected to carry on until the next meeting. This meeting is open to the public. All those interested in promoting a Stampede at Les Park are urged to attend.

Water Ski Jump At Vermilion Lake

Another addition to the recreational facilities at the Vermilion Park is the waterski jump which has been anchored out some distance in the lake in front of the beach. This is thought to be the first one of its kind in Western Canada.

The jump is a very fine one, built to the official specifications as laid down by the American Water Ski Association. There are two local members of the Association Mr. R. S. Soldan and Dr R. Paynter.

The water skiing has provided some entertainment and thrills, not only for the skiiers, but also for the people who are on the beach. Anyone who cares to use the new jump is very welcome to do so.

Clandonald Fish And Game Stock Lake With Rainbow Trout

Through the efforts of the Clandonald Fish and Game Association and those supporting their project have been put into the lake located six miles north and 1 mile west of the village of Clandonald on August 3rd. This lake was previously examined and tested and found suitable for trout.

The trout were brought from Calgary leaving there at 11.30 p.m. Tuesday and arrived at Clandonald at 8 a.m Saturday. The fish were found to be in excellent condition and were unloaded into the lake in a short afternoon In the lot were four men of the Alberta Fisheries branch and they were aided by members of the Clandonald Fish and Game Association

Incidentally the trout put into the lake will reach fishing size next year and some grand sport in the lake is anticipated.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Eade were recent visitors from Edmonton at the home of Mr and Mrs Ross Soake

Under little fish were being un-loaded they were immediately spotted by black terns, who dived for them intent on eating the valuable trout Fortunately Vic Dansell had his 410 shot gun with him and soon scattered the terns.

After finishing the work of unloading the fish the visitors were treated to dinner at the Clandonald hotel by manager Pat McGuckin, after the Clandonald Fish and Game Assoc went to publicly thank Mr. McGuckin for his generous act.

Henry Schneider is the president and Fred Goddard the secretary of the very active Clandonald Fish and Game Association.

CATCHING UP . . .

Catching up on the [illegible] of "this and that" after being [illegible] for two weeks is proving to be quite a task, and it must be admitted has not been entirely [illegible] with this issue. The [illegible] should be back on an even keel by next publication with everything that has not appeared this week given priority.

OUR WILDWOOD CORRESPONDENT COMMENTS ON THE FAIR

(From Wildwood Winks)

We cannot [illegible] this column without [illegible] on the Jubilee parade held on the first day of the Vermilion fair. It was just too outstanding an achievement to pass over. In fact with most people it was rated "as wonderful", "the best parade I have ever seen" and many similar comments. The many beautiful floats all conveyed some [illegible] the old time theme, the [illegible] machinery and implements all brought back memories to the older folks and were a revelation to the modern generation. There was even a cradle and a wagon in the parade. The cradle [illegible] by Jim Wallington belongs to George Lyons at the Vermilion [illegible] and was actually made by the latter's father one hundred years ago. There was plenty of evidence that a tremendous amount of thought and work had been done by those in the parade and by those who promoted it.

The Oimness float featuring five sisters and two brothers of the family, all here prior to 1905, was unique; Mr and Mrs. Fred Maddex driving a single driver and buggy, all decorated as on their wedding day with top hat etc. — Oh, we could ramble on and on so enthusiastic were we about this feature of the fair.

The Old Timers cabin on the fair grounds proved a welcome spot to rest and to visit. After being officially opened by Hon. J. J. Bowlen, tea and cookies were served to the old timers. Mrs. Hilda Cross saw to it that every old timer was registered in the guest book and this will be a valuable and interesting record for future years. Hostesses were appointed at the cabin for all three days under the capable supervision of Mrs. Annie Cameron and were Mrs. George Whyte, Mrs. Jim Wallington, Mrs. W. J. Fisk, Mrs. Ganton, Mrs. Stewart, Miss Beth Witherbe, Mrs. West, Mrs J. Cameron, Mrs. Carroll, Mrs. H. N. Stephens, Mrs. Payne, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. H. H. Hodgins and Mrs. D. Cummings, all old timers of town and country. Some real old pictures were on view in the cabin. Taking into consideration the grandstand attractions, the midway, the exhibits, displays and fireworks, this was the best fair Vermilion has ever had and 1955 will long be remembered.

PERFECT WEATHER

Perfect summer weather has prevailed all month. Crops are maturing rapidly and it appears that the harvest will be at the normal time despite the late start. More details will appear in next week's Standard on crop prospects in this area.

By Your District Agriculturist

"GREEN ACRES"

SWINE IMPROVEMENT

A new policy has been announced by the Alberta Department of Agriculture. A $10 grant will be paid to anyone purchasing a purebred boar. Yorkshires and Tamworths only come under the policy. Boars must be purchased by the government. Application forms are available at this office.

GRAIN STORAGE

It pays to store good grain in good bins. Losses have been considerable during the past few years where make-shift bins have been built in the field. These field bins may serve a purpose for a few months but when it comes to a year or two there is a lot of damaged grain to throw away. Get a circular from this office on "Grain Storage on the Farm".

TIME TO CUT BARLEY

Most of the barley in this area is cut too soon. The straw begins to turn and the kernels are big and plump as the barley is cut down. These big kernels are full of water and as the crop dries out in swath or stook the kernels shrink. The yield per acre is reduced considerably by cutting barley before it is ripe.

HORN FLIES ON CATTLE

Clouds of horn flies around cattle at this time of year looks harmless. Yet every day they suck blood from the cattle causing a lot of discomfort. Losses are more than we think. Get a circular from this office on "Fly Control".

SEEDING DOWN LOW SPOTS

A lot of sloughs and low places where water lies part of the year can be seeded down to Reed Canary Grass. Usually the best time to seed down low places is in the fall. 3 pounds of Reed Canary Grass and two pounds of alsike clover per acre makes a good mixture. It should be mentioned that nothing will grow in alkali land. Tall oat grass and Russian Wild Rye are more tolerant of alkali than Reed Canary Grass.

PURE BRED SIRE AREA

Rumors are going around about some farmers having calves a year old which have not been castrated. Please be advised that this is a violation of the purebred sire act. Every bull in Vermilion River M.D. must be purebred and the owner must have the pedigree at hand. If anyone is bothered with bulls running at large they should notify this office or the Field Supervisor M.D. of Vermilion River, Kinsella.

A Great Big "Thank You" from Vermilion Fair

Dear Mr. Editor:

I wonder if I might further prevail upon your good nature to express, through the columns of the Standard, the very sincere thanks of Vermilion Fair to yourselves and all others who so splendidly assisted in putting Vermilion's 50th Anniversary Fair over the top in such wonderful fashion.

If ever there was a community project that received the absolute support of an entire district it was the great Anniversary Exhibition which will go down in history as an outstanding success and while it is impossible to begin to name the organizations and the individuals who might receive thanks, there is always the danger that some such organization or individual might be unwittingly overlooked; with this in mind I am pleased, on behalf of the Officers, Directors and Members to simply extend a genuine 'Thank You' to everyone who helped mark this anniversary so effectively.

As you are aware, the special opportunity this year was to pay tribute to our early citizens to whom so much is due in appreciation of their valiant and valuable contribution to the establishment of a district that today ranks high throughout the Province of Alberta and Western Canada; it was our privilege to have as our guests several hundred early settlers; we thoroughly enjoyed having them and we believe they enjoyed being here and renewing the fine friendships formed in the pioneer days of Vermilion district.

The entire community got behind the effort and right from the moment the parade began until midnight on Saturday when the fair came to a close the community support was magnificent and was generously and unselfishly given, and may I repeat, very genuinely appreciated. Through the joint efforts of all, Vermilion Fair was a thoroughly successful community event, as indeed it should be and as we hope it will always be in the future.

Without even attempting to single out any one organization or any one of hundreds who gave their support, we say Thank You, again and again.

Yours faithfully,

S. Schkerle . witaore

S. C. Heckbert,

Sec'y-Mgr. on behalf of Vermilion Fair.

News from Tring

[illegible] I haven't written for a very long time, but will try once again to keep you up on a few local happenings.

August 1st was the scene of a farewell dinner at Don Ure's. Their son Jim has joined the Naval Forces and will train in the east. Good luck to you Jim!

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Tantfest and family of Lincoln, Neb., have been visiting at their relatives, the Williams'.

Betty Lou Rooks is home on holidays for a three weeks vacation from the Lamont hospital.

Betty Ann Murray spent a week at the boys' and girls' camp at Vermilion during the fair.

Mr and Mrs. Guy Williams Jr. and family, Mrs. Bran Boothman and boys motored to Ontario to visit relatives. They report a very good trip and were away three weeks.

Phil Millar has been cutting some brush on the road just north of town. Could be we won't have to fight our way through those bad holes anymore come wet weather. A high grade will be a great improvement.

Crops are good in general and are ripening fast. Cutting will be the order of the day very soon.

I was telling my children the other day at dinnertime that we really live like kings these days. Plenty of lovely fresh vegetables from the garden along with fried chicken. We certainly live in a good country!

Must sign off for now as we have to get out to the pea patch.

Slimming Can Be Healthy or Dangerous

Dieting is neither difficult nor unpleasant if you reduce the quantity of the food you eat without changing the variety or quality, according to an article especially written for Health magazine official publication of the Health League of Canada, by A. Corinne Trerice.

Her advice is to steer away from the food faddist with the fancy diets, and to reduce the quantity of food you eat, without changing either the quality or the variety. If you really are overweight, it is a good idea to reduce — but always let your doctor decide if you are overweight, and if so, by how much. Also let him be the one who decides how much weight you should lose, and how rapidly.

Incorrect or poor food habits are usually characterized by plain, simple overeating, are the most common causes of overweight. The first necessity is a balanced diet, including daily normal amounts of the basic foods — meats, fish or poultry, eggs, cheese, milk, whole grain or enriched white bread, butter or margarine, whole grain cereals, vegetables and fruit. "If one must cut down on the basic foods, then cut down carefully on everything," says Miss Trerice.

"Although every common food contains some potential calories, no single food should be regarded as 'fattening' or high caloric. It's the amount of each food you eat that determines how 'fattening' or high caloric it becomes," states Miss Trerice.

The Tolland F.U.A. had a meeting on the 9th and discussed the ordering of binder twine.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

First Session New Legislature

EDMONTON. — Members of the Alberta legislature, many of them still weary from the June election wars, gathered in the legislative building here Wednesday of this week for the special session called to complete important unfinished business left over from the last session.

Although the session is a special one and therefore lacked in the usual pomp and ceremony of house openings, it is nevertheless the first meeting of the 13th Alberta legislature, and as such, there was a certain amount of formality in the Speech from the Throne, the naming of a speaker and a deputy speaker.

The complete trimmings, however, with royal salute, invited guests and a reception following, will have to wait until the regular session of the house, probably in February.

Many of the members are spending this session sitting quietly in their seats and listening attentively to the proceedings. They are the members elected to the house for the first time, without previous experience in the intricacies of parliamentary procedure.

The special session should provide a good training for the inexperienced members, giving them sufficient background to take a more active part in debates and legislative issues when the regular session rolls around.

The appearance of the assembly chamber has changed since last May when the house was dissolved suddenly and the snap election called by Premier Manning.

The house no longer has a lopsided look. The last legislature had an unbalanced appearance about it, with ten opposition members facing 51 Social Credit-ers across the floor. The election whittled a chunk from Social Credit's majority, and as a result things look more balanced.

On the other hand, Premier Manning's front benches look more impressive from the standpoint of numbers than they ever have before. As a result of the recent cabinet shuffle, the provincial cabinet has 15 members, the largest number in the province's history.

All this has given the legislative officials quite a problem in arranging the seating plan of the house.

Rev. McNamee performed the ceremony. The bride is a registered nurse, a graduate of the Victoria Hospital, Prince Albert, Sask. Mr. and Mrs. Dumanowski are residing in Calgary.

WOODVALE NOTES

The middle of August and harvest has started in this corner of the district. Some swathing of barley was done the first week of the month but now, with haying practically over, cutting will be fairly general.

Quite a lot of damage was done by aphids to the late barley here too, but on the whole crops are as good or better than anywhere around Vermilion.

Almost everyone went to the fair this year and surely enjoyed themselves. We are quite proud of the many prizes taken by the Galloway and Goutier families and the Woodvale school children. There was terrific competition in all classes. Not so good was the fact that horses taken to the Fair came home with distemper.

The August Red Cross meeting and quilting bee was held at the home of Mrs. Sadie Oldenburg, with Mrs. Cliff and Ray Oldenburg as co-hostesses and eight members of the auxiliary present. We were sorry not to have been there, but understand that as always there a pleasant afternoon was spent in working and visiting. The next meeting will be held in Ganton community centre and Miss Salisbury of the Minburn Health Unit staff will be the guest speaker. It is hoped that the Wildwood ladies will join the Tolland group that afternoon and hear more about the Health Unit and its work in the district. The date is August 31st, in the afternoon.

When Mr. and Mrs. Roger Watt went to Edmonton recently they were accompanied by Mrs. Eva Dickson and we are sorry to report that she has to undergo an operation on her back. We all hope it will be successful and that she will be back soon again.

A softball tournament with six teams competing was held at Tolland on the 7th and there was a big crowd on hand to watch. Tolland won first, playing three games in succession, with Earlie taking second.

The school ground has been levelled and worked down and sown to oats and grass, showing excellent growth. A green lawn next year will certainly improve the looks and set off the nice buildings.

Ernie Isley and Camille Goutier returned Friday evening from summer school in Edmonton.

Dorothy Wells and her husband were visiting at the Isley home on Sunday. When shifting her little sister Mary on her knees, a cartilage in one knee slipped, and necessitated a stay in the hospital.

A flying machine, trailing a bomb-like instrument was seen flying over the district, apparently prospecting. Another one, a Cessna, circled around several farms in Woodvale and Koknee, taking pictures. Hang on to your purse-strings, folks, they look lovely, though mostly wrong in the color of the buildings, but they cost a lot of money. It is, however, always a fascinating sight to see them fly so low and graceful around the place.

We hope our Editor and Standard staff had an enjoyable holiday after a very busy year.

Little Susan Preston got bitten in her lips while playing with the dog, and had to have medical attention.

F. U. A. Directors Meet Here; Plan Jubilee Day Drive

District No. 7 F.U.A. Board of Directors recently held a board meeting at Vermilion. Present were Mrs. Redman, F.U.A. District Director, J. Magill, Alternate Director, Mrs. Finley, F.W.U.A. Director, Mrs. Gibson, Alternate, and Paul Ewanciw, Junior Director. Sub-district directors attending were Messrs. Chmilar, Wilson, Drever and Jack.

The most important business of the day was board organization for the coming year and plans for the forthcoming membership drive, "Jubilee Day Drive" scheduled for mid-November.

Committee meetings of drive foremen from each local will be held in every sub-district, with the sub-director in charge of arrangements for his sub-district. The proposed plan of action for drive day will be set up, and areas will be clearly outlined so each community will be covered.

It was decided that District No. 7 should contribute $500 to the F.U.A. building fund for Provincial F.U.A. headquarters now under construction in Edmonton.

Mrs. Redman reported on the recent Interprovincial Farm Union conference recently held in Saskatoon, and on arrangements being made for the annual provincial FUA Convention to be held in Edmonton Dec. 5th to 9th. It is hoped that the Farmers' Union will have one or more vehicles in the Jubilee Parade being held in Edmonton on Sept. 7, and that the earliest pioneers will ride in them. Old timers from Dist. 7 who may be in Edmonton for that day should contact their sub-district directors. A history of the organized farm movement is being planned for publication in the near future.

Sub-district reports centred on Farmers Day celebrations held in each area, and on successful means of raising funds to send delegates to the provincial convention.

Mammoth Fair Parade Attracts Big Crowd

The big parade marching through the downtown streets of Vermilion immediately prior to opening of the Vermilion Fair July 28th, was an unqualified success. It was very gratifying to see the response made by the citizens and firms of the community when they were asked to take part in the parade, to make it the biggest and best ever held here.

There were several sections to the parade. The Commercial section included floats that were arranged by a number of the businesses of the town. Many of these displayed the 'Old Timers' theme but some had a unique message of their own.

The General section included the displays made by various clubs and organizations of Vermilion.

The Youth groups had some very attractive floats and there were a good many of these entered.

From the Fair itself there were some entries which included an excellent showing of light horses, a midget band and a real live Indian elephant.

There were many children who decorated their bikes, and for this section there were prizes awarded to the best entries. There were also awards for those in the best costumes. The judges' committee was composed of Miss A. Keith, Mrs Rae Curtis and Mr. A. McGladrie of Kitscoty.

In the decorated bicycle contest the winners were: 1. Terry Cooper; 2. John Beatty; 3. Ewhan Woywitka.

For the best costumes the prizes went to Brenda Zurch, Donna Bottorff and Terry Zurch.

The parade took 25 minutes to pass any given point on its route through town, and the various parts of the procession held their places well so that there were no gaps. It is of interest to note that Edmontons exhibition parade was just slightly over twice as long. When the proportionate populations of Edmonton and Vermilion are considered it will be realized that the town really made an "all out" effort and the results were really appreciated by the people thronging the sidewalks to watch the proceedings.

The parade was scheduled to start at 11:00 a.m. and got under way very close to that time. But for half an hour prior to that the crowds were entertained and impressed by the performance of the Motorcycle Corps from Kingston, Ont. There were 28 riders in dark blue uniforms who did trick and acrobatic riding on their motorcycles up and down the street from the post office to the Standard office. The street had been cleared of parked cars and so offered a wide paved surface that many towns the size of Vermilion wouldn't be able to manage.

His Honor, J. J. Bowlen, the Lieutenant Governor of Alberta, riding with His Worship, Mayor Melvin Hill, were at the head of the procession.

The central parade committee composed of Dr. R. Andersen, Mr. D. R. Mitchell and Mr. N. N. Bentley are to be commended on the results of their efforts. Added to this central committee were several sub-committees who also did a very excellent job of organizing and arranging the various sections of the parade.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Aug. 17th, 1939

Mr. Van Wageningen, Florent and Willem, with Mr. Wm. Barr made a fishing trip to Cold Lake. Yes they returned with fish all right, but as yet we have not heard any tall stories.

The motion of A. J. Morrison, seconded by Norman McClellan, was carried at the regular monthly meeting of the Vermilion Hospital Board, namely that: "The application of the Board of the Vermilion Hospital District No. 2 for a loan under the provisions of the Municipal Improvements Assistance Act of 1938 in the sum of $25,000 to finance an addition to the present hospital building", be approved.

Possibly the best crop prospects which this district has experienced for many years and which were general until the end of June or even to the midle of July have been entirely wiped away by the dryness of the past month and the extreme heat of the last two weeks of the same month.

Grounds of the members of the members of the Horticulture Society were judged during the past week by Mr. S. H. Gandier and Mr. W. G. Malaher to decide the winners of the "Home Grounds Competition," which was sponsored by the Society. The results were as follows: 1. Peter Millar; 2. A. W. Liddiatt; 3. A. C. Linsdell; 4. G. W. Wright.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Aug. 15, 1923

Chas. Gurney, Mr. and Mrs. Slim Powers, Miss Veneta Shea and Miss Fern Martell are leaving the beginning of September for Los Angeles where they expect to reside in future.

Harry Stephens, M.A., Ph.D., has been appointed lecturer in Chemistry in the State University, Minneapolis.

Miss Grace Bury met with a painful accident Friday afternoon when the horse she was driving shied and overturned the rig. She sustained a broken wrist and other injuries.

James Crawford of the Landonville district lost his home by fire on Sunday last.

A huge mass meeting was held in the Columbus theatre to hear addresses in connection with the formation of the Alberta Wheat Pool. The chief speaker was the Hon. R. G. Reid.

Perfect Weather

Perfect summer weather has prevailed all month. Crops are maturing rapidly and it appears that the harvest will be at the normal time despite the late start. More details will appear in next week's Standard on crop prospects in this area.

Three Scouts Leave For Jamboree

Three Vermilion Boy Scouts left for the 8th World Jamboree at Niagara-on-the-Lake last week end. Donald Stewart, Pat Bentley and Tom Kibblewhite who made the trip have been active members of the 1st Vermilion troop for some years.

As part of their preparation for the big journey they have each earned their Queen's Scout badge. Each one of them is a patrol leader and has helped to train other and younger members of the Vermilion troop in scouting. Another effort has been the work that they have been doing this summer in order to earn the funds to pay their own way. Since the costs amount to $140, this has taken a lot of hard work. Donald has been employed as a clerk in Craig's store. Pat has been a member of the grounds crew at the School of Agriculture and Tom has been "hired man" on his father's farm.

One of the highlights preceding the trip for the boys was their investiture by the Honorable J. J. Bowlen, the Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta. They received their Queen's Scout badges from His Honor as part of the opening ceremonies the first day of the Vermilion fair July 28th. Another scout from the Vermilion troop, Dan Loveredge, also received his Queen's Scout badge on that occasion. Unfortunately he was unable to go east to the big Jamboree.

A great deal of credit for the enthusiasm and interest shown by the Vermilion scouts is due to the excellent leadership and training given by the troop [illegible] Bill Nankiville.

Donald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stewart, Pat is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Bentley, and Tom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Kibblewhite, all of Vermilion.

Mrs. Carl Smith Wins Car At Bingo

"I just can't believe it's true", said Mrs. Carl Smith into the microphone, as she accepted the keys to the Studebaker Champion four door sedan which she had won at the Curling Club bingo, Saturday evening, Aug. 6. Mrs. Smith was unable to sleep that night after she had come home to tell her husband that she was the lucky winner of the car. Mr. Smith, who is on the night shift at the Canadian Utilities plant, had to go to work at midnight, so his wife was practically talking to herself in sheer excitement for the rest of the night. However, a few days later, she was becoming accustomed to her good fortune, and was able to say that she now has an idea of the thrill that sweepstake winners must experience.

Although the big curling arena was not jammed, there was a good turn out of bingo players in support of the Club's efforts to raise funds for the new artificial ice plant which is being installed this fall.

Besides the car there were 11 other valuable prizes won by the following: Hamper of groceries, Mr. H. K. Cooper of Clandonald; Brownie movie camera, Mr. Fred Swan, Vermilion; boy's or girl's bike, Mrs. Giles, Vermilion; Motorola clock radio, Mrs. Hall, Angle Lake; Lady's watch, Tom Charchun of Derwent; Binoculars, Mr. Stan Coultman, Irma; Floor polisher, Mr. Nick Saina, Clandonald; Vacuum cleaner, Mr. A. Van Ness, Claysmore; Chrome kitchen set, Mrs. W. Spence, Vegreville; Mixmaster, Mr. Geo. Rainer; Reclining rocker, Mrs. Margaret Fry, Dewberry.

NEXT CAR BINGO, AUG. 20

There will be another opportunity to help the Curling club to purchase the new ice plant, and also a chance to win yourself one of the excellent prizes including a lovely four door Chevrolet, at the big Bingo to be held Aug. 20 (Saturday night) under the auspices of the Vermilion Curling club. Perhaps you too, like Mrs. Smith, will discover how thrilling it is to win a car and it's a certainty that if you don't play, you can't win!

Showman Dies At Vermilion Fair

Showmen have big hearts and this was clearly demonstrated here at our fair when Gerard Vezina, whose home is in Sherbrooke, Que., dropped dead from a heart seizure shortly before midnight on Saturday, July 31, the last day of the Vermilion Fair. The death occurred while the men of the midway were preparing to pack up for the move to their next stop, Vegreville. Mr. Vezina was 30 years of age.

Manager Jas. Sullivan of the midway and several other officials of the show, made all arrangements for the funeral which was held on August 6 at the Holy Name Catholic church. Interment was in the Roman Catholic cemetery. Although they were in Red Deer at the time of the funeral, the officials of the midway and many acquaintances of the deceased returned to Vermilion to attend, six of them being pall bearers.

There was also quite a nice display of flowers with wreaths and sprays being received from J. P. Sullivan; Bob Carruthers; Mr. Malonan, The Boys; Mr. Kaufman and the boys.

Besides paying the entire cost of the funeral Mr. Sullivan and the men from the midway also ordered and paid for a monument for the grave.

Moyers were in charge of the arrangements.

The tea and baking sale sponsored by the W.A. to the Canadian Legion on Saturday was very successful. The money raised will be used locally. The W.A. have several projects started.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

New Anesthetic

Scientists have long been searching for an ideal anesthetic — one that is safe, effective and free of unpleasant side effects for the patient. Without anesthetics, modern medicine could not attempt life-saving surgery.

A new anesthetic, tested by doctors at the University of California Medical School Hospital, recently has been developed along the lines of the much sought "ideal" agent.

This anesthetic, Viadril, when injected intravenously and combined with inhaled nitrous oxide, provided effective and safe anesthesia for 120 patients of Dr. Frank J. Murphy and his associates.

Viadril is a steroid — like such compounds as cortisone—but it does not exhibit any hormone-like effects when injected in humans.

The new anesthetic was developed and synthesized at the pharmaceutical laboratories of Chas. Pfizer & Co., Inc., after a screening program which tested more than 100 new steroid compounds.

First hint of the anesthetic-like qualities of the steroids came more than 20 years ago when Dr. Hans Selye, famed Canadian physiologist, reported that steroids exhibit a sedative effect in laboratory mice.

Other scientists, in the first decades of this century, developed the local, spinal and intravenous anesthetics in use today. Ether and laughing gas came into general use less than 100 years ago, but were great advances over the earlier anesthetics such as marijuana, henbane, mandrake root and cocaine.

Scientists believe Viadril will supply the surgeon another useful tool, and may well open a whole new area in the field of anesthesiology.

WILDMERE WINKS

It will be nice to get our good paper again. We hope our Editor and the staff had a pleasant holiday and rest from the daily grind.

Peggy Graham, nurse-in-training at the Royal Alexandra hospital, made a flying trip home on Friday evening. She returned to the city Saturday morning with Doreen Stone who took her dad's car back. Doreen and Louise are away on holidays to Banff for a few days. Peggy gets her holidays the end of August.

Vacation school is being held this week at Basswood school under the leadership of Mr. H. Plant, our United Church student and other helpers.

Kenny Graham is on a tour of Edmonton with the 4-H Wheat club of Vermilion.

Several in our district have been quite ill with stomach flu this past week. It comes on very suddenly with severe pains in the stomach. Some have sore throats along with it, others have dizziness.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith and family, Diana, Jeannie and Eric of Bon Accord have been visiting with Norman's brothers Bill and Adam Smith of Wildmere. They too have been victims of the flu while here. They spent two weeks in the district returning home Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Howard and Roger of Victoria, accompanied by Mrs. Howard Sr. of Edmonton, visited over the week end with Lloyd Howard and family of Wildmere. It was nice to see Mrs. Howard again. She attendde church Sunday evening at the old school where she used to go when she lived here. They returned to Edmonton Tuesday. Albert grew up here and it was nice to see him and his family once more.

Everyone is busy haying and some grain cutting has also been done. Harvest will be earlier than last year as the crop is not so heavy.

Miss Mary Gibson of Basswood was a hospital patient for a few days last week when she had her appendix removed. She is now home again and feeling fine.

APPRECIATION

St. Saviour's W. A. wish to thank all who helped [illegible] make their booth at the Fair a success. Donations of money, pies, etc were very generous, also time spent in operating the booth. Transportation to and from the grounds was also greatly appreciated. Sincere thanks to all.

ST. SAVIOUR'S W.A.

A meeting of St. Saviour's W.A. (afternoon group) will be held in the church hall at 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, August 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Funnell and their son Larry left Vermilion on July 28th, planning to go to Buck Lake, west of Wetaskiwin. En route they stayed over night at Elk Island Park where an interesting incident took place. They were parked for the night, sleeping in the back of their truck, and very early in the morning were awakened by a noise. They looked out to see that the truck was entirely surrounded by buffalo. Most of the animals were peacefully grazing, but one old bull didn't take very kindly to their presence and was snorting and pawing the ground and otherwise showing signs of his displeasure. They were held in the box of the truck for about an hour, because they were unable to get out and clear the cab of the truck of their luggage sufficiently to drive away. Fortunately the inhospitable buffalo, tired of thwarting them, eventually wandered away.

The tea and baking sale sponsored by the W.A. to the Canadian Legion on Saturday was very successful. The money raised will be used locally. The W.A. have several projects started.

Vermilion Fair Marks Half Century Of Progress With Real Success

Vermilion fair was brought to a successful conclusion on Saturday, the 20th and fittingly marked a half century of progress for the Vermilion district. All summer long unusual efforts have been put forth to make Vermilion's 50th fair the best ever and, with the wholehearted support of the entire district the objective was splendidly achieved. The 1955 fair was marked by the largest attendances in its history and every department of the annual exhibition appeared to have received an impetus which spelled success right from the beginning Elsewhere in the columns of The Standard is a letter of thanks which but weakly expresses the appreciation of all connected with the Agricultural Society which began its career in the year 1906 and carried on without a break for 30 consecutive years.

BOYS AND GIRLS CAMP

Vermilion Fair Summer camp for boys and girls of Northeastern Alberta was most successful. It began on July 25, three days before the opening of the fair and closed with a banquet and ball on Saturday night. 130 strong, arrived, and were given over to the care of Principal Bentley and his staff at the School of Agriculture. Short courses in practical agricultural and home economic subjects were given for the week and the boys and girls were guests of the Fair Board during the exhibition days. The Alberta Wheat Pool sponsored a special dinner for those in attendance and on the conclusion of the course gold watches, through the co-operation of Messrs. T Eaton Company were presented to the boy and the girl standing highest in the results of the Summer camp was Awards were also made by the Line Elevators Farm Service and altogether the Summer camp was voted an outstanding success. It is regretted that some 40 young people had to be denied the privilege of attending the courses, but class accommodation is limited necessarily and it is hoped that those who could not attend this year will apply early in 1956.

The fortunate prize winners, during the week of the Summer camp, were honored at the dinner just prior to closing and gold watches through the courtesy of the T. Eaton Co. were presented to the boy and girl standing highest in the results of the tests. They were Helen McCourt of Kitscoty and Lorne Braithwaite of Dewberry. Other awards, kindly donated by Line Elevators Farm Service were presented to Ruth McCourt, Kitscoty; Olive Nelson, Hetusburg; Marjorie Rawlak, Jarrow and Doris Spilde of Provost for the girls and for the boys, Leland Garlie, Kinsella; Kenneth Tschauk, Clandonald; Harold Kwachny, Mannville; Kenneth Orschesk, Elnora. It will be noted from this list that the young people for the camp are drawn from a wide area.

This year for the first time in the long history of Vermilion Fair Summer camp a little difficulty was experienced in a few of the students skipping classes, presumably to attend the fair more often than had been planned. In future, all who attend will be required to give some undertaking that they will strictly adhere to the rules and regulations laid down for their guidance.

JUNIOR FAIR

The Junior Fair begun four or five years ago has grown to splendid proportions and this year more than two thousand entries were received from school pupils over a wide area. The Junior fair livestock classes were supported to an unusual degree and the school and art work was found to be of high quality. Pretty well all schools in the district were qualified to judge the type of work submitted by the boys and girls and the girl standing highest in the results of the various Judging courses

Health Minister Lauds Handling of Salk Polio Vaccine

TORONTO. — "An outstanding example of federal-provincial co-operation at work is our Canadian experience with the Salk polio vaccine," states the Hon Paul Martin, Minister of National Health and Welfare, in an article especially written by him for Health Magazine, official publication of the Health League of Canada.

To date more than half a million Canadian children have been inoculated with either one or two doses of vaccine as part of a joint federal-provincial nation-wide immunization program. The vaccine—produced at the Connaught Medical Research Laboratories in Toronto—has been purchased under the National Health program, with the costs divided equally by federal and provincial governments. Allocations of the vaccine are made to the provinces on the basis of population for administration free of charge to children in selected age groups.

"This federal participation," Mr Martin states, "is being continued during the present year in order to encourage an increase in the supply of Salk vaccine produced and utilized throughout Canada. As the vaccine becomes widely accepted as a general immunizing agent, the provinces may wish to provide for its continued distribution without charge in the same manner as smallpox vaccine and other immunizing agents."

"I should like to remind Canadian parents that the Salk vaccine is not a total and complete preventive of paralysis from polio," says Mr Martin. "Indeed we must face up to the fact that some children may even develop polio after vaccination, since no two children have the same degree of immunity, either natural or acquired."

"We should remember that when diptheria toxoid was first developed and in fact to a large extent pioneered in Canada, it was found that it reduced the incidence of diptheria about 90 percent. So far as we know this estimate of its effectiveness still holds, yet we all know what has been achieved through the use of diptheria toxoid. It is for this reason among others that the scientists who are now working with the Salk vaccine are encouraged to believe that through improvements of the vaccine and through its extensive use, polio will almost certainly be reduced to the point where only an occasional case occurs," he said.

"The development of a polio vaccine by Dr Jonas Salk and his colleagues is a dramatic chapter in the story of modern medical science. It is a source of pride to all Canadians that our research workers have had an important part in this story. I know that I echo the thanks of every Canadian parent when I acknowledge our great indebtedness to all those who worked to provide this new and powerful weapon in our relentless fight against polio", Mr Martin said.

SASKATCHEWAN
1905 — ALBERTA — 1955

This year Saskatchewan and Alberta are celebrating their Fiftieth Anniversary. Although rapid development and progress and enormous industrial growth have taken place in these prairie provinces since they were inaugurated in 1905, it is Agriculture—the farmers and their farms—that has given, and continues to give Saskatchewan and Alberta their principal claim to fame and fortune.

The agricultural production achievements and records of each of these provinces in the past 50 years cannot be equalled by any other province in Canada. Saskatchewan and Alberta are not only rich in soil and other natural resources, but in natural beauty as well. However the greatest wealth of these prairie provinces lies in the character of their people.

Paying homage to the early pioneers of Saskatchewan and Alberta should be the keynote of the "Golden Jubilee" celebrations. It is the time for all of us to recall with thankfulness and appreciation those men and women who through their vision and hard work laid the foundations of a great and prosperous and free society, which encouraged men and women from all over the world to come and make their homes in Saskatchewan and Alberta. The 50th Anniversary will pass, but the great virtues of the early pioneers—faith, courage and hard work—remain to inspire future generations of Saskatchewan and Alberta people to even greater achievements in the years ahead.

The Line Elevator Companies extend [illegible] and [illegible] to the farm people of Saskatchewan and Alberta in this their Golden Jubilee Year. The history of these provinces is truly a "golden" thread in the tapestry of the land we are all proud to call Canada.

News from Allandale

Weather has been grand. Crops and gardens are coming nicely. The late barley crops are a total failure, caused by aphids — something new in this area.

Miss Maureen Peters from Athabasca has been holidaying with her relatives in the Deer Lake district.

Congratulations to the proud parents of new babes — Mr. and Mrs. Bev Baldock, of town, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. John Forsythe of Clandonald, a son; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cusack, Deer Lake, a son.

Mrs. Josie Southwell and granddaughter Sharon from the city were guests at the Omness home. They came July 20 and visited at the other Nelson families, returning to their home the end of the week.

Marlene Wilson celebrated her 4th birthday on July 20 at her Omness grandparents. Four cousins were present, Curtis and Linda Wilson, Adele and Doreen Walsh, and sisters Dorothy and Donna, brother Raymond and Sharon Southwell.

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Buttner (Betty Darling) of Lindberg, who were married on July 23. Their reception and dance was held in the Spring Park Bell hall that evening.

The Armstrongs and Mayers attended the shower and birthday party at the Darling home at Spring Park on July 24. The shower was for the bride Betty and it was Lloyd's birthday. From reports the eats were grand, including a beautifully decorated wedding cake and a birthday cake. May you have many more happy birthdays Lloyd.

The sympathy of the community goes to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Darling of Sylvan Lake on the death of their daughter, who was about a year old.

On July 24 Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh, Wayne and Laura joined their daughters Adele and Doreen at the Omness home, holidaying, also to attend the fair. They all motored home on Aug. 2.

The Fair — The parade was wonderful, so many remarked that it was every bit the equal of Edmonton's. The pioneers and old timers were treated the very best. The Omness family had a float, 1905-1955, and naturally we were very proud of them. The last evening's fireworks were gorgeous giving us most thrilling moments. All in all a wonderful three days, long to be remembered. To all the pioneers we salute you. To Vermilion we are most grateful for all your efforts and work.

It was a grand surprise to meet Mr and Mrs. Albert Spilde (Opal Phillips) from Provost at the fair with their daughter. They have one daughter married, Elaine, and Betty Doris and Vickey at home. The Phillip family was well known in the district years ago. Albert is in the real estate business and is agent for the C.P.R. lands.

It was good to meet old friends at the fair, a few away from home in attendance were Mrs. Farley, Mrs Easton and the Bristows.

July 31st Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baldock accompanied their daughter Beryl, Tommy and family from the city on a holiday to Saskatchewan, visiting sister Georgina and family at Saskatoon. Then to Regina and district to visit Louis' folks. Aunt Mamie is taking care of things at home while they are away.

Mrs. Gertie Swanson from Elk Point returned with her sister Stella (the Mayers) on July 24 to attend the fair. She and sister Nora Ronaghan are accompanying Stella and Willie on a trip to Helena, Montana and to the health mines.

Mrs. Mabel Lee left by bus on Aug 4th for Toronto where she is visiting her daughter Esther and husband. On her return trip she will visit relatives in the States and a cousin at Estevan, Sask.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Swanson (son of Mrs. Gertie Swanson of Red Deer) spent their holidays in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Zaworski and family from the city and Mr. and Mrs Ken McMaster and family (sister of Bruce) from Hamlin, visited at Johnny Nelson's and at Omnesses on July 31. Bruce and Peggy were holidaying at Hamlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Omness and daughters Janice and Irene from New Sarepta, left Friday of the fair to visit Ruth's brother Dave and family at Lloydminster. They also went to Kindersley to visit son Gerald and family, then on to Portland, Oregon to visit Ruth's parents and relatives.

After our last church service on July 24th we spent an enjoyable afternoon at Vermilion Lake.

Vacation school will be held in Clandonald, including Allandale commencing Aug. 15, just for morning classes.

Closing Thought: "The clock of life is wound but once, and no one has the power to tell just when the hands will stop, at a late or early hour. Now is the only time you own; live, love, with a will; place no faith in to-morrow, for the clock may then be still."

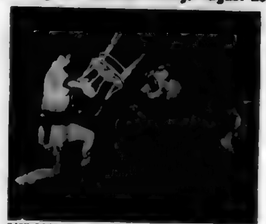
Coming to Vermilion Friday, August 26th



EASY DOES IT — Clyde Beatty, whose circus comes to Vermilion next Friday, August 26th, seems to be having a little trouble with "Prince," the tiger killing lion... Prince received nation-wide notice a few years ago when during a performance in Detroit, he pounced on and killed three Royal Bengal tigers. Though a killer lion, his performing ability is so great that he has remained in the act, though now watched very carefully while the tigers are performing with him. The Circus tents will be set up on the Exhibitions Grounds for performances at 2:30 and 8:00 p.m.

THE WORLD OF WHEAT

by W. G. Malaher, Director, Research Department, [illegible]

THE MOVEMENT OF RUST SPORES

Evidence of how spore-bearing winds may in the absence of rain, fail to deposit much spore material as they move along, was found recently when it was sought to explain why a fairly wide stretch of country which included parts of both North and South Dakota, had apparently been missed or were only slightly infected following the movement of an air mass from a rust area in the southern states.

It was established that the air mass in question proceeded almost straight north until a cold front was met in North Dakota which resulted in rain. From the point where the rain first occurred and again continuing northward, rust infection was evident and quite uniform more particularly in fields of durum wheat. By way of explanation authorities point out that while there is always a natural but slow settling out of spores or particles of any kind from the air the fall-out is at least one hundred times as great when rain occurs as when conditions are dry. Also of vital importance to the rust organism during its infection period is the duration of the presence of dew or moisture from the rain, and here again, in the worst infected area it was found from weather records that on several days during the period referred to, the moisture had stayed on the plant from 8 to 10 hours.

Further research and the correlation of many factors which contribute to the development and spread of rust will, no doubt, reveal much that is of interest and value.

The New Mausoleum

A preliminary survey is to be made of the Vermilion area starting in the next few days for the Community Mausoleum to be constructed in the cemetery as explained in the last issue of this paper. This mausoleum is being supervised and financed by H. R. Wilton of Vermilion, with Mr. Geo. Pearce of Vermilion assisting in the canvassing. They will make a canvass of the entire community, showing pictures and explaining to each one exactly what the mausoleum is and gives to each individual. This survey is necessary first, because few people understand the important aspects of this type of burial and second, it is necessary because in this type mausoleum only space is included in its construction for those desiring it. After seeing the pictures and other explanatory data which gives each person a full knowledge of its many points, then an intelligent decision can be rendered. Those inquiring about or those having the mausoleum explained to them are under no obligation whatever. Your co-operation in helping in this part of the survey will be greatly appreciated and the more quickly it is completed the sooner construction can begin on the mausoleum. 5-6c

SUMMER WEDDINGS

LEIGHTON — GUNN

Spirea and peonies banked the altar of the Paradise Valley United Church to form the setting for a pretty wedding on July 9th when Miss Shirley Ann Gunn, daughter of Mr and Mrs W A. Gunn of Paradise Valley became the bride of Mr. Hugh Leighton, son of Mrs. John Leighton and the late Mr. John Leighton of Kinsella.

Rev D D Davidson officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor-length gown of white nylon tulle over taffeta. The bouffant skirt in narrow tiered plain nylon tulle had a silk ma broidered tulle peplum, shorter at the front and styled to a long point effect at the back. The shirt bodice which modified the strapless bodice was of the same material as the peplum and was fashioned with lily point sleeves. Peter Pan collar and buttoned down the front. Pearl studded covered buttons. Her fingertip veil of illusion sprinkled with long rows pearl studded covered buttons. Her fingertip veil of illusion sprinkled with long rows pearl stars was caught to a pill box headdress of sequins and seed pearls. POOL CHAIRMAN

CRITICIZES EFFORTS TO Discredit Wheat Board

Not long ago the president of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange sent a questionnaire to the grain merchants in the United Kingdom in what he described as an effort to determine their opinion of Canada's grain marketing policies. This obviously was an attempt to steal the support of the British grain trade in discrediting the work of the Canadian Wheat Board and the Western Wheat Pools which for years have been making every effort to maintain favorable prices for Canadian farmers.

The Canadian government realizes that the dollars received for grain crops are a major factor in supporting, sabor, lumber, steel, transportation insurance, and all other activities which go to make up the economy of Canada.

Canadian grain farmers have accepted moderate prices when farmers in most countries of the word have received much higher prices guaranteed by their governments. With this fact in mind, Canada's national government has accepted responsibility for ensuring that the marketing of Canadian grain shall remain in the hands of agencies which are interested in seeing that farmers receive fair prices for their grain. The Canadian government knows — and every farmer knows — that in times of large production and surpluses, prices might easily be forced to ruinously low levels if the selling of grain was done by agencies interested only in the commission per bushel, and not in the prices the farmer gets for growing it

Labor, manufacturing, construction, transportation, and every other industry in Canada which is interested in grain dollars must make it their business to see that the marketing of Canadian grain is continued by the Canadian Wheat Board, so that a fair amount of dollars may be available to wwrik their way up through the whole fabric of Canadian business. Canada cannot afford an enormous group of bankrupt grain farmers which would surely happen if wheat, the West's most valuable product, was taken out of the hands of the Canadian Wheat Board and dumped overboard for whatever it might bring.

BEN S. PLUMMER,
Chairman, Board of Directors,
Alberta Wheat Pool.

Vermilion Fair Marks Half Century Of Progress With Outstanding Success

TRIBUTE TO PIONEERS

In co-operation with the Jubilee committee, headed by Councillor Al Locke, and constituted by representatives of various organizations, the Fair Board worked during the summer to [illegible] applications for Senator William Arnold, to be provided by the Provincial Government for presentation to those who had been in Alberta in 1905 and were still resident in the province. The Board is to mark its own 50th fair also issued special invitations to all who had been in the district in 1905, the years of the first Vermilion fair; these special guests were provided with invitations entitling them to free admission for all three days to all sections of the fair. Arrangements had been completed to present the Senior Citizen Scrolls on the first afternoon of the fair and His Honour the Lieutenant Governor of Alberta, the Hon. J. J. Bowlen, graciously consented to come to Vermilion for the purpose of personally making the presentations.

Unhappily, word was received a few days before the fair that the scrolls might not be at that time available and Fair officials determined to have some form of recognition for their pioneer guests, and with the co-operation of the Vermilion Standard, had printed a special gold lettered card, bearing the words:

To Our Pioneers — Greetings His Honour the Lieutenant Governor of Alberta, the Honourable John J. Bowlen has this day paid tribute to the fine contribution you have made to the Vermilion district and our Province in the past half century and this card is testimony of our most sincere appreciation. Please accept our best wishes for health and happiness in the twilight years of your useful and valued contribution. Given this 28th day of July A.D. 1955.

The Vermilion Agricultural Society
E. M. Stewart, S. V. Heckbert
President Secy-Manager

Following a fine address of appreciation and the official opening of the 1955 fair and after his Honor had presented Queen Scout badges to four members of the local Scout troop, Pat Bentley, Danny Levesque, Tom Kinkelwhite and Donald Stewart, the Lieutenant Governor approached the grandstand and presented the cards to 167 old timers, many of whom had come to Vermilion from Vancouver, Edmonton, Calgary and many other points to enjoy the celebration. His Honor shook the hand of every pioneer presented and the names and years of arrival were announced and a bow taken by all who were present. The little ceremony is said to have been much appreciated by the pioneers and certainly Vermilion Fair and Vermilion district enjoyed the opportunity to pay tribute to those whom it was so richly due.

FINE ATTRACTIONS PROGRAMS

The crowds of people who attended Vermilion's Jubilee fair were thrilled with the splendid attractions in front of the grandstand. Opening programs were provided by a splendid group of young men from the Motor Cycle Corps of the Canadian Army who staged thrilling shows for the enjoyment of all its attendance. Their performances were followed by attractions programs which were claimed to have been the best ever presented to Western Canada audiences. Built around a Jubilee theme the acts were individually and collectively well received and grandstand accommodation was taxed to the absolute limit during the fair. Bleachers had to be brought in to the grandstand enclosure in an effort to seat the throngs seeking admission and even then every possible seat was filled well in advance of the program times and hundreds sat on the grass in the grandstand pad dock and apparently thoroughly enjoyed the shows. Each evening fine programs of fireworks were provided for the enjoyment of the fair patrons and the Society is indebted to the Jubilee committee and the Council of the Town of Vermilion for their assistance in making the programs possible

On the final evening of the fair the local Square Dance organization under the skillful management of Mr K Greenwood made it possible for square dancers from a wide area to enjoy dancing on the platform and on the grass in front of the stands and a great many remained late in the evening to watch the colorful dances and the addition al feature was much enjoyed

NEW ENTRANCE

A notable addition to the splendid grounds operated by the Agricultural Society was the construction of a handsome new entrance which replaced the unsightly and unsatisfactory makeshift entrance which has for so long served the public. Built of logs, brought at consider able difficulty and expense from the mountains at Jasper the entrance was designed along the lines of the entrances to National Parks and the sturdy construction will provide years of service as the gateway to what is often described as one of Western Canada's outstanding exhibitions

Surrounding the gates are huge signs indicating that the entrances serves not only Vermilion Fair but the fine grounds of the Vermilion Athletic Association which co-operated generously to assist in the establishment of the joint entrance to the recreation field of the town and district. The new gates lend dignity and prestige to grounds which are the envy of fairs and exhibitions all over the country The new entrance facilities make it much easier for the hard working gate staff to handle the huge crowds and with ample parking space available all who attended were loud in their praise of the accommodation provided.

THE MIDWAY

Among the attractive features of any fair, especially for the kiddies, is the midway and this year the attractions provided through this source drew much favorable comment. The 1955 midway facilities were provided by the well known Jimmie Sullivan who for many years prior to 1954 brought worth while midways to the Western Canada Fair Circuit. Meeting a desire for change in 1954 a United States midway was engaged and the reaction was not at all favorable and resulted in Mr. Sullivan again being engaged to be satisfaction not only of the directors of Vermilion Fair but of the general public as well

All in all, Vermilion's 50th Fair will be a landmark in the agricultural and entertainment history of Vermilion and district. All things appeared to work together toward success and great thanks are due to those who provided every form of service from the excellent meals and lunches, to the ice cream and cold drinks for the kiddies, to those who provided such excellent displays of manufacturing and household goods and supplies and to those who built up a grand display of modern agricultural machinery and equipment.

EARLY DAY MACHINERY A SPECIAL FEATURE

Perhaps one of the most intriguing features of this year's fair was the introduction, as a permanent exhibit, of early day machinery which had so adequately served at and near the turn of the century. Again due to a long standing desire on the part of Fair officials unusual effort was put forward in the Jubilee year to obtain early day machines which are to be maintained for the on going development of future generations on the exhibition grounds. These efforts were crowned with success and largely through the generosity of innumberable people the exhibit attracted the most unusual attention. Pioneer power units of various kinds came from Messrs. James S. Irving, Wm. Pylypchuk, Carl H. Johnson and transportation of the equipment from the far corners of the district was made possible through the co-operation of W. B. Mix, Mr. Little, Orsen Strome, Geo. C. Webb and others

Startling district residents operation of the 'ancients' was possible through men who worked early and late, cleaning, scouring, priming, towing and overhauling until steam was up and the machinery in operation with whistles tooting and the crankshafts turning as in the days of old. Found to be in a remarkable state of preservation the wheels of the machines were in motion and some little idea of early power given to thousands of people who had not previously seen such machines in operation.

To each man as Bill McGinnis, E. Samuelson, Morris Cooper, Gordon Larson, Jas Irving, Geo. White and Geo Webb, and so many others goes the thanks of the Agricultural Society and indeed the thanks of the entire district for eventually placing in operation the machinery that helped open up our district in the days when wheels were of steel and hearts were of iron; to say that old timers and new timers were deeply interested would be but to beggar any possible description of the great interest that was so evident for days before and during the [illegible] fair.

Altogether the 1955 exhibition the first in our pioneers and centennial phase of the celebration of the Jubilee year in the Vermilion area live in the memory of those of us who have so benefitted by their hearts and minds of Vermilion and district. efforts.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Litter left behind at a camp or picnic site may be a sign of past enjoyment but it's a future headache for fellow tourists — says Carol Lane Women's Travel Director, Shell Oil Company of Canada. If you've ever stopped at a spot despoiled by its former occupants, you know that a "litter bug" wreaks more havoc upon picnickers than ants or other insects possibly could.

Litter is unnecessary because it's so easy to leave a neat trail behind you. Picnic grounds and roadside parks are usually equipped with a trash receptacle for "left overs". If you've had a barbecue, wiener roast or steak fry, do what I do — bury the signs of your fire. If no bin is handy, take along your litter for disposal later.

Some people leave picnic and camp sites neat but litter up the insides of their cars. When you travel, your car is your home away from home. Keep it as neat and picked up as you would your own living room. Other travellers preserve the neatness of their cars at the expense of the nation's highways by "marking" their trail with refuse. It's easy to avoid either extreme. Just take along a paper bag or box in which to store your trash temporarily.

It's easy to be a good Samaritan when you travel. Make sure that future drivers, campers and picnickers will not be the victims of your carelessness.

Morning Weariness and Thyroid Deficiency

People who feel fatigued when arising in the morning after a sound sleep, and then slowly recover stamina during the day and feel brightest and most energetic when it's time to return to bed at night, may be suffering from a mild thyroid deficiency described by doctors as "the hypometabolic state."

Some of these people chronically complain of vague aches and pains, and have been labeled unjustly as hypochondriacs, neurotics, or anxiety personalities.

Actually the chemical processes in their bodies which convert food into energy are operating at a snail's pace. Doctors believe that the slowdown results from a shortage of thyroid hormone in body tissues.

Other commonly encountered symptoms indicating this form of hypothyroidism may be an intolerance to cold, brittle nails, dry skin, lack of perspiration and, in women, menstrual disorders.

In a seven year study conducted by Dr B. A. Watson of Clifton Springs, N. Y., published recently in the New York State Journal of Medicine, it was found that women are much more prone to this state than men, and also that its incidence increases with age.

Of almost 15,000 patients admitted for various complaints to the Clifton Springs Clinic and Sanitarium, Dr. Watson found that more than 200 were suffering from the hypometabolic state. The highest rate was among patients in their forties and fifties. In Dr. Watson's opinion, "Physicians should consider the diagnosis of hypometabolic state before labelling a chronically complaining patient as a psychoneurotic, hypochondriac, anxiety state, etc."

The investigation confirmed the growing belief that a subnormal metabolic rate is not the only indication of thyroid deficiency as had been generally assumed. The morning tiredness, aches and pains were much more reliable signs of the condition. Trial treatment with dried thyroid given orally was found to be a reliable method of diagnosis. If the symptoms disappeared, the hypometabolic state was presumed present.

Continued treatment with dried thyroid, or with a purified thyroid extract in tablet form called Proloid, produced lasting improvement in a majority of patients, restoring a feeling of complete well-being in very many. As a test, treatment was discontinued temporarily in a few patients. Their symptoms returned almost immediately, but were controlled again when treatment was resumed.

EAR TROUBLE

The ear has three parts: outer, middle and inner. The outer ear canal is about one inch long and at the inner end of it is the thin flexible ear drum. Behind the ear drum lies the small middle ear cavity which passes directly to the throat through a narrow passage about an inch and a half long called the eustachian tube. Across the middle ear cavity is a tiny chain of three jointed bones and beyond these is the inner ear which consists of a labyrinth filled with fluid and semi-circular canals. The labyrinth is a rolled up passage and is the hearing mechanism. The semi-circular canals control balance and unusual pressure or change in the fluid may cause dizziness or sea sickness.

HOW WE HEAR

The outer ear helps to gather sound which travels down the outer ear canal to the ear drum. The sound causes the ear drum to vibrate and the vibrations pass into the middle ear and through the chain of little bones into the inner ear. There the agitation of the fluid creates nerve impulses which travel to the brain and are heard in the form of sound. Hearing is [illegible] when infection or injury damages the ear drum or blocks the eustachian tube or the outer ear canal.

In the past more than half the cases of adult deafness resulted from neglect of ear infections in childhood. This should no longer be necessary for if a doctor is called promptly when a child shows signs of ear disease he can check the infection and guard against loss of hearing.

The two main causes of serious ear trouble and defective hearing in children are an acute infection of the middle ear and a milder chronic infection which blocks the eustachian tube and causes mild inflammation of the ear drum.

ACUTE MIDDLE EAR INFECTION

This is usually a complication of some childhood disease such as measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough or influenza. If your child has any such general infection then watch for signs of ear trouble, such as earache, sudden rise in temperature, difficulty in hearing, and a noticeable turn for the worse in the illness. If the child is too young to tell you about earache and dull hearing he may show signs of ear trouble by a sharp rise in temperature, increasing illness, restlessness, crying with pain and sometimes pulling at the ears. If your child shows some or all of these signs call your doctor at once so that the condition can be checked before serious damage is done. An acute infection of the ear can develop so fast that an abscess may be formed in a matter of hours, so any delay in treatment can be serious.

Game At 2:30; Winner Meets St. Paul for Title

Vermilion And Derwent In Senior Baseball Play-Off Here On Sunday

Vermilion and Derwent play here at 2:30 Sunday Aug. 28 for the right to meet St. Paul Hornets for the Eastern Alberta League championship. The teams played two games on Sunday at Derwent with the following results:

1st game — Derwent 3, Vermil 2

2nd game — Vermil 4, Derwent 2

The games are described as being of a very high standard with only one error. Both were pitchers' battles.

The series is a best two of three games, and with each having one win, the set-to here on Sunday is bound to be a good one.

In the first game at Derwent on Sunday Bob Holowatie of the Vermilion team struck out 17 men in an admirable pitching exhibition. Joe 'Lefty' Wysocki also did a nice strike-out job for Derwent, whiffing nine Vermilion men. The game went an extra inning before a decision was reached. Bob Dunbar caught for the Tigers with Steve Lychak receiving for Derwent.

Ray Jones to Bob Dunbar was the Vermilion battery for the second game with George Wysocki to Steve Lychak for Derwent. Ray Jones helped very materially to win his own game by socking a home run, only one of the two games.

ST. PAUL TAKES TWO

In the meanwhile St. Paul went into the finals when they swept a doubleheader last Sunday from Elk Point. St. Paul is therefore awaiting the winner of the Vermilion-Derwent series.

LEAGUE STANDING

The baseball league ended up the regular season in the following order, with little to choose between the top three teams —

Team	P	W	L	T	%

Derwent Cardinals	12	6	3	3	.625
Vermilion Tigers	12	6	4	2	.573

Clyde Beatty's Great Wild Animal Display

Huge Wild Animal Circus Here This Friday, August 26th

The Clyde Beatty Circus, one of America's two railroad shows and the largest circus to play Vermilion in many years, will exhibit here on Friday, Aug 26th. Tents will be erected on the Exhibition grounds for performances at 2:30 and 8:00 p.m.

SILVER CIRCUS TRAIN

The long silver train that carries this huge operation will arrive over the C. N. early in the morning from Edmonton and will immediately be unloaded and transported to the grounds. Men, machines and elephants will have everything in readiness for the opening performance at 2:30.

NEW FOREIGN ACTS

For 1955, Beatty has surrounded himself with 27 new foreign acts that are making their first appearance on the continent. The European circuses have sent their outstanding performers and thrillers to make the performance the best in Clyde Beatty's long career.

GREAT ANIMAL DISPLAY

But, while these acts will attract considerable attention, it is the wild animal display of Clyde Beatty that is still the big lure of the show. He has added many new animals to his act to make it the largest group of lions and tigers ever assembled together at one time.

MANY OUTSTANDING ACTS

Other outstanding acts are Hugo Zacchini, shot from the mouth of a huge cannon; the George Hanneford Family, world's greatest bareback riding act; The Great Lenares, who makes a forward somersault on the high wire, and many, many others.

TRAINED ANIMAL ACTS

Three herds of trained elephants, 100 head of thoroughbred horses, trained dogs, chimps and ponies take care of the animal portion of the two-hour performance. Beautiful new spectacles utilizing hundreds of pretty girls with dazzling costumes will add beauty and glamour to the show.

Add to this an army of funny clowns and you have the 1955 edition of the world's greatest trained wild animal circus.

For the convenience of the public rush seats and reserved seat chairs will be on sale show day only at Long's Rexall Drug store.

Excited Elk Point Lady Wins Bingo Car

A very excited lady from Elk Point, Miss C. Gulledge, was the winner of the Chevrolet car at the Curling Club bingo last Saturday night. Miss Gulledge had an extra lucky card apparently as she bingoed with only 53 numbers being called. Hers was the lone voice to cry 'BINGO' so no tie breaker was needed. Don Taylor was the efficient M.C. for the evening.

There was a dandy crowd on hand, larger than usual, and the way the prizes were spread out over a very wide area shows the drawing power of these Curling Club car bingos as they are very well advertised through the press.

Winners of the various games were:

1, Mrs. E. Woods, Islay; 2, H Pascha, Fabyan; 3, Mrs. W. Kochen, Vermilion; 4, John Titter, Wainwright; 5, Alex Wyness, Lindberg; 6, Jean Mazurall, Wainwright; 7, Ross Mass, Lea Park; 8, Tom Bethune, Wainwright; 9, Mrs. Joe Tiffinger, Vermilion; 10, Miss C Gulledge, Elk Point; 11, Roy Goad, Dewberry; 12, G. CARDINALS LEAD IN SOFTBALL SERIES

Vermilion Cardinals took a one-game lead in the best of three series for the Northern Alberta Intermediate B ladies' softball championship on Sunday at Kitscoty. They managed to defeat the Kitscoty girls 8 runs to 6.

The line-up of Kitscoty girls given to the Standard contained Christian names only as follows: Sylvia, Pat, Nancy, Mary, Joan, Alice, Jenise, Evelyn, Frances, Noreen, Kelly and Jessie.

Kitscoty Wins Exhibition

Record Vote In Provincial Election

Ray Crevolin, clerk of the legislature, last week completed the task of compiling the final returns for the June 29 provincial election.

Out of a total of 378,134 valid votes cast the Social Credit party obtained 176,846, or 46.4%. The runners-up, the Liberals got 117,731 votes, or 31.1% of the total.

The last election, in 1952, brought a total vote of 298,335, with Social Credit polling 167,789 and the Liberals 66,738. This means that in the 1955 election, the Liberals in their all-out effort polled 50,993 more votes than they did in 1952. The Social Credit party showed a gain of nearly 9,000 more votes than it did in 1952.

The 378,134 valid votes constituted a record for Alberta, probably due to the fact that great interest was aroused in the election by campaigning of the opposition parties.

Claims Vermilion Park Friendly Place

Mr. J. G. Tillett, 92 years of age, is in the habit of taking a stroll every day of the week. One of his favorite walks is down to the lake in the Vermilion park. He claims that people who frequent nature's beauty spots seem to be very friendly folk and as a result he has spent many happy hours along the beach there. As an evidence of this friendly and kindly spirit on Sunday as he was walking down the hill road a car stopped and asked him if he would like to ride the rest of the way. He did so and arriving at the beach he was invited to have a ride in a motor boat and thus enjoyed a ride around the lake for an hour or more. His new found friends on this occasion proved to be Mr and Mrs. J. W. Muir of 4808-50th Avenue and Mr Tillett expresses his appreciation for their kindness. This is just one sample of a friendly act which makes the Vermilion park such a happy place to go, says Mr Tillett.

37 KILLED LABOR DAY WEEK END, 1954

Going to be on the highway over Labor Day week-end? Here are a few "stoppers" which the Automobile Club of America says can stop you from killing yourself. Stop speeding, stop driving at night, stop for coffee, stop driving bumper to bumper, stop [illegible] are sleepy.

RAT SEEN IN TOWN

A rat of the Norway variety was sighted in town last Thursday night by Chris Christenson. It was dark but Chris saw the animal quite clearly as it passed under a street lamp close to his home. The rat was crossing the road coming from the direction of the elevators. Very familiar with the sight of rats, Chris is quite convinced that it wasn't any harmless muskrat. He lost trace of the animal in the darkness and [illegible] of the [illegible] along elevator row the next day. The rat probably came into town from the east on a freight car. However it's just a warning that rats are not too far away.

COLORS ARE GOOD "MEDICINE"

It's amazing how a colorful bouquet of flowers makes a sick person perk up. Along with medical treatment, color is recognized in modern hospitals as a powerful force in the recovery of patients.

Now, stark white furniture and equipment, for many years the epitome of cleanliness, is making room for soft pastels and warm, cheery hues. Today these colors are considered every bit as sanitary as the traditional white and are certainly much less "institutional" looking.

Psychologists are aware of effects of color on emotions and, in turn, the effects of emotion on physical health. Color, therefore, is a factor to be reckoned with in the cure of illness.

Color experts find that light [illegible] and greens have a soothing effect on people, while rosy hues create a cheerful atmosphere that is helpful in offsetting depression. Naturally, very vivid colors are avoided in hospitals since they are often overstimulating. Yellow has proved itself a good color for promoting a feeling of well-being. In combination with grey, yellow is relaxing and cheerful and at the same time it offers variety to a patient confined to one room for a long time.

In short, any use of [illegible] that makes a patient feel [illegible] "at home" and less aware that he is in a hospital is good "medicine."

Nice Going

Canadian retail sales are rollicking along this summer at a gay and busy tune with only a few lines left out of the fun, reports The Financial Post.

Most traditional hot weather businesses report sales well ahead of last year. Ice cream, beer, soft drinks and summer "salad" foods have all posted increases. Tourist totals are up, as much as 30% in some areas. Drug and department store, restaurant and hardware grosses are all ahead of last year.

Books and antiques, china and souvenirs, hotel and travel figures show gains in preliminary reports.

Appliances are selling well but competition is reported the keenest in years. Automobiles and automobile accessories are well up and may hit record summer levels. Radio and TV sales are continuing their rise with sales ahead of 1954.

Among the wallflowers: movies, jewelry, shoes, some clothing lines and some foods, all down over last year.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane

Women's Travel Authority

If you are the one boys, read this letter from a woman in an father or mother of two healthy, and rambunctious Ontario town:

"Dear Miss Lane: My husband and I have two sons, 6 and 7 years old, but they are active fellows, full of the dickens, and we didn't know if we could [illegible] all their [illegible] up in [illegible] for our two-week trip West. We were on the verge of reluctantly leaving them with my sister when my husband got a bright idea.

Without telling the kids, we bought a surplus army pup tent and an inflatable rubber mattress. On the second day the kids began to get restless and a bit [illegible] but my husband [illegible]. He promised them a super treat that night if they were good. They were, and when we checked [illegible] motel and he announced that, because they had been good boys, they could pitch the tent right outside the cabin window and sleep there, they were the happiest youngsters you've ever seen.

Only once during the rest of our trip did we have to deny them the great thrill of 'camping out in the open.' You must tell your readers about our discovery."

Wildmere Women's Institute Notes

The Wildmere W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Fred Haines with 17 members and three visitors, Mrs. Riley from town, Mrs. Norman Smith of Bon Accord, and Mrs. George Cruthers present. Meeting opened with the singing of 'O Canada' and the Creed. Roll call was 'Stump Speeches' which proved very amusing. Minutes were read and approved. Correspondence consisted of 'Thank You' notes from Mrs. G. Dibben and family and Mrs. A. Smith for baby spoon, also a letter from Department of Citizenship and Immigration.

Social Service convener gave her report, our share of gift to Mrs. [illegible] and Mrs. Jones at conference in Vermilion, and memorial donation to Mr. Dibben. Mrs. Whitlock gave the treasurer's report.

Mrs. W. J. Garnett spoke on school buildings, especially Basswood school. It was decided by the W.W.I. members to donate $50 to help pay for same.

Next came a discussion on the bench. Mrs. Hughes was paid for the bench material. Our delegate Mrs. Hughes then gave her report of the conference held at the Agricultural school July 22. Vermilion has the largest branch, Wildmere is next.

Mrs. R. Mead is our Constituency convener, Mrs. Reeves Health convener, Mrs. Wagner Handicraft convener. Conveners are to make 3 reports for conference.

A home cooking sale was planned for Aug. 13 at Craig's store. Mrs. W. T. Garnett, Mrs. H. Bathe and Mrs. J. Wallington, conveners. (On behalf of the W.W.I. we wish to heartily thank Mr West and staff of Craig Bros. for all the kindness shown. It was greatly appreciated). The sale was very successful.

Our President heartily welcomed the visitors. The baby crib quilt we made for conference is to be given to the local hospital.

Mrs. J. Wilson won Johnny Jump Up. After singing the Queen, members went out to the garage to work on the bench. Some sawed and planed while others ate lunch. Mrs. Hughes had the plan and everyone took orders from her. Mrs. Gibson had an electric drill to make the holes for the bolts and screws. All worked like troopers and it was nearly completed that evening. The next meeting is Sept. 7th at Mrs. L. Howard's. Roll call — bring an article for donation to a needy country. Topic — Mrs. J. Wallington. Social — Mrs. F. Haines. The Lunch committee to consist of Mrs. A. Holte, Mrs. D. Hughes and Mrs. Howard.

Changing wet bathing clothes to dry ones will help to avert chills and summer colds. It is also a good idea to avoid people who COUGH and SNEEZE without covering nose and mouth with a disposable tissue.

Restaurants that show evidence of lack of proper sanitation and neglect of general cleanliness should be reported to the local health department. Disease germs may be passed from person to person if tableware and silver is not properly sterilized.

It is always wise to find out if the water where you plan to swim is safe from pollution. Children or adults may contract such serious diseases as typhoid fever if the river or lake is polluted.

Schools of Agriculture Preparing For Fall Term

The summer season of events at the Alberta Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics has recently come to a close. The last event of the summer for the schools was the selection of Alberta's 4-H representatives to atter National Club Week in Toronto later this year.

The Schools of Agriculture will now ready themselves for the fall term. This year the regular courses in Agriculture and Home Economics will begin on Oct. 18 and the term will close April 6. This allows farm boys and girls to remain on the farm for the busy harvest season and then they return early the next spring in time for the spring rush.

Applications for the fall term are now being received at all three schools, Vermilion, Olds and Fairview. Students are reminded to get their applications in as early as possible in order to be sure of accommodation.

For young people with less than 70 high school credits there is a two-year course. For those with 70 high school credits or more there is a course known as the '2 in 1 course'.

One of the features of Alberta's Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics is the low cost to the student, for Alberta residents tuition is free and board and room charges in the school dormitories is only $40 a month. Other costs include student union dues, medical fee, library fee, and money for the material for sewing courses for the girls and metal work for the boys.

The principals report that applications vary with the crop conditions. A hail storm or other crop disaster means a low attendance from the districts affected. However, now is the time for young people to be thinking about applying at one of Alberta's Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics. Apply to the Principal, Vermilion, Olds or Fairview.

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

Today I watched an American tourist do some shopping here in Canada. He asked me to take him to one of our better stores. Watching him shop so eagerly was quite an education.

"We have a sale of shirts," the clerk told him proudly — and began to load the counter with some of their specials.

My American friend waved them aside. "Look," he said, "I can get plenty of junk at home. While I'm up here I want to pick up some good quality stuff."

He did, too. But almost every store first tried to sell him some kind of "bargain" imported from his own country or Japan. Only when they learned that he was after quality did they let him have a chance at our Canadian goods.

Walking up the street to hunt for silverware, we passed many shops with American flags displayed. I said, "Does it please you to see your flag in all these store windows?"

"Heavens, no!" he snorted. "Don't they realize a fellow travels because he wants a change? We like to buy Canadian goods when we get up here. We figure Canadian stuff is often better made. Maybe we're suckers — but we don't think so!"

I don't think so, either.

Surely this country is mature enough now to be over that childish idea that anything from far away has more glamour or more style! We all know Canadian workmanship is honest and good, and that Canadian manufacturers stand behind their products. Yet we go on, year after year, accepting so-called bargains, and getting stung. Other countries would soon be stop dumping distress merchandise in our market if we had the sense to stop buying it.

Surely we don't have to have American tourists teach us to 'buy Canadian'. Only a mighty important bargain should ever make us do anything else, unless we're in favour of unemployment!

Deaths Rise with the Mercury

A ... spell of hot weather brings a sharp increase in deaths, especially among the aged and the chronically ill, and increases the need for special care for such persons.

When, in early July in New York City, temperatures for six days of one week ran above 87 degrees—and on four successive days above 90 with a high of 96 — deaths ... 39.7 per cent over those for the comparable week in 1954. The 1954 temperature averaged 71.1 degrees, with a high of 83.

Deaths from high blood pressure increased most—by 116 per cent. Vascular lesions accounted for an increase of 61.1 per cent and arteriosclerotic heart disease for 32.7 per cent. Cancer deaths increased by 31.6 per cent in the 1955 hot week over the figures for the 1954 week of moderate temperature

As the numbers of persons past 65 in our population increase, the fatal effects of heat may be expected to become a matter of ever-growing concern. There are approximately 14 millions in that age group today and, by 1960, the number will have increased to about 16 million.

Although diseases involving the heart and blood vessels are still common causes of death among the elderly, new scientific developments are producing drugs to combat them For the painful heart condition known as angina pectoris, a new drug called Peritrate—a first cousin of the explosive nitroglycerin—has been established as the most effective in prevention of angina attacks

For high blood pressure, there is a new drug, hexamethonium chloride, taken by mouth. It has been adjudged the most valuable agent for the control of runaway pressures Its original oral form has recently been combined with reserpine, the "tranquilizing agent" derived from the root Rauwolfia which Indian physicians have been using for hundreds of years. Studies have shown that the combination relieves symptoms of high blood pressure with small doses.

Heat is becoming less of a hazard to life and health as a result of medical discoveries, of new temperature controlling devices, and new advances in engineering. Single-room air conditioning units are now commonplace and the promise is made by heating engineers that year-around heating-cooling units, run by nuclear power, may be available for private homes in less than a decade

Mt. Robson Climbed

JASPER, Alta. — Less than a week after bad weather forced the Alpine Club of Canada to abandon its attempt to climb Mount Robson, (12,972 feet), highest peak in the Canadian Rockies, two Los Angeles Bruin Montaineers parties from the University of California, reached the summit. The first group, climbing by way of the dome and the east face route, reached the summit on Aug. 9. The second group climbing up the Schauffelberger Ridge, the first successful climb by this route, arrived at the summit two days later. The Schauffelberger Ridge, also known as the "Wish bone", can be sen from the Canadian National Railways main line and is a familiar sight to train tavellers

Ideal Weather Brings On Harvest

Ideal weather conditions have brought on an early harvest, and operations are already fairly general, and, given continued favorable weather, will swing into high gear this week end.

Conditions point to an average yield hereabouts but hopes are held out that the grain will be of a high grade.

At present time there does not appear to be any shortage of harvest help, in fact District Agriculturist Ernie Buckingham had a surplus of farm workers at one time this week.

A CHEMICAL STUBBLE-MULCH SUMMERFALLOW

A feature of grain farming in Western Canada is to alternate grain crops with summerfallow The main object of this practice is to build up a moisture supply by reducing or eliminating weed growth Clean, bare fallow is, of course, subject to soil erosion by wind and water. On the other hand, the use of stubble-mulch (trash cover) fallow, a practice now widely used in the Prairie Provinces, undoubtedly helps to reduce soil erosion and moisture loss but it is not too effective in weed control. The question then is, "Can weed-killing chemicals be used to increase the effectiveness of a stubble-mulch summerfallow?"

Fallow Tests Field plot experiments have been made recently at the Wyoming Agricultural Experiment Station to determine the effect of various summerfallow methods upon water intake Of several fallow methods tested, the application of weed-killing chemicals on stubble-mulch fallow, with no sub-surface tillage treatment gave the best results [illegible]

[illegible] may be the answer to more effective soil moisture conservation and weed control in Western Canada We will attempt to keep our readers informed on this subject.

HONORS FOR ALBERTA?

Is the 1955 World Wheat King farming in Alberta? Is the shield for oats coming to Alberta this year? The Royal Agricultural Winter Fair in Toronto will decide where the top honors go.

In the meantime, Alberta farmers are sending to the Alberta Field Crops Branch for entry regulations and forms. The bulletin—"The Preparation of Seed for Exhibition" is proving popular.

Crop prospects in many districts in Alberta look very favorable and interest in the 'Toronto Royal' is running high. Last year the wheat and oat prizes did not come west. It is hoped these will come to Alberta this year and that the barley and rye prizes will return here.

The passenger pigeon, once widely used as a table fowl in Canada east of the Rockies, has been extinct since 1914. Quick Canadian Facts.

Take the Labour Out Of Labour Day Picnics

SAYS CAROL LANE, NOTED TRAVEL AUTHORITY

Profit by summer's experience and picnic "scientifically." With proper preparation, an outing can be as easy and efficient as a meal at home, says Carol Lane, Women's Travel Director of Shell Oil Company of Canada. Just follow these principles:

Make the most of ingenious equipment such as fitted picnic basket, collapsible grill, long-handled tools, table-and-stools that fold into tiny case, huge thermos bags for food.

Prepare foods in advance — prescramble eggs, par-boil potatoes and meats, make coce and thermos-jug it. Use frozen or canned foods where possible, complete meals now come frozen on tray, ready to heat and serve.

Short-cut time and trouble, use disposable plates and utensils, metal foil around pans makes cleaning easy, or cook right in the foil. Paper tablecloth turns floor of car's luggage compartment into dandy table.

Clean up site right after meal — it's easier then. Relax — and have fun!

FROCK-TAILED SUITS, MADE IN 1904, WORN IN JUBILEE FAIR PARADE

A great many inquiries by those who recognize antiques have been received regarding the two frock tailed suits worn by George Doherty and Gordon McBeath on the Gay 90s float in the Jubilee Fair parade.

These two frock tailed suits have a very interesting history. They were made in Putreaux, France for Victor Dedelly and are still the property of that well known old time Vermilion district citizen. At that time Vic was the chauffeur for Monsignor Lerilleu of Putreaux, Seine France. He had two uniforms one for the day and one for the evening. Everything had to be done just so and Vic himself had to be dressed just right. He was the chauffeur for Mons. Lerilleu for 10 years even in those early days, as he came to Canada in 1906 and homesteaded in the Borradaile district. During the time he drove limit was ten miles per hour and motor vehicles in France the speed was strictly enforced.

While Vic himself came to the Borradaile district and homesteaded there in 1906, Mrs. Dedelly did not come to Canada until 1914. She was then Miss Postell and hailed from London, England. She married Mr. Dedelly in October 1914.

Vic recalls working out after coming to Canada for $2 per day and board yourself, and that was a high wage at that time. Every one seemed just as happy and contented then as now.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. R. Robson were on holidays last week. They spent part of the time with members of the family in Calgary and on a trip into the States as far as Coeur D'Alene, Idaho.

Gil Rampling Gives Talk At Rotary

Speaker at the Rotary luncheon held at the Brunswick hotel on Friday last was Gil Rampling. Subject of the talk was the Four Way Test and the application to every day business life. The speaker told of actual ways he had applied the test to his business.

Ways and means were discussed to publicize the four way tests throughout schools and among the young people as it was felt that such high ideals would have a marked effect during the teen age years when so many life-long habits and thoughts are formed.

The talk was very well delivered and aroused considerable thought and discussion.

Visitors at the meeting were George Ross and George Bodard from the Lloydminster Rotary and Fritz Goublehouser of Switzerland, here in connection with the Natural Gas Turbine at the Canadian Utilities plant.

The roar of an aircraft engine during ground test can rattle windows and nerves for blocks around. So we're glad to report that aluminum has turned up as a noise-absorbing "honeycomb" in an aircraft company's test-cell. Hundreds of aluminum tubes of differing diameters and lengths, filled with absorbent, sound-baffling material, make up the end walls. And we are told that by the time the giant roar has bounced around in these aluminum mazes it comes out the other end thoroughly "baffled" and weakened to a hum. We expect there are lots of aluminum boosters around that factory!

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane, Women's Travel Authority

There's more to mountain driving than racing to the top and coasting down—and, if you expect to cross a high range or two on your vacation trip, you'd do well to keep these pointers in mind:

1. Before starting up, be sure your oil and water are up to top level.

2. Most modern mountain highways are engineered so you can take them in high gear but be sure to shift into second the moment the engine begins [illegible].

3. Keep moving at a steady, slow pace to avoid overheating and to give you maximum control for any emergency.

4. Stay strictly in your own lane—remembering that uphill traffic should have undisputed right of way.

5. Travel in second gear on the way [illegible]. If you find yourself using brakes, shift into low.

6. Allow yourself time to stop and enjoy the view. It rests both you and your car.

7. If you are squeamish about heights, keep your eyes on the centre white line.

Remember the warning sometimes posted along hilly highways "Drive Carefuly — You May Meet A Fool."

Of the national income of Canadians in 1954 more than 62.5% was accounted for by salaries, wages and supplementary [illegible]. 1954 was the third successive year in which the proportion of national income accruing to labour showed a substantial increase.

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH — by Arnold

The Greenlawn Good-will Club

The August meeting of the Greenlawn Goodwill Club was held at the home of Mrs. Veril Sweet with an attendance of eleven and one visitor.

A lovely day was in store with the temperature in the mid 80s. It was decided to cancel the September meeting and have the October meeting one week earlier which is to be held at the home of Mrs. Bob Gray and to ask Mrs. Tidsbury of the Vermilion Hobby shop to attend, along with her hobby kits.

Some mention of our annual chicken supper was made if the coyotes are generous enough to leave us a few birds, which will probably be held some time in November.

A very tasty lunch was served by our hostess including some delicious pineapple delight.

New Motion Film Will Highlight The History of Alberta

A motion picture film highlighting the history of Alberta is being produced by Northwestern Utilities Limited, Canadian Western Natural Gas Company Limited, and Canadian Utilities Limited in Alberta's Jubilee year, it was announced this week by F. A. Brownie, President of the three Companies.

Mr. Art Hundert, Canadian motion picture producer from Vancouver, has been commissioned by the utility companies to produce the 30-minute colored movie which is expected to be completed by mid-winter of next year. Many of the high-light events of the Golden Jubilee celebrations are now being photographed by Mr. Hundert and will be included in the motion picture. "Not a story of the Province's Golden Jubilee, but rather a story of the Province's history climaxed with the 1955 Jubilee celebrations" is how Mr. Hundert describes the picture.

Believed to be the only film record depicting the history of Alberta, this picture is being made as a contribution and memorial to Alberta's Golden Jubilee celebrations. The producers feel that the picture should gain in interest as this important turning-point in our Province's history slips into the past.

During the course of filming, Mr. Hundert's production crew will travel the Province from the Peace River country to the southern border and scenes from many areas throughout the Province will be included in the finished motion picture. Several historical events will be re-staged for the cameras, and Alberta actors, dancers and vocal groups will be selected for participation in the production.

THOSE WERE THE DAYS

By ART BEEMAN

. . . WILDMERE WINKS . . .

Our community was deeply saddened on Monday when word was recived that little Kenny Dibben, 5-year-old son of Mr and Mrs. David Dibben of Basswood had passed away. Kenny has had asthma most of his life and at times has been very ill. He attended most of Vacation school last week at Basswood school. On Saturday he wasn't feeling very well but no one thought Kenny's book was to close so soon. He was a very nice little chap and will be greatly missed by all. Mr. and Mrs. Dibben had done everything possible for him in the medical line but nothing seemed a cure. God wanted another flower in His Kingdom and [illegible]. May He comfort the sorrowing parents who will miss him greatly as they had lovingly cared for him through his illness. He leaves to mourn his passing besides his parents one little sister Sharon, and numerous other relatives.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to the Mahan family, also Mrs. C. Baier and Mrs. Preston on the loss of a loving mother. Mrs. Mahan passed away last Tuesday at Lamont hospital.

On Sunday, Aug. 14 Mr and Mrs. N. Mack and Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Finlay were visitors at the J. Wilson home in Wildmere.

Beverly Strome who lives north of town spent last week visiting at the Cruthers' home. She attended Vacation school with the Cruthers children while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Plant of Brantford, Ont., parents of our student minister, spent a few days here visiting him. Mr. Plant took his parents around to visit at the different homes in his field. While here they stayed with their son at the Holte home in Wildmere. Mr. and Mrs. Plant attended church at Auburndale in the morning and Wildmere in the evening on Sunday. They liked our part of the West very much and they themselves were friendly people. On their return journey they are going by Edmonton, Jasper, then to Banff, Calgary, south into the States to Yellowstone Park and on through the U.S. home. We hope they come again some time to pay us a visit.

The writer along with Mrs. Whitlock, Mrs. H. Batke and Mrs. B. Batke accompanied Mrs. F. Gibson to a Stanley party at the home of Mrs. Fred Clark of Thorncliffe. It was a nice pleasant afternoon and Mr Footz was very good at telling us about his products. A good crowd attended and Mrs. Clark served a tasty lunch afterwards. Mrs. B. Batke was the lucky winner of the prize. [illegible] Gibson is having a party sometime in October. Too busy a season right now. Thanks Mrs. Clark for inviting us.

On Sunday Mr and Mrs. Abe Dick and family and Mrs. V Harde, Mrs Dick's mother, were visitors at the Wallington home. Mrs. Harde is a cousin of the writer and a nice visit was enjoyed. It is four years since Mrs. Harde was here so was nice seeing her again. She now lives in Miami, Man., having sold her farm to one of her sons.

The children who attended Vacation school conducted the church service on Sunday evening at our church. They did remarkably well. Some 43 children were registered at the school and we were pleased to see some Thorncliffe children attend, also their parents on Sunday evening. It is wonderful the way they carried the service, each one doing their part so well. They made some lovely articles during the school, which were on view for the older folks to look at. The teachers are to be congratulated on the fine job they did. Along with Mr Plant were Clara Green of Auburndale, Norma Harle of Buffalo Coulee and her cousin Diana Hollen from New Westminster, B.C. Mr. and Mrs. Seuffert, Mrs. Riley, Miss Craig, all from town, attended church that evening, also Mr and Mrs. O Strome, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. F Wilheim of Thorncliffe, Mrs. R. Harle, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ogren of Auburndale, making a grand total of 123 in attendance at church. It really pleased Mr Plant to see so many there. He has made a nice sign for the front of our church, also a hymn number board.

MORE PEOPLE

Since June 1945, the number of people in Canada has risen 28.2%, reports The Financial Post. Ontario and Quebec had the largest share of the rise in the past year. Total population of Canada is now 15.6 millions.

CORRECTION

In the card of thanks which appeared in last week's Standard regarding the Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cartwright, the wording should have read "Golden Wedding" in place of Silver wedding.

Claysmore W. I. Notes

The regular meeting of the Claysmore W.I. was held at the school with eight members and one visitor present. The president Mrs. J Willes was in the chair.

The meeting opened with the singing of O Canada, followed by repeating the Creed. Roll call, a recipe. My favorite meat loaf. Minutes of the July meeting were read and declared approved. The treasurer's report was read and adopted. It was moved to pay all outstanding bills. These included flowers and the delegates expenses to the Constituency conference.

A basket of fruit was ordered for Mrs R. Bauer, a patient at time of the meeting in the Vermilion hospital.

Mrs O Willes, chairman of the woollens committee, reported the blankets had been received and distributed. After setting aside one blanket and twelve pairs of socks for the Korean parcel, it was decided to display one in the coffee bar at Mannville on which tickets will be sold and the draw made for it after harvest.

The Korean parcel will be packed shortly after the September meeting. Anyone wishing to donate warm clothing etc please get in touch with the Claysmore W.I.

The secretary, Mrs J Horne, then distributed the Home and Country. Finished bazaar articles are to be brought to the next meeting.

Our delegate Mrs O Willes gave her report on the constituency convention held at Vermilion. The detailed account was enjoyed by all. After the collection was taken the meeting adjourned and a delicious lunch was served.

The next meeting will be held at Claysmore school on Sept. 14th.

Motor Car Sales In Canada

Chevrolet is still king of the Canadian new car market, reports The Financial Post.

The Ford—chief rival of General Motor's low-pricer—isn't even close this year, as it has been for the past two. A mid-winter strike wrecked Ford hopes of overhauling Chevvy in 1955.

Pontiac—another G.M. product—was the No. 2 seller in Canada during the first six months of 1955.

Right behind, so cosely bunched you could throw a car-robe over them, came Ford, Dodge and Plymouth.

Chev. appears to have captured about 21% of Canadian new car sales in the first half, Pontiac around 12.5%. Ford, Plymouth and Dodge reportedly were in the 10%-12% range.

Princess Anne W. I. Notes

The regular monthly meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. Parchewsky on the afternoon of Aug. 1st. The vice-president, Mrs. F. West, was in the chair and there were nine members present.

Following the regular opening procedure, roll call was answered with a favorite recipe.

The handicraft convener gave a report on the results of the handicraft exhibit at the District conference.

Plans were made for the branch to sponsor a shower at the home of Mrs. Wm. McIntyre, in honor of a new bride, Mrs. C. Cruthers (nee Lily Maggs) on Sunday evening.

It was planned to raffle a quilt sometime this fall. Watch for further announcements.

A new member was gained in the person of Mrs. Casey De Jong. This brings the membership to 13.

The topic for the afternoon was on citizenship. This was a paper entitled "Committee to Smooth the First Steps in Canada for New Canadians".

As there was no social, the time was used to copy the recipes given for roll call.

The meeting adjourned with the singing of God Save the Queen, after which Mrs West and Mrs. Parchewsky served a delicious lunch.

In the present year Canadians will pay to Ottawa in the form of indirect taxes about $1.5 billion.

Dramatic Proof of Chevrolet's Success!

Just look around you! On the highways, in the cities and in all the towns and villages across the land — everywhere it's Chevrolet. That's because, consistently, more Chevrolet cars are sold than those of any other manufacturer. And now, to a greater extent than ever before, the 1955 Chevrolet is the favorite of Canadians from coast to coast.

This Is Important To You!

Because Chevrolet builds so many more cars, each one costs less to make. That's the simple, provable effect of volume production. And this saving is passed on to you in the form of more value, and more features for the money than you can get with any other car on the market. Check the extra features you get at no extra cost with Chevrolet, and see how much extra you would have to pay for them on other cars. You'll find it amounts to hundreds of dollars. Then compare Chevrolet's price! And you'll know for sure at least one reason why so many more people buy Chevrolet year after year — especially this year.

Day by day, Chevrolet gains in popularity — value — sales!

A BARREL OF FLOUR

For some time there have been rumors that a barrel of flour might eventually be made in the unit of flour measurement instead of the hundred weight used by Canadian millers. Now comes word that the principal Canadian flour mills have generously followed the example of the U.S.A. in doing away with what is generally regarded as an out-dated inconvenient unit, the 196 pound barrel.

If all do, they will adopt the decimal system of packing flour in larger units. At present quotations are based upon each fractions of the barrel as 98 pounds and 49 pounds which would then become 100 pound and 50 pound lots. In use for some time have been the 10 pound bags and eventually, no doubt, the decimal system would be used for other smaller sized packages as well.

Any change such as this which involves a unit of measurement usually takes years to bring about, for time-honoured and well-established systems, whatever they are, die hard. But should the example be set by the larger mills, which account for approximately 80 per cent of the milling capacity, there is little doubt that the proposed change will be accomplished in decade; and so is likely, before long, to pass the old familiar term a barrel of flour.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT PRINTING

It is positively amazing to watch the way this country is being progressed by the government. Over the radio, then TV become government instruments to educate the people. Recent reports of statistics that we receive large fans from government sources. Pamphleteers and writers were also enlisted in the campaign. Impartially on national affairs [illegible] Federal government printing agency. And now the Federal government has gone into print in a big and ready way.

Over in Hull, handy to the parliament buildings, is the printing property for the new National Printing Bureau. They paid $264,391 for the property and another $19,000 for landscape it. The new building has cost another $13,625,000 on top of that, and they still have to buy printing equipment. What do you think is to happen? Will get out of all this? Let me tell you.

In ladder type on flatter paper we'll get such [illegible] as "The Economics of Communism", "The Painted Rhine", "The Lusty Fish", "Stories of Canada", "Dogs of the North", "How can I correct my Child's Habits?", "Sports and Athletics in Canada", and thousands more. The Canadian Government Publications Catalogue back in 1950 was a thick volume of 370 pages. What the big new plant gets going with the Lord Love it knows how it will become. And how many [illegible] does the government plan to put on the payroll?

Printing equipment today is so costly that weekly newspapers are having trouble showing a profit. The Federal Government now has at such a time, to issue the biggest and fanciest printing ever [illegible]. Almost 95% of its completists it will print books we'll be allowed to go out-of-print. The balance could be printed by private printers at a fraction of the cost. Printers would never guess that they came from print shops and ground with $130,000 landscaping!

THE NUMBER FOR SATURDAY

Numbers aren't emotional or animated.
People are emotional, lovable and very animated.
Number 134 is a statistic. It says 134 people will die in auto accidents this Saturday. It doesn't say . . .

"Who Dies" or "When They Die"
It only says "Will Die."

The certainty is frightening!
When you get behind the wheel of your car this Saturday, remember . . . 134 is your enemy. Don't contribute to its success by being inconsiderate on the road. Your one thing to gain by being courteous and careful . . . and the lives of the animated innocents to lose by being careless.
THERE'S A NUMBER for every day of the week (average figures for automobile fatalities)
134 is the number for Saturday.
115 is the number for Sunday.

EAR TROUBLE

An abscess in the middle ear may grow so large that the pressure bursts the drum. Pus from the abscess will escape through the hole in the ear drum and appear in the outer ear — this is a running ear. The rupture of the drum will ease the pain which is caused by pressure but this does not mean that the condition is clearing up and the infection must be treated to prevent it becoming chronic. If the condition is untreated the discharge will continue for a month or so and may then dry up with some loss of hearing. If the child is subsequently exposed to cold or damp the discharge will start again with more loss of hearing after each attack. If this happens often enough and is untreated complete and permanent deafness may occur. When the ear is running do not block the canal with absorbent cotton. Let the discharge escape freely and wipe it off when necessary with absorbent cotton moistened with warm water. If there is a hole in the drum take care to prevent water getting into the ear as it sets up an irritation which may cause a fresh discharge. For this reason ear drops should not be worn while swimming.

MASTOIDITIS

This is a serious complication of acute ear trouble and usually develops a week or so after the acute infection is over. Suddenly the child's temperature rises, he complains of increased earache and tenderness behind the ear. What has happened is that the middle ear abscess has not drained completely through the ruptured drum and the infection has been forced backward and pus gathers in the bone behind the ear. Immediate operation is imperative. Fortunately this complication is becoming rare as more acute ear infections are treated early.

OBSTRUCTIVE DEAFNESS

This is a milder form of ear trouble that occurs more often in older children. It is usually due to mild infection of the nose and throat. There may be no earache but the child has difficulty in hearing when he has a cold or sore throat The difficulty in hearing is caused by infection blocking the eustachian tube and the ear is usually relieved quickly by proper treatment.

Blocking of the eustachian tube and resultant deafness may be caused by enlarged adenoids. The adenoids will usually also block the nose making breathing through the nose difficult and the child becomes a mouth breather. These conditions are cleared up by removal of the adenoids.

A frequent cause of defective hearing in healthy children is the presence of some object in the outer ear Usually it consists of wax, which may swell up suddenly over night and produce deafness. It is easily treated by a doctor or nurse who can syringe it out. If a small object gets into the ear (and do not probe for it yourself as you may injure the lining of the ear or the eardrum. Have a doctor remove it.

By the way, we are looking for the picture you had taken, remember, and the old timers picture in The Standard. Oh, what a fair, best ever everyone had the real holiday spirit this year, even the weather.

We'll be taking in the circus on Friday to learn a few tricks on the real horses. It's going to be wonderful [illegible].

Mrs. Easton spent the week end during the Fair with the writer. It was nice seeing so many old timers at the fair. Mr. and Mrs. Bristow look twenty years younger. Edmonton must be a good place to live. Jack said that he ate too much for supper. Then there was Mrs. McClellan, 70 years young or so, peeping here and there into the side shows. Her daughter and husband surprised her arriving for the fair [illegible].

Congratulations go to our neighbors Mr. and Mrs. John Maire on the birth of a lovely baby boy. The writer will be down to hold him any day now. Biddy.

The phone line here is still very noisy and nothing can be heard at all. I think the ladies had better take their ladders and have a try at fixing the phone lines. Let's go!

It is a grand morning, flowers are lifting up their heads to the blue sky, saying, the time is drawing nigh when frost will come, and soon then we will die.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Harmony Prevails In Opening Days Of The Alberta Legislature

EDMONTON. The opening days of the special session of the Alberta legislature last week gave no indication that members had just gone through the bitterest election campaign in the province's history.

One might have expected a continuation of the accusations, insinuations and relentless criticism which marked the last session of the house and the election race that [illegible].

But instead of snarling at each other all was sweetness and brotherhood between opposing political factions — at least for the first 3 days of the session.

J. Harper Prowse, Liberal leader, promised that his 15 members would do everything possible to help the government finish the session quickly.

The Liberal leader made his address in the throne speech debate a short one, with little criticism of the government, and said that he hoped other members would take as little time as possible.

The other members followed his lead on the first day of debate. In fact, the speeches were kept so short that the house adjourned about an hour before the regular closing time. Seven members entered the debate and when they finished there were no others ready to go ahead.

Premier Manning entered into the friendly spirit by congratulating the newly-elected members of the legislature and made particular mention of the 14 new opposition members.

Mr. Prowse criticized the Premier on one point, but did it in a constructive way that didn't bring the jeers and shouts which often come from the Social Credit side when the opposition is taking the government to task.

He said he had read reports that the Calgary Herald and the Edmonton Journal had been barred from sending reporters to the press conferences of the Premier.

The two papers were excluded last week when Premier Manning called a press conference to announce the personnel of the Royal Commission which will investigate charges made against the government during the election campaign.

Mr. Prowse said he could understand the Premier being annoyed and angry with the two papers since they hadn't seen things his way in the election. But, he said, the Premier holds press conferences not as an individual but as the leader of the govenment.

He urged the Premier to reconsider, stating that his action was not hurting the papers. He said the public is being hurt by being denied full access to the news.

Premier Manning scribbled notes all the time Mr. Prowse talked. He rose to enter the debate as soon as Mr. Prowse finished, but made no mention of press conferences. He confined himself mainly to outlining the legislation his government proposes to introduce.

MARKETING BOARDS MAIN BUSINESS

The Speech from the Throne, read by Lieutenant-Governor Bowlen on opening day, indicated that the session will deal mainly with [illegible] left over by the last house.

The main item of business is the bill which would permit farmers to establish producer-controlled marketing boards for the marketing of certain agricultural products.

A meeting of the house agriculture committee was to begin Monday of this week to study the bill and hear representation from interested farm groups. Premier Manning said some changes have been made since the bill was brought before the last session, but he didn't indicate what they might be.

The Alberta Federation of Agriculture was expected to continue its argument for relaxed voting restrictions to make it easier to establish a marketing board. Under the bill as presented to the last house, 51% of those eligible to vote would have to favor setting up a board.

NEW RECORD

A new record was set when Rev. Peter Dawson, Social Credit member for Little Bow in the south, was re-elected Speaker of the assembly. Mr. Dawson has been speaker continuously since 1937 — longer than any other house Speaker in Canada. During all that time, he has missed only one day while the legislature was in session.

Concert time is 3 p.m. and M.C. for the afternoon is Mr. Sig Sorenson.

The National Film Board will be in attendance for an evening showing of interesting films at the Sandy Beach movie shell, commencing at 7.30 p.m.

Some Changes In Hunting Regulations

The hunter's Alberta will have a new look in 1955. Not only that, but this year's hunting regulations, released by the Canadian Wildlife Service o fthe Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources show that there'll be lots for sportsmen in the oil province to be happy about this autumn. The open season on migratory game birds has been extended, and the bag and possession limits for ducks have been raised in this province.

The new look comes from the inauguration of a zoning system, which divides Alberta into two hunting areas. The dividing line is the 54th parallel west from the Saskatchewan boundary to the 5th meridian, north on the 5th meridian to the 58th parallel, and west along the 58th parallel to British Columbia.

Open season in the northern zone for ducks, geese, rails and coots, except wood ducks and Ross' geese begins on September 1 and ends on November 30. In the southern zone it's legal to shoot the same species from September 7 to December 10. Last year the season didn't open until September 14, and closed December 4. The season on Wilson's snipe in the northern zone opens September 1 and closes September 30, and in the southern zone this species is under hunting pressure from September 7 to October 8.

The daily bag limit for ducks has been increased to 10, with an increase in the possession limit to 40 birds, of which not more than 20 may be species other than mallard. Other daily limits remain the same as last year — five geese, 10 rails and coots (in the aggregate), and eight Wilson's snipe.

Shooting methods and weapons similar to those in 1954, appear in the Migratory Bird Regulations, and on posters which will be available before the opening of the 1955 season.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

100 Per Cent. Pass Grade 9, Woodvale

Mrs. Lysons had two of her grandchildren, Arthur and Jimmy Lysons staying with her, while their parents were house-hunting in Edmonton. They have found a home in Jasper Place and will move there early in September. Brooks is one of the janitors in the new Government Treasury building on Jasper avenue, having sold his farm in the Thorncliffe district earlier this summer. Peggy and the boys are staying here until September. Brooks brought Allan Ford, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ford down for the week end from Edmonton. He is also staying with Mrs. Lysons and having a good time on the farm. Betty Ann and Wayne Lysons were visiting Grandma over Sunday too, while their parents went picking blueberries near Moose Lake.

Mrs. T. Preston has been in the Islay hospital the past few weeks but is expected home any day now.

The seven grade 9 pupils of the Woodvale school who wrote departmental exams, all passed. They are Donald Galloway, Jimmy Isley, Evelyn Lamport, Annette McLean, Wilton McLean, Joan Nelson and Susan Wolters. Congratulations to all of them and their teacher Mr. Hohol. There might be a school bus taking them to Vermilion high school driven by Ken Watt, but the arrangements are not quite completed as yet we believe.

ISLEY FAMILY RE-UNION

The Wes Isley's enjoyed a get-together of the Isley families in the Vermilion park last Sunday, to celebrate Mrs. John Isley's 80th birthday. The only son not there was Everett and his family of Calgary. Their oldest daughter Mrs. Labine of Nelson, B.C., was able to come. There were 60 or more in the party and the youngest was a two weeks old granddaughter. Best wishes for many more years in health and happiness, Mrs. Isley!

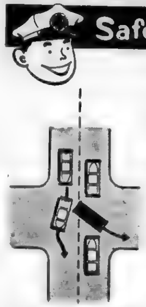
Our sympathy goes out to the Mahan girls who lost their mother so recently, a few days before Alveso's wedding was to take place. Cora taught for a short time in Woodvale and a year in Wildwood [illegible].

The sympathy of their many friends in this district is extended also to Mr. and Mrs. David Dibben who were bereaved by the death of their six year old son on Monday.

From 1949 to 1954 total government spending in Canada increased from $3,812 million to $7,019 million.

The Canadian steel industry, which has spent more than $325,000,000 on expansion since the war, will produce about 4,500,000 tons of steel in 1955, three times the maximum pre-war tonnage.

Safety Sam Says...



Don't hold up traffic . . Let the other driver make a left hand turn through your lane

You are proceeding with the green light through an intersection. You see a motorist trying to make a left turn. Do you make it a habit to slow down and wave him through?

This courteous act only takes a few short seconds of your time and often such an act unblocks the way for other motorists turning left through the intersection.

So, spare 5 seconds for courtesy and wave the motorist through whenever you can. He'll appreciate your kindness and you'll be pleased with yourself, too.

Antibiotics in Industry

Millions of lives have been saved by antibiotics, but these earth-mold drugs may also be put to such diverse uses as keeping food fresh longer, prolonging the life of leather, and revolutionizing the cosmetics industry.

Such antibiotics as penicillin, streptomycin, polymyxin and bacitracin are finding startlingly broad applications. By serving as efficiency experts, for example, they may help raise our standard of living. Experiments show the antibiotics make silkworms produce silk more quickly, and speed up the honey output of bees.

Some antibiotics are proving successful in reducing the mildew on surface coatings, and making shoes and purses wear longer. Others are useful in eliminating bacteria that clog up machinery.

In agriculture, antibiotics have been spectacularly successful in increasing the production of food animals and crops. Poultry and hogs are being produced more cheaply, because animals raised on an antibiotic-supplemented diet grow fatter and healthier and are ready for market sooner.

Agri-mycin field trials were recently conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The trials proved the effectiveness of this antibiotic combination in drastically cutting down on the bacterial diseases that ravage whole crops.

Current experiments raise hopes that the drugs also will help keep food fresh longer. Terramycin, tested on fish, greatly reduced its "spoilage" rate.

The day may soon come when antibiotics will be as valuable for nonmedical use as they are today for fighting infections.

750 Go Back To School Tuesday; Twenty-eight Teachers On Staff

700 young people will throng back to school in the Town of Vermilion on Tuesday, Sept. 5th at 9 a.m. To impart knowledge to this rather large group there is a staff of 28 teachers, with four more at the V.S.A. to teach household economics and shop work.

An extra room is being opened in the Junior high school building and a grade six class will be accommodated there. Plans to open an extra room in the high school did not materialize when a teacher could not be secured to teach the subjects desired.

A complete list of teachers and room enrolments will appear in next week's Standard.

Grades 10 to 12 plus the Commercial class will be in the high school under six teachers.

One grade 6 and two each of grades 7, 8 and 9 will be in the Junior high school building with seven teachers.

The Primary school takes care of five rooms, three grade 1 and two grade 2; while one grade 2, grades 3, 4 and 5 and one grade 6 are in the Elementary and cottage schools.

Grades Two to Six Allocated To Rooms

On page 2, section 2 will be found a list of pupils from grade 6 down to one grade 2 and the rooms to which they have been allocated. This allows the child to go directly to his new room on Tuesday, and eliminates much confusion and loss of time on the first day.

Grade 1 and Grade 2 children whose names do not appear go directly to Primary school; grade 6 pupils whose names do not appear, will report to the new grade 6 room in the Junior high school.

700 Ducks Banded In Vermilion District

WEAR BRIGHTLY COLORED PLASTIC NECKBANDS

There are 700 ducks along highway 41 north from Vermilion wearing brightly colored plastic neckbands. The same procedure has been carried out in other areas of western Canada with the exception that the neckbands are of different colors. The bands can be clearly seen with binoculars and the colors enable biologists to relate stocks of ducks to particular areas of the west so that their migratory and general sphere of travel may be studied.

The banding here was carried out by officials of the Canadian Wildlife Service of the Dept. of Northern Affairs. The birds also carry the usual metal leg bands.

BANDED WHEN YOUNG

In banding, the young ducks are caught before they can fly. This spring 300 teal and 400 other species were banded in this area.

Officials who did the banding here have worked steadily on the project since May 1st. The Vermilion district is one of the regular wildlife study areas, surveys of bird life being made here every year.

NOTIFICATION REQUESTED

In case any of the banded birds are shot note should be taken of the exact location, and the band and information sent to the Canadian Wildlife Service, Post Office Bldg. Edmonton, or Canadian Wildlife Service at Ottawa. They are very anxious to have the location as exact as possible.

New Wheat Delivered

The first wheat of the 1955 crop delivered to the U.G.G. elevator here was from the farm of Martin Challman and was brought in on Tuesday morning Aug. 30. The variety was Thatcher, graded No. 3 and weighed 63 pounds to the bushel. The U.G.G. grain buyer here is Mr. Neil McLean.

Cardinals Win Northern Alberta Softball Title

DEFEAT KITSCOTY IN TWO STRAIGHT GAMES

Vermilion Cardinals defeated Kitscoty ladies in two straight games to win once again, the title of Northern Alberta champions. The Vermilion team went into the best of three finals here last Sunday one game in front as they had won the opening game played at Kitscoty a week earlier.

Although the visitors started out strongly here on Sunday the Cardinals came from behind and won the second straight series game 8 runs to 5.

This made the second game of the double-header an exhibition attraction. The Kitscoty ladies won handily, 10 to 3.

Batteries in the play-off games were Mary Manson to Pat Tyler for Kitscoty, while Vermilion had Eva Gordey on the mound with Jean Kibblewhite receiving.

There was plenty of action and excitement throughout the whole game, played on a perfect softball diamond.

Rotary Hears Talk On Educational Trends

Rotary Club attendance showed signs of recovery from holiday absenteeism at the meeting last Friday and should see a complete comeback this week. Welcomed to the meeting were two Rotarians from Vegreville, George O'Brien and Rev. Faces.

Chief item on the program arranged by convener Ben King was a talk by high school principal Jas. Bell. Mr. Bell dealt with three aspects of modern education under the headings "Why the curriculum is continually changing"; "Why teaching methods have changed" and "Change of objectives in education".

The talk was most interesting and the thanks of the Rotarians present were suitably expressed by Bill Sutherland, himself an ex-school teacher.

Speaking briefly regarding holiday trips recently enjoyed were Gerald Stephens, Jack Kossie and Jim Robson. Acting as chairman during the absence of president Reg Mitchell was Ashley Cooper.

Studebaker Champion Is Big Prize For Saturday Night Bingo

Some lucky person will be the proud owner of a sleek 1955 Studebaker 4-door sedan, come this Saturday night. It could be you — providing you are there to play for it. If you don't play of course you just can't win.

Activities commence at 9:15 p.m. in the curling rink, admission is only $2 for the whole 12 games, extra cards are available at 2 for $1.

Besides the Studebaker the following 11 fine prizes are going to be won:

Sunbeam Mixmaster, Sunbeam Shavemaster, Brownie Movie Camera, 3 piece set of ladies' luggage, pair of Wool Blankets, $45 hamper of first quality groceries; Sunbeam Fryer electric, Limed Oak Coffee table with mirror top; AND special for the hunting season which is coming up: Winchester .22 5-shot clip repeater, H & R 12 ga. 3 shot shot gun, sleeping bag and air mattress.

The attendance at these bingos has been most gratifying, however looking at the distribution of the prizes there just don't seem to be enough townsmen to keep many at home, so let's attend in full force and see if some of these fine prizes can't be persuaded to remain. See you at the curling rink Saturday night 9:15.

Vermilion Tigers In League Finals; Oust Derwent Dodgers On Sunday

Vermilion Tigers bunched their hits in three innings here on Sunday to win from the Derwent Dodgers 7 runs to 1 and thus enter the finals of the Eastern Alberta baseball league. The teams had each won one game previously at Derwent.

Vermilion now enters the finals for the league championship against St. Paul. St. Paul eliminated Elk Point.

BUNCHED HITS

Vermilion bunched their hits in the first, 3rd and 4th innings to garner 3 runs, 1 run and 3 runs and were held scoreless in the last four frames. The game Derwent crew threatened in the 3rd when with two men on Bykewich caught a long fly in left field to retire the side again in the 5th Prior on first pulled a nice catch to again nip two possible runs in the bud and in the 6th Joe Winters made a long running catch in right field, made a peg to 2nd in time to complete a double play. They showed signs in the 9th, got a man on, but a towering fly to Stew Cooper in left field ended the game.

For Vermilion it was their veteran hurler Ray Jones to Bob Dunbar; Joe Wysocki pitched for Derwent with Steve Lychak catching.

JUBILEE DAY—

Thursday, September 1, is Alberta's 50th birthday. It was 50 years ago to the day Sept. 1, 1905, that the area which had been a part of the Northwest Territories was inaugurated officially as the Province of Alberta, with the ceremonies taking place in Edmonton, the capital.

Officiating at the inauguration ceremonies was Sir Wilfred Laurier, and it is doubtful if even that great statesman with all his foresight, envisioned the mammoth development which would take place in the province from 1905 to 1955.

Suffice to say that Albertans now have living standards and opportunities for all, second to none in the world today.

AGRICULTURAL BURSARIES STILL AVAILABLE—

Applications for bursaries offered by United Grain Growers Ltd. for the fall term in agriculture at Olds, Vermilion and Fairview Schools of Agriculture will still be considered if submitted by Sept. 15 according to information received from the Department of Agriculture at Edmonton.

The basic requirement for an applicant who should be at least 17 years of age is need for assistance. However either the boy or the girl applying should have taken a leading part in community activities as in junior club work etc. The bursaries are intended to help those who could not otherwise attend either a School of Agriculture or a School of Home Economics, and who have proven themselves worthy of assistance

Full information and application forms may be obtained through the offices of District Agriculturists, District Home Economists or Principals of the Schools of Agriculture or

4-H Club News

THEMATIC DISPLAYS

Thematic displays, prepared individually by each of eight 4-H clubs were on exhibit at both the Lloydminster and Vermilion fairs. Keen interest was evidenced by the many favorable comments spoken by the public as they continuously filed by the exhibits which were displayed in the junior exhibition building at both fairs.

AT LLOYDMINSTER

At Lloydminster, Mr. Ernie McKenzie Director for Community Activities for Saskatchewan and Mr. Johnson, Agricultural representative at Maidstone did the judging. After the displays were placed Mr. McKenzie gave the boys and girls a very informative talk on the purpose and meaning of thematic displays. The object of thematic display for 4-H club members is to present some phase of their work first describing the topic with words and then explaining the theme dramatically.

At Lloydminster, Marwayne won first with their display depicting fifty years of progress. Hilmody won second place with their "Chemical Weed Control" as their topic and third honors went to Islay.

AT VERMILION

At Vermilion judging was done by Mr Bentley, Principal of the School of Agriculture and Miss Falls, Farm Mechanics instructor at the school. Islay first award exhibit their display, contrasting good and bad farming The Vermilion 4-H Hi-Hoers club depicting "Fifty Years of Progress", placed second and Marwayne third placing. Other clubs entering were Tulilby Lake Calf club "Fifty Years of Progress", Mannville Calf club "Mechanical and Chemical Methods of Dehorning", Dewberry Calf club "Model Farm" and Paradise Valley "Fifty Years of Progress".

LEADERS COMMENDED

A good deal of credit was put in to the building of these exhibits displays and the boys and girls who worked on these projects certainly are all to be congratulated. These displays were also made possible through the co-operation and guidance given the boys and girls by their club leaders. Messrs. Stan Murray, Paradise Valley; Milton Christopherson, Hilmody; Bill McLean Islay; Earl Grey and Reuben Johnson from Marwayne; Stan Chodak from Dewberry; Bruce McDonald, Mannville; Oscar Peterson from Tulilby Lake; Mr. McFadden of the Alberta Wheat Pool provided working facilities for the members of the Vermilion Wheat club.

Vermilion Visitor Describes New Development At Kitimat, B. C.

Dear Editor:

Since our trip to Kitimat in July numerous people have expressed interest in this town, the aluminum centre of Canada, so I thought I would write some highlights of our trip and the town of Kitimat.

The trip was made via C.N.R. from here to Vancouver where we visited son Donald and various members of my husband's family, also Alice and Rudy Mervin, cousins and one-time residents of Vermilion who own the Inter-City motel on Kingsway.

We left Vancouver on July 12 on the 'Queen of the North' for the trip to Kitimat. This boat makes few stops, fortunately at this time as each stop was several hours due to the Union boat strike.

This trip up the Inland Passage is breathtakingly beautiful and the coolness of our cabin and the lounges was most refreshing after one of Vancouver's few hot days. Our cabin had been reserved from Vermilion and was in an ideal location on the middle deck, facing out over the water.

We arrived at Kitimat July 14th, where we were most happy to see my brother Ray Shupe, his wife Joan and their three boys. Coming into Kitimat the boat docks at the small natural harbor and over to the right around the curve of the inlet's arm is the giant man-made dock, with the world's largest Kang [illegible] crane. This dock was completed in February 1954, after almost three years of dredging and building of the huge caissons. It is used for business of the smelter and Alcan's freight.

It was interesting to see the immense crane pick up 'half a house' of the ready built five and six room homes Alcan was bringing in for its workers. The houses were then placed on large trucks and transported 'half a house' at a time to their location.

Just back of the large dock about forty acres is cleared and reserved for the location of the smelter pots, some 346 of which are already in operation. Each pot is 30 feet in length, 14½ feet wide and 3½ feet deep. They are housed in long lines in shelters which were part of the early construction begun in August, 1951.

Back from the pot lines already completed further construction is underway to house 121 pots which arrived in early August. Incidentally this cargo of 121 smelter pots was the largest single cargo of its kind ever shipped by barge on the Pacific coast of Canada. They were loaded aboard the 252 foot steel barge 'Island Logger'.

The actual townsite location is further up the valley of the Kitimat River about 6½ miles from the location of the docks and all the area in between is bustling with activity and built up with camps, housing projects for Alcan workers. Along the way is the town's one and only large garage and car agency, a milk processing plant and an area set aside for the industrial section of the modern 'city to be'.

Crossing the Kitimat River, Roy reminded me that when he first went there in August, 1951, a ferry was used where the massive steel bridge now stands.

[illegible] the way also is the large 'sand hill' which supplies all the sand and gravel needed for construction. Even though a good portion of the hill has been used, enough remains for a good many years of construction. A cement and a gravel-washing plant are right there.

About two miles from the docks is the C.N.R. station and rail [illegible] coming in from Terrace. The first train came in during early July after two years of construction on the 42 miles from Terrace and at a cost of more than $10,000,000.

Getting to my brother's house on the townsite I was intrigued by the street names of Huron, Swan, Mallard, Blackbird, Plover, etc. Roy remarked that the streets all bear wildlife and Indian names. The name of the town, Kitimat, means 'land of deep snows' in the Indian language and Roy says it often lives up to its name as three-foot snowfalls are fairly common from December to February and once in a while up to eight feet in a single snowfall!

Arriving at Roy's lovely new home, built by himself and fellow workers of his construction company, I decided that holidaying in this new modern town of some 5500 people with its beautiful rugged scenery would prove interesting . . . as indeed it did.

(Mrs.) Mildred Klashinsky.

WILDMERE WINKS

It just seems we cannot write these items without extending our [illegible] sympathy to someone. Everyone's heart ached when they heard that Mrs. Davis Love had passed away Saturday afternoon. Dorothy, as she was known to all, was beloved everyone who knew her. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to her sorrowing husband and the children in their hour of sorrow. Dorothy has been ill for sometime with cancer. Everything possible was done to save her but God knew best and called her home to rest. Besides her sorrowing husband, a daughter Shirley, two sons Lanny and [illegible], her aged father, three sisters (Amy) Mrs. Barlow of Buffalo Coulee, (Jenny) Mrs. H. Eyben, and (Elsie) Mrs. Hollen of Cloverdale and New Westminster, B.C., a brother Robert of Vermilion are left to mourn her early passing. May God give them peace and comfort in their hour of trouble.

On Thursday of last week, a well filled church at the Alliance chapel paid their last respects to little Kenny Dibben who was laid to rest in the Vermilion cemetery. His four oldest cousins were acting pall bearers. Rev. Mr. McNair, Alliance Minister, and Mr. Plant, our United church student gave a very comforting and assuring service to the bereaved ones. Mr. McNair took as his text 'All is well' and Mr. Plant spoke on how happy Kenneth had been at Vacation school, of how he liked to sing the hymns, and in closing he sang a hymn Kenneth liked very well "Jesus Loves Me". Miss Evelyn Wilson sang "Some Day We'll Understand". Evelyn is a beautiful singer. It was indeed a memorable service. At the graveside Mr. George Robinson, Kenny's uncle, said a prayer. May God comfort his sorrowing relatives.

We wish to also extend deepest sympathy to the Hetherington family in the loss of a loving mother. The writer never knew of her passing until we read the obituary in the Standard. We knew she had been ill but did not think her book of life was to close so suddenly.

We are sorry to hear that our cousin Mrs. Violet Harde who is visiting here from Manitoba, had been a patient in the Vermilion hospital. She fell while visiting her sister Mrs. McGinnis and dislocated her shoulder, making it necessary to stay a few days in the hospital. We hope it mends quickly Violet.

A nice attendance at church on Sunday evening. 70 people came out to hear Rev. George Robinson of the First Baptist church, Jamestown, N.D., who has been here visiting his sister Mrs. David Dibben and to attend his nephew's funeral. Everyone was impressed by his message. It gives one food for thought, to be ready when God calls, and to be kind to our fellowmen. Mr. Plant will soon be leaving us, just three Sundays left. We are sorry to see our church services coming to a close for another year. We wish Mr Plant every success in the years ahead and hope he can come again sometime to hold service with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Crothers accompanied by Mrs. H. Batke went by car to Bonnyville on Sunday to visit Ralph Batke and family and to see if there were any blueberries.

The old spirt of help thy neighbor has not died out yet. On Sunday afternoon ten young men held a 'bee' and stooked up Mrs. Whitlock's wheat that was cut. Many hands make light work. She was very pleased and appreciated this kindly act more than words can tell. Wildmere is a good place to live.

Albert Smith and Ray Osterberg were away north fishing on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hughes and family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tovell and family north of Vermilion on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Tovell is a sister of Mrs. Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson went to Fort Saskatchewan last Wednesday to attend her niece's wedding. Her mother Mrs. Finlay returned home with her for a visit. It is nice to have a chat with her again. She is wonderful woman for her age, well into the 80's.

LEGION W.A. TO ENTERTAIN MANNVILLE W. A.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion will be held in the Legion hall on Wednesday, Sept. 7 at 8 p.m. The members of the Mannville branch of the Legion Auxiliary will be guests at this time. A social hour will follow regular business.

In case of fire, a smoke-filled room may be more safely crossed if a wet cloth is wrapped over nose and mouth, crawling on hands and knees will help to prevent danger of being overcome with smoke.

Of Many Things

BE HAPPY

The other day, when I urged a young lad to wear a smile and be happy, he came back at me fast.

"How can I be happy when I'm not happy? You're just like my dad. He tells me to love God. How can I make myself love God?"

That was a poser.

I was forced to admit that happiness is a task to be worked at — like bravery in the face of danger, or work in the face of doubt and despair. Abe Lincoln said that the average man is just about as happy as he makes up his mind to be. Robert Louis Stevenson said that there is no duty we under-rate so much as the duty of being happy. On another occasion he spoke of being happy as a task.

I hope the fact that to be happy requires that he work at it will not deter my young friend. After all, most of the good things of the world require work. And work itself can be a joy, in spite of modern reluctance to engage in it. Something for nothing is usually something worth nothing.

I did not try to answer the boy's problem about making himself love God. I think that it will be automatically answered if he accepts the truth about happiness.

I have never met a really happy man who did not love God and the world God created. I have known men who did not believe in God, but such men always seemed to me to be disturbed and unhappy. Often because they were busy trying to take God's place and run the world their way.

Pretty unsatisfactory answers for the young man, I admit. But he will wait a long time if he expects anyone to hand him faith and happiness on a silver platter. Those are precious gifts each must seek for himself.

SEVENTY ATTEND FAMILY GATHERING

On August 21st, 1955, seventy members of the Isley family met at the Vermilion Lake to celebrate the 80th birthday of Mrs. John A. Isley. All sat down to a bountiful dinner which was topped off with a three-tiered birthday cake decorated with candles. The youngest member attending was two weeks old Deborah Waltze, a great grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Isley Sr. have 12 sons and daughters and all were present on this occasion except the youngest son Everett of Calgary who was unable to attend.

"Grandma" received many lovely gifts at this happy gathering.

Mrs. M. A. Fallow and two children Billy and Joanne returned to Edmonton Tuesday after visiting for a week at the home of the former's mother Mrs. L. L. Kehoe.

Gerry Smeltzer and Roland Teape who now live in Edmonton, were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Cecil King and Keith. While in Vermilion they visited their friend Richard Brennan.

Mrs. Addie Mead spent two weeks visiting her brother P. E. Beach at Langley Prairie B.C., and with friends in Vancouver.

Mrs. Clara Adams, who has spent the summer visiting her sisters, Mrs. Thos. Bothwell at Islay and Mrs. J. W. Muir in Vermilion, left on Monday on the return trip to her home at Durham, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hareuther and family returned home last week end after holidaying at Vernon, B.C., where they visited Mrs. Hareuther's parents. The trip was made by train.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bell were in town from Saturday to Monday to take daughter Brenda back to Calgary. Brenda has spent the summer visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ansley Bell on the farm. Bob and Muriel enjoyed a motor trip to the Coast this summer where quite a number of former Vermilion people were visited.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller and son Miles spent a week at Coeur D'Alene, Radium Hot Springs, Banff and other scenic spots, returning home last week end.

BORN — To Mr. and Mrs. Marvin A. Willimer (nee Audrey Watts) at the Elk Point hospital on Saturday, Aug. 13th, a son, Dana Kirk.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Butler had as their guests their daughter May and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Naduriak and two children from Victoria for the week end. They made the trip by car coming the all-Canadian route, arriving on Friday night. They left on Monday to stop over at Saskatoon to pay a visit to Mr. and Mrs. McInnis. Mr. Butler accompanied them as far as Saskatoon.

From Saskatoon they went on to Yorkton to see Mr. Naduriak's mother and brother. From there they planned to return directly to Vancouver and home to Victoria. It seemed too bad that so much time was spent on the road, as it seems it's only 'hello' and 'goodbye' and they're gone.

Pictures were taken Sunday evening at Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butler's where all enjoyed a lovely chicken supper with all the trimmings.

W. E. Mackenzie of Edmonton spent Tuesday renewing acquaintances in Vermilion. Accompanying him to town were his grandson Aubrey and wife of Vancouver. Aubrey is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mackenzie and came to Vermilion especially to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Larsen. Bill will go back to Vancouver and spend a month or so visiting Alex and members of his family there.

Mr. Frank Wasylishen of Toronto and his sister Mrs. Olga Heinemann of Geraldtown, Ontario, flew from the east recently to visit their father Mr. Wasylishen who is a patient in the Lamont hospital. Mr. Wasylishen is a former resident of the Clandonald district.

Producer Marketing

"Saskatchewan now has turned down the producer livestock board suggested by the Saskatchewan Farmers Union, notes The Financial Post. "Manitoba seems about to reject a similar plan.

"Now the more moderate western farm groups will have the chance to revert to the original aim of producer marketing. The stabilization of prices. And the provincial governments will have the chance to do something they should have done years ago. Ask producers to make a case that present marketing techniques are deficient in some way and show why they need marketing boards composed of producers."

Bright Neck Bands For Ducks To Identify Birds In Flight

TO IDENTIFY BIRDS IN FLIGHT

Some Western ducks will be wearing bright neck bands this fall. The new banding technique has been introduced by the Canadian Wildlife Service to identify ducks in flight.

The neck bands are of flexible coloured plastic, some bearing symbols in contrasting colours. The colours and symbols will enable biologists to relate groups of ducks to particular areas of the West and plot their day-by-day movements from the time they learn to fly until they leave for the south. Such information may help solve the problem of crop damage by ducks.

Hunters and farmers [illegible] banded ducks can co-operate in the research by writing the Chief of the Wildlife Service at Ottawa with the date and locating of the [illegible] as well as a good description of the colors on the neck band. No stamp is required on the letter and the Wildlife Service will reply with information on where and when the ducks were banded.

PREPARING YOUR CHILD FOR SCHOOL

IS HE READY FOR SCHOOL?

Your child is facing an exciting adventure — his first days at school. He has heard a lot about this strange new world and he's looking forward to it with eagerness, curiosity and a mixture of many [illegible] emotions. To leave the [illegible] section of his home for the uncertainties of a new kind of life is a tremendously big event. For some time now, he has perhaps been feeling [illegible] of things as he watched other children going off happily to that mysterious somewhere where [illegible] learns to read and write like grown ups. He very likely has listened, wide-eyed, to tales of what you can or can't do in this place called school. Yet, above any shivers of doubt or anxiety concerning the unknown, he has probably become quite sure in his own mind that it is a good place because after all, other children, his friends go there. It's natural for your child to want to do what his playmates do just as he wants to like and be liked by them.

But will your child be ready for this adventurous journey into a new life? Naturally the better he is equipped, the more successfully will he fare. There are certain things he needs in order to face his new experience with confidence and a good chance of getting along throughout his school career.

GOOD HEALTH IS IMPORTANT

Your child should start his school life in good, sound health. During his first year at school he will be examined by the Medical Officer. His teeth should be checked by a dentist, and any defects found should be looked after before he goes to school.

It's likely that your child has already been immunized against certain of the childhood diseases such as diphteria, whooping cough and smallpox. If not, have it done immediately either by your doctor or at the nearest public health clinic. If all immunizations have been previously, make sure your child gets the necessary booster dose.

Insist on him getting regular and sufficient hours of sleep to help him enjoy school. He needs from ten to twelve hours of sleep in a quiet, darkened room with an open window, to build up his energy and offset tiredness.

LOOKING AFTER HIMSELF

Good appearance will go a long way in helping your child get along well with his schoolmates. He should know how to wash his face and hands, comb his hair, carry and use a handkerchief or tissue, not only for blowing his nose but to cover a cough or sneeze. His clothing should be simple and practical and at the same time attractive.

When a child has learned to do things for himself he gains poise and respect. He will be better able to look after his outer garments by himself at school if his clothes are roomy and all fastenings are simple.

If he is used to sharing duties at home he'll have confidence in doing things at school. He should be able to keep his own toys and belongings in order and help with simple household tasks.

Your child's ability to talk so that he can be understood is obviously a basic necessity. It's most unfair to him to send him along to school handicapped in this way. He learns speech habits in his home so let him hear good English; encourage him to say what he means in sentences, not merely in single words or phrases which are understood in the family. It is well to set an example of soft, pleasant voices, avoiding harsh, loud tones. Teach him correct terms and name of things. He should be able to say clearly his whole name, address and telephone number. Baby talk sounds cute at home, perhaps, but he'll be embarrassed, maybe laughed at, if he carries this habit to school with him.

Learning to give and take, to get along with others, is necessary for your child's happiness at school — in fact, throughout his entire life. Encourage his friendliness towards other people. Give him the place and the opportunity to play with other children.

Busiest Business Year

This year promises to be one of the most remarkable, and certainly the busiest in Canadian economic history, says The Financial Post in a survey of the economic outlook.

Current signs definitely indicate 1955 will set new highs in most phases of business activity. The normal summer slowdown will be only slight this year, not enough to flatten out the rising industrial production curve of the fast-moving economy.

The first booming half of 1955 set the pace. For some of Canada's most important basic industries, the second six months look even better than the first.

The steel, pulp and paper, chemicals, rubber industries, and others, have enough orders on hand right now to maintain for three to five months their speed of the first two quarters.

That's a significant indication of what to expect from a broad range of secondary industries which process the output of these primary sources.

The art of brushing his teeth properly is something every youngster should learn as soon as he is old enough to handle a toothbrush. The teeth should be brushed from the gum out to the biting surface, not just across horizontally, which method will not remove food particles from the crevices.

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH by [illegible]

To Address Combined Service Here Sept. 11

—Rev. A. H. O'Neill, M.A., D.D., General Secretary of the British & Foreign Bible Society in Canada.

Dr. O'Neill was appointed General Secretary in 1952 and is the first Canadian to occupy this position. His predecessors have all come from the British Isles.

He is a man of rare distinction who left a key academic post to join the staff of the Bible Society. He was principal of Huron College, Western Ontario, for eleven years. In that time he had raised the college to a position of greater influence that it had known before.

Dr O'Neil has other qualifications which are essential as an executive officer of the Bible Society. Those who have worked with him speak of his initiative, vision, optimism and leadership. Beneath his practical ability and immense energy the springs of his life rise in a deep personal faith, in which the Scriptures hold their central place. He is a scholar but with different parishes, and with wide interests which fit him well for a task such as that of the Bible Society which not only embraces the whole of Canada but is world-wide.

Upon being appointed General Secretary, Dr. O'Neil visited the Bible House in London, England, to observe how the Bible Society administers its vast and vital world-wide task. He also spent some time travelling in Africa to get first hand information of the Society's work in that immense country where the need for Scriptures is so great.

Since then, through further travel, correspondence and study, he has become thoroughly acquainted with work of the Bible Society which is of vital importance to the spiritual and moral welfare of the world. This Society renders a service to the churches without which missionary work would be almost impossible.

Dr. O'Neil always brings an informative and challenging message.

Everyone is invited to hear him to learn more about the British & Foreign Bible Society.

Dr O'Neil will speak in the United church at Vermilion on Sunday Sept. 11th at 11:30 a.m. This service has been arranged through the co-operation of the churches in town and will take the place of services usually held in the churches.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend. 9-10

Hard Water Dulls Hair

Yes, it could be the soap, but its probably the water. Most water is too hard for shampooing, leaves a dull, soapy film. Soft Water saves soap, leaves hair wonderfully soft and lustrous. Cleans scalp thoroughly. Investigate the benefits and economy of Soft Water for bathing, washing, dishwashing, and food preparation. Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Woman's Travel Authority

Compared to the vehicle of forty years ago, today's car is incredibly luxurious. And it is getting more so.

Our grandparents struggled with hand-cranks and colicky engines, and dressed for a pleasure trip as if they were headed into a blizzard. Now we cruise along on cushioned seats, enjoy the scenery from behind shatter-proof glass, have push-button windows, built-in heat, back seat radios, automatic window washers and a two-way telephone. And if you're the type who leaves the car key in the switch, there's a combination lock — you simply dial to open the door.

Even more amazing things are in store for us. Such items as a push-button aerial, air conditioning and even a rear-view dashboard for people in case of collision are becoming available. There'll be a gadget for every two dozen people, and a contraption to enable you to slide into a parking space sideways. And I hear there will be a device to fold whose top and windows automatically go up when it begins to rain, plus heated seats for cold weather.

But for the present, we'll have to get along with the luxury we have — which is nothing to be sneezed at!

Former Business Man Visits Vermilion

An interested visitor, resident in Vermilion from 1917 to 1927, and in various parts of Alberta from the early 1900's, returned to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Watts and their daughter Audrey, who now resides at Derwent. Mrs. Marvin Willmer Mr Kirkpatrick is returning to his home at Sidney, Vancouver Island, after an extensive trip which took him to his old home at Schubenacadie, N. S., and visits to many of the eastern cities, stops being made on the return at Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg, Vermilion Edmonton and Vancouver. He was greatly pleased with the progress made in this area and noted with pleasure the number of trees now covering lots in town. Mr Kirkpatrick was one of the pioneers in this regard, even though Friends told him he was wasting his efforts, the number ill homes impressed him, and the final condition of the town. He served as a member of the town council while here also as a member of the board of stewards in the United church, and the board of trade. Mr. Kirkpatrick started the Northern hardware, taking over from the Jas. Hunt hardware and also was instrumental in setting up the northern at Vegreville. He is still in excellent health, and will turn 81 this fall. He visited a sister and a brother in the east, the first now 85 and the latter 89 years of age. When he left a promise was made to return to the next two years, for another visit

Defeat Calgary To Win Intermediate B Title

Cardinals Provincial Softball Champions

Vermilion Cardinals are the Provincial Intermediate B Ladies Softball champions for the second successive year. They won the 1955 title over the Labor Day week end when they took two straight series games from the Calgary Hillbrooks by scores of 17 to 9 and 10 to 6.

In 1954 they won the title by eliminating the Vegreville entry in the finals.

The Cardinals, coached again by Glen Tuck, defeated Innisfree and Kitscoty on their way to the Northern Alberta championship. They then found themselves pitted against the Hillbrook girls' team from the Stampede City.

VERMILION 17 CALGARY 5

In the opening game Calgary went to bat with no one knowing just what to expect. They were quickly retired with Vermilion hurler Eva Gordey showing rare speed and control. Then the Cardinals went to bat and the sky fell in on the Hillbrooks. Before they could stop the title-bound local girls they had run in seven counters. That broke the tension, gave the Cards a feeling of confidence, and they never looked back. Gordey had nine strike-outs, four in a row, and the whole team was on a real batting spree, while at the same time making few errors.

CALGARIANS WIN EXHIBITION

In the exhibition game played the evening the Calgarians went in front early and vanquished the local girls with little trouble, the score was 16 to 6.

This built up a tremendous interest in the Monday games and brought out a very large crowd of supporters.

WIN IN TWO STRAIGHT

It was quite apparent that the Hillbrurts had gained new encouragement from their exhibition win, and in the opening inning of the Monday afternoon game scored two runs. Cardinals evened it up in the second and went one up in the third when Jean Kibblewhite smacked a homer through right field, 3 runs to 2. Both teams were blanked in the 4th and then the visitors again went out in front with a three run rally in the top half of the 5th, making it 5-3.

GRAND SLAM HOMER

The turning point in the game came in the lower half of the 6th when the Cards loaded the bases, then Edith Brown drove a mighty grand slam homer over centre field and Vermilion jumped into a 7-5 lead. The locals added three more in a clincher in the 7th while the best the vanquished Calgarians could do was one lone run in the ninth.

Pitcher Eva Gordey was again in top form, and was a lower of strength on the team, with all of the club playing heads-up ball, well coached by Glen Tuck.

For the visiting Calgarians Sla Strong, catcher, and shortstop Darlene Carrie were stand-outs.

Umpiring the series were provincial officials Bert Barlow and Pat Ford.

Following the game Umpire Bert Barlow presented the trophy, emblematic of the Intermediate B championship of Alberta to the Vermilion girls' team captain, Dorothy Schmidt.

SECOND EXHIBITION

Although the championship was decided the teams played a fourth game, and once again, the Hillbrurts took the contest. The game ended 10-9. Vermilion overcame a 9-3 deficit to tie it up in the top half of the 9th, only to see the Calgary girls score the winning run in their half.

THE CHAMPIONS

Members of the winning team are: Jean Kibblewhite, Eva Gordey, Edna Wilmer, Edith Brown, Norma Cundal, Doris Schmidt, Joan Kowalchuk, Marie Fetrey, Carol Barr, Anne Stewart, Joan Shepherd, Doreen McDougall.

Tigers Lead In League Play-Off

WIN AT ST. PAUL 8-5

Vermilion Tigers took a one game lead in the Eastern Alberta Baseball league finals on Sunday when they handed St Paul Bears an 8-5 setback right in their own ball park. The series for the league championship is best two of three games.

Next game will be played at Vermilion at 2 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 11. Vermilion worked up an 8-0 lead by running in two in the 2nd, three in the 3rd, and three in the 4th and were held scoreless in the last five frames. They held St. Paul scoreless for the first six innings, but the Bears capitalized on two errors and run in five runners in the 7th. The uprising was nipped in time however and the 8th and 9th were runless.

Ray Jones and Bob Holowaty pitched a fine game for Vermilion with Bob Dunbar catching.

For St. Paul it was Amyotte to B. Joly. Incidentally, there are five Joly boys on the St. Paul team.

This rare photograph of one of the few wild Whooping Cranes left in the world was taken by P. W. Lahrman as the cranes moved southward through Saskatchewan en route to the Texas coast. The "Whooper" has a wingspread of six feet and stands four feet tall. Because it is sometimes mistaken for other white birds, hunters are being asked not to shoot at ANY large white bird.

Edmonton Boxing Promoter Visits Here

Jack Berry, well known Edmonton boxing promoter, was a welcome visitor to the Standard office last Thursday. He recalled a very pleasant time in town last spring when he was a guest at the hockey club's sportsmen's banquet. Jack was interested in hockey plans for the approaching winter, especially who would replace Elmer Kreiler as coach of the local club. He would like to see a boxing club active in Vermilion, and says that it is a very worthwhile project for some service club.

Swimming Lessons Are Successfully Concluded

Swimming lessons, under the instruction of Mr. Glen Tuck and Miss Marjorie Waldenberger, have been concluded. The lessons, which took place at the Vermilion Lake south of Vermilion, were begun July 7. There were 175 swimmers registered, and it was agreed that each would take part in group lessons twice a week. The swimmers were classified as Tadpoles, Juniors, Intermediates and seniors. Following these plans each swimmer was eligible to receive a total of 16 lessons.

On Aug. 25, Mr. A. Gellinet, a Red Cross swimming instructor from Edmonton, was in Vermilion to examine the swimming abilities of the juniors, intermediates and seniors.

On the basis of these examinations it was found that two seniors, Loraine LeRoadgind and Bob Aiderman had earned their Senior crests and Senior buttons. One intermediate, Edna Mann received an Intermediate crest and button. Twelve Juniors and 64 beginners are entitled to buttons. The beginners were examined by two local swimming instructors, Miss Waldenberger and Miss Tuck. Their examinations are in order, not only to the successful swimmers but to their instructors. Also to these citizens whose co-operative efforts have made such a worthwhile project possible here in Vermilion.

The beginners who are entitled to receive buttons are asked to contact Marjorie Waldenberger immediately and details appear in next week's Standard.

When the Rotary Club members calls at your home to secure names and birth dates of all members of your family, you will have an opportunity to be listed on the valuable calendar. Anyone from out of town or not at home may have their birthdays listed by contacting [illegible] T. B. MacPherson, J. Miller, H. R. Mitchell or any member of the Vermilion Rotary club. 9-10c

763 Pupils in Twenty-eight Rooms

School Population Shows Steady Increase

Schools all opened on schedule in Vermilion on Tuesday with an enrollment showing the usual steady increase over opening day of a year ago. 763 pupils and students registered in the four schools as compared to 726 on opening day last year.

Only one room was added this fall. It was intended to increase the high school staff to seven but a teacher for the subjects desired could not be secured.

Indications are that registration is not yet complete and eleven more have signified their intentions of starting school. Five of these are presently quarantined.

Fine Progress On Installation Of Artificial Ice Plant

The dreams of curlers in general, and the hard working executive of the Vermilion Curling Club in particular, are coming true. Artificial ice come November 1st will be a reality.

During the past several weeks Caron & Calvert, contractors, have completed an addition on the south end of the rink to house the actual ice making unit. The size of the addition is 26 feet long with one end 16 feet wide, tapering to 8 feet on the other end owing to the contour of the street.

Sleepers for the pipes on the ice surfaces are being constructed this week. The electrical work is well in hand and the bulk of the equipment will have arrived by the middle of September. The actual laying of the pipes starting in October. Then the final touch — curling on November 1st

The sale of shares has gone very well, with a total of 2000 shares at $100.00 per share; there are only some 30 odd shares still to go. Remember, men, no shave, no curl and with five months of unbroken curling ahead, who could stand that?

Large Gathering Of Anglican Laymen Hears Bishop Luxton, Bishop Marsh

An overflow audience of Anglican laymen of the Vermilion-Wainwright Deanery heard an inspiring address on what could be accomplished by Parish Men's Club organizations, delivered by Rt. Rev. Dr. G. N. Luxton, Bishop of Huron, London, Ont. He has been prominent in promoting Layman Associations and built his theme around the question "And revive Thy work Church beginning with me".

He briefly described how the revival of the church life of the men of the Anglican church, but told of the remarkable progress made during the past five years in his own diocese of Huron in Ontario. This work has been undertaken and accomplished by the men themselves. At the beginning he had asked for a band of men comparable in size, in devotion and in industry to the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican church. He told of the aims and ideals of the men's associations, and how they had gone about accomplishing their objectives.

Hearing Bishop Luxton one could not help but be inspired with the possibilities open to the men of the church.

Bishop Luxton delivered his talk to a very large audience of men gathered at St Saviour's Parish hall last Saturday evening. A dinner was served by the Anglican W. A. to the capacity crowd of 125. The event was arranged by the Vermilion-Wainwright Deanery Layman's Association of which Mr. Jas. R. Robson is president.

An unexpected but very welcome talk was given by Bishop Marsh of whose diocese is the largest in the world, the Arctic. His Lordship drew a breathtaking picture of the great northland and told how the work of the church is carried on among the Eskimos and Indians in that vast expanse. His diocese measures roughly 2000 by 1500 miles. He brought the glad tidings that the Church was on the march in the Arctic where 85 per cent of the natives are Anglican and where much of the missionary work is done by native laymen.

W.M.S. Rally at Islay

Mrs. Clarence Burr, president of the United church W.M.S. along with several other members, attended the W.M.S. rally held at Islay September 1st. The president of the Islay W. M. S. Miss Hurlet Jones, presided, and a cordial address of welcome was extended by Miss. Mc Lennan. Miss Jones then conducted an inspiring worship service which was very much enjoyed.

Vocal selections, a solo "Bless this House" by Mrs Jean Axley, and a duet "Beyond the Sunset" by Mrs. David Martin and Mrs. Inman were beautifully rendered and very much appreciated.

The speaker for the program was Miss Eva Wilson, a returned missionary and a former Vermilion girl. She gave a very interesting illustrated talk on her work among the Africans in Spanish Guinea situated on the West coast of Africa. A lunch served by the Islay ladies in their usual hospitable manner, and a social hour brought the meeting to a close.

We're Going To Grow

Canada's population will jump to between 23 and 25 million by 1975, an increase of roughly 60%.

That's the main conclusion of population study figures issued by Canadian Economic Research Associates, Toronto, and reported in The Financial Post.

Forecast sub-totals indicate that the men-women ratio will remain about the same as will the totals for the 0-19, 20-64 and over the 65 age groups. The study is [illegible] to provide background for those drafting submissions to the Royal Commission on Economic Prospects.

The predicted figures point up the fact that several major problems lie ahead for Canadian economic development. At the same time they show that if the problems are solved, the country's 'depression babies' can expect to cash in on better job opportunities, a higher living standard, bigger families and [illegible].

Canadian Pools Approve Wheat Sales To Poland

Sales of western wheat by the Canadian Wheat Board to Poland have been approved by the directors of the three Canadian Wheat Pools.

The Boards of Directors of Alberta Wheat Pool, Saskatchewan Wheat Pool and Manitoba Pool Elevators assembled in an Inter-provincial Pool meeting in Winnipeg considered reported sales of substantial quantities of Canadian wheat to Poland, and possibilities of further sales in the future if concentration on industrialization changes Poland from an exporter to an importer of wheat.

The united directors of the three Pools representing 200,000 Western grain growers have advised Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Trade and Commerce that they fully approve the action taken by the Government to effect financial arrangements; and by the Canadian Wheat Board in making such sales.

F. U. A. Protests Increase In Freight Rates On Grain

Henry Young, President of the F.U.A. has given out this statement.

In a strongly worded telegram sent to both the Minister of Transport and the Board of Transport Commissioners we have protested the action of the Board in granting the railways the 10% increase in domestic grain rates. We are particularly concerned with the Board's extraordinary action in granting this increase before holding hearings to ascertain whether or not the increase is justified.

This action in violation of the principle that railways should prove the right to an increase before it is granted will make a farce of hearings to be held later.

We shall fight this matter further and it is our hope that public [illegible] will force the Board to [illegible] its decision.

Farm groups and others interested should send protests to the Board of Transport, Ottawa, and to the Minister of Transport.

4-H Club News

One of the foremost attractions at any Agricultural fair is of course the showing, judging and sale of the 4-H Club calves.

At the Vermilion fair this year seventy 4-H Club calves were shown [illegible]. Entries were made by the Vermilion, Mannville, Tulliby Lake and Derwent Calf clubs.

Generally, the quality of the calves was good with 10 per cent placing in the special class, 31% in choice and 59% classed 'good'. To qualify for the special or choice classes an [illegible] grade either 'Red' or 'Blue'. Thus, it is certainly evident this year that the boys and girls of these clubs produced some fine samples of top quality beef.

In the Vermilion Club, top honors went to Bob Barr, showing a well finished type Shorthorn. An Angus calf, owned and shown by Pat Bentley placed second, and Betty Robinson won third with her Shorthorn.

In the Inter Club competition, the grand champion calf, a Hereford, was shown by Robert Nelson, a member of the Tulliby Lake Calf club. This was the first year for both the club and Robert. Congratulations! The reserve champion of the calf show, a Shorthorn, was shown by Bob Barr. Bob, of course is a member of the Vermilion 4-H Calf club.

Mr J. Morison from Innisfail is to be commended on the excellent job done in placing the calves.

The sale of 4-H calves commenced at 1:30 p.m. with Mr Chester Gamble from Mannville as the auctioneer. The sale went off quickly and smoothly with average prices holding at a fair margin above the market price. The grand champion of the show was purchased by the T. Eaton Co. Gladioli Bank Altar For Duncan-Werezuk Wedding At United Church

Eristine Elizabeth Werezuk, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Werezuk of Vegreville, became the bride of Mr. William Herbert Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan of Vermilion.

Rev. C. W. MacKay solemnized the double-ring ceremony before a background of beautifully arranged baskets of pastel gladioli. Guest pews were marked with nosegays of sweetpeas and ribbon.

Entering the church at her father's side the bride wore a floor-length princess gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle which was caught with pearls and poised over a full hoop. The strapless bodice was edged with tulle shirring. The gown was enhanced by a lace bolero with long lily-pointed sleeves. Her finger-tip net veil with appliqued roses was arranged from a shell-scalloped coronet. The bride's only jewelry was a single strand of pearls and matching earrings, the gift of the groom. She carried a cascade spray bouquet of red sweetheart roses.

Miss Jean Duncan, sister of the groom, was maiden of honor, while the bride's sister, Miss Saydie Werezuk, was bridesmaid. They wore identical cocktail gowns of pink and blue respectively. Their strapless bodices, edged with tulle shirring, were styled like the bride's, and they wore matching braided bandeaux studded with pearls, in their hair and identical eggshell shoes.

The groom was attended by Mr. Peter Werezuk, a brother of the bride, and Mr Stewart Duncan, a brother of the groom.

Guests were ushered by Mr Paul Werezuk and Mr. George Barlow.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. A. M. West and the soloist, Miss Betty Gray, sang "Because", during the signing of the register.

Receiving the guests, the bride's mother chose a beau blue dress and wore pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. The groom's mother, Mrs. Duncan, wore a powder blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

A reception for 150 guests was catered to by the Royal Purple ladies of Vermilion in the Legion hall. Mr. Bill Arthur was Master of Ceremonies and Mrs. Rose Harle had charge of the guest book.

Mr. Roy Findlay proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom fittingly responded. Following telegrams from Mr. and Mrs. George Fedoruk, Mr and Mrs. Orest Fedoruk, Mr. and Mrs. Med Desrosiers and Mr. and Mrs. William Calder all of Edmonton and Miss Margaret Duncan from Yellowknife were read.

Following the wedding reception an enjoyable time was spent dancing to the music of Joe Dubuc's orchestra.

For travelling, the bride changed to a bluish-tan suit with which she wore matching copper shoes and bag. Accessories consisted of straw-yellow hat and gloves and yellow Talisman roses en corsage.

On their return from a honeymoon trip in the Rockies, Mr. and Mrs. William Duncan will reside in Vermilion.

Men, materials... and money

When a business needs an order or a contract, it is likely to go to a chartered bank to arrange some of the financing. It may need bank credit to meet payrolls, to buy materials or to cover other costs that arise before it is paid.

That's why businesses both large and small can take on many jobs they would be unable to handle if they had to depend entirely on their own financial resources . . . And why, every day and in every part of Canada, the chartered banks are lending money to producers, manufacturers, processors and other commercial customers.

Commercial loans are only one of many banking services available at a branch of a chartered bank. You will find it is a convenient banking service-centre where you can consult on all your banking needs.

Health Unit Notes

IS YOUR CHILD READY FOR SCHOOL?

HOW'S HIS MENTAL OUTLOOK?

Your child should be well equipped with sound mental and emotional health. He'll have this in good measure if he has felt secure in your affection, learned to take his place in the family group, shared in small responsibilities, learned to do some things on his own, and has had a chance for play with playmates his own age.

If he has a healthy attitude towards authority he'll fit more easily into the school life with its many regulations. If he hasn't learned as yet obedience and the necessity to co-operate in routine, you'll not be helping him by being overly-protective and 'taking his side' against the school. If you sincerely think that there is something wrong with the school rules, then talk them over frankly and openly with the proper school authorities.

When your child starts school, he hesitates, naturally, about leaving the familiarity of home. Yet, at the same time, he wants to push aside babyish habits of being dependent on you. He wants to be on his own, like his fellow pupils. The exciting time he has in feeling self-important and independent, may, for a time, make him guard his new experiences as quite secret; something very private and precious to him. He may resent your questioning and curiosity and try to keep his new life apart from you. This is a phase that soon passes in a happy blending of school and home influences.

Before long, if not immediately, your child will want to share with you his school experiences and his achievements. He proudly brings his 'work' to show you about his songs and games. Meet his pride with yours — praise his efforts with the same enthusiasm he shows for them and go easy on the criticism. He'll move further and faster with praise than with criticism.

HE'S LEARNING IN HIS SCHOOLING

Your child is a very special person whom you've watched and tried to understand and help from his earliest infancy. For this reason you have valuable suggestions that you can share with his teacher. If you work closely together (rather than apart, or even against) then the home and the school can assure your child the attention and consideration he needs. With more opportunities to meet new experiences and to accept responsibilities, he'll have a better chance of benefiting a happy useful grown-up.

Even though the school will now occupy the greater part of his day, you still have the leading role to play in helping to develop your child's character. His future will depend more than anything else on your maintaining that warm loving relationship which began in his babyhood and which should continue throughout the growing years. Supporting and encouraging him in all his outside activities will provide him with that feeling of security so essential to his success in school.

REMINDER TO PARENTS

Make sure he gets his reinforcing injection against diphteria and whooping cough at your local clinic.

Islay, Alberta

The Editor,
The Standard, Vermilion.

Dear Sir:

I hope that you will be able to find space in your paper regarding this subject. I have felt like writing about the condition of the old highway running from Vermilion to Islay, for a long time now. Condition of it is a disgrace and it was a regular highway when taken over by this M.D.

To make matters worse, all the lovely trees along the sides of the road have been sprayed. In many places they have been planting trees to beautify our roadsides. Now our tax money is spent to destroy them. I personally believe that it is the low thistle horseheat that needs spraying and destroying.

About three years ago the council was paying men $10 per day as weed inspectors and ordering farmers to plow under their crops if any thistles were seen. Now the power mower is out cutting the grass along the road, leaving the low thistle to blow everywhere.

Reading the minutes of the last Vermilion River council meeting it is noticed that $1000 was contributed towards a bend shelf. How many ratepayers that travel the old highway are in favor of this spending. We feel that it would be a much better project to buy some of the piled up gravel at the bridge and fix up our road with the said money.

If the councillors had to travel this road to reach town perhaps it would be improved. The grader does go over the road at times, leaving large stones and sods turned up so that one can hardly get through in places.

Thanking you Mr. Editor, for your valuable space.

Yours truly,
Farmer's Wife.

CLANDONALD THEATRE

NEW CHURCH AT FROG LAKE IS CONSECRATED SUNDAY

Archbishop Barfoot, Primate of all Canada for the Anglican church, conducted the consecration service of the newly built church on the Frog Lake Indian Reservation last Sunday.

The service was very impressive with the Archbishop in his robes of office and a large crowd of Indians and visitors from a wide area assembled for the occasion.

The church was built this summer by the Indians themselves under the direction of Reg. Lagg of Mannville. It stands on a mound looking down on the Indian school on one side and the Anglican rectory on the other side.

Rev. Ray Clennett is the minister in charge. Mr. Clennett is well known in this area, having been Anglican incumbent for Mannville and Clandonald parishes. He has accepted the position of missioner to the Indians on the reserve. Over 70 per cent. of the Indians at Frog Lake are Anglicans.

Before his elevation as Archbishop of Rupert's Land, Dr. Barfoot was bishop of the Edmonton Diocese. The Archbishop had visited the Indians at Frog Lake many times during the past fourteen years, so it was very appropriate that he should consecrate the new church.

A very colourful figure at the ceremony was Canon Abenhaver, a full blooded Indian from the Onion Lake reserve. Dr. Abenhaver attended the University of Alberta and took Holy Orders in the Anglican church more than thirty years ago. At present he is stationed on a reserve in Northern Saskatchewan.

The service of consecration was combined with Holy Communion, when Indians and visitors alike knelt at the altar rail to partake of communion from the hands of their Archbishop.

Following the church service a reception was held in the school and in the home of Mr. Hirst, the resident teacher. Lunch was served to all. The chief of the Frog Lake tribe spoke to the people in Cree, which was later interpreted by Rev. Mr. Cuthand, Anglican minister of Paignton, Saskatchewan.

Veteran of First War Wins Bingo Car

Sometimes a car won at bingo seems to do more good than at other times and such was the case in Vermilion last Saturday evening when H. Colwell, not so young, and badly wounded in the first world war, won the grand prize of a Studebaker car.

Mr Colwell lives at Andrew. He had caught a ride to Vermilion with four friends and had only $5 in his pocket. He spent $2 of this at the bingo - and it paid off — he won the car. "I'm going to keep that car", he said. "I'm really going to enjoy it. I can pick up an extra dollar or two doing odd jobs and this will go for gasoline I used to own and enjoy a car but I haven't had one for years now".

Mr. Colwell was wounded in the war and has a silver plate in his head.

It is amazing how widely the Vermilion bingos attract. One can be gleaned from the following list of prize winners:

Game No. 1, John McCuaig, Two Hills; 2, Margo Chivers Vermilion; 3, Mrs. Wm Bartling Elk Point; 4 Mrs. Olaf Barstad, Heinsberg; 5 Joe Mokrey, Innisfree; 6 Harold Craig, Wainwright; 7, Walter Barba, Two Hills; 8, John Matters, Vermilion; 9, Sam McGriffin, Marwayne, 10, H Colwell, Andrew; 11, Mrs G Ross, Lloydminster, 12, Mrs Jack Schoonmaker, Battleford

NEXT BINGO SATURDAY, SEPT. 17th IN ARENA

The next bingo will be held in the arena rink on Saturday, Sept 17th Grand prize 1955 Meteor two door. Note the change of place, the ARENA (skating rink) NOT the curling rink

W.A GROUP MEETINGS

The W.A. groups of the United Church will meet Tuesday Sept. 13 at the following homes: Mrs. Seafert's group at Mrs. Wes Walden. Mrs. Winter's group at Mrs. B. Ackerman's; Mrs. Downey's group at the church hall. 10

OWES PROGRESS TO HER PEOPLE!!

As we look about us on the, the 50th Anniversary of the birth of our Province is readily apparent in a scant half century, the population has leaped from a mere 116 000 to 1 024 000

Many of Albertans are Canadian born and bred—but many have come from distant lands to build a bright future in this country of promise and opportunity. The skills and knowledge they have brought with them have proved an invaluable contribution to the progress of Alberta

Today we stand on the threshold of a new era. Looking back, we pause to salute those early pioneers who braved so many obstacles to establish the Province. Looking ahead, we see a happy, peaceful people achieving the goal of ever greater progress and prosperity than we enjoy at this time

This year Alberta is celebrating her Golden Jubilee, and her people are coming together to affirm their great faith in the Golden Province of the West

Only Catching Up?

If as seems likely, Canadians build a record of 120,000 new homes this year home building may for the first time since the end of the war equal the rate of net family formation in Canada, says The Financial Post. In other words we may begin to be able to keep up with the rate of new demand for houses and make some inroads on the need for replacement of substandard homes.

This is the point toward which Canadians have been working ever since the first post-war planner set pen to paper.

This may be the year when those temporary wartime shelters can be sent back to the category in which they now belong.

Jim Bussard Starry Pitcher

Jimmy Bussard, 16-year-old son of Mr and Mrs. Lawrence Bussard of Lethbridge and formerly of Vermilion, is the ace hurler of the juvenile Lethbridge Minor All Stars baseball team. This team lost out in the finals for the provincial championship over the week end to the Edmonton Canadians, 3 games to 1.

Jim pitched the game won by Lethbridge and to quote the Edmonton Journal, "In the third game of the series, a crisp five hitter by Jim Bussard, who struck out 16 batters, kept Lethbridge in the running."

Sisters Meet Here After 21 Years

Mr and Mrs. Iver Larsen had as their guest Mrs. Ida Bowman, of Fullerton, California, during July. Mrs. Larsen and Mrs. Bowman are sisters, and met here for the first time in 21 years. Mrs. Bowman was also visiting with other members of her family living south of town.

Mrs. Larsen made the return trip to California with her sister. She stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bowman in Fullerton, and then visited Mr and Mrs. R. A. Bowman in Placentia, with Mr. and Mrs. L. Barrete and Mr. and Mrs. F. Webster of Los Angeles. The two sisters made the trip south by plane via Las Vegas, and Mrs. Larsen came home also by plane, by way of Vancouver, Calgary and Edmonton. She was away about three weeks.

First Visit In 32 Years

Mr and Mrs. Orville Anderson, from Pontiac, Michigan, were visitors in Vermilion on Tuesday and Wednesday, during which time Orville renewed many old acquaintances and went north to see the old family farm in the Queenie Creek district. Orville is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Donald Anderson. He left here in a Model T Ford in company with Stanley Gidley, shoemaker, away back on June 27, 1923 and this occasion has been his very first return. It will be remembered that a younger brother, Bill Anderson of Houston, Texas, visited in Vermilion a year ago. Orville and his wife were going on to Jasper to spend some time with brother Earl Anderson and family.

Orville helps to build Pontiac car bodies at Pontiac, and shows faith in his work by driving one of his own products. His brother John also works in the Pontiac factory.

LOCALS

Miss Lillian Harwether, in company with Dr. and Mrs. R. MacKenzie, their son, and Gale Ferguson, all of Vegreville, took an extended motor trip through the Central States. They visited with Mrs. MacKenzie's relatives in Davenport, Iowa, and returned through Wyoming, spending some time in Yellowstone National Park.

Rev and Mrs. C. W. MacKay and their three sons were away for a month from mid-July to mid-August. They visited with Mrs. MacKay's parents, Mr and Mrs. J. C. Scott in Calgary. They left their youngest boy Donnie, with the Scotts and travelled on to Vancouver where they stayed for almost four weeks. While in Vancouver Rev. MacKay preached at the services held in Ryerson United church.

Mr and Mrs. John Knight, daughter Patricia and son John, have moved to Edmonton where Mr Knight has entered the civil service.

Mr Chalmers suffered a bad fracture of the skull, broken collar bone, multiple bruises and lacerations. The accident occurred just in front of his house at 118 avenue and 89th street. George had left his home, crossed the street to mail a letter, and was on his return and just six feet from the curb when the car hit him. At last reports he was improving steadily. A son, Keith Chalmers resides in Vermilion.

Mrs. Phoebe Sweet, mother of Mrs. Keith Chalmers, was seriously injured in a car crash north of Lloydminster on Sunday, Aug. 28. Her condition is grave. She is a patient in the Lloydminster hospital. Her daughter Belle suffered injuries in the same accident, sustaining a broken right leg.

The three children of Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers who were visiting their grandmother, were in the car at the time of the accident, but fortunately escaped with minor bumps and bruises.

The car was being driven by a son, Mr. George Sweet, and ran off the road at a corner, into the ditch and crashed against a high bank. The vehicle was demolished. The accident occurred in the Alcurve district, 16 miles north and 1 mile west of Lloydminster.

AUGUST WITH THE W.I.

PRINCESS ANNE

This meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. Parchewsky, Clandonald, on Aug. 2 with an attendance of 9 members. Plans were made for a shower in honor of Mrs. G. Cruthers of Wildmere, the former Miss Lily Maggs of Campbell Lake and Vermilion. The shower to be held at the home of Mrs. Wm. McIntyre.

A crib quilt will be raffled later in the fall. This branch has subscribed to the C.A.C. Bulletin. A new member, Mrs. Casey De Jong, was welcomed to the group.

WILDMERE

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Haine, Aug. 3, with seventeen members and three visitors present.

The roll call was worthy of note: a stump speech by each member on a topic written on a slip of paper and drawn at random.

A crib quilt was donated to the local hospital. This branch donated $50 toward the purchase of two schools, to be used by the community.

Plans were made for the bake sale held on Aug. 13th at Craig's store, Vermilion.

The plans for a bench in the park have been carried out, built entirely by themselves according to a plan obtained from the V.S.A. It is to be painted in W.I. colors, complete with crest. This busy group balks at nothing, doing all the work in one afternoon.

Mrs. Opal Hughes, their delegate to the Conference, gave her report on same.

WILDMERE BEAVERS

The meeting was held at the home of Miss Doreen Martin, on Aug. 6, with thirteen members and two visitors present.

Mrs. J. Bauman was appointed assistant supervisor.

This group held a dance Aug. 12, and finished their raffle for a lamp.

The report on the Girls' Club convention was given. Betty Smith won the Senior mystery box, and the Junior mystery box was won by Wendy Cruthers.

CLAYSMORE

This meeting was held at Claysmore school on Aug. 10 with eight members and one visitor present.

The group is raffling a blanket and tickets for sale were distributed at the meeting. Part of the proceeds of this raffle will be donated to the Mannville arena building fund.

The Claysmore W.I. cook book is again in circulation. A parcel of warm clothing for Korea is being collected and shipped from this branch by Mrs. O. Willes.

The standing committees were changed. Mrs. O. Willes gave her report on the Conference.

A basket of fruit was sent to Mrs. R. Bauer, a patient in the Vermilion hospital.

RAMSAY

The meeting was held Aug. 10th at the home of Mrs. R. Bang with an attendance of seven members and one visitor.

The meeting heard Mrs. A. Henderson's report on the Conference, and the idea of more frequent meetings between representatives of each group and the constituency convener was regarded as an excellent one.

This is the first group to definitely make plans for aiding the Ceylon village to learn to help itself. (We expect something further on this project for 1955 from our director and president during September).

A donation of $5 has been given Kathleen Thomas toward a trip to the U.N. workshop at Banff.

There were two speakers, Mrs. D. Wagner on the District Conference, and Mrs. Robertson on the Farm Women's week.

A card and gift were sent to a friend in hospital.

SALTEAUX

Meeting held at the home of Mrs. Mac Smith with an attendance of seven members and one visitor.

Mrs. T. Smith gave her report on the District conference.

Some time was spent on making up the program for the coming year.

FIVE POINT

The meeting was held on Aug. 11 at the home of Mrs. D. Clark of Mannville, with an attendance of seven members and three visitors.

The delegate to the Conference gave her report, and an article from an Edmonton paper by Mrs. Nellie McLung on the life of Mrs. Nancy Adams, President of the F.W.I. was read.

This was the birthday meeting of the Five Point W.I. (Congratulations Five Point, which anniversary?).

Sept. 2, 1955.

Dear Members:

Did you notice we nearly all had visitors this month? We loved having them didn't we? So, why not give us their names in your reports? They'd probably like to be mentioned too, and it would make our monthly report more interesting to more people.

And your speakers too, we'd like to know who they were. Remember, Mrs. Balfour at the Conference asked for names so that we really know who takes an active part in the meetings.

I ran across this little article in a magazine the other day and I thought I'd pass it on to you. We are proud to be a part of the A.C.W.W.

OUR SECRET OF SUCCESS

Recently an English journalist wrote this about the six million farm women who make up the Associated Country Women of the World: "One of the reasons for their success is that they never despise small efforts. If a thousand people need help they will start by feeding ten in the hope that, somehow, by some means, they will be able to feed the rest"

I'm looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to visiting you soon but I'm afraid it won't be until the 'smoke clears' a little over these harvest fields and Jack Frost finishes our canning for us.

'Bye for now,
Your Constituency Convener

Vegetables, one of the most important parts of our diet, do not always get the appreciation they deserve. Care in cooking, by using a minimum of water and boiling them for the minimum of time, will help to preserve flavor and mineral and vitamin content.

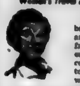
Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority



One of the best ways to tell an inexperienced from an experienced cross-country driver is to watch the way they round a curve.

The inexperienced driver usually brakes the car too late, hangs desperately onto the steering wheel, and careers around the bend with tires squealing. The skilled, veteran motorist, on the other hand, takes the curve gracefully and effortlessly.

The experienced driver heeds these principles:

1.—If he needs to slow down for the curve, he brakes lightly and gradually well ahead of it.

2.—After entering the turn, he applies enough gas to keep his speed constant or even to accelerate gently. Feeding steady power to the wheels helps them grip the pavement, gives better control. This technique enables women to negotiate even sharp curves without 'fighting' the steering wheel.

Rounding a curve skillfully is not only safer, it's a lot easier on the car and is more comfortable for passengers — they don't feel the centrifugal pull so much. Children, in particular, are less likely to be tossed unexpectedly around.

Misses Olive Babbage and Peggy Hale of Edmonton spent the long week end at their homes here.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

The weather has been perfect so far, dry and warm. Harvesting is coming along very well. Some oat rust is prevalent in a lot of the crops.

VACATION SCHOOL CLOSING

On the afternoon of August 21 there was a good attendance at the closing of the Clandonald Vacation school. Around 40 pupils were enrolled. The program was illustrative of the week's work. Also there was a display of the work books and handicraft. Lunch closed a social afternoon much enjoyed by all.

Mr and Mrs. Charlie Hogaboam and family from Red Deer were visitors at the home of their parents at Derwent on the week end of the 21st. They were all guests at the Baldock's. All the families motored to Muriel Lake on Sunday for a picnic and afternoon of fishing.

CHILDHOOD MEMORIES

On August 28 the Omnesses accompanied the Throndson's back to the old homes around Vilna. Between Spedden and Vilna was the homestead of our grandparents, the Veillettes, where the first Veillette homestead was for years. A half mile south was dad's homestead (Lee Nelson) taken in 1908. The old barn stands erect, the house has been torn down and rebuilt, also other buildings. Strangers now live on both of the farms.

In Vilna we called on Mr and Mrs. Jim Bell. In April 1924, Jim passed through Vermilion on a cattle train on his way to Winnipeg to meet his bride. He noticed a cowboy get on at Vermilion and on inquiring about the Nelsons — yes, he knew the family and one of the girls who was being married to a chap he knew very well "and I sure hate to miss that Omness wedding dance." He couldn't remember the name but from recollections it could have been the late Mr Fred Rhoades.

From Vilna to the Bednar home, modern buildings and a spacious yard which would appeal to anyone. A view from the yard, a beautiful lake borders the south, so beneficial to a farm. Mr and Mrs Bednar Jr. find this an ideal place for their holidays, they both teach school at Bellis. This fine level land is selling for over $8000 a quarter. This home is Gus Throndson's old homestead.

South to Hamlin to the McMaster's lovely new home where we were welcomed by old friends, some we hadn't seen for 37 years, and a gorgeous dinner. We are grateful to the McMasters, Kenneth, May and family, Evelena, Joan and Andy for arranging this re-union. Those present were Mrs. Evelena (Zaworski) Wilson, mother of the hostess, her brother Mr and Mrs Martin Zaworski, Roy, Shirley and Carolyn, all from the city; her aunt Pearl Woods from Wayne, Mich., near Detroit and Aunt Maud Parsons and families; grandson David Whitford; Mr. and Mrs. Amos Varey and family Verna, Dalbert and Carmen; Mrs. Noreen Whitford, Joanne, Randy and Marylin; and John Landic who was the hired man on the Zaworski farm for nearly twenty years sometime ago.

Miss Verna Varney is leaving the middle of October for a six months course at Naramata, B.C., at the Christian Leadership Training school. We all wish her the very best in this grand course.

Miss Newton, a missionary leader at Vilna and district, was among the guests. It was very pleasing to learn Mrs. Varney was head cook at Whitney camp for girls for the last two years, assisted by Mrs. Jim Bell. We knew Viola (Varney) as a little girl. Snaps were taken and we reminisced in the afternoon. After lunch we bid adieu to these kind folks. Our trip home was by the Desjarlain ferry crossing. The crops and harvest are much the same as around here.

On Aug 27 Uncle Willie Mayers was taken to the city to the Royal Alex hospital as advised by Dr. Sweet for tests and observation. Aunt Stella went along and stayed with friends and visited Uncle Will.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Armstrong on the birth of a daughter on Sept. 3 in the Vermilion hospital.

Mr and Mrs. Andy Chevalier and family spent the long week end at the latter's home, the Phillips.

On Sept. 4 the Rev. MacKay from Vermilion conducted the service and had communion at the Allandale United church. Our student Mr Rector is giving us another service on Sept 11 at 3 p.m. Note change in time.

Mr and Mrs Tommy Greaves and family Brenda and Brian, holidayed at the Baldock home over the long week end. Sunday guests there were Aunt Mamie and Uncle Wilmer from Derwent, that day being Uncle Wilmer's and little Brenda's birthday. May you both enjoy many more.

Mrs. Theodore Throndson and family from Yellowknife, N.W.T., were holidaying at Oshawa, Ont., with her parents and other relatives. [illegible] Throndson is now at Yellowknife trucking, and staying with his brother Theodore.

Mrs John Arnold had the misfortune to crack a few ribs while helping with harvest. After getting them taped she is relieved from some of the pain and helping again.

To all the bereaved families our deepest sympathy. "In days to come it may be we shall see just why was sent this bitter rest, till then, we can but bow our head in tears, and say 'God knoweth best'."

THE LIGHT TOUCH

I have always admired people with the light touch; they put a thread of quiet good humor into life's loom, even when the general pattern is disturbing. And quite often, with a pixie smile, resolve some deep problems. I have just enjoyed reading an example.

It seems some church officials have urged the Federal Government to take over the [illegible] lock, stock and barrel. In many quarters this provoked dead serious editorial comment, remind us all that prohibition did more harm than good. All very true. But the writer who really exploded the idea completely did it with a light touch.

The editor of Saturday Night suggested, with a smile in every word, that the church officials might get lots of support from guzzlers. He wrote:

"A curious change seems to take place when industries pass from private to public ownership, they need subsidies as well as sales to keep them in business. If the profitable liquor industry were nationalized, there, it would be reasonable to suppose that sooner or later public funds would be required to keep it solvent — funds contributed in the form of taxes by teetotal and prohibitionist [illegible]."

I am sure that even the [illegible] officials will not be able to resist a smile at that. Who knows, it might even convince them that church officials are less likely to look ridiculous when they stick to spiritual matters about which they are experts, and refrain from spirituous subjects about which, presumably, they know little.

It would seem to me that all organizations with an overwhelming desire to Do Good in the world should make a point of inviting at least one rascal with twinkling eyes to every meeting. With a light and merry gust, he would puncture at least some of their more foolish resolutions.

If the limbs and muscles ache and the eyes become tired while driving, the driver should stop his car and get out and walk about for a few minutes. A cup of hot tea or coffee will usually help to banish driving fatigue.

Two of Canada's famous food products, cheese and fish, are eagerly imported by other countries but are not sufficiently popular with Canadians, despite the fact that they are relatively economical in price and very high in food values.

Fire Fighters THROW OUT RED

No—not a Communist, but the fire-engine red that goes with clanging bells, screaming sirens and racing fire trucks.

The Kent Fire Brigade, in England, has gone against tradition and now uses vehicles of aluminum—for three good reasons. No more painting. Less gas — we mean petrol. And better roadability and handling because of the lighter-weight aluminum bodies. We'd guess there's a further premium that the Kent folk enjoy: pride in their fire brigade when it flashes by in its gleaming new dress. Few materials can match aluminum for its fresh and lasting good looks.

Rally Day Service At Dewberry Sept. 25

The September meeting of the Dewberry ladies' aid was held at the home of Mrs. J. Porter. There were twelve members present, and two visitors.

The meeting was opened with a hymn, followed by the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. May Braithwaite read from the Bible. Mrs. Jones read the message for September from "The Upper Room."

Minutes were approved and roll call was taken. The treasurer then gave her report. Catering for a wedding proved a worth while effort, this being the W. A.'s first attempt.

Everyone is sorry to have a very faithful member, Mrs. S. Webedale ill in the Islay hospital. A speedy rcovery is wished her with the hope that she will be at the next meeting with her ready advice and witty remarks.

A "Thank You" letter from CARE was read. Mr. and Mrs. Sneddon sent their best regards. Every happiness is wished them in their new home.

The date of the annual chicken supper and bazaar has been set for Nov. 9th in the Dewberry hall.

Motion for adjournment was made and the President led in the Benediction. Following this the hostess, assisted by her daughter, served a delicious lunch.

The Rally Day service in Dewberry will be held the last Sunday in Setember, the 25th.

Subscribers are urgently asked to check their subscription dates as shown on their Standard labels.

The weather is grand for harvesting. Everybody is busy and some threshing has been done. The women folk are busy cooking, canning.

Mr. and Mrs. Panter were visitors at Gordon Gould's home Sunday.

Mrs. Maire had quite a number of visitors also on Sunday — the big attraction was the baby boy. Yours truly even charmed him off to sleep.

Mr. and Mrs. Fortier and Shirley were summer guests at the Maire home.

So glad to see Mrs. [illegible] about again. Had a nice chat and a cup of tea together early one morning in town.

Mrs. Moore and Edna were visitors at the writer's home on Tuesday. So glad you can drive the car Edna.

Christie Gould and yours truly enjoyed the afternoon at the Moss home on Monday and brought home a lovely lot of rhubarb for canning.

Hope you enjoyed your trip east, Doris and Betty, now back to work again.

Mrs. Potvin and Mrs. [illegible] visited Mrs. Bothwell last week. Lily, we have been looking for you to come over the hills on your [illegible].

"Let's [illegible] over the hills with our hearts with never a gloom, go see all the wild flowers in bloom. There we see the fields of golden grain to listen for a flock of whooping crane. This glorious land of hope and sweet charm. There's no place like home down on the farm."

Mrs. Sherwood is driving the tractor. Look out for them thar gates, lady.

So glad to hear Mr. Bowser is feeling better and home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones returned from their trip to the Rockies and really enjoyed it. They are on another jaunt to Saskatchewan now.

Bill Bothwell enjoyed the long week end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bothwell.

Garfield Potvin left on Saturday for the Peace River country where he has joined the teaching staff. Hope you like the country Garfield.

Bill Gillies and family spent the week end with Christie. Mrs. Gillies returned with them from Edmonton.

Looking out in the half dusk I can see a riot of colors: lily blossoms, gladioli, dahlias, lovely carnations and double petunias in pink and mauve. There are countless others, too.

The harvest said frost tonight which makes me feel sad and blue.

Take Final Series from St. Paul in Straight Games

Vermilion Wins Baseball Title

Vermilion Tigers are again the Champions of the Eastern Alberta Baseball league, for the second season in a row. They took the play-off series from St. Paul two straight, the first game at St. Paul was an 8-6 victory while here on Sunday the Tigers were just too powerful in wielding the hickory and ran up a 15 to 3 victory.

Following the game the [illegible] up on the field and Bill Conroy of St. Paul presented the handsome trophy to team captain Ray Jones of the Vermilion Tigers. This trophy was presented by Conroy Motors of St. Paul and is a very handsome emblem.

The game on Sunday was played under ideal conditions with little wind in evidence and a high temperature, the diamond was first class and there was a goodly crowd of spectators in the ball park.

Ray Jones, the Tigers' mound ace, was in the box and was in rare form being hard to hit throughout the whole nine frames. He received excellent support, the entire team being right on its toes. Bob Dunbar completed the top notch Vermilion battery.

Gordichuk was on the mound for St. Paul and hurled a very good game, going the whole route, but did not receive the bang-up support Jones enjoyed. Every one of the Tigers is a hitting threat and all were having a good day so Gordichuk was faced with a very tough assignment. Kendall was the St. Paul catcher.

Another very successful season of baseball can be written into the records with Vermilion's team improving steadily right through the summer.

Scouts, Guides, Cubs And Brownies All Organize

At a meeting Monday night Sept. 12th the Group committee of the Local Boy Scout Association met with the leaders of the various groups to discuss plans for the coming year. As usual, of course, there is a shortage of leaders so the executive would appreciate the volunteer help of anyone interested and willing enough to donate some time on behalf of this worthwhile organization. Cub leaders for one pack are especially needed. The Brownies also require assistant leaders.

One of the main objectives this year is to raise sufficient funds to build an addition to the Scout hall and so provide washroom facilities for the 170 or so boys and girls who meet there every week. Any donations toward this project would be greatly appreciated.

Scouts, Guides, Cubs, Brownies—please take note of the following dates and times for your first meetings next week—

SCOUTS: Monday, Sept. 19 at 7 p.m.;

GUIDES: Wednesday, Sept. 21 at 7 p.m.;

CUBS, (both packs): Tuesday, Sept. 20th at 4:15 p.m.;

BROWNIES (both groups): Monday, Sept. 19 at 4:15 p.m.

Much credit and praise should be given to the following leaders who have signified their willingness to donate their time and effort in carrying on the work of youth and citizenship training in our community for the coming year: Mrs. F. Stewart, Mrs. R. J. Cosh, Mrs. J. Walsh, Miss A. Marshall, Mrs. F. Bottorff, Mrs. G. Park, Mr. Bill Nankeville and Mr. Monty Hunter.

Rare Whooping Crane Seen Here

A whooping crane was seen standing at the edge of the slough one mile south of town on the cemetery road last Friday by Frank Shongrunder. Frank was returning home from town on his tractor and was within 50 feet of the bird when it took flight and moved slowly off, travelling east. Frank says there was no mistaking the bird with its black wing tips and terrific size, especially so after having seen the photo of this rare bird in the Standard that morning.

The appearance of the bird seen here coincides wiht one seen by two Edmonton hunters close to the city last week end.

Newcomers Are Introduced at Board Of Trade Luncheon

Board of Trade weekly luncheon meetings have re-commenced and are once again proving to be the source by which newcomers to Vermilion can become quickly acquainted with their fellow business men and townsmen.

On Wednesday James A. Smith, member of parliament for the Battle River-Camrose federal constituency was a guest at the meeting and received a very hearty welcome. Mr. Smith was introduced by Ashley Cooper. The new member and family have recently taken up residence in Vermilion.

Paul Godt, who has come from Saskatchewan as manager of the Co-op. store, was introduced by Reg Mitchell. Mr. Godt expressed his appreciation and interest in Board of Trade activities.

A former townsman, Jim Nicholls, now of Vegreville, was a welcome guest at the meeting.

Several reports were given and the way cleared for a very active year.

All business and professional men, employees, farmers and visitors are invited to attend the luncheon meetings every Wednesday, 12:10 noon at the Rio Cafe.

AIR CADET PARADE

The Air Cadets will parade at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Sept. 19th at the Armories.

District Deputy Governor Present At Ceremony

Sam Soldan Installed As President Of Vermilion Kinsmen Club

District Deputy Governor of the Kinsmen was present at the ceremonies here on Monday evening when he installed Sam Soldan as president of the Vermilion Kinsmen Club and a complete slate of officers in their new positions. The other officers are: Joe Hart, vice president; Ron Williams, secretary; Wally Polinsky, registrar; Stan Logan, treasurer. Jim Ferguson and Bill Flechuk, directors.

Retiring President Bob Anderson gave a report of the activities for the year, a year of remarkable progress. A car raffle had been held at the fair with a nice profit: the wading pool project had been completed and proved very popular with the little folk, a fine float was made for the Jubilee Parade, the slogan car plate venture proved a profitable one, while the latest undertaking, advertising vouchers, is being very favorably received and looks like a winner. Midget hockey had been sponsored and organized by the club.

The report of treasurer Bill Parker indicated a greatly improved financial standing, with some $1100.00 on hand. A $500 loan had been paid off and the three accounts all showed increased balances.

Retiring President Bob also made a few suggestions to the incoming executive, advocating more social affairs and inter-club visits: complete the library meeting room project: promote a club at Bonnyville, follow up midget hockey by promoting sponsorship for juvenile hockey.

He also suggested they form Kinette Club. He concluded his remarks by wishing the new president and executive every success in the coming year.

In his remarks, the District Deputy Governor John Koshuta congratulated the club on the general picture of their activities and their strong financial standing. A club with such a record must be a good active club with many energetic members: one or two could not achieve such a record as the projects so successfully carried out meant a lot of good hard work. As he carried out the installation ceremonies the District Deputy outlined to each of the incoming officers his duties for the forthcoming year.

The installation of officers was preceded by an excellent dinner, served at the Brunswick hotel. A guest of the club on this occasion was Mr. Ashley H. Cooper of the Standard.

Following his installation to the chair President Sam Soldan presented Bob Anderson with a past president's pin.

Unusual Attendance Record

It was then revealed that Bob Anderson has in the past three years attained an unusual attendance record. Bob has not missed a meeting for three years, and this entitled him to a three year Perfect Attendance Pin. This was accomplished in the history of the local Kin club by only one other member, Keith Chalmers, so Keith did the honors and pinned the distinguishing mark on Bob's lapel.

Utilities Trophy Is Won By Vermilion

Employees of Canadian Utilities in Vermilion invited four C.U.L. employees from Vegreville to be their guests, and challenged them to 18 holes of golf. The "Reddy Kilowatt" sports supremacy trophy was at stake. This trophy was donated by the Company to promote participation by their employees in inter-staff competitive sports. The holders of the trophy can be challenged at any time by another district, the competition to be played in any seasonal sport.

The Vermilion boys, Ted Edey, Warren Rosequist, Bob Bentley and Larry Pare succeeded in winning from Vegreville, previous holders of the trophy.

The visitors, Al Scholton, Francis Mitchell, Henry Bandura and Gerry Fisher were treated to a dinner before playing the two rounds of golf. All members of the visiting team commented favorably on the scenic, well-kept Vermilion course. It is reported that Vegreville might challenge Vermilion to a return match at the Vegreville course soon.

Six young people of Vermilion and district have been making preparations to start their university courses this fall. Misses Anne Stewart, Barbara Green and Jean Kibblewhite, and Duncan Locke, Stewart Cooper, and Bob Bentley are leaving this week for Edmonton.

FEEDING THE SCHOOL CHILD

The Standard directs the attention of all parents with school-age children to the Health Unit notes on page 2. The ideas there are very practical and will prove of great help to busy mothers. LONG'S DRUG STORE CELEBRATES FIFTIETH YEAR

On September 21, 1955, Long's drug store will commemorate exactly fifty years of service to Vermilion and district. Mr. Fred C. Long and Mr. G. E. Hayward opened a lumber and drug business on the site now occupied by Long's drug, September 21, 1905. The first store was a two-storey building and the hall above was the site of many early town meetings.

Mr. Long, a native of Orone Ont. graduated from the Ontario College of Pharmacy in 1902. He went west to Cranbrook, B.C. in 1903 to manage a drug store there. While in Cranbrook he met Mr. Hayward who was managing a lumber company there.

In April 1905, they decided to form a partnership and investigate the possibilities of starting their own business in northern Alberta where the Canadian Northern Railway was building a railroad from Saskatoon to Edmonton.

On the train from Calgary to Edmonton they met the late 'Jud' Brimacombe. He, in turn, introduced them to Mr. M. G. Brimacombe in Edmonton. At that time Mr. M.G. (Matt) Brimacombe was the postmaster at Breage near the present site of Borradaile. Mr. Brimacombe gave such a glowing report of this part of Alberta that they decided to investigate its possibilities. A covered wagon and a team of oxen were purchased and a stock of drugs and hardware bought. They travelled east to the site of Old Mannville, some three miles west of the present town. Here they opened a store. While one partner managed the store the other travelled with the covered wagon selling supplies to the construction crews then building the railroad. When the site of the divisional point was announced in September 1905 they at once moved to Vermilion where a store was built on the present location, and opened for business Sept. 21st.

The original store carried a stock of lumber and drugs. As this business covered too wide a field the partnership was dissolved in January 1907. Mr. Hayward opened a lumber business and Mr. Long retained the drug store.

Mr. Long was a member of early school boards, town councils and boards of trade.

In 1906 Mr. G. Ed Long arrived in Vermilion and took an active part in the business until 1942 when he retired due to ill health.

Mr. Fred Long served overseas in the first world war and during his absence the business was managed by Mr. Bruce MacDonald and brother Ed Long. The original store was destroyed in the big fire of April 11th 1918 and along with it practically the complete business section of Vermilion.

Mr. Fred Long retired from active participation in the business in 1939, and moved to Edmonton, later moving to Vancouver where he passed away last January. At the time of his retirement the business was taken over by his son Mr. G. Carmen Long who is a graduate in Pharmacy from the University of Alberta.

Death of Al Beecroft

Alvery Beecroft, formerly of Islay passed away in Edmonton on Sept. 2nd at the age of 68 years. Surviving are his wife Sarah, son Bill in Edmonton, and two daughters, Mrs. F. T. Monahan Edmonton and Mrs. Jean Moore Calgary.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday Sept. 6th with interment at Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Two Popular Families Farewelled at Kitscoty

On the evening of August 30th most of the Kitscoty community assembled in the town hall to bid farewell to two well known and highly respected families who are leaving the community, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Steve O'Connor.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have taken up residence in Vermilion and 'Steve' and Edith are heading for Kelowna, B.C.

A great variety of enjoyable games had been arranged by Mr. Alan Batty and Mrs. Ralph Grey in which everyone participated and keenly enjoyed. Before lunch was served Mr. Dale, Mr. Hartmann, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor were called to the stage by Mr. Joe Batty where Mr. Dale as an old friend and mayor of the Village of Kitscoty expressed the sentiments of the Smiths' many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith received the gift of the community and responded with a few sincere and well-chosen remarks in which they expressed their deepest regrets in leaving Kitscoty. Mrs. Smith felt that Kitscoty had provided a good environment for her children and that all her desires for them could have been achieved without leaving her present home. They both extended a hearty invitation for all their friends to visit them in Vermilion.

Mr. Hartmann made a presentation of a purse of money to Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor from their many friends and patrons.

Steve and Edith expressed their regret in severing connections with a community in which they had spent all their married life. In his own words, "the latchstring would always be out" in his new home for his Kitscoty friends.

The evening concluded with the singing of 'Auld Lang Syne' and 'They are Jolly Good Fellows', after which everyone present shook hands and wished Jim and Peggy, Steve and Edith, success and happiness in their new homes.

Mrs. John Law Dies At Vancouver, B.C.

Mrs. Adeline C. Law aged 79 years, widow of the late John Law, passed away in hospital at Vancouver, B.C. on Sept. 4th. She resided in Vermilion for many years prior to moving to the coast.

Funeral service was held on Monday, Sept. 12th and interment took place in the Masonic cemetery.

Problems Of Weekly Newspaper Outlined On CBC Sept. 18th

On Sunday, Sept. 18 the CBC's Canadian Scene presentation will be concerned with the problems faced by the editors of Canada's weekly newspapers.

From the composing room to the rural mail box there are a variety of problems to be faced each week. To give the listener an insight into some of them and to describe the work done on a weekly newspaper, Bill Herbert will visit the Ladner Optimist and publisher Edgar Dunning.

Bill will consider how a weekly newspaper differs from a city daily and how it has come to be called the "Community Watchdog". This program will be heard Sunday, Sept. 18th on CBK Saskatchewan at 3 p.m. MDT and on CBX Alberta and CKUA Edmonton at 2 p.m. MST.

40,000 REFUGEES —

Approximately 40,000 refugees from a mock atomic attack will jam highways out of Calgary during Alberta's largest single civil defence evacuation operation Sept. 21st.

The operation, labelled Exercise Lifesaver, will involve evacuation of a large section of north-east Calgary to emergency centres up to 90 and 100 miles away. Five major highways will be reserved for transportation use of the evacuees from 12 noon to 6 p.m.

The emergency sections will be between Red Deer and Calgary, on No. 2 highway; Trochu and Calgary on No. 21, 9 and new Trans-Canada highway; Drumheller and Calgary on No. 9 and new Trans-Canada highway; Gleichen and Calgary on new and old Trans-Canada highways; and Carbon and junction of No. 9 with No. 26 highway. Some traffic will be given priority by R.C.M.P. during restricted hours.

QUIET ON POLITICAL FRONT —

Things have been quiet on the political front lately, with everyone somewhat weary after the hectic election campaign and the recent special session of the legislature.

The next big item will be the hearings of the five-man Royal Commission appointed to investigate charges of maladministration levelled against the Government during the spring session of the house and the election campaign. The terms of reference made public recently are broad enough to allow the commission to investigate a wide range of government activities. Hearings will begin in Edmonton Sept. 19 under the chairmanship of Mr. Justice Hugh John Macdonald. It is doubtful if any sittings will be held outside of Edmonton.

YOUR FISH and GAME COLUMN

On Tuesday of this week a member of the Fish & Game lost his wallet. In the wallet was his membership card, enabling a very honest citizen to return it to the rightful owner. This is not the first time that a membership card for the F and G has come in handy. Last year a friend of mine from Lloydminster paid a visit to his home in the southern part of the province and while there decided to go across the border for an afternoon. He had no other identification with him other than his driver's license and his membership card. Upon seeing his membership card the officer said, "a sportsman is always welcome pass friend". This year the membership is $2 instead the usual $1. we are finding it very hard to make the association thrive with the 50 cents left, after the parent association receives the Per-Capa tax per member. There are only two associations in Alberta that have left the membership fee at the old cost. If you want better fishing, hunting for the younger population then get behind our membership drive that starts next month and buy your 55-56 membership card now. Don't forget the annual meeting this coming Monday Sept. 19. It is your duty as a member to get to this meeting and vote for the officers of your [illegible].

FEEDING THE SCHOOL CHILD

As many children are now at school for the first time, mothers will be faced with the problem of altering the plan of meals to see them through the day. Each meal must be complete in itself and contain all the things necessary to provide fuel for energy, heat and growth. That is to say a balance of carbohydrates (sugar and starches), fats, proteins (body building foods) minerals and vitamins.

The following suggestions may help in planning meals:

Breakfast

This meal must be more sustaining than the child probably had before, to give him a good start on his way and should always include milk and some form of protein (egg, bacon, meat, fish or cheese), as well as cereal and bread.

Lunch

It will be hardest to plan if your child has to take a packed lunch to school, but the essentials can still be provided even in a cold meal. Whole wheat bread, bran muffins, and oatmeal products are better than white bread and cookies, as they contain minerals and vitamins as well as fuel for energy. Fillings for sandwiches should be varied as much as possible; lettuce, grated onion, celery or carrot can be added to meats; sliced cucumber or tomato juice to fish; parsley or onion to egg; jam, jelly, nuts or lettuce to cheese; peanut butter with honey or fruit.

Raw vegetables such as lettuce, tomatoes, carrots, and radish add variety to the meal, and chopped dates or raisins and nuts are a nice surprise as alternative to a pear, an orange or a banana.

Milk, jelly, junket or pudding can be safely carried in a screw-topped jar and if the school provides a hot water bath for heating food, a jar of thick soup or stew will be an excellent thing. Hot milk, cocoa or chocolate can be put in the thermos.

Try to pack the meal attractively and with care so that one food does not spoil another. Ask your child to bring home what he does not eat so that you will be able to judge his appetite and avoid waste.

Tea or Supper

If your child has been away all day, see that there is a HOT meal ready for him when he gets back in the evening.

Cod Liver Oil

The vitamins in this are essential to the growing child for hard bones, sound teeth, and protection from colds and respiratory infections. In the summer months the body manufactures its own supply but in the winter months, cod liver oil is a must in the child's daily diet.

Progress in School

If your child seems unusually tired after school, lacks energy for play and fails to make the progress of which you think he is capable, look first to his diet as this together with insufficient sleep can so often be the root of the trouble.

CORRECTION

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Sept. 14th, 1939

Canada [illegible]ly entered the war against Nazi Germany Sunday at 1.10 p.m. when the government gave effect to the almost unanimous will of Parliament.

For the first time in history, the Dominion, on its own account and by its own will, exercised the most awesome prerogative of nationhood by declaring a state of war. In 1914 the government merely published the British war proclamation.

Among the many young men who have left for Edmonton to join the colors are Bud Akins, Mike Kolmatiycki and Charlie Ross, all of Innisfree. These boys are well known in Vermilion.

Mrs. O. McFeat of Edmonton is visiting her sister Mrs. L. P. Horne and her father J. W. Hobbis.

The use of fertilizers in Alberta is receiving more attention as time goes on. The executive of the Provincial Advisory Fertilizer committee has recently issued a circular on "Tentative Suggestions for the Use of Fertilizers in Alberta". This circular deals at considerable length with such subjects as farm manures, green manures and commercial fertilizers, and discusses guaranteed analysis and the use of various types of fertilizers in different Alberta soils.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Sept. 20, 1923

Dr. Graham suffered fractures of both hips and other injuries in a car accident which occurred on a hill ten miles south of town on Sunday evening. Mrs. Graham and sister Mrs. Currie and her child from Winnipeg also in the car, escaped serious injury. The car ran off the road and turned over three times.

The ideal harvesting and threshing weather which has prevailed for the last ten days was broken Wednesday by a steady all-day rain followed by a two-inch snowfall.

Mrs. S. R. P. Cooper, Grace and Percy left for Balcarres, Sask., where they will visit the former's sister, Mrs. B. Dewart.

That the Vermilion School of Agriculture will be re-opened in the fall of 1924 was the assurance given to a delegation of the Board of Trade on Friday evening when the Hon. Mr. Hoadley, Minister of Agriculture, was interviewed. The Vermilion delegation consisted of the President A. E. Kaiser, F. C. Long and J. A. Kirkpatrick.

After 3 minutes and 57 [illegible] of the fastest fighting ever [illegible] a championship bout, Jack [illegible] knocked out Louis Firpo at the Polo grounds in New York.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

Last Saturday morning the thermometer registered 12 degrees of frost, so now the gardens and flowers look sick. How very much we have enjoyed our flowers this year with all their radiant colors. Time now to take in the vegetables for winter storage. Our harvest has been good for which we are very grateful.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mayhew and family, Kay, Judy, Brian and Wanda (Elinor, their [illegible] daughter was home with [illegible]) and Mother O'Fee from Bawlf visited friends and relatives around Clandonald over the long week end. It was marvelous to see Mother O'Fee looking so well. She had been at the coast with her daughter Mary and family. Mary is getting on very well after her serious illness a few years ago. Auntie O'Fee is not too well, she stays with her niece at the Mayhew home.

CLANDONALD MISSION FIELD

A board meeting for the Clandonald Mission Field, including Ottawa, Clandonald and Allandale was held at the Omness home on Aug. 21st. There were representatives from the three fields and our minister Mr. Rector. Lunch was served at the close of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Diesenbacher from Waterloo, Ont., visited at the Strome home the last part of August, first going to the coast and stopping here on their way home. They are cousins of the Stromes.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McPhee from Vernon, B.C., arrived on Sept. 2 to visit the McPhee families and while here are helping with the harvesting.

Mrs. Enoch Lundblad (Lucy Throndson) after teaching school has resigned this year at Valleyview, Peace River. Mr. and Mrs. Lundblad have a 'Building Supplies' business at that town. They have two daughters Elaine and Florence. Elaine attends high school at Grande Prairie and Lucy trucks their supplies from that town, a distance of 75 miles.

W. A. MEETINGS

Mrs. Baldock and Mrs. Omness attended the Clandonald W. A. on the evening of Sept. 7 at the Laird home. One enjoys other gatherings and we did appreciate their kindness. A tasty lunch was served at the close of the meeting. The Allandale W.A. met at the Omness home on the afternoon of Sept. 8. We were pleased to have our out of the district visitors Mrs. H. McPhee and Mrs. C. Laird and Cathie. Discussion at both meetings, in part, was of the chicken supper.

The Clandonald and Allandale W. A. are having their fowl supper on Wednesday Oct. 26 in the Orange hall, Clandonald. There will be further notices in the Standard.

Mr and Mrs. Rufus Omness and daughters Janice and Irene from New Serepta visited at their daughter Luriene's (The Hobbis home) in town over the long week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mayers returned from the city on Sept. 5th. Rufus and Ruth returned to New Serepta leaving the girls in town, went on to the city and brought Stella and Willie Mayers home. Uncle Willie isn't too well.

Threshing commenced last week in the district. There were three machines going, McPhees, Nelsons and McCormicks.

Ralph Strome and Alvin Throndson have purchased a new self-propelled International combine.

We are very pleased to hear Mr Chalmers is coming along well in the Royal Alex hospital. He was able to be around and called to see Uncle Willie while a patient there. Sorry to hear of the accident at Lloydminster to Mrs. Keith Chalmers' mother. Our best wishes for her recovery.

Sept. 11 at 3 p.m. Mr. Rector held his farewell service at Allandale. Along with his sermon he spoke briefly of his summer's work and what a grand experience it was for him and he wished to thank the people of the west for their kindness and hospitality.

Sept. 18th at 11:30 a.m. there will be a Gideon service at the Allandale United church. Everyone is welcome.

Closing Thought: "It is better to think a good thought about a bad man, than to think an evil thought about a good man."

NEWS from ISLAY

We hear shotguns popping these mornings, and also hear that Mr. King and Bruce MacFadyen bagged a goose. Mrs. Potvin wishes the men would hunt coyotes, as they have been getting some of her turkeys. Coyotes do seem to be plentiful — they howl late at night and early morning and seem to be just over on the school grounds.

Dr. Thos. Hart, Supt. of Home Missions for Northern Alberta, will occupy the pulpit at Islay United church on Sunday, Sept. 18 at 3 p.m.

Initiation at the schools seems to be a popular event, even in the Islay school.

Busy though we are, yet a Ho-Ho Tea carload called on Mrs. Potvin on Monday afternoon. Miss Bessie Anderson picked up Mrs. Fyfe, Mrs. Olds, Mrs. Schaffer and Muriel Stone. We had a grand time, though we had to wait for the tea kettle [illegible] of fat stock Monday. Dalt Torrance trucking them to Edmonton. Wilfred accompanied him on the trip.

Mr Jim Allen is able to be out again, after having quite a siege in the house.

Sgt. Ralph and Mrs. Drinkwater and family from Cold Lake spent the week end of August 27th with Lila and Bill Waterfield.

Miss Gwen Torrance returned to Calgary after spending a holiday with her sister, Mrs. Clarence Robertson.

Lila and Bill Waterfield, Mr. Bessey and Ken motored to Edmonton Saturday last to attend the wedding of Miss Arlene Bowser and Mr Neil McKay.

Bishop Clarke will be present at the Anglican service on Sunday, Sept. 25th at 1 p.m. in the Islay United church.

Sportsmen Club Of The Air Discusses Problems Of Hunter

A new program entitled Sportsmen Club of the Air is being broadcast over CFRN from 10:15 p.m. to 10.30 p.m. every Tuesday and Thursday. Those taking part are Mr Huestis, game commissioner of the province; Irwin Young, president of the Edmonton Fish and Game Club, Reese Harley of Ducks Unlimited, R. D. Harris, Wildlife Management Officer Canadian Wildlife Service.

The programs take the form of panel discussions with emphasis on farmer and hunter relations with a view to bringing these groups to a better understanding.

Reason for bag limits, banding of birds are examples of some of the topics.

BACK-CHECKING ON BIRDS SHOT VERMILION DISTRICT

Canadian Wildlife Survey officials are back-checking on birds shot, the number of young birds taken, birds shot per hour, etc. This survey is being carried on in Vermilion district. Cars are stopped and birds checked just to gather information of this nature. There is no need for hunters to be upset when stopped as this is merely a fact-gathering project and doesn't mean anyone is being suspected of violating hunting regulations.

W. M. S.

The W.M.S. of the United church held their first meeting following the holiday recess, at the home of Mrs. H. C. Oakley, on Thursday afternoon Sept. 8. The President, Mrs. C. Barr, opened the meeting by reading a verse from the Bible, and then turned the meeting over to Mrs. G. Dunsmore and Mrs. W. Williams who were in charge of the Devotional service. The hymn, 258, "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult", was sung.

Mrs. M. Hill who was in charge of the study books, gave a wonderful synopsis of the three books which are to be studied this year. It was very interesting.

Roll call was taken, and there were twenty members present. Hospital and home sick calls were listed for the past two months.

Preparations were made for the W.M.S. Presbyterial which is meeting in Vermilion next Monday, Sept. 19th.

The President asked the members to indicate their preference for either afternoon or evening meetings for the winter months. The majority declared in favor of the afternoon meetings.

The minutes were read and approved and the secretaries gave their reports. The meeting closed with a benediction.

The committee in charge served a delicious lunch and a social half hour was enjoyed by all.

Square Dance Lessons At Islay

If enough interest is shown it is proposed that there will be square dance lessons given in Islay. There will also be some round dancing.

Anyone in Islay or the nearby district who would care to take the lessons is urged to leave their names with Mrs. A. W. Teskey, phone number 23 Islay, or with Johnnie Maxwell phone 487, Vermilion.

If there is enough response, and ultimately a club is formed in Islay, that club will be eligible to join the Northeastern Square Dance local.

RETAIL SALES COURSE POPULAR

The short course in salesmanship for retail clerks held this week has proved very popular with 66 registered. The course consists of six lectures given on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at the Junior high school. Those attending claim that many enlightening and helpful points are being brought forth at every lecture.

ANOTHER BIG ONE

Percy Willis now comes up with a 3 pound potato, also of the Pontiac variety, which appears to be enjoying a good season. This is on display at the Hill hardware. This was a lone spud, the only one in the hill.

UPLAND GAME BIRD SEASON IS NOT YET OPEN

Some hunters seem to think that when the season opens on ducks and geese that the lid is off and that everything that moves or flies is legal prey. This is not the case, so you should govern yourselves accordingly.

WILDMERE WINKS

No Winks last week as we were busy cooking for threshers. It's all done now so should not be any breaks for awhile. Although the yield of grain is not heavy, the quality is good. Too bad the elevators can't take a few bushels to help the farmer pay some of the expenses of harvesting. We all hope however that everything will right itself and this grain can be sold.

J. Wallington is the first in our corner to finish threshing completely. Combining and threshing are going ahead very fast and we hope the weatherman co-operates and lets everyone finish.

On Tuesday, Aug. 30th an overflowing church at Auburndale paid last respects to a fine neighbor and friend, Dorothy Love. Rev. MacKay gave a very comforting sermon to the sorrowing relatives. It is sad to see such a young person with so much of their life before them called Home but God knows best even if it is hard to understand. Dorothy always had such a pleasant smile and cheery word for everyone. She will be greatly missed. Henry and Henning Haverslew, George and Henry Eyben, Ken Kennedy and Sig Lindroth carried the remains to their last resting place in the Auburndale cemetery. May God comfort and guide those left to mourn her early [illegible]

We also want to extend heartfelt sympathy to Mr. N. MacLean and children on the loss of a loving wife and mother. She too, was called Home at an early age.

Peggy Graham, nurse-in-training at the Royal Alex hospital in Edmonton is spending her holidays at her home in Wildmere. She also helped with the threshing.

The writer is very pleased to have her brother Earl Graham and his wife from Penticton, B.C. visiting this week. Earl is now chef at the Three Gables hotel in Penticton.

On the return trip they will visit with Mrs. Graham's sister at Didsbury, Alberta and two other sisters at Great Falls, Montana. It is nearly four years since Earl last visited here. They are travelling by car.

On Sunday Rev. Holter of Mannville held Communion service at Wildmere church where a large congregation gathered to hear his fine sermon. [illegible] members had their membership transferred from Vermilion United church to Wildmere, namely Mr. and Mrs. A. [illegible] and Baillie, Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Gibson and Mary, Mrs. J. Wilson, Kenneth Graham and Mrs. Wallington. Mr. Plant will hold his farewell service this Sunday. A little farewell party is planned for him after the service Sunday evening. Plan to attend church and give Mr. Plant a pleasant memory of his last evening in Wildmere.

Weather Report

Fairly hard frosts have featured the weather for the past week with temperatures generally cool but no moisture has fallen. Good progress is being made with harvesting and another week could see threshing completed given good weather.

Kitimat grows

Already Alcan's big new West Coast smelter goes ahead with TWO major increases to meet the rapid growth in demand for Canadian aluminum

The broken lines on the photograph roughly indicate the additional area to be occupied by new smelters and other buildings. Beyond the present plant (the aluminum structures in the middle ground) can be seen the harbor and docks of Kitimat.

In August, 1954, only 3½ years after ground was broken, the Kitimat smelter commenced production of aluminum with an annual capacity of 91,500 tons. Almost immediately a 60,000-ton extension was started. And in the spring of 1955 the decision was made to proceed with a flexible program to add a further 180,000 tons to ingot capacity.

A progressive increase to 331,500 tons, more than three times the size of the original installation, and well on the way to our ultimate Kitimat goal of 550,000 tons a year.

"This continuing expansion of Kitimat in successive stages", stated Aluminium Limited president Nathanael V. Davis, "should, we believe, help to keep pace with the growing free world demand for aluminum and particularly the demand in our major export markets, the United Kingdom and the United States."

The new facilities will go into production step by step, with the first unit starting up in the fall of 1956. It is expected that the present building program will be completed in 1959.

McCLELLAND PARSONS

Mr. and Mrs. McClelland attended the wedding of their son, John Harold, to Norma Parsons of Dawson Creek. Mr and Mrs. Young accompanied the McClellands on their trip north. Rev. Reikie, formerly of Vermilion, performed the marriage ceremony.

The bride wore a waltz-length dress, white lace over taffeta. She carried a prayer book, and her jewelry was a pendant and matching earrings, a gift from the groom.

The two sisters of the bride were bridesmaid and flower girl. George Purves of Islay was the best man.

A reception was held at the Windsor hotel. Rev. Mr. Reikie proposed the toast to the bride. After the reception the happy couple left on a trip through to the States and on their return they will make their home at Dawson Creek.

Congratulations Harold, we hope that we will be seeing you both at Christmas time.

It's a lovely, pleasant sunny day. It's too bad the frost came and spoiled the flowers. They look so sad with their drooping heads.

On Monday Mrs. Potvin entertained about seven ladies at a 'bake' tea.

Mrs. Reid has been busy these last few days hauling grain with the truck.

Mr. Jones is shoveling grain at present so they will be taking their trip later.

Mrs. Gillies spent Tuesday with the writer.

Hi Mildred, you must have had a lovely trip. We enjoyed reading about it. Let's hear from others who have holidayed in faraway places.

Vermilion Air Cadets Start New Season

The Air Cadets look back on a great semester and are looking forward to another. The achievements and activities of 97th Squadron in the past few years are the envy of many other Cadet Squadrons.

Last term they carried the most active program to date. A year ago a Dakota aircraft from 105 C and R Namao flew the local cadets over the countryside, and initiated many of the cadets in their first flight. A trip to the Western Conference football game at Edmonton highlighted last fall's program, and about 40 boys saw the Eskimos beat Regina.

When the basketball season opened last year, 97th Vermilion R.C.A.C. had a team. They lost only one game all season and almost made a trip to Edmonton to play the city squadrons.

During the winter months F/O Moore coached his rifle team, and when the D.C.R.A. shoot results came out Vermilion was rated second to only one other contestant group, the City of Vancouver squadron. The competition was nation-wide.

At Christmas the cadets had a party and dance. It will long be remembered by the cadets as the best social function the squadron has had in years.

Drill became serious as spring came, in preparation for the ceremonial inspection. On June 7, 97 Vermilion was inspected and they passed with flying colors. The inspecting officer had nothing but praise for the unit as a whole.

During the summer the members split up and travelled to the many R.C.A.F. stations for training. Some went to Station Edmonton for Reserve Tradesman Training, while four from last year's R. T. T. P. course went to Namao to work at 105 Communication and Rescue Flight. The majority of the younger cadets attended summer camp at R.C.A.F. Station Abbotsford.

On Sept. 19, the Squadron will assemble in the Vermilion Armories. Under the leadership of F/L Manyluk and F/O Moore they will begin a new year, perhaps an even more interesting one than last.

NO TRICK TO INSULATING

Insulating your home is not quite as easy as falling off a log. But it is simple, economical and timesaving if you go about it the right way.

An average couple with no previous experience can insulate their attic in one afternoon with vermiculite — a product with special appeal to the do-it-yourself trade. Vermiculite is simply poured from the bag between the joists of the unfinished floor, then raked level. That's all there is to it. Once in place, it requires no further care. It will outlast the house, cannot rot and is fireproof and verminproof. Properly installed insulation can reduce fuel costs as much as 40%.

An important feature for the home handyman is vermiculite's light weight. While a cubic foot of sand, for instance, would weigh about 100 lbs., a cubic foot of vermiculite weighs only six or 8 lbs.

A mica-like material, vermiculite is found deep in the earth. Small particles of the ore are processed in special furnaces that expand them to fluffy light granules. In this expanding process, countless tiny dead air cells are trapped inside and it is these that make vermiculite one of the best insulations known to man.

Vermiculite is better known in Canada under its trade name of Zonolite.

Revised Booklet Tells Of Early Sites

A revised edition of the publication "Historic Sites of the Province of Alberta" has been produced by the Publicity Bureau.

Revision was done in the interest of accuracy and aesthetic appeal. Many dates and maps have undergone alteration in the light of new knowledge. Much of the text has been re-written, and some new material has been inserted. Deletions in the original text have made room for more important material.

The greatest change has been made in illustrations. Photographs in the old publication were of cairns and sites as they appear today but the revised version includes many early photographs of the original forts. One early sketch has been added. Greater historical illumination has been the aim.

The 52-page booklet is distributed free of charge to historically-minded people. It is available from the Publicity Bureau, Legislative Buildings, Edmonton.

Beautiful Wedding Solemnized At Christ Church, Mannville

EIDEM — JONES

MANNVILLE — A wedding of wide interest was solemnized in Christ Church, Mannville when Miss Patricia Jones became the bride of Dr. Rodney Norman Eidem.

Gladioli and sweet peas banked the altar for the ceremony, performed by Rev. C. MacPherson.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Jones of Mannville. Dr. Eidem is the son of Mrs. Eidem of Vermilion and the late Mr. O. Eidem.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original model gown of French imported Chantilly lace and bridal tulle, the bouffant tulle skirt in waltz length. The lace bodice was designed with portrait neckline and cap sleeves, and lace applique trimmed the skirt. The bride wore lace gauntlet mittens and a Juliet cap of lace embroidered with irridescent pearls held in place her circular veil. She carried a white prayer book garlanded with deep red sweetheart roses and fragrant white stephanotis.

Sister of the groom, Miss Dorothy Eidem of Vermilion, attended the bride, wearing a similarly styled gown of turquoise net and lace. A gown of champagne beige net and tulle poised over copper taffeta was worn by Mrs. J. Hantho of Calgary. Each wore a bandeau of velvet and lily of the valley in her hair, and carried a colonial bouquet of rainbow-hued summer blossoms.

As flower girl, little Miss Bonnie Greenwall of Wetaskiwin wore a frock of pink net over crystaline bengaline with a bandeau of net and pink blossoms. She carried a basket nosegay of summer flowers.

The groom was attended by Dr. J. Hanth of Calgary and Mr. Jack Hand. Ushers were Mr. Merrill Johnson and Dr. John Graham.

As soloist, Miss Betty Proudfoot was accompanied by Mrs. Elliott.

At a reception in the Mannville school auditorium, to receive her guests Mrs. Jones chose a frock of dusty rose lace complemented with a black velvet picture hat and black accessories. A corsage of Talisman roses was pinned at her shoulder. Mrs. Eidem wore a winter white dressmaker suit with navy trim. Her accessories were navy and her corsage was fashioned of pink roses.

Mr. J. R. Robson proposed the toast to the bride. Pouring tea were Mrs. George Whitson, Mrs. R. B. Bennett, Mrs. Merrill Johnson, and Miss Jean Robson.

As both the bride and groom are graduates of the University of Alberta there were numerous telegrams from friends unable to attend, as well as congratulatory cables from relatives of the bride in England. Telegrams were also received from North West Territories, Saskatoon, Calgary and Rosebud.

At the reception solos were sung by Miss Betty Proudfoot of Mannville and Mr. Joe Cramer, of Edmonton.

For her wedding trip, the bride donned a dressmaker suit of slate blue wool, complemented with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses and stephanotis.

Dr. and Mrs. Eidem will make their home in Edmonton.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs Cecil Woodward, Miss Darlene Miller, Mr. Colin Turner, Miss Madge Smith, Mr. J. Cramer, Mrs. L. Croft, Mr. Jack McCready, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scheidt, Mr. and Mrs. E. Donnenworth and Dolores, all of Edmonton; Mr. J. Cramer of Drumheller; Mr. and Mrs. L. Croft, Kitscoty; Mr. and Mrs. N. Greenwall, Wetaskiwin; Mr. and Mrs. Lowes, Vegreville; Miss Jean Robson, Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eidem and Mavis, Admiral, Sask.; Mr. and Mrs Wm. Hohman, Mr. and Mrs. S. C Omerheim, Mrs. Van Fossen and Mrs. C. Beck, of Luseland, Sask; Mrs. H. C. Oakley, grandmother of the groom, Vermilion, and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hawley, Miss Betty Hawley, Mr. Clifford Hawley, Mrs. Clive Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Robson, Mr. and Mrs Staden, Mr. and Mrs Basler, Cpl. and Mrs. Surbey, Mr. and Mrs Nelson and Joan, of Vermilion; Mr. and Mrs. C. TRAIN SCHEDULE TO CHANGE

Effective Sept. 25, train day at Paradise Valley will be on Wednesdays instead of Thursdays. This will change our mail days and no doubt the Bank of Montreal's day at Paradise Valley. To date we have had no word from the Department about the mails. So do not forget to come on Wednesday, Sept. 28th with your cream and eggs if you wish them to go by train.

It has been very quiet in town during the past week without any shows. Mr. Hawkins had to cancel his shows due to the Hall committee having the floor torn up and a cement foundation put in. Mr. Strat has quite a crew working on the job and it is hoped to have it finished by next week.

Alberta Pacific Elevator Co. have had their repair crew working on their elevator getting it straightened out and putting in a new foundation. The cement had given away and the elevator took quite a lean to the west.

School re-opened on Tuesday with David Clark, E. H. Walter, Mrs. Arthur Fair, Mrs. S. Murray, Miss Olga Hudson, Miss Eva Redmond and Mrs. Emily Welsh in charge. We hear that around 200 pupils have enrolled for the term.

Paradise Valley

Mr. Russell Thompson of Victoria, B.C., is visiting with relatives in the district.

The weather during the past week has not been the best. We have had rain and frost. This has held up harvesting operations so digging spuds is the order of the day, also picking tomatoes, cukes, marrows, and whatever you had in your garden. Merchants report B. C. fruit very slow in coming through. Now that the strike is settled we hope it will improve. The wheat, oats and barley have turned out very good, the best grade for years, but you cannot sell any!

Mrs. J W Guy and Mrs F Henry entertained at the September meeting of the United Church W A. Friday Oct 21 was chosen as the date for the chicken supper. All members are to report at the next meeting the number of chickens they have secured for the supper. The ladies wish to thank those who helped with the church cleaning last June.

November 5th Is Set As Date

Agricultural Society Will Hold Purebred Livestock Sale

Following the custom of the past several years, the Vermilion Agricultural Society will hold a sale of purebred cattle and hogs on Saturday, Nov. 5th.

Breeders of high quality livestock are cordially invited to offer selected animals for distribution to others who require certain types of breeding and high quality. Entries necessarily close on October 18th so that catalogue may be placed in the hands of the Vermilion Standard for printing.

Entries of hogs will probably have to be limited in keeping with the expected demand and under no circumstances can more than five head be accepted from any one breeder. Hogs will be sold at the Exhibition grounds promptly at 10:30 a.m. on Nov. 5, and cattle will be auctioned at the Arena rink in the afternoon, starting at 1:00 o'clock. Breeders are urged to have their stock in place on the evening of November 4th or early on the morning of the 5th to permit proper marking and classification.

Culling of all entries will be conducted by experienced livestock men and any animal rejected for the sale must be forthwith removed from the sale location.

Those interested in purchasing good quality livestock are urged to wait for the Vermilion Agricultural Society sale which has played an important part in the agricultural life of the community for some years past.

MIXED CHORUS ORGANIZES

The annual general meeting of the Vermilion Mixed Chorus was held in the high school on Monday evening last, September 19th.

The following officers were elected for the coming season: President, Mr. Percy Willes: Vice-President, Miss B. Gray; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. R. J. Cosh; Auditor, Mr. A. Hildreth; Music Committee, Mrs. M. Edey, Dr. C. W. Stephens and Mr. J. Brown; Accompanist, Dr. C. W. Stephens; Librarian, Mr. W. Fooks. The direction of the chorus was unanimously left in the capable hands of Jack Brown.

Two new members, Mrs. R. Rowe and Mrs. Fleming were welcomed and several more new members are expected at the first rehearsal. This will take place in the high school at 8 p.m. on Monday next, 26th September. It was decided after discussion that Monday would probably be a better meeting night for the future, and all who are interested in singing with the chorus are cordially invited to attend.

Plans are being made to present a concert during November.

Mundare Lady Wins Bingo Car

Mrs. Lillian Jacobs of Mundare won the Meteor two door sedan at the Curling club bingo last Saturday night in the Vermilion arena. Helen Adam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. D. Adam, now of Edmonton but formerly of Vermilion, has been awarded a bursary of $200.00 by the Independent Order of Oddfellows. Helen is now a nurse-in-training at the University hospital.

The I.O.O.F. bursary plan was introduced in 1948 and became operative in 1950. Since that time the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Alberta have voluntarily contributed each year to the fund that has now reached over $8000.00. From this fund six bursaries of $200.00 are drawn each year, and awarded to high school, University and nursing students. A total of 29 students have participated in this educational endeavor during the past five years.

Attending Six Weeks Course for Chefs

Mr. Rukavina, manager of the Brunswick hotel Dining Room, left on Sept. 18th for Vancouver where he is attending a six weeks' school for chefs at the Vocational Institute in that city. This course is being given by the B. C provincial government. Mr. Rukavina is anxious to bring to Vermilion the very latest and best techniques in cooking and serving, so will attend the complete short course.

Canada, the second largest country in the world, has less than one per cent of the world's population.

Bishop Clark Here This Week-end

The Bishop of Edmonton, the Rt. Rev H H. Clarke will arrive in Vermilion on Saturday this week. It has been arranged that he will be preaching at the regular services in the St Saviour's parish on Sunday. The schedule of services is listed elsewhere in this issue of The Standard in the church announcement column.

Bishop Clarke will officiate at the Rite of Confirmation at St. Saviour's church in Vermilion Sunday evening. Following that service there will be a reception for the Bishop and the newly-confirmed in the parish hall.

Agric. Society To Organize Trip To Royal Winter Fair

The Vermilion Agricultural Society, continuing a plan inaugurated a year ago, will organize one or more cars of district residents who desire to go to Toronto for the purpose of attending the Royal Winter Fair or to visit relatives or friends. Details of the plan will be available for next week's issue of the Standard, but meanwhile it is deemed advisable to publish this advice so that plans may be in hand.

The over-all cost will not exceed that of last year which amounted to approximately $130.00 round trip, including berths and meals and hotel while in Toronto. Those who undertook the trip last fall were enthusiastic in their praise of the arrangements by both the Society and the railway, and all who desire to take part this year are asked to send their names to S. C. Heckbert, Secretary Manager of the Society, so that when details are available they may be placed in the hands of the interested parties without delay.

It is recommended that not more than twenty be placed in a single car, and judging from the interest shown it may be possible to organize two cars. Preference will naturally have to be given to those first making application and a ten dollar deposit will guarantee the applicant the required transportation, hotel, etc.

Band Shell Completed At Vermilion Park

The new band shell has now been completed at the south beach in the Vermilion park. An official opening had been contemplated but due to the lateness of the season for such events, this will take place early next summer. It is also the intention of the committee to mount a plaque at the band shell commemorating Jubilee year, acknowledging at the same time the donations from the M.D.'s of Vermilion River and Minburn. These generous gifts made the band shell possible. It should be noted that these funds were from a special Jubilee grant made by the Government of Alberta for Jubilee activities, and were not from municipal taxation.

The band shell is a roomy 30 by 40 foot edifice, designed for presenting band concerts, movies, plays etc., and is large enough for small dances.

ADDITIONAL LAND FOR PARK

Park officials report that the purchase of additional land on the west end of the park has now been completed. This provides ample land so that the water in the lake can be kept at a higher level than during this past summer and should eliminate some of the weed growth which was so bad this season.

Plymouth Plaza For Next Car Bingo

A Plymouth Plaza two-door sedan is the next car waiting for some lucky winner. This is the main prize at the Curling's club's next car bingo on Saturday, Oct. 1, 9:15 p.m.

It will again take place in the Arena rink as construction work is still going on in the curling palace. There will be 11 other fine prizes and you get a chance at them all for only $2 with extra cards two for $1.

The Plymouth Plaza was purchased from the local agents, the Marian Motors. 12-13

Accident Victim Is Recovering

David Kather while on his way to Vermilion from Edmonton on his motorbike ran off highway 16 near the Claysmore corner on Sept. 2. He suffered from exposure, shock, facial abrasions, a broken nose and jaw, and a bad concussion. He did not recover consciousness until the next day. His condition is now reported as satisfactory and he is up and about.

He was taken by ambulance on Thursday, Sept. 8th to the University hospital. A silver plate was required to set the jaw and this could not be done until the following Tuesday, Sept. 13 because of the swelling. Two days later he was stricken by acute appendicitis.

It is thought that the appendicitis may have caused the accident. He had apparently slowed down, the bike wandered off the road where the machine spilled against the grade sometime late in the evening of Sept 2nd. It was 9 the next morning when he was found lying there by Bob MacMillan.

Wildmere Ladies Make Park Bench

Usually women's organizations content themselves with holding bazaars, teas, or making quilts — not so the members of the Wildmere Women's Institute. That group has taken to high class carpentry and the result is a very comfortable park bench. This bench is now in use at the edge of the beach at the Vermilion Park lake. It was built entirely by the ladies. They planned it, bought the lumber, built it, painted it, then presented the finished product to the local parks board.

The idea of a bench was born when the W.I. members noticed that older folks, especially ladies, preferred to sit on boxes or some sort of seat, rather than right down on the sand while at the beach. The gift of the bench is much appreciated and the parks committee say that they can use more of them.

Sunday School Auditorium Is Dedicated

Celebrate Thirtieth Anniversary Of Auburndale United Church

On Sunday, Sept. [illegible] at 11 a.m. the congregation of Auburndale United Church celebrated their 30th anniversary and the dedication of the new Sunday school auditorium.

Many former members and friends of the community filled the church to hear the Rev. Lyndon Lawson, a former student minister at Auburndale and now of Calgary, bring the message "If God be for us". The choir under the leadership of Mrs. A. Green, sang two numbers, "We would see Jesus" and "Jesus, dearest Master, hear".

Following the regular service the congregation retired to the outdoors where the dedication took place before the new auditorium. The Sunday school building is the result of a great deal of planning and work on the part of volunteer labor drawn from the Auburndale area. Mr Alf Green, the chairman of the board, read the scripture lesson, while the student minister of this congregation for the past [illegible] summers, Mr Howard Plant, assisted with the service. Rev. Lawson led the congregation in the dedication, and officially opened the new hall.

The congregation was invited to inspect the new premises at the conclusion of the service.

PLASTIC BANDS FOR DUCKS SHOULD BE BANNED!

The Standard saw its first plastic band, an identification being used this year by the Canadian Wildlife Service on the necks of ducks. It is sincerely hoped that it will also be the last time that such an imposition will be inflicted on these birds. The plastic band was still on the neck of the duck when brought to this office by a hunter, very irate that such a thing had ever been placed on a living bird. The Standard's reaction was amazement and surprise that so little thought had been given to these neck bands, especially so when the group responsible is supposedly so well versed in habits of birdlife, especially ducks.

The duck shown to The Standard was a small blue winged teal. The plastic band around the neck was one and a half inches wide — a duck's neck is so constructed that it bends at every angle to meet the various needs of living. This plastic band, if it did nothing else, would hamper the duck when it eats, when it sleeps and when oiling or preening its feathers, to mention just a few movements.

One and one half inches was fully half the length of this teal's neck; the band had the same effect as a straight jacket or the old celluloid collars once worn by men, hampering all natural movement of the part enveloped. That isn't the whole story in this particular duck's case. The band was supposed to be designed large enough to slip up and down on the duck's neck. This is a fallacy, the growth of the feathers above prevents any movement upwards. This little teal's neck at the top was cut right through the skin all the way around. At the bottom the band had cut deeply, due no doubt, to the movement of the wing muscles there when the bird was in flight. The ordinary edge of the thin plastic band was sharp but at the top of this band there was a break, caused no doubt by the bird trying to carry out natural movements. Everyone knows what a broken edge of this plastic is like — cuts like a knife. While this duck was fully feathered otherwise under the neck band there were just pin feathers.

The plan of using plastic neck bands, from a humanitarian or kindness to wildlife viewpoint should be dropped at once. It is nice to study birds' habits in flyways and migration but if such information has to be gathered by inflicting plastic neck bands on ducks . . . LET'S STOP IT

WILD OATS CONTROL

The problem of wild oats has been a serious one this year. Shallow fall tillage immediately after the crop has been removed will help control this weed. Do not cultivate deep as the seeds will be buried and may not germinate for several years.

GRAIN STORAGE

Empty grain bins should be sprayed thoroughly with D.D.T. solution before filling with this year's crop. Insects can cause untold damage in stored grain. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

Store grain in tight dry bins, as moisture seepage creates ideal conditions for insects to breed and multiply. Insect infested grain can be fumigated with Dowfume E.B.5. Additional information can be obtained at this office.

TOUGH GRAIN

This year probably more grain will be stored on the farms than ever before. Damp grain will not keep nor grade out well. When you start threshing after this current wet spell take a grain sample in to your local elevator and get the agent to run a moisture test. Don't guess, be sure.

STORAGE OF GLAD CORMS

Dig gladioli when leaves begin to wither from maturity or frost. Dry out the plants and after drying cut off the top one inch above the corm. Store temporarily at about 80 degrees for ten days to two weeks. This makes it easy to separate the old corms from the new. Pry off these old corms and discard them. Place new corms in open boxes or open paper bags and store at a temperature of 40 to 50 degrees in a dry place.

STORAGE OF DAHLIAS

Dig the plants up after the foliage has blackened from frost. Cut off the tops an inch or so above ground and lift the tuberous root system from the ground. Allow to dry until the dirt falls away from the roots. Pack the intact root clumps in granulated peat or clean dry sand and store in a dry place at 45 to 50 degrees.

BEEF CATTLE HOUSING AND EQUIPMENT

Some thought in planning out feed corrals, sheds, self-feeders, etc. can be a very valuable time saver. There are some excellent plans at this office. Anyone interested drop in and look them over.

RATS ON THE MOVE

This is the time of the year that rats pull up stakes and look for greener pastures. If you should kill one or find a rat on your farm don't hesitate to bring it in to this office for identification or to the M.D. office at Kitscoty. If we are to maintain our ground on the rat front then full cooperation from everyone is required.

A LESSON

While you may never want to be a newspaper man, you might still learn a valuable lesson from the experience of my friend George. It is a lesson all the really important men learned at some time in their lives, but George was forced into it.

Determined to be a journalist, he talked himself into a job with the weekly paper in his home town; and soon was able to persuade the editor to let him write a little column of his own. Each week end George would go to the library "to get ideas for his column."

They always looked pretty good in print, but no one in the town seemed very impressed. Young George was very disappointed in the results and baffled, too, because after all he was using the same ideas Ruskin and Emerson and other famous writers used. Then why did his writing attract no attention?

He put the question to his editor who replied, "George, try this. Stay away from the library this week. Write a column about your young brother. Don't use notes and don't look for ideas from any source but the top of your head. Then, the next week write about national affairs if you like — but again, use your own observation. We'll see what happens."

The next two columns weren't very smooth, but Mrs. Brown stopped George on the street to say, "I loved that piece about the young boy — it reminded me so much of my son." The town lawyer dropped in, later, to argue a point with George on international affairs and George learned from the lawyer.

"Why," George said to his editor, "is my stuff more effective than before?"

"There is a lesson in the answer. Nobody pays attention to leaners — and you were leaning on old Ruskin and Emerson. Later you will learn from them without leaning on them. It's only when you are a producer in your own right that you become a fellow-citizen with the great. That goes for life as well as literature."

Health Unit Notes

HOW CAN I HELP MY SHY CHILD?

All children are not of course equally sociable and most of them go through a period of shyness around two years but shyness in the school child which makes it difficult for him to take part in social activities is a problem which needs careful handling and could usually have been avoided.

Stated in a nutshell, the shy child needs to have a better opinion of himself. Somehow he's missed out on one or both of two "must's" that should have gone into strengthening his personality.

First of these is the all-important one, the lack of which seems to be at the root of so many troubles in child training:

Your child must always feel that you want him and love him, no matter what. He needs to know that he "belongs" to you, that he can count on you for understanding, come what may. As he is growing up, he needs affectionate help and direction as he begins to take over activities, decisions and responsibilities for himself. The security that comes from knowing that you, his parents, are standing by with approval, understanding and interest is the broad, firm base from which your child steps confidently forth to meet new people and new situations.

There are many pitfalls for the unwary parent. Telling your child "I won't love you anymore!", or angrily calling him a "bad boy" can have consequences you would be very anxious to avoid. On the other hand, avoiding unpleasantness for him (and yourself) by failing to help him face the need for self-control and restraint can be a serious matter too. Some parents, anxious to rear "a perfect child", criticize too freely and overwork the "No's and the Dont's". They find they have raised a child that is always ill at ease, hesitant, and drawing back from any kind of action or decision.

Indulging a child one minute and scolding him the next doesn't provide a firm base of security, either. Restrain and control him on the important issues until he learns to control himself. You can do this in such a way that he has no doubt that you love him, or that he himself is all right, even though he's got to stop what he's doing.

The second essential the shy child may lack is the feeling that he is able to do many of the things he wants to do, and to be many of the things he wants to be.

The shy child needs to feel more capable, adequate and important. Here again there are many ways in which parents can, almost from the child's birth, weaken his faith in his own abilities to be and do like others. Eight of the more obvious situations for parents to avoid in this regard follow:

1. Limiting his experiences, such as failing to allow early opportunity to sit up, crawl, stand; failing to make suitable play provisions; failing to let him help feed, wash and dress himself before he is able to take over completely or faultlessly.
2. Tying him to your apron strings, keeping such a close check on him that he can't learn anything for himself.
3. Making all decisions for him.
4. Too much "Don't touch!", "Stop that noise!", "Can't you do anything at all!", whenever he tries something for himself in his own way.
5. Expecting too much from the child in the way of manners, habits or cleanliness.
6. Making thoughtless remarks or laughing at his childish, awkward attempts to learn. Also neglecting to praise and make suitable comments when he achieves something.
7. Overdoing the emphasis on the child's culture and artistic activities to the neglect of helping him learn handicraft skills, so that he feels unequal among his friends and playmates.
8. Humiliating or embarrassing him with a remark because he's upset a glass at a party, for example, so that afterwards he feels uneasy in social situations. A bright child, interested in new, long words may be driven by adult laughter to limit his speech drastically. Too much emphasis on a child's size — He's so big! or he's unusually small — may make him feel he's 'different'. Even the choice in naming a child may contribute to shyness in a variety of ways.

The Alberta Division of the Canadian Cancer Society has announced that it will again sponsor a Cancer Scrapbook contest in the Alberta schools.

As in the past, cash prizes totalling nearly $1000 have been donated by a group of life members of the Society who annually give funds for this purpose.

The prize list in each of the Society's branch areas comprising Calgary, Crowsnest Pass, Drumheller, Edmonton, Grande Prairie, Lethbridge, Medicine Hat, Peace River, Red Deer and Vermilion, consists of 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th prizes of $10, $5, $3 and $2 respectively in grades 5 and 6, grades 7 and 8, grades 9 and 10 and grades 11 and 12. Following the branch awards, grand prizes will be awarded for the best entries in the same classes in the entire province. The closing dates for entries is March 15, 1956.

Posters giving details of the competition have been supplied to all schools in the province. Teachers or pupils who do not receive posters and other information relative to the contest may secure them from Mrs. W. E. Cross, Vermilion.

Mannville High School Initiation

MANNVILLE—Once again Mannville high school staged its annual initiation day and program, this year on Friday, 16th. Friday morning was a riotous one as grade ten pupils, new students and new teachers arrived at school in very effective pirate costumes. These costumes consisted of short ragged trousers for the girls, short skirts for the boys, sleeveless shirts, colored turbans, shoes much too large, black moustaches and sideburns, black knees, one black eye and black fingernails, dangling earrings and long cardboard swords.

At 11:30 a.m., the snake dance proceeded through the school rooms and down town. Nobody even noticed the mud except the proprietors. Then the noisy bunch returned to school for afternoon classes.

Anyone spying at the gym, Friday night would have observed and overheard some very strange things. By 10:00 p.m. consequences such as "marshmallow" duets, training on how to feed chickens, and egg rolling by the nose were in full swing. All spectators were well entertained by the hilarious feats. Following this was a dance to music by Williams' orchestra, followed by lunch. Even the grade tens enjoyed themselves at the dance and by the end of the evening all high school students thought the new grade tens were a pretty good bunch of sports who certainly earned their way into Mannville High School.

LaPorte-Wilson Nuptials Are Held In Vermilion

In a lovely ceremony performed by Rev. Father Chevrier, on September 3rd at 11:00a.m., Miss Janet Nora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson of Vermilion became the bride of Mr. Jean Louis Laporte of Bonnyville. The ceremony took place in Vermilion where the bride had received her schooling and later was an employee of the Alberta Telephones. Jean 'Johnny' Laporte is a graduate of the Vermilion School of Agriculture and was a valuable member, as goalkeeper, of the Vermilion Tigers hockey team for two seasons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white net over satin, styled along traditional lines with bouffant skirt, Chantilly lace bodice with low neckline and lily point sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a crown of rhinestones and she carried a bouquet of red roses. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls.

Attending the bride was Miss Alice Brix who wore a pink ballerina length gown of net over taffeta styled with strapless bodice and net bolero. She carried a bouquet of roses.

Mr. Raymond Hamel was the groom's attendant.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wilson wore a blue two-piece suit, accented with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a brown suit and her corsage was also of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Legion hall for some ninety guests. The bride's table was beautifully centered with a three-tiered wedding cake and bouquets of natural flowers. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. G. Martin.

For a honeymoon in Montana the bride wore a grey linen suit with black and pink accessories.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. G. Gauthier of Winnipeg; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Baril, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baril, Mr. and Mrs. Metro Philipchuk and Martin Krupa all of Edmonton; Miss Darleen Craig and Miss Alice Brix of Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Barbeau of Buck Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Laporte will make their home in Bonnyville.

Farkash-Barlow Nuptials Solemnized

An early afternoon ceremony in St. Saviour's Anglican church, Vermilion united in marriage Winnifred Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barlow and Charles Edward, son of Mrs. Matt Farkash, all of Vermilion.

Gladioli banked the altar for the ceremony performed by Rev. Kells A. Minchin. The pews were marked with nosegays of sweetpeas tied with white bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown of embroidered nylon net over satin. The bodice was of gathered embroidered net complemented with a plain net bolero extending into long lily point sleeves. The bouffant floor-length skirt was fashioned with alternating tiers of embroidered and plain net. Her fingertip veil of illusion misted from a crown of irridescent sequins trimmed with rhinestones and fine pearls. The bride's only jewelry was a triple strand of pearls and earrings, a gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Ena Leigh attended her sister as bridesmaid, wearing a similarly styled cocktail-length gown of mauve net and lace. She wore a net crown trimmed with lily of the valley and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Matt Farkash. Ushers were Mr. Larry Barlow and Mr. Frank Farkash.

The organist was Mrs. M. Simonsen. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Frank Hurt of Lloydminster sang "The Wedding Prayer".

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Barlow chose a light blue crepe dress with navy accessories and pink carnations on corsage. The groom's mother wore a mauve dress with white accessories and yellow carnations on corsage.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Wm. Bushko proposed the toast to the bride.

For her wedding trip, the bride donned a bluish grey suit complemented with pink and black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Farkash will reside in Vermilion.

NEWS from ISLAY

CHURCH SERVICES SUNDAY

There will be church service on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in connection with the Sunday school. So parents, come with your children. Mr. McGuffin of the Dewberry-Marwayne field will be minister. Remember, Sept. 25th at 11 a.m.

Then at 1 p.m. there will be an Anglican church service when Bishop Clarke will be present. Sunday, Sept. 25th at 1 p.m. in the United church.

We missed Omer Easton for a number of days — but he has reappeared. Seemingly he was much in demand for harvest, at Jim McClelland's, Pete Wilkinson's and Charlie Roberts'. Also Omer had a long ride on a 'hot' truck. (I wondered what that was). The driver was Leonard Romanchuk, he was taking hot tar material for surface making to an air port at Fort Nelson, going from Lloydminster. They were two whole days on the way. While at Peace River he saw Dave Maktais and had a visit. Omer says it's a beautiful country.

Initiation at the Islay school has been in progress for a couple of days. We saw some of the boys with ribbons in their hair, and wearing aprons, looked like cooks. Eddie Waterfield looked like a good cook, too. We think he might be able to make good bread, he could really 'knead' it well. Also saw Ken Gunn having his shoes shined by one of the initiants, really shined! Even the principal, Mr. Moncrief looked charming decked out in an apron and hair bow.

Miss Marie Crey is at home for a time, intending to help with the harvest, but this weather isn't at all suitable.

Mr. Charlie Machell and family are visiting his parents and brother George here in Islay.

Mrs. Evelyn Dalkin of McLaughlin spent the week end with her folks Mr. and Mrs. Olds, and returned home on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Olds drove down, returning home Tuesday.

Several from here attended the Presbyterial W.M.S. rally in Vermilion Monday: Mrs. Bothwell, Mrs. Schaffer, Mrs. Betty Shaw, Mrs. Irene Martin, Mrs. Sweet, Miss Anderson, Misses Muriel and Gladys Stone.

The St. Paul United Church Presbytery meets in Edgerton on Thursday, Sept. 29th.

New Teachers Introduced At Dewberry Home and School Meeting

DEWBERRY — The first meeting of the Dewberry Home and School for the 1955-56 term was held on September 15th, with the Principal of the high school, Mr. Angus Smith acting as chairman, and Mrs. J. S. McKay as secretary.

Mr. Smith introduced the new teachers, Miss Besse, Miss Young, Miss Whiteside, Mrs. Smith (substitute), Mrs. Witzany, Mr. Marshall, Mr. Powell and Mrs. Woollett.

An outline of the school grade set-up was given by the chairman, who informed the meeting that 249 pupils have registered this year. The new officers for the coming year were elected, as follows: Mrs. Joe Braithwaite, President; Mr. J. Whiteside, Vice-President; Mrs. J. S. McKay, Secretary-Treasurer. Representatives were also elected for the executive council and the lunch committee.

A letter was read by the chairman regarding the Banff Workshop, and Mrs. William Hotman was elected to represent the Home and School at the Banff Workshop Oct. 17 to 20.

Two scholarship pupils were introduced—Ronald Mathison and Ernie Braithwaite—as winners of the $25 and $50 scholarships presented by the Home and School for the highest average in grades 9 and 12. Ronald is continuing at Dewberry in Grade 9, and Ernie goes to the University of Alberta.

HE WILL GROW UP!

YES, some day that little man will be a big man: a Doctor, Lawyer, Business Man . . . or maybe a laborer digging a ditch.

He will always be able to choose the latter; YOU can help him if he should like any of the former! There is absolutely nothing the matter with digging ditches . . . but why not let him choose what he would like to do?

Success is seldom attained by accident. Good farmers make good plans; good business men operate according to a sound plan. You can help your son make sound plans by a well planned Savings Plan which can be used for education or Estate building.

There are a host of very good plans you might follow that will possibly attain the end desired.

Our TWENTY-ONE PLAN has a few advantages that most savings plans do not offer, e.g.:

(1)—If you are disabled it continues on putting in the money you intended to, but of course you would not be able to do.

(2)—If you should die or get killed it will continue to put away money each year for your boy just as you intended to do.

For these two reasons it becomes a guaranteed savings plan, not left to chance.

You'l be amazed how little money has to be set aside each year to give your son the start in life he should have.

If you want further information, write or phone. (There will be no obligation and no sales pressure. If you have better plans, that is fine . . after all, it is your son . . . but we like this plan and will be happy to give you details.)

Reporter Expresses Appreciation

MANNVILLE. — I wish to express my sincere thanks to the local and district folk of Mannville for their splendid co-operation in helping me gather the news in the past three years that I have reported for the Mannville Mirror. But as few probably know, there is very little monetary gain in writing the news — collecting ads and subscriptions is the only profit for the reporter — and as this privilege has been taken away from me I do not feel that I can spend so much time worrying about getting the news in on time. I have tried to keep the paper interesting for the local residents as well as former residents of Mannville and district who appreciate 'news from home'.

I will still be reporting for the Edmonton Journal and Vermilion Standard so any visitors or news of interest you may have will be appreciated.

Mrs. Edith Johnston.

Mannville.

THE WEATHER

Rain commenced in the Vermilion area Thursday of last week, putting a stop to all harvesting operations. Sunday and Monday were clear, bright and warm, raising hopes for settled weather but rain started again Tuesday and has continued intermittently since. A light skiff of snow fell Wednesday night was was washed out by the drizzly rain before morning.

Pleasant Valley

The hills are looking very lovely now with the tinted autumn foliage which will soon be falling.

Quite a number of wild roses are in bloom again. By the way, rose hips are supposed to be very healthful and make grand jelly.

Mrs. Clarke grew a pumpkin that tipped the scales at 33 pounds. You will have lots of pumpkin for pies from that one Annie.

The writer and husband visited the Moore home on Sunday. We enjoyed the (?) very much Mrs. Moore. This is a dish you roll in flour and fry until brown — it's good!

Christie Clark and family visited their sister at McLaughlin on Sunday. Laurence and Chrissie were supper guests at Fred's home.

Reading the sports news about Walter O'Malley from Brooklyn is this the one I have heard you mention Sylvia?

Former Vermilion Teacher Ranks High In Profession

An article entitled "How A Progressive Teacher Works" was built up around Miss Jean Dey, a former Vermilion teacher who left here in 1944 to accept a position on the Edmonton staff. Miss Dey has built up a reputation as an outstanding primary teacher, using many methods and approaches entirely of her own development. The article concludes that the modern curriculum and methods as applied by Miss Dey certainly achieve the objectives and in a pleasant and interesting way.

CLAYSMORE CLIPPINGS

The community was shocked on Saturday by the news of the death of our good friend and neighbor August Van Nest in the Elk Point hospital after a short illness. We all extend our sympathy to Mrs. Van Nest and her two young sons Gordon and Russell.

Mrs. L. Harrison and three children of Lloydminster and Mr. and Mrs. Vic Van Nest and family of Lone Rock, Sask., were visiting friends and relations in the Claysmore district Sunday.

RAIN HALTS HARVEST

The rain of last week end and the first part of this week has put a stop to all threshing and combining for a few days here. We will need some good drying weather now before harvesting can get going again. The forecast however for this part of Alberta at time of writing is not very favorable.

Six new pupils started school on the Enfied bus route. They are Paul Horne, Sandra Lynch, and Sandra Gordon from this district.

R. Bang was out checking the telephone lines Monday and was able to find the trouble. We are certainly glad to have our phones working well again. The wind of last week was the cause of the trouble, tangling up the wires.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Willes were supper guests at the Allan Olstad home Sunday. Evening callers were the Jim Hornes and Junior Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tweedy of Borradaile were Wednesday evening visitors at Allan Olstad's.

Several from here were at the popular Curling Club Bingo Saturday eevning in Vermilion but none were fortunate enough to bring a prize. However we can try again on October 1st when a Plymouth will be the grand prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCauley and family were Sunday visitors at the latter's sister's, Mrs. Roberts.

Candra, Donna and Kenny Olstad were visitors at the Fred Walling home on Tuesday afternoon.

A jolly time was had at the Jack Willes home on Sept. 9th when 12 young friends of Linda's enjoyed a barbecue in honor of her birthday. A lovely birthday cake and ice cream topped off the happy event.

THE STAGETTES

In spite of the rather dampening weather outside, our new office-bearers got off to a fine start. The meeting covered a great deal of future planning, as well as being very constit-oo-shon-a!

Welcome to those members who were not able to attend our last meeting. Of course we have still one missing. I hope we will be able to withstand the onslaught when she returns after renewing her acquaintance with the blarney stone!

Now is the time to get that hat and uniform out of hock, or mothballs, for next Tuesday Marie will be our hostess in a little old social get-together. And the first week of October is National Stagette Week. Plans are underway to give everyone a busy and interesting time.

Some diabolical business is on hand, too with Noreen and Nan getting their heads together for initiation ideas.

Here's a date to remember! — October 18th. Why? Because that is the night of the first big dance of the season, the Stagette Harvest Ball. Come and relax after the summer's hard work.

Ethel and Marie, don't forget you have the first checking night of the season. Enjoy yourself!

It was reported in the Lloydminster Times that Robert Good of that town was awarded a special scholarship on graduation from public school. The scholarships are awarded annually to the most deserving pupils in the school. Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Good, former residents of Vermilion.

A very welcome visitor in Vermilion during the past week has been that well known former lady Mrs. Bob Beckett. While in town Mrs. Beckett was a guest at the home of Mrs. Annie Cameron. Mrs. Beckett now resides at Chilliwack. On her return she will stop at Edmonton to visit her son Robert Curtis and family as well as her daughter Eleanor and family. Mrs. Beckett saw many of her old friends and really enjoyed her stay in town.

Mr and Mrs. Jos Hinder of Edmonton spent a couple of days in town this week visiting at the home of the latter's brother Mr. Frank Welsh and family. Mr. and Mrs. Hinder had a real aerial experience on their way to Vermilion Monday. They had stopped in Vegreville for lunch and left their car parked in the hot sun with the windows all closed. On their return to the car they found 2-3 rear window had imploded . . . and shattered from heat and pressure from the inside.

Safecrackers Take $1,000 at Marwayne

"50 Years of Rotary"

This being the Golden Jubilee of the founding of Rotary, it was fitting that a talk reviewing the history of the organization be given at the meeting of the Vermilion Rotary club last Friday. The speaker chosen to address the Club was Simeon Simonson.

Mr. Simonson told of the initial organization, the early years, and as he followed out the development and growth of the movement, dwelt on the many community and charitable projects conducted upon by Rotary. He ended his remarks by stating that early in 1955 another milestone had been built into the Rotary movement with the founding of a new club at Vermilion.

Mr. Simonson was suitably introduced by Ashley Cooper and at the conclusion of his address was thanked by President Ray Mitchell.

VERMILION CLUB HAS BEST ATTENDANCE

The Vermilion club ranked first in attendance for the month of August for the district. Incidentally the district includes some 30 clubs in Alberta and Saskatchewan. The local boys were really pleased with their achievement and attendance committee chairman McCormick came in for considerable praise.

Visitors at the luncheon were Rotarians Lou Hanson, President of the Lloydminster club, Archie Miller and Charlie Mosley, all of Lloyd, while the former guest was Orion Strome attending with Ed Curley. Mitch Taylor was welcomed on his return from six weeks in Scotland.

Martin McBride Honored On 84th Birthday

A very enjoyable day was spent at 'Kil-Kar' the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Robinson in Washington, U.S.A., in honor of Mr. Martin McBride's 84th birthday. Mr. McBride is holidaying with his daughter Neva and granddaughter Beverly. Tables were set out under the trees and 38 guests sat down to a delicious dinner. The large birthday cake, cut by Mr. McBride, was decorated with a farm scene.

Wee Lynda Nelson presented the gifts and wished Mr. McBride a 'Happy Birthday'.

The afternoon was spent in taking pictures, walks along the sandy beach, and the young people cooled off with a swim. After supper the five cars toured surrounding summer resorts and took a lovely drive along the Fraser river home.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. M. Robinson; Mr. and Mrs. E. Nelson, Blaine and Lynda; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Workman; Mr. Henry Newcombe (brother of the late Edward Newcombe of Islay); Mrs. W. Easton; Mr. and Mrs. George Rawdon; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Monaghan; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Workman; Mr. and Mrs. Garney Workman; Mrs. Isabelle Reeh and Debbie; Mr. and Mrs. O. Blake; Emily and Donna Dalton; Bill Dalton; Walter Baker; Neva Newcombe; Beverly Robinson.

Since coming to Vancouver Mr. McBride, through the kindness of friends, has been driven a good many miles and seen some nice places including the New Cheviot and Dam where Vancouver gets its water supply; Queen Elizabeth Park with its sunken gardens, waterfalls and masses of flowers; a long drive to Lulu Island, Sea Island and out to the airport.

A wonderful time was had by all. Mr. McBride extends thanks to his Vermilion friends for the birthday greetings he received from there.

High blood pressure, which may affect younger people as well as middle aged, puts extra strain on the heart. It is wise therefore to consult a doctor at any symptoms of high blood pressure.

Evangelistic Film To Be Shown Here

The world's first Bible deliverance film "Venture Into Faith" which is built around the evangelistic ministry of Rev. Oral Roberts, will be shown in Vermilion at the Elks hall, 8 p.m. Tuesday Sept. 27.

The film features Oral Roberts and tells an absorbing story of the power of faith in God. Centering around the nation-wide Roberts campaigns, this sound-color religious picture includes soul-stirring scenes from Oral Roberts meetings under the huge 'tent cathedral' which seats 14,000.

The story is built around Jim and Ruth Collins who are faced with the tragic certainty of the nearing death of their young son Dave, who is bedfast with tuberculosis.

"Venture Into Faith" is a pioneer attempt to strengthen the viewers faith in God. The sincerity and genuine faith in God exemplified throughout the film freaks it one of the most religious pictures ever produced.

The picture is being shown without admission charge throughout the country in churches and auditoriums, but will be shown in theatres. Everyone is invited to attend.

Square Dance Lessons At Islay

WOODVALE NOTES

BUSY TIME OF YEAR

With the arrival of new copy paper and envelopes, we feel ashamed to have neglected our corresponding duties for so long! We have excuses, of course, having been busy with canning, extra work the harvest always brings to a farmer's wife, and for several weeks a house full to overflowing with guests.

We are sure we miss quite a few news items, but here are those we have notes of in our lot book.

First of all congratulations to two pairs of brand new parents! Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lysons and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wells, proud of their baby, in both cases a girl!

RED CROSS REPORT

We will have to go away back to Aug. 31 to report on the lecture Miss Salisbury of the Health Unit staff gave in Ganton school. It was sponsored by the Red Cross auxiliary and found very interesting by the many ladies present, among whom were several from the Wildwood district. It was decided to have the regular Red Cross meeting for October on the 5th at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Portsmith with work on several baby quilts to keep the members occupied.

Mrs. Mary McGrath is taking over the post of secretary for the time Mrs. Amy Portsmith is away. The latter and her husband have gone on a trip to see their son and his wife in Toronto and will visit other relatives and friends in the East. They expect to be away for several months.

Ernie Isley is teaching at Rye school and Camille Gourtier has gone back to teach again in the Peace River country.

HARVESTING HELD UP

Harvesting was progressing very well, then suddenly the lovely weather came to an end. Although the weather forecast promises a return to sunshine it keeps cloudy with showers. A few places had quite a bit of rain, others just a drizzle.

A good week of threshing and combining should clear most of the fields. We have heard of wheat yields all the way from 10 to 30 bushels, very uneven. Oats have a lot of weed in them, making the men look like Indians in red war paint.

Mrs. Eva Dickson is still in the Royal Alexandra hospital, after a serious spinal operation, where she will have to stay for a few weeks yet. She gets very lonesome there, being kept rigid in bed, so if you happen to be in Edmonton do drop in on her.

SCHOOL BELL RINGS

School opened with 47 pupils, among them 12 new grade ones. Mrs. Roberts is again in charge of the 30 pupils in the first four grades and Mr. Hohol of the higher grades, with four children in Grade 9. Six of the district children are taking Grade 10 in Vermilion, being transported daily by bus.

Church services came to an end early this month when Mr. and Mrs. Bradley went back to Toronto. However there will be a special service in Ganton in October with Rev. Nugent of Edmonton in charge. Watch for further announcement of the date folks.

While held up with harvesting the Bible Study groups have been installing stanchions and a DeLaval milking machine in their barn.

FLOWERS STILL BLOOMING

Despite the frost we still have California and Toland poppies, red carnations, sweetpeas, asters and roses in bloom.

Subscribers are urgently asked to check their subscription dates as shown on their Standard labels.

Richardson-Curtis Wedding Vows

RICHARDSON—CURTIS

On Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 10th, the St. Saviour's Anglican church, Vermilion, was the setting of a pretty wedding when Esta Lorene, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Curtis, Helenburg, became the bride of Edward Frederick, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson, Vermilion.

Rev. McPherson of Manville performed the ceremony. Mrs. Gerrie Simonsen was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a semi-formal gown of white satin with strapless bodice of nylon lace and nylon net overskirt. She wore a matching lace bolero featuring short scolloped sleeves and Peter Pan collar. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a lace tiara. Her only jewelry was a three-strand pearl necklace, a gift of the groom, and she carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses.

Her bridesmaid, Anne Richardson, sister of the groom, wore a semi-formal, strapless gown of aqua taffeta and nylon net, with matching bolero, headdress and gloves. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. The flower girl, Karen Richardson, sister of the groom, wore a nylon peach-colored party dress and carried a basket of sweetpeas.

The groom was attended by his brother George Richardson Jr. The ushers were Ronnie Inman and Ed Lyons.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Curtis wore a mauve afternoon dress with white accessories and pink rose corsage. The groom's mother chose a yellow afternoon dress with white and tan accessories with yellow rose corsage.

A reception was held immediately after the wedding in the church hall and catered to by the Anglican W.A. Rev. McPherson proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom ably responded.

That evening the newlyweds and their parents were hosts to many frinds and acquaintances at a dance held in the Greenlawn hall.

After a short honeymoon the young couple are making their home in Vermilion.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Neville Calvert of Chipman, Mrs. Molly Downey of Edmonton and Grandpa Richardson Jr. from Armena, Alberta.

CHURCH GOERS

Almost all Canadians consider themselves members of a church, but surveys show that about 60% really do attend services regularly, says The Financial Post. Of the six million persons who listed themselves as Roman Catholics during the 1951 census, some 80% are found in church regularly. Of the six million Protestants, some 40 to 50% take an active or periodic interest in church affairs and services.

Wife twice as many Catholics go to church each Sunday. Protestants put twice as much in the collection plate when they do go. Their contribution averages $30 per year from each active adult Protestant.

A baby's daily sunbath may be arranged by placing the child at an open window or out of doors but care should be taken that he is not left where strong sunlight can strike his eyes or where there is any danger of sunburn.

Appeal By Audubon Society of Canada

Whooping Cranes' Dangerous Flight Will Be Starting Soon

The world's last flock of whooping cranes wil soon be on the move again, according to Audubon Society of Canada headquarters. The cranes' fall migration from the Northwest Territories and northwestern Saskatchewan — always a dramatic event — will have a new significance this year, Audubon officials said.

This year, for the first time in the recent history of protection of these birds, the exact breeding grounds are known. Young of the year have been observed and counted prior to their departure southward. This means, of course, that the wildlife officals will be enabled to determine much more accurately than ever before the nature and extent of losses, if any, along the 2500-mile migration route.

LOCATE BREEDING GROUND

This past summer field biologists of the Canadian Wildlife Service, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and National Audubon Society succeeded in locating what is apparently the bulk of the breeding flock of whooping cranes in a [illegible] wilderness. This search continued for ten years until this summer. In addition to aerial surveys, a ground party, after a month of failure, finally reached the vicinity of the nests and made important studies of the nesting habitat of the whooping crane.

FIVE YOUNG 'WHOOPERS'

Subsequent surveys from the air revealed a total of five young whooping cranes as of the first week of August. The youngsters were hatched in June and will not be big enough to fly until some time this month, when they must join the adult birds on the hazardous flight south. The big question in the minds of conservationists is — How many of these young whooping cranes will get through safely to their wintering grounds on the Texan coast of the Gulf of Mexico.

TWO SETS OF TWINS
26 LOST SINCE 1939

Of special interest is the fact that there are two sets of twins in this year's addition to the ranks of the rarest of Canadian birds. In the previous sixteen years during which records have been kept, only seven sets of twins have been reported at the wintering grounds, the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge in Texas. Only once have as many as two adult pairs reached the area with two youngsters each. That was in the winter of [illegible].

In spite of the tremendous public [illegible] which has been aroused in the whooping crane in recent years, this brave, tiny flock of giant birds has only just been able to hold its own. Since 1939, a total of sixty young have been brought safely to the Aransas Refuge, while 26 cranes, adults and young alike, have been counted as lost during the same period.

LOST DURING MIGRATION

It is believed that most of these losses take place during migration, Audubon Society of Canada says. This is particularly true in the fall when many hunters are out along the migration route. Except for these migratory losses, dangers on the northern Canada breeding grounds and the southern U.S. wintering grounds are slight.

In many regions along the migration route of the whooping crane, human population has increased substantially. Losses in the crane flock have increased as well. The most [illegible] of the route is among the potholes and prairies of southern Saskatchewan, and possibly southwestern Manitoba and eastern Alberta.

HOW CAN HELP

Residents of this area, and people elsewhere on the migration route, should be alerted to the role they can play in helping to prevent accidental or wilful shooting of these magnificent birds, which are protected, of course, by law in Canada and the United States. Communities along the flight line might well foster a sense of local responsibility in this campaign. On both sides of the border, government conservation departments, civic groups, Audubon Societies, garden clubs, sportsmen's organizations such as Ducks Unlimited, Scout groups, [illegible] and many others have already given valuable publicity to the urgency of the situation and the need for caution among all those who go afield with a gun.

Last fall, for the first time since protective efforts began, 21 whooping cranes safely made their way down to Texas from the Northwest Territories and Saskatchewan but without a single young bird to add to their dwindling flock. Will the five young which have been raised this season be spared? Or, will they be thoughtlessly, needlessly destroyed as they attempt to cross western Canada and the central United States to their ancestral winter refuge?

LIVING CHALLENGE

This is a living challenge, say Audubon officials, a challenge that can be met by those who live close to the migratory route of the whooping cranes. People in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba may have the fate of the great birds in their hands. The Audubon Society of Canada appeals to residents of these provinces to help — by speaking to friends and neighbors. The whooping crane stands 4 FEET TALL, with a WINGSPREAD OF OVER 7 FEET. No large white bird should be shot at — it might be a whooping crane. Please pass the word along — NOW!

MIGRATION STARTS SOON

The whooping cranes will begin to move southward through [illegible] Saskatchewan any day now, and the migration continues through October. It takes until late November before the last stragglers reach the Gulf Coast. This is a critical period for our country's rarest bird — a symbol of the wild majesty of northern Canada. Everyone can help. 1011

Monument In Honor Province of Alberta

Alberta, which this year celebrates its 50th year as a Canadian province now has a permanent monument to mark its incorporation. On the northern approach to the Legislative Building at Edmonton, a cut-stone monument has been erected on the recommendation of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of Canada.

Dedicated to the creation of the Province of Alberta on September 1, 1905, the plaque on the monument reads "To this land of prairie, foothill, mountain and river, where the Indian roamed, came explorer, fur trader, voyageur, missionary, ranchman, farmer and railway builder. At points on river and railway, towns and cities grew. Within the North West Territories the battle for responsible government was a-gain fought and won.

"The demand for wider autonomy led to the setting apart of the western portion of the Territories as the Province of Alberta, which was formally inaugurated on 1st September, 1905. Hon V. H. V. Bulyea was the first Lieutenant-Governor and Hon. A. C. Rutherford the first Premier."

Prime Minister L. S. St. Laurent unveiled the monument at 10:00 a.m., September 7. Alberta Premier E. C. Manning spoke. Professor M. H. Long, Alberta member of the Historic Monuments Board, presented the monument for unveiling, while Col. F. C. Jamieson, Q.C., who was present on Inauguration Day at Edmonton in 1905, told of his memories of that historic occasion. J. G. MacGregor, president of the Alberta Historical Society, was the chairman of the ceremony, which was under auspices of the society.

A monument to mark the incorporation of Saskatchewan as a province was erected in 1942 in Regina on the spot where the 1905 ceremony in that province was held.

Legislation Enables Farmers To Establish Marketing Boards

EDMONTON. — The most important bill passed at the recent special session of the Alberta legislature was the one which enables farmers to establish their own marketing boards.

It sparked the lengthiest debate of the session, and both Social Credit and opposition ranks were split on the issue. The bill was passed with a strong majority, on a standing vote of [illegible] — but many members who supported it did so only after expressing reluctance.

The controversy surrounding the bill arose out of the wide powers which would be given to a commodity marketing board, and certain compulsory features in sections of the bill dealing with the constitution of a board. More will be said about these powers later.

Premier Manning's government was lukewarm about the bill, but took the position that it had been introduced because of continual pressure from the Alberta Federation of Agriculture and the Farmers' Union of Alberta. Many of the members who supported it took the same position.

Even though the bill has been approved, farmers are a long way from having their own marketing boards, and under the provisions of the bill it won't be easy to establish one.

First of all, the government wants to be sure a strong majority of producers are in favor of a marketing board. And to make doubly sure, it rebuffed efforts by the AFA, the FUA and some Liberal members of the house to relax the voting restrictions.

As the legislation stands, a board cannot be set up unless it has the approval by vote of 51% of the producers. This is not an ordinary majority vote. It means 51% of those eligible to vote must cast affirmative ballots, or there will be no board.

The two farm groups thought the 51% vote was too strict. They thought the issue should be decided by a 66 and two-thirds majority of those who actually turn out and vote. They argued it would be too difficult to get enough farmers to vote.

But the government pointed out that this would be too dangerous. If the voting restrictions were relaxed, it would mean two-thirds of a small numbers of voters could force marketing boards on all the rest of the producers.

There was some argument that those who don't bother to vote shouldn't deserve much consideration, but the government wouldn't accept this.

The government also felt that the AFA and FUA hadn't proven that the marketing idea enjoys widespread support from farmers. Some members said farmers in their ridings were strongly opposed.

CATTLE AND SHEEP NOT INCLUDED

The house also refused AFA and FUA requests to include cattle and sheep under the provisions of the bill. Southern ranchers expressed complete distaste to the principle of marketing boards, and asked that sheep and cattle be left out. Hon. L. C. Halmrast, minister of agriculture, said producers in his southern constituency of Warner were definitely opposed.

So the right to set up marketing boards was limited to producers of poultry, poultry products, hogs, vegetables, honey, cheese, commercial grass or legume seed.

Under the bill a separate marketing board would be set up to handle a specific product. The board also might be confined to a certain area. For example, poultry producers in the Edmonton area could set up a board, or vegetable producers in the [illegible].

If a board is established it will have wide powers under the act, and these are what drew much of the criticism in the house. For example, a board could fix prices and establish different prices in different parts of the province. It also could determine maximum spread allowed a dealer handling the controlled product.

A marketing board could require all producers and marketers to register their names and addresses with the board. It could require all persons engaged in marketing to obtain a license from the board and show proof of financial responsibility.

It could require persons engaged in marketing to make periodic returns, and could inspect the books and premises of such persons. In the event of goods being kept or marketed in violation of a board order, it could seize the goods, dispose of them and retain the proceeds.

When these powers were questioned, the reply was that they are necessary for the efficient operation of the board, and are contained in marketing acts in most other Canadian provinces.

OPPOSTION VOTE

After hours of debate, it came to a vote. Five Social Crediters and eight opposition members voted against it.

The Social Crediters who voted against it were Rose Wilkinson (Calgary); Ira McLaughlin, Grande Prairie; William Kovach (Pincher Creek-Crowsnest); A. J. Dixon, Calgary, and Rev. J. A. Wingblade, Wetaskiwin. Opposition members opposed to it were Bryce Stringam, (Ind. Bow Valley-Empress); R. E. Ansley (Ind. SC, Leduc); Ross Ellis (Lib.-Cons., Okotoks-High Riv.); F. L. Gainer (Coalition Banff-Cochrane); J. P. Page (PC, Edmonton); A. R. Smith (PC, Calgary), J. L. Sims (Lib. Acadia-Coronation) and A. W. Miller (Lib., Edmonton).

Mr. Ansley Ind. SC of Leduc, led the opposition by describing the bill as 'Communistic and Socialistic'. Mrs. Wilkinson of Calgary, agreed with him. Mr. Miller saw the danger of a combine bringing higher prices to consumers.

Among those who supported the bill, W. F. Gilliland (SC Peace Riv.) expressed reluctance. During the four or five years marketing boards have been discussed, he said, he has not had one farmer speak to him in favor of them. He supported the bill because he felt farmers should have a right to vote on the matter.

HEART NOT IN IT

W. J. C. Kirby (PC Red Deer) probably expressed the feelings of many of those who voted in favor of the bill. While he didn't like it, he believed the farmers should be given the right to decide for themselves. He was certain, he said, that when it came to a vote the farmers would reject it.

The AFA and FUA have won a long battle to have enabling legislation passed. They got what they wanted, but the heart of the legislature wasn't in it.

Mr. A. T. Goodwin has returned home after an extended visit with friends and relatives in the U.S.A. and expects to spend the winter in [illegible].

Weather during the past week has been very erratic. As a result harvesting operations have been held up and at time of writing no promise of better things to come. As a result of the break in the weather the duck population has been cut down as hunters have had more time for shooting. We hear of a few geese being bagged.

Work on the Alberta Pacific elevator No. 1 has been completed and it will now be open for business. Work on the new municipal snow plowshed is being rushed these days and will soon be completed. Dominion Youth Group Secretary Speaker At W. M. S. Presbyterial

More than sixty women attended the autumn rally of St. Paul's United Presbyterial held Sept. 19 in the Vermilion United church. The president Mrs. J. A. Hamilton of Wainwright, was in charge of the meeting which was opened with a devotional service conducted by Mrs. J. G. Inglis of Kitscoty. The president of the Vermilion Auxiliary Mrs. C. Barr extended a cordial welcome to the Presbyterial. Greetings from Presbytery were brought by Rev. C. W. MacKay and from the W.A. Presbytery by Mrs. Davis. In her report the treasurer urged all the auxiliaries to remit funds promptly each quarter. Three new department secretaries were elected as follows: Community Friendship, Mrs. A. Knapp, Cold Lake; Explorers', Mrs. A. W. Sweet, Islay; Secretary for Candidates, Mrs. J. Davis, Vermilion.

A missionary [illegible] conducted by Mrs. W. L. Roebuck and a buzz session both proved interesting.

Miss Catherine McKeen, Secretary for Younger Groups of the Dominion Board of the W.M.S. was guest speaker. After briefly reviewing the study books of the different age groups, Miss McKeen gave an interesting address on Missionary Education in which she emphasized the importance of sympathetic understanding of the people of other races.

During the afternoon two enjoyable piano solos were given by Miss Margaret Goodwin. After the close of the meeting the Vermilion Auxiliary entertained the visitors at supper thus concluding a worthwhile afternoon.

V. S. A. To Open October 18th

The Alberta Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics begin the 1955 autumn term on Oct. 18. The five-month session allows the farm young people to be at home during the busy fall and spring seasons.

The courses offered are of a practical variety, animal husbandry, field crops, horticulture, farm management, nutrition, sewing, cooking, home nursing and handicrafts. Added to these are the dormitory life and a busy social curriculum.

The cost is nominal, approximately $240 which includes everything for the five month. Spending money is of course additional and will vary with each student.

For students wondering whether they want to take their degree in Agriculture or Home Economics or for students who know they want to make their living in a rural community the schools have something to offer. The possible degree student will know at a much cheaper rate than a year at university whether or not Agriculture is his field. The student whose mind is made up will gain a good practical academic background on which to build.

Applications may be had by writing to the Principal of the schools at Olds, Vermilion or Fairview.

Death Of Lorne McLean Widely Mourned In Vermilion and District

Lorne Neddry McLean, for many years one of Vermilion's leading business men and citizens, passed away at the Vermilion Municipal hospital on Friday, Sept. 23rd at the age of 66 years. He had entered the hospital due to an attack of asthma, an ailment from which he suffered. His condition was not thought to be serious and his death came as a decided shock to family and friends.

Lorne McLean was born at Portage La Prairie, Manitoba, on Sept. 2, 1889. He came to Vermilion in 1911 as a steam fitter and machinist with the railroad. At that time it was the Canadian Northern Railway, and Vermilion was a main divisional point, many engines being serviced in the round house here.

On November 18, 1911 he married Miss Emily Johnson, who survives him. Together they later acquired a farm in the Dewberry district which they have owned and operated ever since. Mr McLean also secured an interest in the Vermilion Motors garage and in 1918 became the owner and manager. The business was built into one of the largest, with car sales and repair work. He operated this business until 1949 when he sold to the present owners, the Herzog Bros. Although retired Lorne continued to operate his farm at Dewberry. Only two or three years ago he and Mrs. McLean built a very fine home in the east end of Vermilion.

"Lorne" as he was familiarly known, was not only successful in business, but was a most friendly person and a versatile entertainer of considerable ability. In the days of amateur theatricals he was the spark in many a minstrel show, singing and playing on his banjo. He also played the violin and was a popular competitor in recent old time fiddlers' contests sponsored by the Kinsmen club. He was a member of the B.P.O.E. and of Vermilion Masonic Lodge No. 24.

He is survived by his sorrowing wife, one daughter Mrs. E. J. Edey (Madelon); three grandchildren; two brothers, Jack at Winnipeg and Archie in Edmonton; one sister Mrs. J. Spence of Winnipeg.

The Rev. C. W. MacKay conducted the funeral services at the First United church, Vermilion, on Monday, Sept. 26th at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, with interment following in the Vermilion cemetery. The very large attendance testified to the esteem and friendship felt for the deceased, and sympathy for the bereaved.

Attending the service in a body, and in full regalia were the members of the Vermilion Masonic lodge. The beautiful ritual of the Order was carried out at the graveside. Six brothers of the Fraternity bore the casket to its final resting place. The pall bearers were Past Masters of the Lodge, J. W. G. Morrison, E. M. Stewart, J. S. Cross, G. C. Webb, and Brothers E. Corley and Frank Gilbert.

All arrangements were carried out by Moyers Funeral Home.

Marilyn Alice Brake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brake of Clandonald, has been awarded a scholarship of $50 by the Alberta Federation of Home & School Associations.

"These awards are given each year by the Alberta Federation of Home and School Associations in honor of the late Dr Kerby, who was the first president of the Federation. Your award is for students in Class A, which covers schools where there are two or fewer teachers. Your school, Clandonald is in this class."

Anglican Bishop Visits Vermilion

The Anglican churches of Vermilion and district were honored on Sunday last by a visit from the Bishop of Edmonton, The Rt. Rev. H. H. Clark, D.D. The Bishop had a very full agenda as he preached not only to the congregation of St. Saviour's but also in All Saints', Pleasant Valley, and in the United church at Islay. The highlight of his visit was his administration of the Rite of Confirmation in St. Saviour's church in the evening. In the presence of a large congregation five young adults renewed their Baptismal vows and received the Laying On of Hands, thus taking another important step forward in the Christian life. The newly confirmed were Mrs. Peggy Cosh, Mrs. Norma Novak, Mrs. Joan Hutchinson, Mr. Richard Cosh and Mr. Herbert Bobroske. After the service a reception was held in the parish hall for the Bishop and the candidates. Lunch was served by the members of the Happy Hour group of the W.A.

Sportsmen's Spiel Planned for January 11th

PLANS BEING MADE FOR WINTER OF FINE CURLING

Executive of the Vermilion Curling club have been a busy group this past few weeks. Besides looking after all the details of running first class car bingos, checking final plans for artificial ice installation and selling shares to finance the project, they are also making plans for five months of good curling.

REVIVE SPORTSMEN'S SPIEL

One result of the executive's planning is that the popular Sportsmen's Spiel, cancelled last year owing to the very short season, is again going to be held commencing on January 11. Value of the prizes offered runs well over the $1400 mark. This bonspiel attracts top-notch curlers from a wide section of the province and with the added facilities of artificial ice this year, it is expected to draw to even a greater extent.

ARTIFICIAL ICE CREW HERE

The installation crew of the Canadian Ice Company arrived this week and have started on the actual installation of the complete artificial ice plant. Work is expected to be completed to enable curling to begin the first week of November. There will be approximately seven miles of pipe laid to accommodate the six sheets of ice.

CURLING SHARES

Attention is being drawn once again to the fact that in order to curl it is necessary to own a curling share, value $100. As there are a limited number of these shares left, it would be wise for anyone planning to curl to make arrangements for the purchase of a share immediately . . . after all, the first week of November is only five weeks from now. The Club is limited to 200 members and once the membership is full, no more can be accommodated until vacancies occur from time to time.

BINGO SATURDAY NIGHT

A tremendous aid to the efforts of the Curling club has been the success of their car bingos. The public have accepted these bi-monthly affairs with gratifying support and the distribution of the prizes shows just how far afield these bingos attract. Continued patronage is asked and this Saturday night a fine Plymouth Plaza, purchased from Marian Motors, is the drawing card.

The complete list of very fine prizes is as follows:

Seabreeze 3-speed portable record player, Sunbeam Mixmaster; Pair of Wool Blankets, Sunbeam Shavemaster, Matched Tri Lite and Smoker's Stand, Sunbeam Automatic Toaster, Chrome Kitchen Stool, Sunbeam Fry Pan with lid, electric, Sunbeam Electric Deep-Fat Fryer, Lady's Bulova Wrist Watch, Chrome Kitchen Set.

The bingo is in the Vermilion Arena at 9:15 p.m. Admission is $2 with extra cards available at 2 for $1.

New Manse For United Church

Last Sunday after the morning service a short congregational meeting was held at the First United church, the business under discussion being plans for building a new manse. Mr. Gerald Stephens, Chairman of the Boards of Stewards, gave an excellent and detailed report on the work of the Board in connection with a motion passed last July that the United Church of Vermilion build a new manse.

As Mr. Stephens explained, the motion had been passed, but the July meeting was very small, so the Board felt that a more representative vote should be taken to give them more support in such a large undertaking.

It had been proposed that the old manse and the lot upon which it stands be sold, and the new manse be built on the lot already owned by the church. This lot is the one immediately to the east of the church itself.

At the Sunday meeting there was discussion of the motion made by Mr W D Williams and seconded by Dr C W Stephens that the meeting go on record as having endorsed the decision of the July meeting. Most of those present voted in favor of the motion of endorsation, with no one dissenting and a few abstentions.

The Board intends to finalize details in connection with the actual plans of the house itself and the financing arrangements etc. this coming winter so that the construction work can be started as soon as weather permits in the spring.

"Resolutions on such things as trade, immigration, free enterprise, taxation, submitted by Boards and Chambers will be considered and voted upon. Each Board and Chamber has a vote of equal weight irrespective of size. These resolutions adopted at the annual meeting become the policy of the Canadian Chamber."

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Service to their community is the foundation on which the weekly newspapers of Canada were built originally, as it is the strength which lies behind their operation today. Depending on their advertising revenue for their financial backing [illegible] are still receptive to the many requests for write ups, and advance publicity for the great variety of events which make up the life of [illegible] community.

From notices of birth, marriage, and death, through the list of cards of thanks, coming events and classified advertising, the weekly newspaper gives a picture of the life of the town. It reports the meetings of council, school boards, Chambers of Commerce, churches and service clubs. The weeklies never fail to lend their support to any project for the good of the community and many a waterworks system, hospital, school, swimming pool or other service would not have been carried to a successful conclusion without their active support.

Unless it renders this service the newspaper is without life and without purpose. It was instituted to carry the news and to serve its community and, in doing so, it becomes your finest and most effective advertising medium. For along with its accounts of individual events in its village or town it offers the tailored to measure service of a paper which will be read and reread and kept in a safe place against the home coming of those more sophisticated members of the family who have gone farther afield. Whatever its circulation, it stands high in readership and so long as its first consideration is service this will continue to be the case.

Chrysler Increases Newspaper Ad Budget

WINDSOR. — Addressing more than 300 Chrysler of Canada fieldmen at their annual convention in Windsor R. T. Brown, advertising manager of the corporation described newspapers as "the corner stone of our whole campaign."

In outlining the company's advertising plans for 1956, Mr. Brown announced that Chrysler of Canada will expand its advertising coverage during the coming year, providing increased assistance to its dealers' merchandising efforts.

"The bulk of the increase will go to local newspapers," he said, "for it is at the local level primarily that we must meet the buying public."

During 1955, he added, the corporation's outlay for newspaper advertising was the greatest in its history. Tremendously increased sales of Chrysler-built automobiles throughout the year reflected the value of the program and warranted next year's substantial increase.

This Is National Immunization Week

National Immunization Week, it is announced by Dr. Gordon Bates, General Director of the Health League of Canada, writing in the current issue of HEALTH Magazine is [illegible] to take place during this week. The week organized by the Health League of Canada in co-operation with health departments, has as its objective the calling to public attention through the weekly newspaper and other means the importance of immunizing children against the various types of disease for which an immunizing agent exists. The [illegible] in question include smallpox, diptheria, whooping cough, tetanus and now poliomyelitis or [illegible] paralysis.

The record of Canada in the control of [illegible] type is very [illegible]. For example smallpox is practically non-existent in this country. Diptheria seems to be on the way out. In 1943 there were 3,004 cases with 297 deaths. By 1953 this figure had been reduced to 132 cases with 15 deaths. Whooping cough, a much more serious disease than most people think, affected 19,[illegible] in 1943 and killed 4[illegible]. By 1953 this figure had been reduced to 9,351 cases and 142 deaths.

It is important to remember however that the fight against diseases of this type is not finished. The struggle to control polio indeed has only commenced. In 1953, in fact, 481 children died of this disease which seems to have moved [illegible] into the category of preventable. There are far too many cases of whooping cough and in 1954 there were 76 more cases of diptheria than in the previous year. The price of success in the control of these communicable diseases is

ETERNAL VIGILANCE

In our opinion the date of the event is not particularly significant. Once a year every parent in Canada should be given the opportunity of learning how to prevent communicable [illegible] among children. The danger is that if nation-wide propaganda is discontinued there will be an increase in disease rates, arising purely and simply [illegible] the fact that parents have [illegible] to take necessary precautions of which they have not been informed.

In the first six months of this year construction was started on 57,997 new housing units, an increase of 25 per cent [illegible] the same period of 1954.

FEEDING SUPPLEMENTS

It is my [illegible] that hardly a farmer at [illegible] Lake does not add a [illegible] supplement to his [illegible] for growing hogs. Yet here in this district there are quite a few who try to get by without using it. If feeding supplements to hogs is good business at [illegible] Lake it should pay off here. Get a bulletin on raising and feeding swine at this office.

TORONTO ROYAL

Last year a coach load of people from this area went down to the Royal show at Toronto. Everyone reports that it was a wonderful trip. Both the C.P. and the C.N. have offered cheap rates which include hotel room and board at Toronto, tickets to the horse [illegible] side trips to Niagara Falls, etc. Anyone interested should see S. C. [illegible], Secretary-Manager of the Vermilion Agricultural Society or apply to this office.

BETTER CREAM

[illegible] cream is common in cold weather. Poor quality hay and green feed may cause bitter cream. It is best to separate with right [illegible] washing and cool the cream [illegible]. If bitter cream is reported by the creamery inspector it may be only one cow so try to find out which one.

FALL TILLAGE

Farmers around Calgary do not worry about Canada Thistle any more. They have found out that fall cultivation kills out the thistle. They go over their fields once or twice after harvest with cultivators or blade weeders. This treatment is useful in the control of any perennial weeds such as Sow Thistle, Quack Grass, etc.

TOUGH GRAIN

Everyone knows that elevators [illegible] take in tough grain so it is wise to check the [illegible] content before threshing. It is easier to dry grain in the swath or stook than in the bin. We do not like to [illegible] about it but it is better to [illegible] grain until spring than to thresh it tough or damp.

Teachers Introduced At Mannville H. & S.

MANNVILLE. — There was a fairly good attendance at the first meeting of the Mannville and District Home and School Association for the fall term in spite of the weather and roads. It takes a very large attendance to make a showing in the new spacious gym.

After the showing of a film, Mr. Doherty, the Principal, introduced the teachers. Then Mr. Doherty gave a talk on the requirements of the high school course, subjects needed for various classes of high school certificate and for matriculation, after which he was in his office to discuss with the parents of high school pupils the registration of their own boys and girls.

During the business meeting the October 29th conference, which is to be held in Mannville, was discussed.

Due to poor representation from some districts, the appointment of bus route representatives was left until a later meeting. There are ten busses bringing the children in to Mannville and the bus drivers are as follows: Messrs L. Kreller, Geo. Ackerman, Don Upton, Alf Gerhart, Walter Gerhart, R. S. Johnston, Wm. Stefanyk, D. Enfield, W. Chrysler, D. Croft.

After the meeting a sing-song led by Mr. Robin Stuart was enjoyed by those present as was the coffee and sandwiches served by the Clovelly-Stellaville members.

Rotary Community Calendar Is Well Received by Public

The Community Birthday calendar sponsored by the Vermilion Rotary Club has been very well received by the public. Quotas were exceeded in all three departments. There are 2,111 birthdays and wedding anniversaries listed, 675 calendars ordered, and all 18 advertising spaces sold. Besides the above listings a large number of meeting dates of the various organizations in the town will appear. There just will not be one single excuse for missing a meeting, forgetting your anniversary, or anyone's birthday when this calendar comes out. It will cover the year 1956 and judging from the enthusiasm with which the idea was accepted the community calendar will be a yearly project of the Rotarians from now on. The report of the successful achievement was given by Secretary Tom McPherson.

Vermilion Rotary luncheons are proving popular with visitors and last Friday's meeting saw Rotarians Sam Hardin, Oscar Tunis and Geo. O'Brien, from Lloydminster, Nick Howaniuk of Vegreville; Rennie Hayward of Kamloops. Others were W. S. Cash, guest of Mr. Hayward, Jack Cross, farmer guest of his brother Bill, and James Smith, M.P. for Battle River-Camrose, the guest of Reg Mitchell.

Mitch Taylor who has just returned from six weeks in Scotland and England, told of conditions there as he found them. Everything was again booming in the old country and a wave of prosperity was being enjoyed.

Speaker for the meeting was Dr. Denis Hanlan who gave a vocational talk on his profession 'Chiropractic'. Denis gave a definition of the practise, told how the work was done and the reasoning behind the methods used. The talk was very interesting and the speaker was thanked on behalf of those present by druggist Ross Boake. Denis was introduced by Dr. Ben King.

Mammoth Egg Laid By Landonville Hen

Something for all hens to aim at was the mammoth egg found at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lovel, Landonville. The egg was definitely laid by a hen as definitely laid by a chicken hen, but looked more akin to something laid by an ostrich.

The egg weighed nearly half a pound . . . 7 ounces to be exact, measured 7¾ inches around its middle, and 9¼ inches endways. On being cracked open it was found to be a large egg containing a fully developed (shell and all) smaller egg. It was a sort of two for one effort.

This unusual hen fruit was brought in to The Standard office by Mrs. Scilas Lee, a sister of Mrs. Philip Lovel.

Crocuses In Bloom

Spring is just around the corner! Or, perhaps, in spite of the recent chilly weather, it has never left us. At any rate, a considerable number of crocuses were proudly on exhibit in The Standard Office. Mr. J. T. Johnson found the spring flowers growing last week end on the farm belonging to Mr. Charlie Hollen.

Mr. Johnson brought the crocuses home and very graciously presented them to Mrs. Johnson.

Islay Home and School Association Elect Officers For the Year

The church service in connection with the Sunday School was really most interesting. Mr. McGuffin has a way of keeping the interest of the children: there wasn't a squirm from even the youngest, which is most unusual. Mr. McGuffin left a text with us, though he didn't give his sermon on it, i.e., "Remember thy Creator in the days of thy youth." His children's stories were of "David, Daniel and the three men thrust into the fiery furnace." The adults were most interested, too, and we are sure they will remember the stories. We hope we may have more joint services.

While in Vermilion on Tuesday, there was a lot of excitement — a house being moved through town. It was being taken to Bentley Carmichael's acreage just two miles north of town, Bill Mix, the mover, doing the work.

The United church is about to pack a Christmas parcel for the German pastor and family in the Russian occupied zone, to whom we have sent parcels during the past four years. Anyone wishing to send a bit to make their Christmas happier, please leave with Muriel Stone, either money or food. We can send up to 20 lbs.

The Home and School Association met on the 15th of September in the school. A fair representation of the area turned out, but it was not good weather. The president for this year is Mrs. Chas. Redmond; Vice-President, Mrs. Bill Axley; Secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Violet Shafler. The second Monday of the month was chosen as the regular meeting date, with the exception of October, the second Monday being Thanksgiving. Thus the October meeting will be held on the 17th (third Monday). Come and bring your ideas to make this an interesting time.

Mr. McGuffin will hold church service next Sunday, here, at 3:00 p.m.

There were 208 cases of diptheria in Canada in 1954 with 18 deaths. Be wise and immunize. This is National Immunization Week organized by the Health League of Canada.

Square Notes From Circle Eight

Another new season of square dancing is opening up. All over northeastern Alberta clubs are arranging their schedules hiring the callers and getting set for another winter of square dance fun. The schedules of neighboring clubs are being arranged so that dances will be held on different nights in each town.

Our Circle Eight club will be holding regular dances on the 1st and third Thursdays of each month. Harold Schacher will again be our regular caller with a guest caller for every third or fourth dance. The schedule calls for our next dance to be on Thursday, Oct. 6.

Our first guest caller of the season will be the ever popular Henry Lien. He will be here Nov. 3.

Mannville club is starting the season with a dance this Friday, Sept. 30 and dances will continue on the second and fourth Fridays of each month. Henry Lien and Harold Schacher will alternate as callers for the Mannville dances.

On Monday of this week the North-Eastern Square Dance local sponsored a square dance in Mannville and are happy to report that it was a wonderful success. We had ten callers taking turns at the mike, and 22 squares on the floor.

The Circle 8 club plans to hold a series of dance lessons to be held when harvest is completed. Tell all your friends and have them put their name in now. Any members who wish, may attend any or all the lessons for the regular dance admission.

Attention all square dancers! Next dance is at the Legion hall on Thursday, Oct. 6th.

Be Wise! Immunize! That's the slogan of Canada's 13th annual National Immunization Week, being sponsored Sept. 25 to Oct. 1 by the Health League of Canada. Its object is to save our children from unnecessary suffering and death by encouraging everyone to make use of the readily available vaccines and toxoids.

Pioneer Lumber Man Visits Vermilion

Mr. George Eldon Hayward, well known pioneer business man, is a visitor in town this week, a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. S. Cash. Mr. Hayward came to Vermilion back in 1905 when he and the late Fred C. Long opened a lumber and drug business. This proved too great a diversification and Mr. Hayward took over the lumber end and Mr. Long carried on in drugs. Mr. Hayward still conducts a large lumber business with headquarters in Edmonton, where he makes his home. The present Crown Lumber Co. purchased the Hayward yards in Vermilion some 20 years ago.

Curlers Plan Sportsmen's 'Spiel

The Bonspiel committee of the Vermilion Curling club announces that the Annual Sportsmen's Bonspiel will be held this winter commencing on Jan. 11. There will be no doubt about the ice conditions this season as artificial ice will be enjoyed from Nov. 1st, 1955, on.

There will be $1200 worth of prizes for the spiel and these will be announced shortly.

HARVEST AT STANDSTILL

Harvest remains at a standstill all over Alberta, and certainly in this district. There was no precipitation from Friday to Tuesday when rain again fell continuing Wednesday and Thursday. Some snow also fell Thursday morning blanketing the ground for a short period.

Agricultural officials now consider that only 50 per cent of the threshing is completed in this area. Of the grain left, 5% is standing for straight combining, the remainder being in swath and stook.

To date in September, 2.08 inches of rain and 2.01 of snow has fallen for a total precipitation of 2.29 inches.

Moisture was recorded on ten days during September.

Malting Barley Quality Good, Markets Fair

There is a good crop of malting barley in western Canada barring the unforeseen and prospects for sales are fairly good according to Dr T J Harrison chairman of the Barley Improvement Institute which is sponsored by the brewing and malting industries.

Dr Harrison said there was some good quality malting barley in Manitoba although not a large quantity. In the southern part of the province there is a preponderance of this barrels probably due to the extremely hot mid-summer weather and leaf disease.

Northeastern Saskatchewan has some excellent malting barley and in Alberta prospects are very good providing there is no frost damage.

As for sales prospects, Dr Harrison said farmers could count on a Canadian market for 13 to 15 million bushels. In the U.S. crops in the main malting barley area, the Red River Valley have suffered similar damage to those of southern Manitoba.

Providing the U.S. government does not curtail imports, there are prospects for fair sales there, Dr Harrison said.

Reg. Hereford Sale At Berwyn, Alta.

BERWYN — The largest sale of registered Herefords ever to be held in the Peace River country will be held here in Berwyn, Alberta, on Saturday, October 15th. Sixty-eight reg'd Herefords, including cows, heifers and bull calves will be auctioned to buyers, who are expected to come to Berwyn from ranching localities throughout Alberta and neighboring provinces.

This "Reduction" auction sale will feature animals from two of the north Peace River country's largest Hereford ranches. Polled Herefords will be sold from the Shuswap Hereford Ranch, owned by Dan Wutzke of Berwyn and horned Herefords will be brought to the sale from Joe Lambeck's Eureka River Hereford Ranch.

Every precaution has been taken to present only the finest animals in this sale. All animals offered are from T.B. restricted areas. Animals sold in this sale will be held free of charge for 48 hours. They will be loaded either on trucks or cars as the purchaser desires.

The sale will commence at 1:00 p.m., with Auctioneers Dan Arnett of Berwyn and John Foster of Peace River in charge. Free catalogues are available upon request from D. H. Arnett, Box 59, Berwyn, Alta.

Cattlemen throughout the Peace River country have, in recent years, concentrated their efforts in spreading the idea of raising registered stock to many ranchers and farmers in the area. This sale is another step in this development of registered herds in the province. 13-4

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL OF ESTEEMED KITSCOTY OLD TIMER

ERNEST H. SHEPPARD

Funeral services for the late Ernest H. (Barney) Sheppard were held in the Kitscoty Town hall on Monday, Sept. 12th. The Rev. C.W. MacKay of Vermilion officiated and interment was made in the Kitscoty cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. Elmer Seward Sr., Ken Gray, Tim Bootsman, Willie Stewart, Mac Hiltz and Lyle Finlin.

Mr. Sheppard was born May 28, 1884 at Earl Stoneham, Suffolk, England and came to Cranbrook, B.C., Canada, in 1906. In July of 1907 Miss Julia Cooke of Caple St. Mary, Suffolk, England, followed him to Cranbrook where they were married and immediately moved to Kitscoty where the family have resided ever since.

As a young man he acted as a member of both the Town council and the School board. He served a term as mayor of the village and for a number of years was the town's fire chief. Until recent years he was an ardent curler and a great hockey fan. "Barney" will long be remembered by his many friends in the towns and country for miles around as "The Jolly Village Blacksmith" who delighted in telling tales of the early days.

He suffered a stroke on Monday, August 29th and was rushed to the Islay hospital where he passed away on Thursday, Sept. 8th at the age of 71. He leaves besides his loving wife, Julia, three sons Ernest, Clifford and Edward, all of Kitscoty; three daughters Evelyn (Mrs. J. Parkin) of Vermilion; Edith (Mrs. D. Eaves) Lloydminster; Irene (Mrs. Cpl. Small, R.C.A.F.) Claresholm. A sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. Cop reside at Streamstown; also a sister and a brother in England. There are 17 grandchildren.

The building belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carmichael and was being moved from the farm of Mr. Geo. Stone in the Buffalo Coulee district, to its new location two miles north of Vermilion. In order to avoid entanglement with overhead wires it was necessary for Mover Bill Mix and crew to take it from the Wainwright road onto highway 16, thence east to the cemetery corner and through town from the east entrance. We of the pharmacy profession are proud to report that through pharmaceuticals and modern techniques many diseases that were once prevalent and often fatal have been reduced to an occurrence almost negligible.

We further want to assure all Canadian citizens that new Canadian Pharmacists are trained to carry on in the tradition of those who have gone before. Diligence to duty and attention to the ethics of our profession will continue to be the watchword of your neighborhood pharmacist.

THE STAGETTES

If you see those smart black and white uniforms around town during the first week of October don't be at all surprised. It's only the National Stagette Week getting underway. Plans are well ahead for this important week beginning with Church Parade on Sunday evening in the Anglican church, a pot luck supper on Tuesday and sundry other fun and games.

Looks like the girls will be really busy this year with Lena making sure that we have our fair share of handicrafts and needlework. It seems yours truly remembers possessing a dirty little piece of thread that masqueraded under the name of crochet, so all contributions of good advice will be gratefully accepted.

Good News! Our barbecue pit at the lake is finished — a little late for this year, we must admit, but think of the luscious roasts you can have there next year — M-m-m! Our thanks to Mr W C Martin for his help in the finishing of this last venture of ours.

By the way, where are all those new members? Noreen and committee are just dying to initiate them in true Stagette fashion! Stop! Look! Listen!

October 14th is the night of our big dance, the Harvest Ball. Treat yourself to a night out. You deserve it. Talking of dances always means work. Lil and Betty, it's your turn on Saturday, Oct. 1.

Bye now, hope to see you at our Harvest Ball.

Don't be surprised if one of these days you see a coal truck go by loaded with shining stuff that certainly doesn't look like coal. One big coal company now sprays its anthracite with aluminum paint. Not only makes it cleaner to handle; it burns better, too.

We note, too, that aluminum is involved in another fuel operation—this time in capturing heat from the sun. An aircraft company operates a solar furnace that focuses the sun's rays by means of a 120-inch aluminum reflector to create temperatures up to 8,500 F. It is used to test materials under extreme heat.

Milk is such an important food that people who do not like the plain form should try to take it in soups, sauces, or desserts. Some favorite flavoring and perhaps a little cooking color may help to make milk more attractive for drinking.

NEWS from CLANDONALD

Very little threshing had been done in this part of the district before the disastrous break in the fine weather. However, combines had made good progress and quite a number of farmers report being almost completely finished. Given fine weather now threshing should still be completed a week or ten days earlier than last year.

ROAD WORK NEARING COMPLETION

The wet weather of the past week or two has also brought the construction work on the new highway to a complete standstill. About 3 miles of highway west of Shaw's farm has already been gravelled and two or three miles to the east will be ready with a little more finish work. It is now possible to drive through on the new road to the Dewberry district although part of the way is still unfinished.

Just at present side roads are in an almost impassable condition but a few days of wind and sunshine will soon improve matters greatly.

MORE SCHOOL BUSSES

With the opening of school two more busses are in operation thus increasing the attendance greatly at the public school, now [illegible] over seventy.

One bus of over thirty [illegible] capacity operates to the [illegible] south [illegible] another goes north and takes in part of the Rusylvia district. These two are owned by Tom Stockwell. A smaller one owned by Tom Foy runs south and brings in most of the pupils who formerly attended the Allandale school.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED

Congratulations to Marilyn Brake who recently received word of being awarded a $50 scholarship donated by the Alberta Home and School Association.

Friends of Mr. Rhodes, a well known former old timer of the district, will regret to learn that he recently had the misfortune to fall and fracture his leg. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes have been living in Elk Point for the past few years. The latest reports were that he was making as good progress as could be expected.

LOCAL GIRL WED

Congratulations to Joyce, older daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, whose wedding took place in Vermilion recently. At a shower held in her honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs Hugh Hagen the bride-to-be was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. We join with their many friends in wishing Mr and Mrs. Ed Lyons a long and happy married life.

DEATH OF MRS. OHLER

A resident of the Raft Lake district for several years, Mrs. Molly Ohler passed away recently following a lengthy illness. Interment was in the Clandonald cemetery. Rev. Brian Brown conducted the service.

GUESTS AT ROWNTREE'S

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rowntree had as their guests their youngest daughter Margaret, her husband and infant son, during the past week. Owing to impassable roads the Phillips were not able to visit friends as they had planned but hope for more favorable conditions next time they visit. Margaret's husband Ray is employed in Edmonton at one of the large grocery wholesales.

First Bird Banded Fifty Years Ago

Fifty years ago, J. H. Fleming, a leading Toronto naturalist, banded a robin in his garden at 267 Rusholme Road, Toronto, becoming the first Canadian to band a bird for scientific study.

On Saturday, Sept. 24, the anniversary of Mr. Fleming's experiment, a memorial was unveiled in High Park to commemorate the first known instance of a bird being banded in Canada. Since Mr. Fleming banded his first robin, the bird banding technique has been extended throughout Canada by the Canadian Wildlife Service and other agencies. Knowledge of bird life has been increased by the banding of almost a million wild birds.

The monument was erected by the Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources on the recommendation of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of Canada.

Saskatoon Boy Rewarded by CNR

SASKATOON. — Twelve year old Rudy Van Doorsum has been rewarded by the Canadian National Railways for his alertness in averting a possible accident. An engraved wrist watch arrived at his home here, sent by CNR President Gordon, who on behalf of the railway company thanked the lad for showing such a fine sense of responsibility and for performing an act in the public service.

Rudy had warned the CNR operator on July 10 that the switchstand at a siding was damaged. Investigation proved that an automobile had knocked over the stand and had made it impossible for the railway to control train movements on the siding. Had the accident not been reported promptly there could well have been a serious mishap.

Mr. Gordon, in a letter to the boy, said it was very seldom that someone as young as Rudy had the presence of mind to report trouble. He said that Rudy had indeed lived up to the Golden Rule.

It is estimated that in 1955 governments in Canada will spend $6,095 billions, half a billion [illegible] more than their estimated revenues.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

How would you like to take a 2-week trip by automobile and not pay a cent for gasoline or oil until you're safely back home with a fine vacation under your belt?

You can do it easily, by adopting a trick long known to the veteran traveller — the Credit Card.

The Credit Card idea is simplicity itself. All you do is go to your favorite neighborhood gasoline station and make an application. When the card comes (allow about two weeks for routine reference and credit investigation) you can buy gasoline, oil, tires, etc., on credit just as you might run a regular account at your grocery store. In my company Shell Credit Cards are good in Canada and the the United States.

There's much to be said for Credit Cards. You needn't carry large amounts of cash, the actual transaction consists only of signing your name, you're prepared for unforeseen emergencies and you have an accurate record of car expenses.

Try the Credit Card idea — you'll agree it is mighty handy.

MAKE A COME BACK

I am afraid I don't listen to the radio very much, but I tuned in this morning for a very special reason. I heard a man with a beautiful voice do the morning wake-up show that starts at 6 o'clock, a difficult hour in which to be bright and cheerful but this man was. I know the reason.

Six months ago the man was down and out, a human derelict, who had lost the respect of family, friends, society and worst of all his self respect.

He had been an announcer in his early days, one of the best. He had moved into the 'Big Time' and earned fabulous sums of money. Then, for some reason known only to himself, he disintegrated. He says he came to believe his success was due to his own cleverness and forgot that what talent he had was not his personal property but a gift from God, given to him only in trust.

Whatever the reason, he sank lower and lower. All that he had ever achieved was taken from him. Then through a friend came a remarkable re-birth. The friend merely handed him a slip of paper on which he had written: 'You aren't much but you are someone, you can't do much but you can do something. Start trying — and leave results to God.'

This morning, with many misgivings I am sure, a Western radio station gave him a chance to start his new life over again. His comeback during the past six months has been incredible. From washing the floors in a restaurant, to street sweeping, to department store shipping clerk, to his old original job again.

His remarkable progress from the bottom up should be a lesson to us all. Starting from where we stand at this moment, no matter how high that may be, we could all take tremendous forward strides by trying harder as he is trying. And by leaving the results to God, as he is doing with such sublime confidence.

You don't have to be a derelict to make a comeback. We could all benefit by recapturing some of the faith and enthusiasm of our youth.

SOUND ADVICE ON A COMMON COLD

Is there anyone who hasn't caught cold at one time or another? The common cold is 'common' indeed! Besides making you feel miserable, colds steal your time and your money. They fool you, too, because the early signs are often the same as those of more serious illnesses. And long-continued colds may pave the way for an attack of pneumonia, tuberculosis, or a chronic infection of the nose, throat, ears or sinuses. So do your best to keep from catching cold. And if you catch one, take proper care of yourself so you can get rid of your cold promptly and avoid infecting other people.

TO HELP KEEP FROM CATCHING COLD

1. [illegible] as you can, stay away from people who cough or sneeze carelessly, who seem to have a cold.

2. Use only clean eating and drinking utensils. Don't share the use of toilet articles, towels, spoons or drinking cups with anyone else.

3. Always wash your hands with warm water and soap before eating or handling food.

4. Eat properly. In your daily diet include milk and cheese; potatoes and two other vegetables at least; a citrus fruit and tomatoes and one other fruit; fish, meat, or poultry; eggs; cereals and bread and butter; and a moderate amount of sweets.

5. Take a cod liver oil preparation to increase your resistance to respiratory infections.

6. Guard against chilling, especially when overheated. Avoid drafts, wet feet, and wet clothing. Wear clothes suitable to weather conditions and live and work in well-ventilated rooms.

7. Get enough sleep, rest, outdoor exercise and recreation. Most of us need at least eight hours of sleep every night to give our body a chance to make up for the day's wear and tear.

8. Have a medical check-up regularly, and consult the doctor promptly in acute illness or for any chronic difficulty.

9. Maintain your natural resistance by following all the rules for healthy living. The value of vaccines for the prevention of colds is still in question. However, there are vaccines which may help to prevent influenza A and B and pneumococcal pneumonia.

WHEN YOU HAVE A COLD:

1. Get as much rest as possible. Stay in bed or indoors for the first day or so if you can.

2. Keep warm and dry. If you must go to work, wear clothes that will protect you adequately when you go outdoors, and avoid drafts and sudden chilling when overheated.

3. Drink plenty of water, citrus fruit juices and other liquids. Eat simple foods which agree with you.

4. Protect other people as much as possible. Cover your mouth and nose when you cough or sneeze. Use paper handkerchiefs or paper napkins that can be burned. Wash your hands frequently with soap and water.

5. Blow your nose gently. If you don't, you may force infected material from your nose into your sinuses, or middle ear and develop [illegible] trouble or serious ear infection.

6. If a cold starts with chills, fever or aching, or seems more severe, or lasts longer than usual, consult a physician without delay.

Quite a number from our district attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lyons. Best wishes go out to them for many happy years to come.

Everyone in normal health should be able to swim, not merely for the benefit of the exercise but also because knowing how to care for oneself in water may prove a lifesaver in emergency.

IS YOUR SUB. DUE?

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith are happy to announce the arrival of a beautiful Chevrolet Bel Air, Two-Tone Hardtop.

A wonderful surprise for Jimmy and Caroline, and Mother and Dad are just too excited for words.

Bumper to bumper it's a real beauty— easy to handle, yet full of pep and raring to go.

You should see the admiring glances it receives.

An addition to the family we are very proud of, and we know we are in for a great deal of fun and joy together.

Why not add a Chevrolet to your family?

A PERFORMER IN ITS WEIGHT CLASS
The all-new, tremendously compact Chevrolet V8 is the lightest engine in its class, yet it powers a performance that outdoes them all. Try the high power-to-weight ratio of Chevrolet today. You'll be amazed!

A REAL DARLING FOR LOOKS
Looks are a matter of personal taste but this year Chevrolet is the fastest selling car in automotive history. And we're sure that most people gave full consideration to beauty and style when they chose a Chevrolet.

WILDMERE WINKS

(Held over from last week)

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Garnett of Basswood had their baby daughter Kathleen Mary baptized recently when Rev. Holter was at Wildmere.

Mrs. Finlay who has spent the last three weeks visiting her daughter Mrs. J. Wilson of Wildmere left on Sunday to visit with her son Johnnie of Mannville. Mrs. Finlay also has three other sons around Mannville. We were all very pleased to see her looking so well and hope the winter ahead will not be too hard on her.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Graham of Penticton B.C. left on Friday on their way home. Stops were planned at Ponoka, Didsbury then at Great Falls, Montana before reaching home. It has been nearly four years since Earl last saw his family at the Wallington's.

Everyone was saddened when the word was received that Robert Dibben had contracted polio while helping his brothers thresh in the Basswood district. We all hope for a quick recovery for you Robert. He is now in the Isolation wing of the Royal Alex hospital in Edmonton. Ill fortune seems to be plaguing the Dibben family this year. We all hope it will soon change for the better.

On Thursday evening Bill and Adam Smith were supper guests at the Jim Wallington home. Adam brought along his pictures which were greatly enjoyed. The reel of the parade at the Fair was extremely good. Mr and Mrs Graham really enjoyed the evening.

On Sunday afternoon we had the pleasure of a grand visit from Mrs. Riley and Miss Craig of Vermilion. Mr. and Mrs. R. Martin brought them out and then they went on to Mr. Donlly's in the Triangle district. Later they came back and all had supper at the Wallington home then to church. We hope these folks can come again soon for a visit. It was like old times having Mrs. Riley with us as she was a very close neighbor for many years before moving to town. Miss Caig liked the view of our lake and we enjoyed her visit very much also.

Sunday evening was our last service for the season and we are sorry to see Mr. Plant leave. We have enjoyed having him with us the past two summers. A well filled church greeted him Sunday evening. His text was "Christ is the Victor". After the service a social hour followed when a gift was presented to Mr. Plant by Mr. Holte on behalf of those present. Lunch was served before the evening came to a close. During the service Mr. Plant spoke of the picture at the front of the church "Head of Christ" which was hung in memory of the late Mr. George Dibben who was a neighbor for many years and often attended our little church. Mr. Plant framed the picture himself which will be a memory of his good work among us. He was fine with the children and the splendid choir he built up among the young people was remarkable. May success follow him in his chosen work.

REMARKABLE TURKEY HEN

Here is an item for Neighborly News: The writer has a turkey hen which laid 16 eggs last spring and hatched out nine little turks. When they were four weeks old she started laying again and has laid nearly every day since and is still laying at time of writing. She still goes with the young ones — when they were small they would sit around the nest waiting for her to lay.

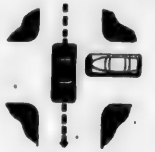
Observe the "Right-of-Way" Rule of the Road



Failing to yield the right-of-way constitutes the greatest single cause of traffic accidents. Under the 'good manners' code of the road, the car on the right has the right-of-way.

Furthermore, section 51 of the Vehicles and Highway Traffic act, states when two vehicles approach or enter an intersection at approximately the same time — the driver of the vehicle that is on the right shall have the right of way.

Make it a habit to approach all intersections with caution and at reduced speed, and always give the car on your right the right-of-way. Remember, in the event of an accident, failure to yield the right-of-way can result in a charge.

Around Our House

By Bill and Eileen Lovett

Do you like scrubbing floors? — I don't. But it's a chore I've made easier by sewing patch pockets to my jeans and inserting squares of half-inch thick foam rubber.

We painted our screens last week end. Black on the inside and white on the outside, so that we can look out but no one will be able to look in!

Hope you'll join the Lovett family in our crusade to make beaches safer and cleaner. One of the great hazards, as we've learned from painful experience, is broken glass. Our slogan is 'Keep bottles off the beach!' To help us do that sun tan oil and insect repellent come in a small pliable plastic tube. They are easier to carry and, of course, there's never any danger of broken glass.

A film of soap or oil on glass will allow you to remove any paint that spatters on windows when you paint the [illegible]. We [illegible] the hard way!

No doubt your youngsters, like ours, pick up their [illegible] etc. A completely painless way of removing [illegible] from the skin that sometimes works is simply to place a piece of adhesive tape over the [illegible], pull off quickly and presto, it's removed!

IT'S SCHOOL LUNCH TIME AGAIN

School days are here again, and with them the inevitable school lunch box. Are you giving that lunch box the important attention it deserves asks Miss Joyce Lewis, Nutritionist with the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

Three good meals every day are a must if the school child is to achieve his best. His lunch must include milk, a fruit or vegetable and a protein food such as meat, fish, cheese, eggs or beans, in addition to the bread, advises Miss Lewis.

Variety is the key note in packing the lunch box — something different every day. The protein food may be in a sandwich filling, a salad, or a finger food such as hard cooked egg or some tasty spareribs. In cool weather hot soup or stew will help keep up the appetite. Milk may come as milk to drink or may be included in a soup or dessert. Some raw carrot or turnip sticks, a wedge of raw cabbage, an apple or a jar of berries will round out the lunch. Later in the season a baked apple or a jar of cooked fruit will provide a change. Cake, cookies or pie may give a finishing touch to the lunch after the essentials have been included.

A recess snack is important too, not enough to dull the appetite for lunch time but something to hold that hunger until noon. Fresh fruit is ideal for the snack, or a jar of fruit juice with a cookie or a special sandwich. Avoid sweet or sticky foods which adhere to the teeth and contribute to tooth decay.

For further suggestions for the lunch box write your District Home Economist for the bulletin "Lunch Boxes and Hot School Lunches".

The World of Wheat

by [illegible]

THE PROBLEM OF ABUNDANCE

It is perhaps difficult these days, in the face of existing world surpluses, generally large prospective crops for 1955, a tight domestic storage situation, restrictive export quotas to the U.S.A. and a general lessening in world demand, to be optimistic about the movement into export channels of Western Canadian grain.

The many problems which have to be faced and met will call for patience and understanding on the part of all concerned as well as for initiative and the adoption of aggressive merchandising methods by those who seek to make sales abroad. Not only is production increasing in many importing countries today but competition from other exporting countries is also increasing. Obviously the key to the disposal of surplus grain lies in the export of grain in volume through the maintenance and possible expansion of existing markets as well as through the finding of new outlets for Canadian grain. For the reasons already mentioned, these tasks will not be easy.

But in the end, many of the problems which loom so large today will resolve themselves, and others, no doubt will become less important. Fortunately early samples of 1955 wheat show a distinct improvement in quality and protein content over those of the last two years and the weight and quality of other grains also promises to be good. [illegible] quality considerations are all favorable when it [illegible] making exports. In the meantime, then, far from being discouraged, we in Western Canada should rejoice that Nature has this year again blessed our land so that we shall have an abundance and to spare.

Money across the miles

A chartered bank makes it a simple matter for you to send money almost anywhere, inside or outside Canada.

You may want to get money to a certain city as a gift on somebody's birthday; or to settle a business account; or to set up a fund which can be drawn upon by a company salesman, branch office or supplier.

It works the other way, too. If you are far from home and short of cash, you can advise your "home" branch to telegraph your money to a point where you can pick it up. Many situations and needs can arise — and a chartered bank has many ways of taking care of them, including the sale of travellers cheques.

This service is one of the many advantages you enjoy as a customer of a chartered bank. Your local branch is an all-round banking service-centre that can be helpful to you in many ways.

Only a chartered bank offers a full range of banking services, including:

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS — Keep your money safe; pay you steady interest, encourage the habit of thrift.

COMMERCIAL LOANS — For business or industrial firms, large and small, producers, processors, retailers—every type of enterprise.

SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES — Keep your important papers and other valuables safe, yet readily accessible.

TRAVELLERS CHEQUES — Protect you against theft or loss of cash. They are readily [illegible].

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Royal Investigating Commission To Resume Sittings October 3rd

EDMONTON. — The Royal Commission investigating opposition charges against the government opened its sittings in Edmonton last week. But it didn't investigate anything, and was adjourned after being in session for slightly more than an hour.

The hearings will resume Monday, Oct. 3 in the court house, when lawyers representing the various interests are expected to have their witnesses on hand and be prepared to produce evidence.

Nothing earth-shaking came out of the initial sitting, which was held mainly to discuss procedure, but there were a number of interesting sidelights which arose.

For example, it appears that the Liberal party is the only organization, outside of the government, which is prepared to spend large sums of money on the listenvella sums of money on the investigation. No official figures have been released, but it is estimated the Liberals will be spending around $200 a day while the hearing are in progress.

J. V. H. Milvain, Calgary lawyer and a prominent Conservative (correct), has been retained by the Alberta Liberal Association to cross-examine witnesses and produce evidence on behalf of the party, which forms the official opposition in the Alberta legislature.

This is perhaps only right, since many of the charges and [illegible]ations to be investigated came originally from Liberal MLA's and candidates. However, the background leading to the retention of counsel by the Liberal Association is interesting.

During the special session of the house in August, Liberal Leader J. H. Prowse asked Premier Manning if the government would consider appointing — and paying — legal counsel to look after the interests of the opposition. He pointed out that the government had appointed James Mahaffy, Calgary lawyer, as Commission counsel and that Mr. Mahaffy was to be paid by the public treasury.

Mr. Prowse said that since the Commission was to probe charges made against the government, the government was more or less 'on trial'. He observed that 'the people on trial selected the counsel'.

He further argued that it would be in the interest of the public and the Commission to have an 'opposition counsel'.

Premier Manning pointed out that Mr. Mahaffy was not appointed as government counsel, nor was his job to represent the government. He said Mr. Mahaffy's job as Commission counsel was to help the Commission obtain all the information available. He suggested that Mr. Prowse ask the Commission to appoint an additional counsel.

Mr. Prowse later wrote to the Commission members, requesting counsel, but was refused on the ground that the Commission could not appoint a lawyer for every group which wanted to be represented.

When the first sitting of the Commission was held last week, there were four lawyers present. There was Mr. Mahaffy and his assistant Wm. Morrow of Edmonton, along with Mr. Milvain and another Calgary lawyer, S. J. Helman. Mr. Helman, whose appointment had not been announced earlier, is acting for the crown and the government departments likely to be involved in the investigation.

The Liberal Association also will be spending a considerable amount of money on copies of the official transcript of evidence. The transcript must be purchased from the [illegible] stenographers at so much per page. If the hearings last for any length of time it will run into plenty of money.

At present it looks like the Liberals will be the only ones buying their transcripts. The court stenographers have been instructed to provide copies free to the five Commission members, the Commission counsel and the government.

PREMIER CELEBRATES 47th BIRTHDAY

Premier Manning was receiving best wishes from his many friends and colleagues on Tuesday of last week. It was his 47th birthday.

Although Mr. Manning is the youngest provincial premier in Canada, he is a veteran of twenty years of public life. He was first elected to the legislature in the 1935 Social Credit 'landslide' under the late Premier Aberhart. Shortly afterward, he was appointed provincial secretary and minister of trades and industry. He was named premier in 1943, following the death of Mr. Aberhart.

Safe, simple safety from childhood's killing diseases — whooping cough, diptheria, lockjaw and smallpox — is as close as your family doctor or local public health clinic. Sept. 25 to Oct. 1 (this week) is officially designated as National Immunization Week and is a reminder to parents not to neglect this practical health insurance.

Whooping cough is one of the most dangerous contagious diseases. It causes the death of many children but it can be avoided by having children immunized against the disease.

PARADISE VALLEY NEWS

Cpl. D. W. Brown, Mrs. Brown and daughter Dawne of Edmonton visited this past week at the home of Mr and Mrs. Harold Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Squires of Adanac, Sask., were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Squires' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McDonald.

Miss Violet Adams who has been employed at Grande Prairie is spending her vacation with her parents Mr and Mrs. Robert Adams. She will continue her studies at Regina during the coming term.

NEWCOMERS TO DISTRICT

Mr and Mrs. Peter Robertson of Clive, Alta., arrived in town on Wednesday and have taken up residence in the Beaver Lumber Company house. Mr. Robertson is the new manager for the Beaver Lumber yard at this point.

Mr. Arthur Swayne and Mr. Dale Connarce left last week for Edmonton where they are attending the University of Alberta.

Very little harvesting has been done during the past week due to the weather. Lots of rain, very little snow. We should consider ourselves lucky in that respect. We would estimate about 80% of harvesting has been completed in the district. As a result of the rain school busses have had a bad week as side roads are in a very slippery condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Withe [illegible] Church of God and Miss Ahnetta Fugham, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Fugham, left to attend college at Camrose.

Remember — Wednesday is train day in Paradise Valley from now on. At the time of writing we have not heard what the Department will do about the mails but we expect it will be Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

D. A.'s Convening Here To Study Farm Accounting

Some twenty District Agriculturists from Central Alberta are meeting at the School of Agriculture this week to study farm bookkeeping methods and accounting systems.

Increasing demands for more attention to the business end of farming has resulted in more calls on agricultural extension workers to assist farmers with their farm accounts and record keeping.

The series of lessons for the District Agriculturists is being given by Principal N N Bentley who has included considerable farm accounting studies in his Farm Management lessons to the regular students at the School of Agriculture.

During recent years the Extension Service of the Provincial Department of Agriculture has given increasing attention to assisting farmers in planning and organizing their farm business. The current studies of farm accounting are designed to qualify the District Agriculturists to give the farmers whom they serve greater assistance in this important phase of farm management.

Vermilion Should Start Now to Repel Invaders

Eternal Vigilance Is Only Hope Of Remaining Rat-Free Town

"Under present conditions Vermilion has only two years before being over-run by Norway rats, and from this moment on, eternal vigilance is the price of being rat free". Such was the warning issued by Albert Hozack at a well attended Board of Trade meeting on Wednesday. Mr Hozack is the Pest Control Officer for Vermilion River Municipal District. He had been invited to make an inspection of the town with a view to eliminating all conditions that might prove conducive to harboring rats and to make it as difficult as possible for the pests to gain a foothold here.

Mr Hozack stated that there were scores of places in the back yards of Vermilion that would make ideal rat runs. Piles of lumber, boxes, a shed not very tight, are just what rats need to flourish in and multiply. From these places they get into garages, basements and houses.

"Start right now" said Mr. Hozack, "clean up every conceivable place. The town should show the way. It has materials stored around work shops and other spots and these should be cleaned up and an example set."

The speaker went on to tell of the battle waged in Lloydminster to control rats; and how the rat warfare was being carried on all through the farms in Range 1. 78 farms out of 145 inspected had rats. As high as 150 were killed on one farm. The means of extermination was by Warfarin, a poison and by gas, chiefly exhaust fumes from car or truck.

HIGH LOSSES

Once a town is infested with rats they cause huge losses particulary to grocery stores and meat markets. Rats are known to cause damage as high as $300 per month to stocks in these stores.

Once rats gain a permanent foothold a more expensive type of construction is necessary to attempt to keep the pests out of buildings. They cause heavy losses to grain and feed stored on farms.

Rats are very prolific. They have from four to six batches per year, with six to ten each litter.

START CLEAN UP AT ONCE

It was the opinion of the speaker that a start should be made in Vermilion at once to see that our lanes were as clean as our streets, and that all piles of lumber, boxes, dismantled cars, disused buildings, anything that might prove a habitation and breeding ground for rats be done away with. The rats at present are being held just east of Kitscoty but this isn't too far away.

It was the consensus of opinion that Mr Hozack's recommendations be carried out by the town council immediately and that all measures possible be taken to keep the town as rat free as possible.

What's Going On In Vermilion?

The attention of readers is directed to the advertisement under this heading inserted as a tribute to this newspaper by the Imperial Oil Company of Canada. It is nice to be noticed and to see just what values such a nation-wide organization places on a weekly newspaper such as the Standard. To Imperial Oil we say "Thank You"

Stagettes Review History of Club

CREED

SMILE and have others smiling;
TRY always to tell the truth;
ACT wisely and promote action;
GREET all our friends gladly;
EDUCATE ourselves to be efficient;
TREAT all as we would be treated;
TAKE time to be thoughtful;
ENJOY life. It's ours to enjoy;
SERVE others and not be selfish.

This week is being celebrated as Stagette Week by all clubs across Canada. We feel that we would like to become more closely associated with our neighbors and friends therefore we will give you some highlights as to how our organization was formed.

In 1932 a small group of business girls who met in Saskatoon once a week decided to form themselves into a benevolent club. They drew up a constitution, selected the name Stagettes and thus founded the Mother Club of the National Association of Stagette Clubs.

The object of the individual and organized Stagette clubs is to improve the girls, who belong, in character, to improve their communities through charitable undertakings.

During the years 1935 to 1939 twenty three clubs were formed.

In 1939 at the Club's first convention a Dominion executive was elected, consisting of a Governor, Secretary, Editor and one representative from each club. It was voted that a yearly convention be held in the place where the Dominion executive reside.

In 1944 at the annual convention held in Prince Albert, it was decided that clubs were becoming too numerous for National and that the Dominion be divided into districts and each be governed by a District Governor and her executive. The district executive would in turn be responsible to the National executive for all matters, including organization.

ANNUAL ACTIVITIES

- October — Harvest Ball
- December — Holly Frolic and Annual Doll Raffle; House to House Canvass; Xmas Candy Sale
- May — Cotton Ball

The above mentioned activities are our main sources of revenue. During the past year donations have been to worthy causes such as Canadian National Institute for the Blind; Cancer Society, Cerebral Palsy Clinic; Red Cross and other charities. This week being the National Stagette Week we are donating $50 to the Vermilion hospital to provide equipment for the children's ward.

We are getting well into the swing of things this season with our Harvest ball close at hand. We hope that we shall see all our friends at the dance and that they have a wonderful time. The decoration committee are really getting things underway and the spooks, bats and perhaps a few ducks will be around the Elks hall October 19th but please, no firearms! See you then.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK, OCTOBER 9th to 15th—

Alberta's Fire Commissioner, A. E. Bridges, has announced that this province will observe Fire Prevention Week, in conjunction with the remainder of Canada and the United States, during the week of October 9 to 15. Special efforts will be made during the week to acquaint home owners with fire safety.

Statistics from fire loss reports have shown that last year, two-thirds of all fires occurred in the home. As part of a program to curb this devastating loss, fire chiefs throughout the province will arrange as many interviews as possible with home owners to discuss fire safety items.

CIGARETTE SMOKER PRIME TARGET

One of the prime targets of Fire Prevention Week will be the cigarette smoker. It has been shown that smokers' carelessness heads the list of causes, both in number and amount of destruction.

The Fire Commissioner's report shows that although there is a marked increase in the amount of property loss last year there has been a decrease in the number of lives lost due to fires. One encouraging statistic shows that the doubling of fire inspections in the past four years has resulted in a reduction of 20% loss [illegible] for protected dwellings. However buildings that have not been inspected have shown a 10% increase in fire loss.

OUR PHARMACISTS—

October 2 to 8 is being observed as National Pharmacy Week this year, and we were reminded when we read this news of the many services that we have come to expect from our pharmacist, unthinkingly. Take a prescription for example. It may be for any one of ten thousand different drugs, and yet, we hand it across the counter to our pharmacist without a thought to his not having it at hand. It is just one of those things that we have come to accept from him, in his health service to our families.

Yet, should we accept it merely as "standard practice"? His investment in stock alone runs to amazing proportions today in our world of new drugs and medication. Hundreds of his drugs are called for but once or twice a month, causing him to keep these items on hand at an incalculable cost. His is a professional service. He knows his responsibility and he constantly stands guard against the threat of disease, no matter what it is, or when it may strike.

Our pharmacists in Vermilion are one of our major bulwarks against the threat of disease. This week, we pay our respect and express our gratitude to them for their ceaseless service in the protection of the public health.

It takes 11 lbs. of milk to make a pound of cheddar cheese.

Record Business

This year will probably go down as the biggest ever for retail sales, says The Financial Post.

Indications now point to a free-spending fall. That means retail sales totals, already out-running 1954, will gain speed in the stretch and enter an all-time record.

A 'Post' coast-to-coast survey indicates all regions are sharing in the better business.

It's no short-run back-to-school boom. It reaches back across a broad range of the consumer goods circuit: retail sales are up and going higher; retail inventories, generally, are up, manufacturers' sales are up, manufacturers' inventories are sharply down, and manufacturers have long lists on their order books.

Just What is

This question has many answers. Here are a few:

(1) A PUBLIC SERVICE

It serves this community with news, advertising, editorial comment, and entertainment. It promotes projects which it believes will make this a better place in which to live.

(2) A MANUFACTURING PLANT

It converts ink, paper, metal and power into a finished product. It gives employment, year round, to heads of families.

(3) A RETAILER

[illegible]

(4) A SERVICE ESTABLISHMENT

[illegible]

(5) A BIG HOME INSTITUTION

DEHORNING CALVES

Now is the time before the cold weather comes to dehorn spring calves. The sooner it is done the easier it is on both the calf and the man. We have for loan in this office two types of calf dehorners. Blade dehorners for older cattle are also for loan. I think everybody knows that there is a $2 penalty on market cattle with horns.

NITROGEN FERTILIZERS

A new circular on this subject has just arrived. Ammonium Nitrate, Ammonium Phosphate and Anhydrous Ammonium are compared for price and use in Alberta. There is no doubt that it pays to use fertilizer here even on the newest and most fertile soils. In this circular farmers will find the answers to a lot of questions which they have been asking this fall.

BANG'S VACCINATIONS

Very soon now veterinarians will be out to vaccinate heifer calves. This program has almost stamped out Bang's Disease in this area but one more year at least of vaccinations is needed. It is of interest to note that many areas of Alberta and Saskatchewan have not as yet organized control campaigns. The farmers in these areas are still suffering heavy losses from cows aborting. We are very grateful for the splendid support given by the cattlemen of the district to this fine effort in cont[illegible] very costly disease.

There has been a big run this last while on plans for building corrals, chutes, squeezes, etc., for the easy handling of [illegible]. Every cattle owner ought to build a squeeze for vaccination, branding and hoof trimming. It makes it much easier and quicker for the 'vets' too when they arrive for Bang's vaccinations or T B testing. [illegible] share of these plans at [illegible]

We knew it all the time but now the Agricultural Engineer at Edmonton comes out very straight with the statement that deep subsoiling does not pay in Alberta. GRAIN SHOW SAMPLES

Two samples of wheat were brought into my office this week. They were both good enough to send to Toronto or Chicago Seed shows. Of course they needed quite a bit of working over but the grain was plump, well filled and of good color. Can't Stop Winter

Three hundred and forty-seven autumns have come and gone in Canada since Champlain saw the river freeze from his flimsy habitation and found himself alone in a new world. After all that time, says Bruce Hutchinson in The Financial Post, with all its toil and harvests, all its progress and its wealth, all the bookkeeping of the state, the skilful management of government and the thin disguises of civilization, autumn returns unchanged, and a few miles from the pavement the Canadian feels again the old familiar loneliness and the cooling substance of the continent.

What will probably be good news for parents of four and five year old children is that there is a decided chance that a kindergarten school will be opened in Vermilion in the near future. All parents wishing to enroll children should write Mrs. Goodenough at Mannville right away.

Letters to the Editor

The Standard does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents

Department of Northern Affairs [redacted]
433 Post Office Bldg
[redacted]
Sept 29 1955

Editor
The Vermilion Standard,
[redacted]
[redacted]

Thank you for sending us your editorial on plastic neckbands for ducks.

While we agree that you have some reason to feel the way you do, we were slightly hurt that you wrote such an article and distributed it province-wide before letting us defend ourselves. Surely you could have informed us before you condemned us.

It is true that our methods can be improved but show us new techniques that always work efficiently the first time. I think you will admit that they are few and far between.

Again, recall some of the contributions to science such as the daily sacrifice of guinea pigs, rats and rabbits in the veterinary and medical laboratories. These experimental animals die every day by the thousands and are not given a duck's chance of escaping a shotgun. Surely you don't condemn professions such as these for their tremendous contribution. If a few ducks die through an experiment which yields data used in managing a great natural resource are we still condemned for this small loss?

Of 451 ducks marked with plastic neckbands within a radius of 25 miles of Vermilion you attack our experimental research on the basis of one blue-winged teal. Within the 451 ducks 11 species were represented all differing in size, shape, etc. The same sized bands did not go on each one. You would not write an article on a blue-winged teal that lost its life to a coyote, or flew into a power line (thus maiming it for life) or was hit by Mr Citizen of Vermilion as he drove from Vermilion to Wainwright.

Perhaps as we counted nests last July this one blue-winged teal was in an egg we carefully replaced in the nest after the mother accidentally kicked it out when hurriedly taking off.

Please Mr Editor, remember there are countless facets and ramifications to research in natural history. As we look back in history we can still hear the cries of condemnation directed at so many scientists, especially I would say those concerned with biology.

True our neckbanding experiments cannot be compared to the truly great scientific accomplishments, however we all have a job to do and we try to do it to the best of our ability. Please don't make it more difficult.

Yours sincerely,
R. D. Harris,
Wildlife Management Officer

College Graduates Wanted

More jobs than applicants are forecast for practically all types of Canadian university graduates for the coming year, reports The Financial Post. In some specialty fields the shortage of trained staff has become critical.

That's the main point stressed in the National Employment Service's latest bulletin on the supply and demand situation in regard to university graduates. The bulletin is issued for use by Canadian employers, university students and employment service officers.

Tightest supplies are found in dentistry, nursing and medicine where enrollments show there will be very little let-up in the short age for the next two to six years at least. Other fields where demand outstrips supply include education, [illegible]

Reg. Hereford Sale At Berwyn, Alta.

BERWYN — The largest sale of registered Herefords ever to be held in the Peace River country will be held here in Berwyn, Alberta, on Saturday, October 15th. Sixty-eight reg'd Herefords, including cows, heifers and bull calves will be auctioned to buyers, who are expected to come to Berwyn from ranching localities throughout Alberta and neighboring provinces.

This "Reduction" auction sale will feature animals from two of the north Peace River country's largest Hereford ranches. Polled Herefords will be sold from the Sunnyside Hereford Ranch, owned by Dan Wutzke of Berwyn, and horned Herefords will be brought to the sale from Joe Landreth's Burnt River Hereford Ranch.

Every precaution has been taken to ensure only the finest animals in this sale. All animals offered are from T.B. restricted areas. Animals sold in this sale will be held free of charge for 48 hours. They will be loaded either on trucks or cars as the purchaser desires.

The sale will commence at 1:00 p.m., with Auctioneers Don Arnett of Berwyn and John Foster of Peace River in charge. Free catalogues are available upon request from D. M. Arnett, Box 88, Berwyn, Alta.

Lloydminster — Regular schedule will start November 4th in the Elks hall and continue on the 1st and 3rd Fridays, that means the night following our own Vermilion dances.

Mannville— Orange hall every second and fourth Friday.

Other dates will be published as clubs arrange schedules.

Don't forget [redacted] every first and third Thursday. October 20th will be the next one.

Plans are shaping up very well for the fall class of Square Dance lessons. We only need a few more names on the list before dates are set. If each member would bring in one or two names it would only be a few days before final plans could be published. So tell your friends to phone Gerald Stephens and give him the names.

There is no other place where so little money will give you so much good clean fun.

Square Dancing is a lot of Fun!

Cool, cloudy and damp has been the settled order of the weather from Thursday last to Wednesday. Wednesday however showed signs of brightening up and today (Thursday) the sky is a clear blue and the sun has been shining all day — a beautiful fall day. With a continuation of similar conditions it might be possible to continue with threshing early next week. No moisture has fallen since Sunday when .05 was registered.

Frogman Clears Well Screen At Vermilion Utilities Power Plant

Sixteen feet through water at a temperature of 46 degrees is skin diving under difficulties. But Eric Nurse, son of Mr Roy Nurse, [redacted] duction Superintendent of the Canadian Utilities, volunteered to do just that when it became necessary to clean and examine the rotary screen at the pump house in connection with the Vermilion plant of Canadian Utilities on Saturday last.

Fish and weeds had been getting past the screen and into the main circulating pumps. A diver's services were required to remove the screen and to clear the debris from the base of the well.

Cmd. Eng. Nurse donned a frogman's outfit consisting of a cloth-backed skin tight rubber suit, a mask covering his eyes and nose, [redacted] hose mouthpiece for breathing. Filtered compressed air was supplied from the plant. He made three dives in all, each of about 15 minutes' duration. The water was a chilly 46 degrees for the first dive, but it was possible to warm it slightly, bringing it up to 58 degrees by returning hot circulating water from the plant for the second and third dives.

The first time the rotary screen was removed for repairs, and the next twice Eric went down he cleared gravel, stones and other debris from the base of the well.

Visibility was limited to a mere six inches even with the aid of a strong sealed beam head lamp. However, the work was completed and the repaired screen was replaced.

Cmd. Eng. Eric Nurse is a commissioned engineer with the RCN and is at present on leave visiting his father in Edmonton. Eric has made skin diving his hobby and had an opportunity to pursue it in the Mediterranean when he was on duty there with the navy.

WANTED: High Quality Hogs Only

If you are going to buy hogs, buy good ones. Select hogs which will produce top quality litters. The time and effort put into hogs can be made a good paying proposition.

Alberta now sells more grade C hogs than any province in Canada. The lowest producing area in the province is an area in Central Alberta where several years ago farmers bought a lard-type hog. This area even today is the largest producer of grade "C" hogs in the province.

The Maritime provinces are the only area in Canada where hog quality is not in the decline according to Alex J Charnetski, Alberta's Livestock Supervisor. A general decline in quality is a serious matter for the Canadian hog industry. In order to pay freight and duty prices and still compete on the export market Canadian pork products have to sell at a premium price. A premium price cannot be demanded for anything less than a premium product. Premium pork products are lean pork products.

Both Canadian and U. S. householders will pay a good price for lean pork. "B" and "C" grade hogs will not produce a product that will command a top price.

[redacted] breeding stock should be done on a basis of quality in keeping with domestic and export product requirements. Quantity will not save markets for the Canadian hog industry, but quality will.

There is only one way to improve the type of market hogs and that is to use breeding stock of good type.

Registered Yorkshire or Tamworth boars used on gilts or young sows of bacon type will improve the grades of pigs raised for the market.

The Provincial Department of Agriculture has a policy whereby they will purchase good type boars at cost and give a bonus of $10.00. Full particulars and application forms are available at the office of the District Agriculturist.

Fire Prevention Week Observed Oct. 9 to 16

By proclamation the Governor-General of Canada will decree that the week of Oct. 9 to 15, 1955, be observed as Fire Prevention Week across the nation.

This week is always the calendar week including October 9, the anniversary of the great Chicago fire of 1871. Such a disaster serves to underline the necessity of bringing before the public a much needed awareness of Fire Prevention.

Fire Prevention Week should not be regarded just as a seven-day period for projecting fire prevention programs, displaying posters all over the community, school drills and civic group meetings. Rather, it should be regarded as the week of initiation of a year-round activity promoted to make our country a safer place in which to live.

Fire Prevention Week is not a new institution. It has, over a period of years, developed increasing significance and earned a respected place in the regular affairs of every progressive community in Canada and the U.S. It signifies the commencement of a campaign which should be carefully planned so as to enlist the co-operation of every citizen and of every organization in the community for a concerted effort to prevent, as far as possible loss of life and property as a result of fires.

Response to Fire Prevention Week should be spontaneous and enthusiastic. All citizens sincere in their desire to see the country's economy make progress have a stake in Fire Prevention Week. They realize full well that property destroyed by fire is irrevocably lost and the community and the nation suffer as the consequence of such loss. Economic disaster to a community often follows on the heels of a large fire.

Let us look at the latest available annual fire loss record in our country. The total property loss by fire was $84,270,886 representing a loss per person of $5.70. These losses represent an increase of about four million over the previous year. The record shows 67,519 fires, an increase of 3,416 over the previous year. The loss of life by fire was 477 as compared to 562 in the previous year.

It is indeed tragic to note the record shows that more than half of all the fires in Canada occur in homes. This fact alone should emphasize beyond any doubt the need for fire prevention.

This heavy toll of destruction of life and property by fire must not continue. A strong and vigorous campaign should be launched during Fire Prevention Week and followed up without restraint throughout the year.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

How can you avoid getting lost in a strange city? I'm an old hand at that because I've just returned from a 9,200 mile trip through the west and I must admit, I got lost once or twice myself.

By trial and error I've found that the best way to keep your bearings is by use of the landmark method.

When I entered a strange city, I kept my eyes peeled for two things: 1. An easily seen landmark such as a tall building, a big departmental store, or a large park; 2. The two main streets and where they intersect making the local 'Times Square' of that city.

Then, when I checked into my hotel, I located myself in relation to the two points I'd picked out to be my guides. Knowing the exact location of my landmark building, the main business intersection, and my hotel, was nearly as good as having a compass and native guide.

But if you do get lost just ask directions of the first taxi driver or policeman you see — even in big cities people are almost always friendly and helpful.

V. S. A. Graduate Nominated For Eaton Scholarship

Recent graduates of all educational institutions think at this time of year of those who are still attending classes. Similarly, those who return to classes think of those who have graduated. A recent honors graduate of the Vermilion School of Agriculture, Park S. Letts, of Westlock, is one of the graduates much in the thoughts of everyone associated with the school.

Park is the Alberta nominee for the Eaton Agricultural Scholarship. His nomination will be considered with nominations from the other provinces, and the successful candidate will receive four years of agricultural training at a Canadian University of his choice.

During the five years the scholarship has been offered, one Albertan has won. Bruce MacDonald of Mannville, now working toward his degree in Agriculture at the University of Alberta, was the 1953 winner of the Eaton Agricultural Scholarship. Bruce is a 1953 graduate of the Vermilion School of Agriculture.

Around Our House

By Bill and Eileen Lovett

Now that summer's past we're back to household chores again. Here's a note on keeping fingernails from picking up dirt while you are doing heavy duty work on floors for instance ... I dig my nails into a bar of soap and when the work is done find my nails need only the lightest scrubbing. Try it!

After washing a couple of throw rugs I found the fringes dried very ragged and unruly. A neighbor suggested cutting them straight and rubbing them lightly with a damp bar of soap. It helped to give them extra stiffness and body.

My discarded nylons now go to Bill. When some of his paint turns lumpy he stirred it thoroughly and strained it through a stocking. And when sanding wood surfaces he slips an old nylon stocking over his hand, uses it as a detector of rough spots when sanding the surface.

Here's a safety slogan now that it gets dark so early ... "Be Bright [illegible]". We've hung a flashlight on a hook just inside the back door and no one goes out the door at night without taking a light with him. It's also a help to urge children, and husbands, not to leave toys or tools in the yard where at night they become dangerous obstacles.

Lightly sandpaper the soles of your child's new shoes; this prevents them from slipping to a great extent.

A rainy day treat for both mother and child is hot chocolate topped with a marshmallow rolled in cinnamon.

A quick dessert, fit for company: banana halves dipped in condensed milk and rolled in shredded coconut. Bake in 350 degree oven for ten minutes. (Did you know that bananas were practically unknown in North America until they were featured in 1876 at the Philadelphia Centennial Exposition, all wrapped in silver paper and selling for ten cents apiece?)

Bill says: A bachelor is a rolling stone that gathers no "boss".

September with the W.I.

WILDMERE W. I.

The Wildmere meeting was held at the home of Mrs Lloyd Howard on Sept. 7th with an attendance of thirteen members and two visitors, Mrs. Laboucane and Peggy Graham. Their speaker was Mrs. Wallington whose topic was 'What a W.I. Can Do'. Mrs. Garnet read a letter from the W.I. correspondent in England. A report was given on the bake sale held Aug. 13.

WILDMERE BEAVERS

The annual meeting of the Wildmere Beavers was held Sept. 10 at the home of Mrs. F. Gibson with their assistant supervisor Mrs. J. Bauman and 13 members in attendance. The following is a list of the new officers: President, Dianne Smith; Vice-Pres., Doreen Martin; Secretary, Joan Dibben; Treas., Betty Smith; Sick committee — Sylvia Steele, Marie Smith. A new scrapbook will be kept, showing this year's activities. New W. I. G. C. pins will be presented to Janet Cruthers, Hazel Whitlock and Sylvia Steele. Senior Mystery Box was won by Maureen Cruthers and the Junior Mystery Box by Joan Dibben.

RAMSAY

Ramsay meeting was held Sept. 7 at the home of Mrs. P Sloan with six members in attendance and one visitor, Mrs. George Wilson of New Westminster. This branch made two important donations in September, $5 to a fund to purchase a typewriter for a little girl in Mannville who is a victim of cerebral palsy, and $6.50 for their allotment to a W.I. scholarship. There were three speakers. Mrs. P. Sloan outlined the progress of Red Cross work in Alberta; Mrs. A. Henderson read from the Edmonton Journal Myrna Summers' fine tribute to W. I. work, and Mrs. T. Sloan told of the W. I. handicrafts and exhibits on display at the C. N.E. which she had recently attended.

SAULTAUX

Meeting held at the home of Mrs. Dave Smith on Sept 14 with six members and one visitor present. Sautaux made the same two donations as Ramsay, $5 for a typewriter for a handicapped child and $6.50 toward the W.I. scholarship. On Oct 29 this branch will conduct a bake sale and fish pond.

CLAYSMORE

The Claysmore W.I. met in the Claysmore school with an attendance of seven on Sept 14. Articles were collected and turned in for the bazaar, the date for which was tentatively set for Oct 21st. We may hear more of the roll call. An original poem entitled 'Our W.I.' was read by each member and Mrs. R. Bauer's poem was considered so good that it was submitted to the 'Home & Country' for possible publication. A dance will be held Sept. 30 at the school under the auspices of the W.I. Letters of thanks were read from Mrs. R. Bauer and Mrs G Stewart, both recent hospital patients.

KITSCOTY

Meeting was held on Sept 22 at the home of Mrs Roy Speelman with an attendance of seven members. The visiting committee of two for the next three months was appointed. They are Mrs Robert Fox and Mrs S Pidcock. A tea and novelty sale table will be held Nov 4th. A report on the W I conference at Vermilion was read by Mrs Harry Batty. Mrs O'Connor an Institute member who is leaving Kitscoty was presented with a W.I. crest spoon at a farewell party in her honor. The Mystery parcel was won by Mrs Jos Batty. There will be no W I meeting in October.

Dear Members:

I always look forward to this time of the month, the very last day when I get all your reports together and sit down to a good visit with you.

This month some are missing - I suppose you were like our branch. Early in the month we were just too busy to go to a meeting and later in the month we would have loved to go to a meeting or anywhere else for that matter, but no one had the courage to try.

Just what did you do to pass the time during all that wet weather? I mean besides wiping up mud, and canning peaches, and drying clothes, and cooking meals and the few other odd things we have to do, rain or shine. It always hurts me terribly to have to work when its raining but I must be a poor manager, because I always have to iron or mend or do something equally horrible while the men are all having a good sleep. (?)

But here's one thing I did like doing. I have a copy of the history of the A.W.I. right up to 1955, and I read that from cover to cover. The W.I., as a Movement, couldn't possibly fail to come through with so many wonderful women steering it safely through the years.

Then there is the new W. I project — that took a bit of reading too. Mrs. Howes makes her appeal to us on page 3 of the September "Home & Country" so be sure to read it. This year, when the people of Ceylon are hosts to the A.C.W.W is a good year to stand behind them, so let's not let them down.

Will you talk over your Handicraft problems, as I plan to have a meeting with Mrs. Wagner and all Handicraft conveners and the presidents of each branch sometime in November. We'll have the Handicraft lists in your hands by the end of November for sure. I'll let you know the exact date and place of the meeting later. Also any suggestions you'd like to send along in regard to our Constituency Conference or any other matters pertaining to our W.I. will be very welcome. If for any reason your Handicraft convener can't attend, please delegate someone in her place, as I would like to have all branches represented. I have written to Mrs. Wagner, and she will send, for your approval, the tentative list that was made out at the Conference.

Sincerely,
Your Constit. Convener.

BONTELL BULLETIN

We wish to extend our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. R. Repp on the loss of their wee baby; also to the McLean family in their recent sorrow.

Mrs. Dibben journeyed to the city over the week end to visit Robert in the University hospital. Robert is still in an iron lung but we are pleased to report he is progressing favorably.

It certainly pays to advertise in our Standard — the same day the paper was delivered Mrs. Maggs had a call for the puppy!

Ed Lippert is helping Jimmy Repp build a barn.

Not many attended church at Pleasant Valley due to the muddy roads. We sincerely hope by next service the weather is better.

HOLD THAT LINE!

Mankind loses millions of dollars' worth of food and property each year through rats. These vermin multiply very rapidly so they should be exterminated by the use of one of the forms of warfarin, a chemical which is proving its efficacy in destroying rats.

THANKSGIVING
In our message of last year we suggested that agriculture is not a business to be judged by the failure of a single crop but rather by the bounty of Nature over the years. As 1955 draws to a close we in Western Canada, surely, have much to be thankful for. There are, it is true, many problems to be solved but they are problems of abundance and not of scarcity.

Health Unit Notes

COMMON RESPIRATORY DISEASES:

The most common respiratory disease is a 'cold in the head' and sneezes of all kinds and breathing data were discussed last week.

SINUSITIS

In the bones of the face there are several air-containing spaces above through nerves and called sinuses which lead into the nose. When a person has a respiratory infection, germs may travel from the nose into one or more of these sinuses. As a result, the sinuses lining becomes inflamed and pus accumulates in the sinus cavity. The severe pain in the cheeks, over the eyes, which is the most common symptom of acute sinusitis, is caused by the pressure of the accumulated pus on the sinus walls.

Always report to a physician when a cold is accompanied by pain or soreness in the cheeks or over the eyes, as chronic sinusitis may develop if the condition is neglected. A head cold that 'hangs on' or repeated attacks of head colds, particularly when accompanied by a dull headache, pain, or soreness over the affected sinus, are signs that this serious disease may be present.

EAR INFECTIONS

During a head cold, infection may also travel from the back of the nose into the ears or by way of the Eustachian tube and cause an middle-ear infection. Children sick with measles, scarlet fever or some other contagious disease are especially susceptible to middle-ear abscess and should be closely watched for signs of ear ache. The chief danger is the chance that infection may spread to the mastoid bone which has small connection with the middle ear. Always consult a physician without delay if a cold or some other respiratory infection is complicated by earache in that the proper treatment can be started in time to prevent consequences of mastoiditis. The use of sulfa drugs or penicillin has greatly reduced the danger of mastoid infection.

Forcible blowing of the nose is one of the principal ways in which infected material from the nose may be driven into the middle ear. Blow your nose very gently when you have a cold, and do not use a nasal douche unless a physician tells you to do so and teaches you how to use it.

Chronic inflammation of the middle ear is the chief cause of loss of hearing. Always consult a physician if nagging pain or a feeling of fullness or stiffness in the ear, continued noises and failed hearing accompanies repeated or long continued colds.

TONSILITIS

Acute inflammation of the tonsils caused by streptococci of many kinds is called tonsilitis. The symptoms of acute tonsilitis are very serious. Severe pain, fever and fever.

Prompt medical attention is important because certain types of throat infections, particularly those caused by streptococcus germs (streptococcal sore throat or 'septic sore throat'). Frequently lead to complications which may involve the heart, kidneys or other vital organs. Fortunately, physicians are finding penicillin and sulfa drugs very helpful in treating severe throat infections.

Tonsils may become enlarged or chronically diseased from repeated attacks of tonsilitis or frequent colds. Enlargement of the pharyngeal tonsil or adenoids, occurs most frequently in childhood. Mouth breathing, loss of hearing and the spread of infection to other parts of the body are the dangers against which the surgeon guards a child when he removes the tonsils or enlarged tonsils and adenoids.

INFLUENZA

Influenza is a respiratory disease which may be caused by any one of several different strains of influenza virus. The virus is present in the nose and throat discharges of an influenza patient and the disease seems most contagious in the early stage when it may be confused with "just a cold."

Influenza usually appears within two or three days following exposure. The patient has a fever, a bad back, and aches all over body, and he may have stomach and intestinal disturbances. He is acutely ill for only about a week, but the exhaustion which follows may be severe and last for a long time. The chief danger is that pneumonia or some other serious complication may occur during the recovery stage, especially if the patient tries to get back on his feet too quickly. At the first sign of a cold with fever and aching, go to bed and call a physician. Stay in bed until the physician says it is safe to get up.

CHATSWORTH CHATTER

HARVEST HALTED

In receipt of copy paper, envelopes and stamps — plus some time, now that the weather is holding up completion of threshing — we will endeavor to contribute a few more items. With the Woodvale district president, we plead the busy-ness of the season and holiday folks for causing a neglect of our correspondence.

Crops are quite good throughout the district, but very few have finished harvesting. It is hoped that the weather will soon clear up and make the completion of harvest. It is one that are so noticeably short, and the reason is getting late. Some have potatoes and roots in the field still safely stored away. Others are putting in time with oil and jobs until threshing or combining can be resumed.

Roads are in bad condition with the recent rainfall. Parents of schoolchildren travelling on the local road have a few days of worry as to transportation, but the road was graded for the time.

Baron Good and Pastor Pastor are now beginning to attend their duties immediately.

LAST SUMMER SERVICE

The last summer service of the season was held on Sept. 11 when Rector Lund officiated. Next service will be Oct. 30th. We wish him every success in his chosen calling.

On Sept. 4th Rev. MacKay held Communion service at the Ottawa United church at 3 p.m. when baptismal service was held for the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Seymour (Judith Elsie). Sponsors and friends were Mrs. Joe Farkash, Jr. (Phillip Lyle).

Miss Kathie Fowler of Wainwright was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Good recently.

Visiting at the home of the writer during the latter part of August were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson and little daughter Debbie of Edmonton. Arriving holidays on Sept. 4 were June and Dorothy Henry of Edmonton who spent two weeks here. Also visiting were Mrs. Henry and Mrs. George Henry of Edmonton. They returned to the city on Sept. 10th.

GOLF-TEY CLUB TO MEET SEPTEMBER 20th

Dew to a very rainy afternoon, four times ladies ventured out for the Chatsworth Country Club meeting at the Strongbranch home Sept. 7th. Despite a persistent drizzle they enjoyed and the visitors arrived back home without trouble on the muddy roads. It is hoped that a better day may be in store for the October meeting which is to be held at the home of the writer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hemmingsen motored to Bowers to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Protsch of Dewberry on Sunday, Sept. 25.

OBITUARY

LORNE NEDDEY McLEAN

Lorne Neddey McLean, for many years one of Vermilion's leading business men and citizens, passed away in the Vermilion Municipal hospital on Friday, Sept. 23rd at the age of 68 years. He had entered the hospital due to an attack of asthma, an ailment from which he suffered. His condition was not thought to be serious and his death came as a decided shock to family and friends.

Lorne McLean was born at Portage La Prairie, Manitoba, on Sept. 5, 1888. He came to Vermilion in 1911 as a steam fitter and machinist with the railroad. At that time it was the Canadian Northern Railway, and Vermilion was a main division point, many engines being serviced in the round house here.

On November 18, 1911 he married Miss Emily Johnson, who survives him. Together they later acquired a farm in the Dewberry district which they have owned and operated ever since. Mr. McLean also secured an interest in the Vermilion Motors garage and in 1918 became the owner and manager. The business was built into one of the largest, with car sales and repair work. He operated this business until 1945 when he sold to the present owners, the Herzog Bros. Although retired Lorne continued to operate his farm at Dewberry. Only two or three years ago he and Mrs. McLean built a very fine home in the east end of Vermilion.

"Lorne" as he was familiarly known, was not only successful in business, but was a most friendly person and a versatile entertainer of considerable ability. In the days of amateur theatricals he was the spark in many a minstrel show, singing and playing on his banjo. He also played the violin and was a popular competitor in recent old time fiddlers' contests sponsored by the Rhinem club. He was a member of the R.P.O.E. and of Vermilion Masonic Lodge No. 24.

He is survived by his sorrowing wife, one daughter Mrs. E. J. Exley (Madeline); three grandchildren; two brothers, Jack at Winnipeg and Archie in Edmonton; one sister Mrs. J. Spence of Winnipeg.

The Rev. C. W. MacKay conducted the funeral services at the First United church, Vermilion, on Monday, Sept. 26th at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, with interment following in the Vermilion cemetery. The very large attendance testified to the esteem and friendship felt for the deceased, and sympathy for the bereaved.

Attending the service in a body, and in full regalia were the members of the Vermilion Masonic lodge. The beautiful ritual of the Order was carried out at the graveside. Six brothers of the Fraternity bore the casket to its final resting place. The pall bearers were Past Masters of the Lodge, J. W. G. Morrison, E. M. Stewart, J. S. Cross, G. C. Webb, and Brothers E. Cosley and Frank Gilbert.

Floral tributes and memorial donations were received as follows:

Light Skirmish On The Rat Front

The war against invading rats continues unabated along Alberta's eastern border. A few scattered enemy have been found west of the Inland area, apparently these were lone rats migrating in, according to Mr. Joe Charbo, assistant supervisor of Pest Control with the Alberta Department of Agriculture. Generally says Mr. Garbo the Battle of Inflatables has not changed appreciably since last fall and most rat colonies are confined within 12 miles of the Saskatchewan border.

The right Pest Control officers on full time control work in the infested area report good results. Particularly good success is being experienced from the use of water baits of Pivalyn and Warfarin. These anticoagulant poisons are readily accepted and safe to use if recommendations are followed. Rat populations have been reduced and in numerous cases complete rodent elimination has occurred.

Recently a farmer in the Alberta district was fined $25 plus $8 costs for failing to take action as directed by a pest officer to control rats on his premises. The man was given ample opportunity to take positive control measures but after repeated warnings with no positive work done there was no recourse but to have an official notice issued under the Agricultural Pests Act. This is the first case of this type in the history of the province.

Full time Municipal and Provincial pest officers are engaged in an active rat war be realized these pests and prevent their westward movement. Generally very good co-operation is obtained reports Mr. Garbo. Occasionally indifference, however may give the pest officers an option but to apply legal sanctions.

WHAT'S GOING ON IN VERMILION?

Can you picture what life in your town would be like without a weekly newspaper?

You'd have nothing to keep you up to date on happenings right in your own neighbourhood.

If you had something to sell, you'd have to go out and look for a buyer. If you needed to buy something, you'd have to look all over town for it.

Your neighbours could marry, have children, or even die, without you hearing about it until much later.

Council could pass a by-law affecting you and you might never hear of it.

Plans for worthwhile community projects might never get started for lack of news and support.

And how would you keep up with the fortunes of the hockey team or the baseball club?

Fortunately, your town has a weekly newspaper, a source of local information that no other kind of publication can replace.

Over the years, Canadian weekly editors have lent their support unstintingly to many a good community effort. This year, for the first time, they are celebrating National Weekly Newspaper Week, and Imperial Oil is glad to participate in paying tribute to your weekly newspaper.

FARM ADVERTISING

I have been reading the advertisements lately because there are many lessons to be learned from them. They give a reliable picture of our living standard, they tell of our inventiveness, and a regular study of them gives a man a knowledge of current values. It seems to me that in high school, at the "Howdy Folks" level, young men and women should begin to read the ads. Then they would not be such Babes in the Woods when they are ready to set up their own business or step into commerce. There is some good advertising being done today, and some that is quite poor

The poorest advertising in my opinion, is that which is aimed at the farmer these days. In so much of it seems to be written by city men who don't know the farm language. Radio station announcers, too, often have strange notions of how farmers talk.

There is a farm language. But it is not "Hillbilly" stuff such as "Howdy Folks." I reckon you'll want to snap up the bargains I'm a-gonna tell you about . . . In my opinion, that kind of an advertiser is 'a-gonna' waste his money! And that announcer is 'a-gonna' get a punch in the nose some day from some irate farmer tired of being talked at as if he had just stepped out of the Ozarks.

Good farmers, like good mechanics or business men, do have a language, a vocabulary that suits the farming business To use the farmer's point of view, advertising writers ought to visit farms and talk with farmers. They would soon get better results from their advertising

Not long ago a big Canadian corporation ran a campaign in all the weekly newspapers in the country about a new kind of tractor fuel. I will bet dollars to peanuts that the campaign brought wonderful results. The ads talked the farm language, straightforwardly, business-like. There was no corny mention of Ma and Pa, or the 'folks out there.' The farmers were addressed as business men which they are. The advertisements dealt with farm facts, proved that more profit could be made on the farm by using this particular product.

Our competitive enterprise economy works best when production and consumption are high. Good advertising plays a big part in the latter It hurts to see it misused All advertisers who aim at the farm market would do well to remember that the farmer isn't a hillbilly he's a business man

REV. LAWSON RETURNS

Here is an item we had forgotten to mention in our Winks: How we enjoyed hearing Rev. Lawson of Calgary when he spoke at Auburndale church last month. He was once a student in our field, and the only one who married a local girl. We were very pleased to say hello to Dorothy, too. Rev. Lawson also dedicated the Sunday school rooms, newly built on the Auburndale church, the same Sunday.

LATE LORNE McLEAN HELD IN HIGH ESTEEM

The well filled church bespoke the high esteem Mr. McLean and his family hold in the town and surrounding districts. Rev. MacKay gave a very comforting service to the bereaved ones left to mourn his passing. His friendly smile and cheery word will be greatly missed by everyone, as he was so well known for miles around. May God comfort those who mourn in knowing he is now at rest where there is no more sickness or pain.

Nurse Holidays at Home

Peggy Graham, who spent three weeks at her home in Wildmere, returned to her nursing duties at the Royal Alex hospital in Edmonton on Saturday, Sept. 24th. She is now working in the isolation ward. Only four months more and then she will be through their training course Good luck to you, girls!

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Osterberg, Wildmere, on the birth of a baby son, Gary Raymond, at the local hospital, Sept. 21st. A brother for Gisela, Barry and Elaine.

Congratulations also to Mr. and Mrs. John Tomer of Town on the birth of a baby boy, too.

The rain and continuous damp weather of the past three weeks has kept the farmers from harvesting their grain. It is hoped it soon clears up and lets everyone get finished.

The train he worked for had show horses and went around to the various fairs Laurence attended the Michigan State Fair in Detroit for five days, besides numerous other fairs in Ontario It was very hot and dry for weeks while he was in the East On his way home he visited at Echo Bay, Ont., to see an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Graham and family, and other relatives.

A General Motors Value

After all, it really isn't considered good form to toot one's horn too loudly . . . HOWEVER . . . since the early months of this year, an unparalleled situation has existed and we can't contain ourselves any longer.

Pontiac—we've got to say it—is now up in the TOP 2 in automotive sales in Canada . . . second only to another General Motors product!

This isn't just a claim . . . it's a fact. Against the toughest competition, Pontiac has plain outsold every other manufacturer's cars.

It's a hats-off tribute to Canadian motorists, too, for their instant recognition of Pontiac's sterling worth. No doubt about it, they buy shrewdly and well where value counts.

Well, there it is! Pity, we had to be the ones to tell the story but that's the automotive industry for you.

THE WORLD OF WHEAT

by
W. S. MALLAMS,

ROBIN HOOD MULTIFOODS, LIMITED

PROTEIN CONTENT OF 1955 WHEAT

Following one of the wettest springs in recent years the outlook for a high protein crop last June was not too encouraging particularly since it was realized that should fairly heavy rains occur in the latter part of the season prospects quickly wise, would decline still further

Fortunately almost ideal weather conditions prevailed during the latter part of July and August with a good measure of sunshine and above normal temperatures in most areas As a result of these conditions the 1955 crop now promises to be of a very much higher quality than that which has been harvested during the past few years and to have a protein content which is almost equal to the long time average of 13.5% Preliminary estimates of protein levels show Manitoba with 13.8% Saskatchewan 13.1% and Alberta 12.9% One of the most interesting things noted about this year's protein levels is the fact that for the first time since 1942 Manitoba has produced wheat of a higher protein level than the other two provinces

The importance of a high grade crop in western Canada, coming at a time of keen competition in the world grain markets, cannot be overstated.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Significant Changes Taking Place In Department of Municipal Affairs

EDMONTON Some significant changes are taking place in the organization of the provincial department of municipal affairs — the department which administers all of the government's policies toward municipalities, including grants and loans.

John W. Judge, deputy minister of municipal affairs for the past ten years, retired officially last week at the age of 67. He is being succeeded by 42-year-old Angus W. Morrison, who was promoted from the post of chief municipal inspector.

There has been no official announcement regarding another possible change. But word drifting around government circles is that a new branch will be formed in municipal affairs for the purpose of maintaining closer liaison with Alberta's towns, cities, villages and municipal districts.

Coupled with this is the recent announcement that Blake MacKenzie is no longer co-ordinator of cultural activities, and the report that he is being shifted to municipal affairs. Some observers are putting two and two together and coming up with the answer that Mr. MacKenzie will head the new branch.

These changes don't mean the government is going to come out with generous new grants or anything but it does seem to indicate an attempt to develop closer communication between the two levels of government.

A complaint in the past has been that the government maintains an attitude of aloofness toward the municipalities, which have to depend on the senior administration for much of their financing.

Although the term 'public relations' won't be used, the new branch probably will be a bureau which will work closely with the municipalities, explain government policies and listen to the arguments of the municipal authorities. Financing is the main headache of local government at the present time, and it could be the new branch will have its work cut out for it.

Mr. MacKenzie is suited for the job if he gets it. He has a background of public relations work and has worked in radio. In addition he has met with various officials throughout the province in his work as co-ordinator of cultural activities.

The department of municipal affairs, besides being one of the most important departments of government, is also one of the toughest to handle. Members of Premier Manning's cabinet regard the job of keeping the municipalities happy as one of the major headaches.

Perhaps this was the reason for shifting Hon. A. J. Hooke from public works to municipal affairs in the summer cabinet shuffle. Mr. Hooke is one of the most personable of the thirteen cabinet members. At the time of the shuffle, some observers said he was the man with the personality most likely to do a good job of maintaining peaceful relations with the municipalities.

DOMINION-PROVINCIAL CONFERENCE

Members of Alberta's delegation to the dominion-provincial fiscal conference left Edmonton for Ottawa at the week end. But when it came to discussing what Alberta has to propose as a solution to financing problems, they were as silent as a man holding a royal flush in a game of stud.

In fact, one high official said preparations for the conference were very much like a game of poker. It would be regarded as little short of disaster for Alberta to tip her hand. Any proposals or arguments had to be kept a secret, until the exact psychological moment when they could be given to the conference.

The same officials said Prime Minister St. Laurent was 'letting a balloon go' and hoping for an outburst of provincial comment when he hinted that the present tax-rental agreements be scrapped and the provinces be placed back into the income and corporation tax fields.

However, from previous statements it is indicated that Premier Manning would propose new agreements to meet new circumstances. He already has proposed that the conference discuss municipal financial requirements, which he described as among the most serious problems facing provincial governments.

Municipal authorities are hoping for some sort of new deal to arise out of the conference. Accompanying the Alberta delegation as official observers were C. P. Hayes, of Strome, representing rural municipalities, and Edmonton's Mayor Hawrelak representing the urban centres.

WOODVALE NOTES

When will the weather change and bring us an Indian summer lasting long enough to finish the harvesting? That is the big $64 question. We hope it will be soon.

Mrs C McGrath went to Edmonton on Sept. 25 for a visit with her sister Mrs Keeley. She was accompanied by Mr and Mrs. D McGrath, Bill and Eleanor who returned the same day after calling at the homes of several friends in the city.

BIRTHS TO DISTRICT FAMILIES

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs Wes Isley on the birth of a daughter Lorna Jean on Wednesday Sept 28. It does not happen very often, but this baby was an aunt already at birth of a 12 day old niece Diane Violet Wells. Mrs. J Rose is looking after Mary and the family at the Isley home. We heard also of two more babies, born to former Tolland and Thorncliffe girls. Mrs. W Stark of Olds (nee Fia Hean), a little girl, 6½ pounds named Eleanor Joan on Sept 5 and Mrs Cecil Patton (nee Rosabelle Glidden) of Edmonton a big girl 8 pounds, named Shirley Helen.

IRENE WOLTERS, PRESIDENT OF NEW CLUB

The Woodvale schoolchildren have formed an organization called the Woodvale Willing Workers who will meet every two weeks. Irene Wolters is president, Margaret McGrath vice president, Jo Ann Hohol is secretary and Margaret Nelson treasurer. They are planning at present for a Hallowe'en school party and hope to accomplish many projects throughout the school year.

Mr and Mrs Brooks Lyons, Arthur and Jimmy of Edmonton were week end visitors at the home of Mrs E. Lyons.

Injuries Suffered In Car Accident Near Elk Point

Lack of rear reflectors or lighting on a trailer loaded with lumber is alleged as the cause of a motor accident one mile south of Elk Point on October 5. Three people were injured in the accident.

Most seriously hurt was Miss Donna Arrbo of Elk Point who lost one eye, suffered a broken nose and head injuries. She is a patient in the University hospital.

Ted Smythe of Lloydminster is in the Elk Point hospital with a broken hip and rib injuries.

Marvin Little of Vermilion, the driver of the car, has a broken nose and knee and hip injuries but is not confined to hospital. A fourth passenger Morris McGinnis of Elk Point was not hurt. The car was a total wreck.

It appears that both vehicles were travelling south just after dark, 7:15 p.m. The tractor was being driven by John Borutski of Elk Point who was taking home a load of lumber on a trailer. The lumber it is claimed projected over the end of the trailer. Little says that no lights or reflectors were visible to him, and that he ran into the projecting lumber.

City and Country Curlers On Equal Basis

New MacDonald-Brier Play-Off Plan Will Eliminate Inequalities

The many complaints from curlers outside of Edmonton regarding Macdonald-Brier preliminaries will be eliminated this winter. The play-off leading to the selection of the Macdonald-Brier rink from Northern Alberta will see twelve rural rinks and four rinks from Edmonton competing for the honor.

Previous to this as many Edmonton rinks as pleased entered the play-off with rural entries restricted to winners of zone play-offs. These zone play-offs were never overly well planned and few country rinks found their way into the city for the final eliminations.

This is all being remedied by a completely new organization. The whole province is now divided into zones, and each zone elects its own officers whose duty it is to see that the champion of that district is crowned and competes in the Northern Alberta championships in Edmonton.

At a meeting held in Vermilion Friday evening, this area, known as Zone No. 8, and comprised of seventeen curling clubs, elected the following officers:

President — Fred Braithwaite, Dewberry
Vice-Pres. — H. D. Whitson, Mannville
Secretary — Lowell Croft, Kitscoty

Executive Members — Dr. Cholod, Myrnam; A. Welin, Rivercourse; Tom Smith, Buffalo Coulee; Aldous Kent, Vermilion.

All parts of the zone are thus represented on the executive.

Aldous Kent of Vermilion was appointed convener for Zone 8. It is his duty to organize and manage the play-offs in the zone and to attend the curling association meetings in Edmonton.

A meeting is planned soon to set up rules governing the play-offs in Zone 8.

ASSOCIATION OFFICIALS PRESENT

Leading the discussion at the Vermilion meeting were Mr. Shim Laskin, vice-president of the Alberta Curling Association, and Mr. Ken Witten, well known city lawyer and curler. Mr. Witten outlined the past differences between rural curling clubs and Edmonton in the manner in which Macdonald-Brier play-offs were run, with a view to ironing out all difficulties and to set up a new, efficient and fair play off system. They hoped to thus heal the breach which has developed over this question between country and city curlers.

17 CLUBS IN ZONE 8

Zone 8 includes seventeen curling clubs and of these, eight clubs were represented, 22 curlers being present. The clubs represented were Dewberry, Kitscoty, Mannville, Myrnam, Rivercourse, Minburn, Lloydminster, Vermilion.

INVITED TO CITY TO CURL

Edmonton curlers are planning a social event for Nov 11 when 34 rinks from the country will be invited for games and a social day. This will be an annual event with different clubs being invited each year.

1956 FORD IS MAJOR PRIZE

Capacity Crowd Expected At The Curling Club's Bingo Saturday

With lovely weather prevailing, harvest nearing completion and a breath-taking new '1956' Ford as the feature prize, the Curling Club's final car bingo for the season on Saturday night is expected to be the biggest of the series.

The bingo that gets underway at 9:15 p.m. in the arena rink Saturday, will be the eighth and last one of 1955. This means that, besides the 11 other fine prizes won each bingo, nearly $20,000 in cars have been won by the lucky players.

That lucky player this time could be you — IF you attend! All it costs is $2 for the whole 12 games with extra cards two for $1. The chill will be taken off the rink if the weather is cold — but who cares! Bundle up and win yourself a 1956 Ford for two bucks. See you there!

Besides the very first 1956 model car offered at any car bingo, the following eleven fine prizes will be played for: Coffee table, Tri-lite, Chime clock, Flash Camera, Luggage set, Sunbeam Shavemaster, Pair of Wool Blankets, Mantel radio, Grocery hamper, Man's 2 piece suit (or equivalent), Sunbeam deep fry.

Air Cadets Ride Again

A week from Saturday, that is October 22nd, there will be a lot of excited young air cadets. It has been arranged to have a Dakota aircraft flown to Vermilion from the search and rescue squadron at RCAF station Namao. It will be here at 10:00 a.m. when the first group of cadets will be taken aloft for a flight. The Dakota seats approximately twenty passengers so it is expected to make three flights to give all the boys a ride.

If time and weather permit it is hoped that each of the flights will be able to take the cadets for a ride as far north as the big air base at Cold Lake.

This is the fourth annual outing of this nature for the cadets and has become an eagerly awaited and popular part of their winter's program.

FIRE LOSS

Are you a careful smoker" or a non-smoker"? If the answer is "yes", you are not one of the persons responsible for Alberta's most frequent cause of fire. Las year 907 fires causing $1,080,843 property loss was the result of smokers' carelessness.

Old Time Mannville Resident Passes

Funeral services have been arranged to take place at St Olga's Ukrainian Catholic church in Vermilion, on Saturday, October 15th at 9:30 a.m.

The need for a new floor and furnace were the main items of discussion and it seems that the new floor is about to be realized. [illegible] the young people who have contributed a goodly sum toward the new floor could have the privilege of enjoying it before they are off to distant parts.

At time of writing a good used furnace is being installed, so a warm community hall for the winter is assured.

It was decided at a board meeting to hold dances the first and third Fridays in each month all winter starting Nov. 4th. [illegible]

SO ONE WANTS RATS—

That no one wants rats is a very obvious statement, but Vermilion will have them within two years if the proper precautions are not taken. From now on every resident of Vermilion and area is necessary

Mr. Bert Hesnick, Superintendent of the Agricultural Services Board for the Vermilion River M.D., who has extensive experience in direct ing rat warfare in the eastern half of the municipal district, made a partial survey in Vermilion recently and pointed out many places which he classed as ideal for rat habitation and breeding.

If now rests upon town authorities to have a complete survey of the town made, all conditions conducive to harbouring rats plugged out, and those cleaned up and eliminated. Half way measures are useless. The battle against rats should be started now, the more thorough-going the better, and the legislation enacted by the town council making it compulsory to see that conditions favourable for maintaining a rat free town be strictly enforced.
